

NIGHT OF FUN IS ENJOYED BY THE BUTTE BOOSTERS

Visitors Leave City After Making Things Lively for the Day—Lieutenant Governor Praises Borah.

"It is time the great west was offering presidential timber. We have let the people of the east make their own selection already too long. Whenever Idaho has the right man to offer, the people of Montana will unite behind him in his campaign for the presidency of the United States," declared W. R. Allen, lieutenant governor of Montana, in a message to the people of Boise last night.

In speaking of the matter later, he said, "Tell Senator Borah for me that I am very sorry he was not able to be here at this time. I have watched his work in congress while elsewhere and my heart is with him. I am also sorry that Governor Hawley was out of the city because we should have liked to meet him while we were here."

The governor also spoke of the resources of the two states, their similarity in necessities—more people and more capital—and hoped that some day a railroad would be built between this city and Butte to better unite Montana and Idaho.

Live Boosters Leave.

Homebound! The live bunch of live wires that has sizzled in Boise in a long time pulled out on their special train at 11:15 o'clock last night. Their enthusiasm was contagious. They marched down the street with the band playing and the boosters cheering while some of their most "cut up" ones danced the Turkey Trot, the Grizzly Bear and what was called the "Bull Moose Wiggle."

A. P. Henningsen, a millionaire of Butte, got the punishment that the boosters have been planning for him for a long time. On the train to Boise, he amused himself by firing a squirt gun of water on everybody within range until all aboard vowed eternal vengeance the first chance they could get. Last night it came. When he was least expecting it, the fire department was called out and he found himself the only one directly in line with a powerful stream from a Boise fire hose.

While he was struggling to escape, R. L. Ruhie grabbed him and held him in line with the stream of water until he was thoroughly drenched and the vengeance of the boosters had been satisfied. Nobody was more enthusiastic in the laugh that followed than Henningsen himself and he enjoyed the joke as much as any of the rest of the Butte and Boise people gathered to see the fun. He gathered himself up singing "Nobody Knows How Dry I Am."

The Band Concerts.

Thousands of Boise people heard the famous Boston & Montana band at the steps of the new state house last night. The streets were lined with people while the grounds and steps of the capitol were well crowded.

"Custer's Death," by the band, was one of the most applauded numbers on a thoroughly interesting program. The bugle calls of the entrapped troopers sounding for help, the war notes of the Indians closing in on their quarry, all of the realism of the great battle that ended in the massacre of Custer and his men in the fight on the Little Big Horn, seemed to be brought out by the musicians from their instruments.

"Cream of Opera," "The Star of the Sea," a cornet solo by Professor Holman, the band leader, and other numbers pleased the crowd and the applause followed along in quick succession from one number to another. "The Brandilo" march, which the band won a $1000 prize in Los Angeles some time ago, was loudly applauded.

REPORT OF FIGHTING IN SOUTHERN MEXICO

Mexico City, Sept. 21.—Reports of fighting in the southern states or renewed rebel activity around Agua Prieta and the American border and the lack of information as to General Orozco's whereabouts, sorely troubles the Madero government tonight. In the city rebellion is held down only by a show of troops.

Much was made by the government of General Rivera's success in raising the siege of Oaxaca, after a fierce encounter today. But this victory was overshadowed in the popular mind by the report that 100 federal soldiers had been massacred at LaBarria by Indians and Zapatistas. A relief has been dispatched to LaBarria, but cannot reach there before Monday.

Elevated Car Jumps Track.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—One hundred and fifty passengers on an Oak park elevated train fought to escape from a car which jumped the track at the Jackson boulevard bridge over the Chicago river late tonight. Ten feet of the car hung over the river. The motor of the train short circuited and started a fire in the car. The flames were extinguished and the panic stricken passengers finally quieted by the guards. No one was injured.

SMART SET MAY ATTEND HEARING

Supreme Court Declares That Congress Never Intended Entries Should Be Made Through 'Dummies.'

Washington, Sept. 21.—The rush of society women for seats at the campaign and hearings which are to be begun September 30, by the Clapp committee of the senate, was redoubled today when it became known that the committee may call Mrs. Mary Harriman, widow of E. H. Harriman, the railroad king, and Miss Lissie Bliss, daughter of the late Cornelius N. Bliss, as witnesses. If the committee decides to admit the general public to the hearings they will probably be as well attended as the Titanic inquiry, which when diplomatic and the smart set fought for tickets of admission and places of advantage. The members of the committee, Senators Clapp, Paynter, Pomeroy, Oliver and Jones are expected here next Friday and go over the preliminary plans for the investigation already arranged by Chairman Clapp. The summoning of all the witnesses thus far named include J. P. Morgan, the Rockefellers and associates of Harriman, is entirely dependent upon the committee's approval.

