

OROZCO REPORTED TO HAVE ESCAPED TO AMERICAN SIDE

Rebel Leader Thought to Have Crossed Border and American Troops Are on His Trail

Marfa, Tex., Sept. 16.—General Pascual Orozco, Jr., is reported among the fleeing rebels who crossed Texas yesterday after the federals captured Ojinaga. It is impossible here to confirm the report. United States troops are after the band of which Orozco is said to be a member. Pascual Orozco, Sr., father of the leader, crossed directly into Presidio with 12 companions and all were placed under surveillance by United States authorities.

El Paso, Sept. 16.—Fighting ceased when Ojinaga was retaken yesterday by the federals. Reports from Presidio are that the rebels retreated into the hills to the south. Advances have been received that General Steever and United States army officers captured 150 rebels from Ojinaga at Presidio. The federal loss in the fighting is given as light. The rebel loss is unknown.

Mexico City, Sept. 16.—Mexican federal troops won a costly victory Saturday in the vicinity of Oaxaca when they succeeded in routing an attacking force of 4000 Indians, led by Zapatistas, after three days' fighting. After falling back from the state capital before the heavy federal artillery fire, the rebels captured San Felipe and 251a, but subsequently were driven from these towns, not, however, before they

HAYWOOD PLACED UNDER ARREST ON AN OLD CHARGE

Industrial Worker Leader Indicted for Conspiracy in Connection With Recent Lawrence Strike.

Boston, Sept. 16.—William D. Haywood of Denver, general organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World, was arrested here yesterday on a capias warrant issued as the result of the indictment charging him with conspiracy in connection with the strike of textile workers in Lawrence last winter. He was released on $1000 bond.

The exact nature of the conspiracy with which Haywood is charged was not mentioned in the indictment. Just before his arrest Haywood, in addressing a mass meeting of 15,000 persons, on Boston common, had sounded a call for a general strike of New England workers to begin a nation-wide movement as a protest against the "arrest, imprisonment and trial of Ettore Giovannitti and Caruso."

These three Industrial Workers, who were active during the Lawrence strike, are charged with complicity of murder in connection with the shooting of a striker, Anna LaPizze, during a riot in Lawrence last January.

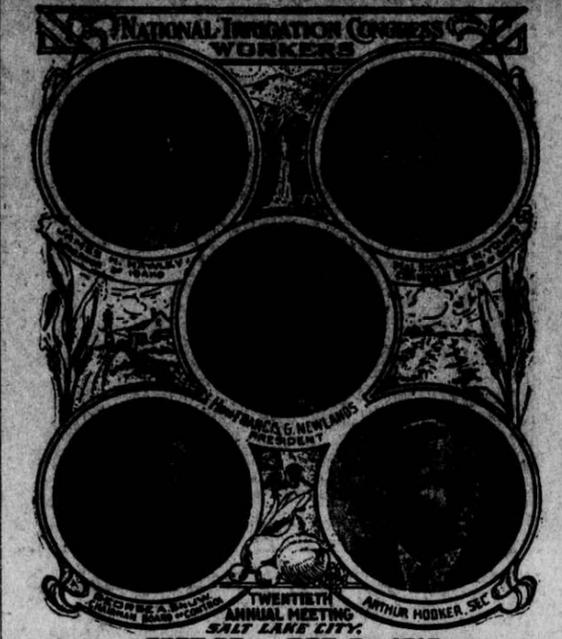

At yesterday's meeting banners were displayed calling for the release of the three leaders and Haywood was cheered when he cried:

"To 'Open Jail Doors.' We will open the jail doors or close the mill gates." In urging a general strike the speaker declared it probable by the end of the coming week, and said it surely would come before September 30, the date set for the beginning of the leaders' trials. He advised the assembled workers to begin the strike today.

"If you leave your benches tomorrow, you will make no mistake," he said. "Any time between now and September 30 will do, but the sooner the better. If you go out tomorrow you will be the forerunners, the vanguard of a great movement for freedom."

A reorganization of the railway mail service and increased pay for postal clerks was authorized in the recently enacted postoffice appropriation bill. The project was urged by Postmaster General Hitchcock in the belief that it would result in greater efficiency in the service and in promotions on fairer lines.

REFUSE TO SAY A WORD ABOUT THE ROSENTHAL CASE

"Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie" Maintain Absolute Silence Concerning Gambler's Murder.