Senator Clapp said tonight he believed all of his colleagues would be here on Friday and that there would be no delay in beginning the taking of testimony a week from Monday. Colonel Roosevelt is scheduled to appear on the following Tuesday, but aside from the message to a local Progressive leader that Roosevelt would be here on that date Clapp said tonight that he had received no word, official or otherwise, as to Roosevelt's attendance.

It is practically settled that John D. Archbold will be the first witness.

CARLOAD OF GRAPES STRAIGHT TO BOISE

That the wholesale business of Boise is rapidly growing and the demand on brokers here is now greater than ever before, showing to a certainty that Boise is rapidly increasing in population and expanding in a business way, was demonstrated yesterday through the announcement of Rully Atkinson, member of the firm of Fritchman-Atkinson company, jobbers, that they will deliver to the Boise Ice & Produce company tomorrow a solid carload of Tokay grapes, billed from California straight through to Boise.

This car will be the first of its kind shipped into Boise from the west. Carload lots have come in from the east before but not from the west, it is said. The grapes will be handled exclusively in Boise and consumed in this city. Heretofore most of the western grapes have been shipped into Boise by local freight. The transfer of a solid carload indicates that rapid development experienced by the Boise markets.

HILLES SAYS BORAH WILL BE DISPATCHED TO PENNSYLVANIA

Pittsburg, Sept. 21.—With the settlement of the Pennsylvania Republican electoral muddle reasonably certain by September 30, the first of October will see a political turmoil such as has not been evident in the Keystone state for years. The Democrats already have booked Governor Wilson, Governor Marshall, Senator O'Gorman of New York, Congressman Oscar Underwood, Louis Brandeis and Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, with Bryan expected, for speeches in various parts of the state. The Taft forces, also working over the electoral ticket mix-up, have announced a few plans, although Mayor Magee of this city is said to have been told by Chairman Hilles that Governor Hadley and Senator Borah will be sent to Pennsylvania for Taft.

FARES FOR THOSE WHO VOTE RIGHT

Washington, Sept. 21.—Impecunious voters among government employees will be sent home to vote for Governor Wilson with funds subscribed by local Democrats, it was announced today. The local Wilson-Marshall club is taking subscriptions to pay railroad fares for Democrats who will "vote right" at home. Thousands of government employees will go home to vote. Republican managers are also preparing to amass a "travel fund" to send voters home, but the Democrats showed their hand first.

SENATORS MAY GO TO MEXICO CITY

Washington, Sept. 21.—Although state department officials disclaimed knowledge, it was strongly rumored here today that Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan, and Senator Fall of New Mexico are going as a committee to Mexico City for a personal inspection of actual conditions of the rebellion. The senators have been conducting a similar inquiry on this side of the border, with headquarters at El Paso, Tex.

SPECULATION IN DESERT ENTRIES HELD ILLEGAL

Supreme Court Declares That Congress Never Intended Entries Should Be Made Through 'Dummies.'

It was not the intention of congress in enacting desert land laws to permit desert entries to be made by persons who were to be dummies for others or by persons who had no intention to reclaim the land but relinquish it to others to be held temporarily merely for the purpose of speculation, according to an opinion handed down late yesterday in the case of Otto A. Altschul versus Charles E. Rogers, an action to recover on a promissory note in which judgment was given for Rogers in the Fourth judicial district court, Judge Walters presiding, and Altschul appealed. The supreme court affirms the judgment of the lower court. John Garrett, former manager of the defendant Great Western company, is severely grilled. The opinion was written by Justice Sullivan and is concurred in by Chief Justice Stewart and Justice Aitshie.

Grow Out of Garrett's Transactions.

The litigation grew out of the trouble at Mountain Home over the Great Western Beet Sugar Irrigation project. Action was brought to recover upon a promissory note executed by Rogers, May 11, 1908, in favor of the Great Western Beet Sugar company, for $2200, with interest at the rate of 7 per cent from that date. Upon the note there was a credit of $100. Rogers had bought a water right from the company for 200 acres of land, for which he was to pay $6400, or at the rate of $32 per acre. He paid $2000 in cash and gave two notes for $2200 each. It appears that he was to secure a relinquishment of a former filing on the land without cost to him and that he did pay $100 for the relinquishment, which was placed to his credit. The court states the record shows John Garrett, former manager of the defendant company, entered into an agreement with Altschul by which he agreed to pay him $1850 for a certain desert entry relinquishment. The payments were to be made as Garrett would need the land for locating parties to whom he had sold water rights. As security on his deal Altschul exacted from Garrett a water right for 320 acres of land and in addition to that the note in litigation. The entry, 160 acres, cost Altschul about $100, and shortly after he had made the deal Garrett took over 80 acres of the entry and paid Altschul $550 cash, leaving the other 80 acres still in the control of Altschul.

ASKS HER FATHER NOT TO ACCEPT THE REWARD FOR ALLEN

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 21.—Baldwin detectives were informed today that Frank Iroler, of Mount Airy, N. C., father of the sweetheart of Wesley Edwards, who led the detectives to Des Moines and caused the arrest of Edwards and Sidna Allen, Hillsville outlaw, will refuse part of the reward offered for their capture.

Iroler was to receive $500 for "tipping off" the detectives to Edwards' retreat through his daughter, Maude Iroler, Edwards' 18-year-old fiancée, is said to have begged her father to refuse what she declares is "blood money." Arraignment of Allen and Edwards is scheduled Monday in the Hillsville court house where five persons were killed by the clan last March. They will be taken from jail here, heavily manacled and guarded although no attempt to rescue them at Hillsville is anticipated, dozen of the Allen family and other mountaineers are expected to crowd the courtroom for the arraignment.

ACTIVE CAMPAIGN WILL BE WAGED

Ada County Executive Committee Outlines Plans for Aggressive Fight.

The executive committee of the Ada county Republican central committee held a conference last night at headquarters at which the plans for the campaign were gone over and it was decided to wage a vigorous campaign for the election of the county ticket from top to bottom. The campaign of speaking will not cover a long period but there will be speakers of prominence sent out under the auspices of the organization to speak in behalf of the candidates. Candidates will be expected to get into the political harness to meet electors over the county and there will be activity for the entire ticket straight down the line.

Borah is the issue.

When interviewed yesterday as to his plans for the campaign and the issues involved, Chairman Blaine said: "With but a little over a month before us we propose to make a strenuous campaign in behalf of the entire county ticket and will center our efforts to roll up the old time Republican majorities that in past years have been given in support of the Republican county candidates."

"I am particularly anxious to impress upon the electors of this county the fact that the paramount issue is the re-election of Senator William E. Borah. Many people fail to appreciate the fact that under our present laws our United States senators are elected by the legislature and therefore in order to secure the re-election of Senator Borah it is necessary that the next legislature is Republican by a substantial majority. The fact that Senator Borah received a flattering vote at the primary election as the party's choice for his re-election, it is necessary to elect the Republican legislative candidates in this and other counties to accomplish this."

Work for Entire Ticket.

"The legislative candidates in Ada county on the Republican ticket have strongly pledged their votes, should they be elected, to Senator Borah, and assured their constituents they will be untiring in his behalf. That pledge brings the issue squarely before electors. The election of the Republican legislative ticket means six votes in the next legislature for Senator Borah. Every effort will be put forth by the Republican county committee to secure the election of this ticket. A vote for that ticket means a vote for Senator Borah. I cannot urge this too strongly upon the voters of Ada county."

"The campaign is progressing satisfactorily. There are many willing workers and we are daily receiving assurances of support from all parts of the county. I feel satisfied that the Republican county ticket will be elected from top to bottom."

Fraud Perpetrated.

"Altschul had received from Garrett the promissory note as security on a contract out of which he had already netted $450 and still retained one-half of the land involved in the transaction. He knew that the promissory note was given for a water right that never existed and that a fraud had been perpetrated upon the respondent in order to procure said note, and that no consideration was given for said note. "The evidence is amply sufficient to shift the burden of proof upon Altschul to show that he acquired the note in good faith and for value without notice of any defects in the title of the company from which he purchased it."

"The entire case was submitted to the jury on the evidence and we think the evidence is sufficient to sustain the verdict. Some question is raised as to the sufficiency of the instructions given by the court to the jury. Under the facts of this case we are satisfied that the instructions state the law and that the court did not err in giving them. "The judgment is affirmed."

Friends of Senator Plan to Extend Organization to Every Part of the State This Week.

BORAH CLUBS ARE TO BE ORGANIZED IN EVERY COUNTY

Friends of Senator Plan to Extend Organization to Every Part of the State This Week.