New York, Sept. 16.—Harry Horowitz, alias "Gyp the Blood," and "Lefty Louie" Rosenthal, in preparing for arraignment today on indictments charging them with the murder of Herman Rosenthal, evinced no more disposition to make admissions than yesterday, when Assistant District Attorney Moss questioned them for three hours. Forty letters and postcards found in their room may furnish important information. Detectives ransacked their apartments and beneath the boards of the floor and carpets correspondence was found.

At the request of counsel for Horowitz and Rosenthal the pleading was adjourned until Sept. 18. The wives of the prisoners and Max Kahn, an alleged pickpocket, are held as material witnesses.

Clearfield, Pa., Sept. 16.—Heavily armed men are searching the swamps and forests for John Keeler, a teamster, who fatally shot John W. Koesner, a wealthy brewer, and seriously injured three clerks Saturday night. Keeler, who served 10 years in the army chiefly as a scout in the Philippines, was found near here Sunday. He held his pursuers with a rifle shouting: "I got four, but want six more." He is a dead shot and not likely to be taken alive. The trouble was over wages.

TERMS OF WILL MADE BY SCOTCHMAN CAUSE OF YOUTH'S UNDOING

Denver, Sept. 16.—Clarence T. Hutchins, aged 36, scion of a wealthy Phoenix, Ariz., family, was today absolved of complicity in an alleged automobile swindle upon recommendation of Governor Shafer. Hutchins had undertaken to qualify as co-heir with his younger brother to a large estate left by his grandfather in Scotland. The will provides that both boys are not to share in the estate till they have saved enough to build a home and have been married. Hutchins received assurance from his fiancée, Miss Gene Blair, of a very prominent St. Louis family, that despite the accusations, she was ready to accept him when he meets the other requirements of the will.

NO ANSWERS TO THE ARBITRATION PLAN OF GOV. GLASSCOCK

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 16.—Interest in the strike situation centered today in answers to Governor Glasscock of the coal operators and miners relative to his plan of arbitration. It is expected that the miners will be prepared to accept the plan of arbitration now, but the operators have not formulated their objections to the plan and it was stated that the governor would hear nothing from them till later in the day.

A MESSAGE TO THE WOMEN OF THIS CITY

By J. R. HAMILTON.

Former Advertising Manager of Wanamaker's, Philadelphia.

This paper has long sought for the one best method of helping the women of this city. And to that end we have consulted the greatest Economists in America.

There are ten thousand families taking this paper today. Newspapers figure five readers to every subscriber, which means the remarkable total of fifty thousands of people who must derive their news and their views from these pages.

Now how can we help you—all of you—to secure a still greater benefit for yourselves? You are scattered from one end of this City to the other. You are mingled in all of the various walks of life. Some of you are only concerned with the bare necessities; others only with the luxuries of life.

But not one of you, no matter who you may be, has actually enough money to release you from all desire.

Now what is the answer and what is the cure? Business men will tell you that the answer lies in the "high cost of living." Economists will tell you it lies in the lowered buying power of money. But it makes no difference. The result is the same. We only know that we cannot buy any more today for a dollar than we could ten years ago for fifty cents.

And you Mrs. Wage-Earner's Wife need not envy Mrs. Income. For she is having just as much trouble as you have. She gets more, but she needs more, and far more at that.

So let us not be concerned with the question but with the cure.

That cure lies entirely in the careful selection of merchandise that has a fair price, and in allowing the things upon which the producers have exacted exorbitant demands to rot in their factories. The merchants will all be with you in this. They hate these unnatural demands as much as you do. They are constantly advertising the best values they have in order to do away with this undesirable high cost. And if you will only give more attention to what they advertise, you will undoubtedly do away with your high cost.

When more women learn how to buy and to cook a rump steak, you bet the price of porterhouse will come down. When more women learn how to make a dollar worth a dollar, these fancy, swollen prices will melt like ice in the sun.

Help the merchants to help you. Read what they have to say to you every day. Pick the best that they offer. They want you to.

To read their advertising in this paper is the best message we can give to every home. For their advertising is the watch dog of your pocketbook.