Borah clubs will be organized without delay in every county in the state of Idaho. This decision was reached yesterday by friends of the junior senator who, armed with petitions, are preparing to enroll every friend of Senator Borah in a local organization to be known in each county by that name. The petitions will this week be sent broadcast over the state and placed in the hands of active and enthusiastic workers who realize that the re-election issue in the campaign this fall and who propose to force into the open his enemies so that the present fight being made under cover by them can be properly exposed. # DEPOSITIONS IN THE BECKER CASE

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 21.—The trial of Charles Becker, of New York, for the murder of Gamber Herman Rosenthal, practically began in Arkansas today with the taking of depositions of two witnesses by District Attorney Whitman and his assistant, J. Robert Rubin. The district attorney sought to refute the claim made in New York by Becker's counsel that Sam Schepps, gambler and paymaster of the Rosenthal murderers, made statements in Hot Springs exculpating the police lieutenant. Acting Mayor Tom Pettit, and John L. Sullivan, a newspaperman, were examined. They failed to state anything that tended to show that Schepps exonerated Becker in any of his conversations but John Hart, counsel for Becker, said that he was satisfied with the evidence so far as the investigation of the conduct of Captain John J. Mahoney, a close personal friend, was concerned. If Chief McWeeny was in the city, it was also said, he would be directing the inquiry into the conduct of Lieutenant Burns, whose political friends are also McWeeny's political friends.

ATTACK MADE ON KING'S ADVISERS

London, Sept. 21.—Liberal newspapers savagely attacked the king's advisers today for treating with Foreign Minister Sazanoff of Russia, who is here to discuss international policies with them. The Liberals' loyalty is unequal, they say, to permitting their leaders to pledge England to a dangerous secret alliance with Russia, menacing the world's peace and making it into an Anglo-German war. Sazanoff, really, one paper said, is trying to continue the blackmailing which Russia began when England first became involved with it in the Persian situation.

KELLOGG OPPOSES RECALL OF JUDGES

Seattle, Sept. 21.—In an address before the Seattle Bar association to-night, Frank B. Kellogg, the "trust buster," and recently elected president of the American Bar association, plainly came out in opposition to the recall of judges. He declared that the judicial recall would be an "innovation more dangerous than any that ever threatened the country" and would be the "beginning of the end of human liberty."

Kellogg was in happy environment here, for his arraignment of the recall idea. He was flanked at the banquet table in the Arctic club on one side by Benjamin S. Grosscup, president of the State Bar association and most bitter opponent of Progressive reform; Clinton W. Howard, whom Taft recently appointed as federal judge to succeed Judge Hanford who recently resigned, and Judge Hanford himself. On the other side of him sat Judge Mitchell Gilliam, who sentenced the editors of the Seattle Star to jail terms for criticizing an injunction abuse; by E. C. Hughes, Hanford's chief attorney in the impeachment hearing, and Senator W. J. Jones, who defended Lorimer. Most of the local judges and practically all the corporation attorneys in the city were present.

Kellogg lauded the supreme court of the United States in unqualified terms, proclaiming it from the days of John Marshall to this day as the "most progressive and enlightened tribunal in the world and most progressive of the departments of our government."

He denied that the courts have assumed unwarranted power and soundly rebuffed the warning that "the people should be protected from themselves against excesses of power."

"The criticism of the courts," he said, "grows out of the desire of the people for a higher business plane and morally rather than defects in the judiciary."

He then admitted that no one claimed the judiciary perfect and advocated the reform of legal procedure and the avoidance of delays in court.

President Grosscup, who preceded him in a brief address, evidently misunderstood Kellogg's leanings for he studiously avoided mentioning even the word "recall."

CANDIDATES FOR ELECTORS NOT YET CERTIFIED

State Central Committees Have but One More Week in Which to Act—Cause of Delay.

The state central committees of the Republican, Progressive, Democratic, Prohibitionist and Socialist parties in this state will have to hurry if they wish to have the names of their presidential electors placed on the official ballots to be certified down by the secretary of state. There are but three electors all told certified to at the present time. They are the three elected by the Republican state central committee. Since then that committee has selected a fourth elector and his name will have to be certified down to the secretary of state before it can go on the official ballot. Neither the Democratic or Progressive parties have certified up their electors.

The law provides that the names of the electors shall be certified up to the secretary of state by the respective state central committees of the parties not more than 60 or less than 35 days before the date of the November election and the secretary of state shall certify the names of the candidates down to the respective county auditors 30 days prior to the date of the November election. The state central committees therefore have but a week in which to certify up the names of the electors.

Voters in Idaho will this year have five separate and distinct sets of electors to select from, four electors in each set. Heretofore they have had but four, the Republican, Democratic, Prohibitionist and Socialist. This year the Progressive electors will be added. The Progressive electors named are H. C. Olney, Boise county; E. M. Harris, Fremont county; L. M. Earl, Bonneville county, and H. Harland of Canyon county.

The Democratic electors are Frank Martin, Ada county; Frank R. Moore, Latah county; D. Worth Clark, Benneville county, and J. D. Millsaps, Fremont county.

The Republican party has named but three electors, and the state committee has the fourth under consideration, a vacancy having been created. A woman may be named as an elector on the Republican list.

The electors of the Prohibitionist and Socialist parties have not been certified to the secretary of state.