TRAINING CUTTER IS CAPSIZED AND TEN LIVES LOST

Vessel Is Struck by Squall off of Chicago—Rescue Boat Also Capsized Near the Shore.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—The investigation was renewed by the United States training school at North Chicago today to determine the number of apprentice men who lost their lives yesterday afternoon in the accident on Lake Michigan off Lake Bluff. Besides the five identified dead the belief prevailed that five and possibly seven others were drowned when the cutter they were on was blown over. Chief Gunner's Mate Negis, in charge of the apprentice, disappeared soon after the tragedy and his safety is feared for. Thirteen of the young men, who were taken to the government hospital, are reported recovered.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Five naval apprentices were drowned and five are missing as the result of the capsizing of a cutter from the United States naval training station at North Chicago, Ill., late yesterday afternoon. The bodies of five of the victims were recovered and identified and it is believed the five boys unaccounted for were drowned. The five identified dead are: R. C. HARLAN, 18 years old, Bloomington, Ind. I. L. SOUTHWORTH, 18 years old, Pittsburg, Pa. J. WALLACE, 18 years old, Turner, Ind. W. N. ANTROBUS, 21 years old, Indianapolis, Ind. J. FATTEN, 23 years old, Stanton, Ohio.

The boys were between 16 and 20 years of age and were from the middle and western states.

The party left the training station shortly after 2 o'clock in charge of Gunner's Mate Meagus, and after cruising about until 4 o'clock the cutter was headed for North Chicago.

A few minutes later, while the cutter was north of Lake Forest, a squall struck the boat, the sails were lowered and an anchor was thrown into the water. Gunner's Mate M. N. Nezes, it is said, planned to let the cutter ride out the storm, but the waves soon were running so high that the boat dragged its anchor, and gradually was being driven on the beach.

When within 500 feet of the shore, the cutter was overturned, and its occupants were thrown into the water. Captain W. F. Fullman, commandant of the naval training station, saw the danger from his headquarters and sent a motor boat to the rescue, but this craft was capsized before it had gone far and the men in charge were obliged to swim back to the shore. A number were rescued from the surf by officers of the training station and cared for at houses near the scene of the wreck.

CARRARA PROPOSED FOR PRESIDENT OF THE NEW REPUBLIC

New Orleans, Sept. 16.—Mansuet Carrara, president of Guatemala, was proposed for first president of the projected union of Central American republics at the independence day celebration yesterday. Carrara, of the republic, official representative of half a dozen Latin-American republics and many prominent voters were present at the meeting.

The Republican state central committee will not be called to pass upon the demand for Senator Borah to resign from the Republican ticket in accordance with the suggestion made by him in his Meridian meeting.

This is the statement made by Secretary Davis of the state committee this afternoon. "The committee will not be called together," he said. "I can see no reason for the committee meeting at this time. Senator Borah says that he is a Republican and we are willing to let him work out his own plans in his own way. The state committee has no quarrel with him and matters will be allowed to run along in just the same way."

This is regarded as a distinct victory for Senator Borah and as a surrender upon the part of the head of the state central committee, which has been known to have been energetically engaged in an effort to force Senator Borah to declare for Taft. State Chairman Day has especially been open in this demand. But Senator Borah instead of coming out for Taft distinctly shows that Taft's nomination was secured by fraud and that Taft's policies have not been in accord with Republican principles as interpreted by Borah, who gave his record to show wherein the two leaders differ in such policies.

Open Challenge Issued. Repeated and frequent demand has been made upon Senator Borah to come out for Taft and his Republicanism has frequently been questioned by the state organization and its closest advisers. In his Meridian speech delivered Saturday night, the senator openly challenged the state committee to meet and demand his resignation on the ground that he is not in harmony with the presidential nominee, thus putting it squarely up to the party organization to pass upon the differences between him and the head of the organization and other followers of Taft.

The refusal of the state committee, or of the state chairman and secretary, to call the state committee together, is considered as a surrender upon their part and as indicating an intention upon the part of that organization to abandon further campaign in behalf of Taft in the state. The reason for this is, as pointed out by those who have carefully studied the situation, that it would be impossible for the state committee to continue its campaign for Borah, who declares the nomination of Taft to have been fraudulently made and the same time attempt to campaign in behalf of the fraudulent nominee.

State Candidates Fight. The candidates upon the state ticket, it is stated, are in constant communication. The candidates and committees are called together quite conveniently, as nearly all of them reside in this city. The purpose of their meeting is to discuss the attitude of Senator Borah as indicated in his Meridian speech and to determine what course the state candidates shall pursue.

There is a growing conviction that the state campaign will be a part of "free for all" in which each candidate will be expected to make a personal campaign in his own territory, abandoning all other candidates to their own fate. The necessity for this is manifest, so it is explained, in the fact that scarcely any two of them hold views in common, except upon aspects of Taft, which has been made significant, at least, even if not fundamental, by the fact that each candidate is a candidate for the state committee.

It is hinted, however, that the state committee will have to consider the situation which confronts the party and that some of them believe that Senator Borah will get the ticket.
