

STATE CAMPAIGN OF PROGRESSIVES WILL BE OPENED

G. H. Martin to Speak at Caldwell Tomorrow Night—Other Meetings in Canyon County Announced.

The first big gun in the Progressive party campaign will be fired tomorrow night at Payette when G. H. Martin, candidate for governor, will deliver the keynote speech in that city, sounding the Progressive battle cry. While he officially opens the state campaign there he also opens the first set meeting for the Canyon county itinerary, delivering addresses on succeeding nights at various cities. P. Monroe Smock, candidate for congress, and other state candidates will also take up their itineraries and the campaign will be waged north and south, east and west, over the state of Idaho in the fight for the people's rights.

Held Conference Tonight.

Progressive candidates will meet in this city at state headquarters tonight when the details of the campaign will be carefully gone into and settled. Itineraries will be prepared and speakers will be commissioned to take the message of the Progressive party to the four corners of the state. P. Monroe Smock of New Plymouth and O. V. Badley of Nampa were among the first candidates on the Progressive ticket to report at headquarters today. Other candidates will arrive this evening in time for the meeting. Mr. Martin, the gubernatorial candidate and standard bearer, will arrive from the north tonight prepared to spend the balance of the time intervening between now and the date of the general election on the stump. He is recognized as one of the most aggressive campaigners in the state, a speaker of ability and one who is ably qualified to promote the cause of the new political party.

Canyon County Itinerary.

The Canyon county itinerary which has been prepared for Mr. Martin will take him to Caldwell tomorrow night to open the campaign, that city having been designated to have that honor, has been arranged as follows:
Thursday night at Caldwell.
Friday night at Payette.
Saturday night at Parma.
Monday night at Emmett.

To Conduct Strenuous Campaign.

The Progressive party under the active direction of State Chairman Gipsen is prepared to wage the most interesting political campaign that has ever been seen in this state, and every effort will be put forth to elect not only a congressman but the state ticket men top to bottom. Campaign literature is being sent out of headquarters under the direction of the active workers there and voters will be kept informed of the issues that are before them for decision on Nov. 5. Facts relating to the manner in which a presidential nomination was deliberately stolen, making the Republican party a receiver of stolen goods, particularly so in its national standard bearer, will be placed in the hands of the voters. The record made by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt while president of the United States will also be placed in such form as to prove conclusively to electors that he is the needed candidate at the present time to bring relief to the political situation in the last fight of the old parties to champion their reactionary policies.

The candidates who are expected to attend the conference tonight are: P. Monroe Smock, G. H. Martin, O. V. Badley candidate for secretary of state; C. C. Miles of Nez Perce county, candidate for state auditor; John E. Yates of Boise, candidate for state treasurer; Alan Barclay of Jerome, candidate for attorney general, and F. H. Skeels of Wallace, candidate for state mine inspector.

BUHL AND MILNER BOISE VISITORS

That the big Bruneau-Twin Falls irrigation project, one of the largest in the United States, is destined to soon receive the direct attentions and financial support of F. H. Buhl, the multi-millionaire of Sharon, Pa., as well as that of A. C. Milner of Salt Lake, is evident from the fact that both these gentlemen are at present in Boise quietly looking over the plans for the project and consulting with those who are associated with its launching. It is reliably reported they are also here in connection with the big suit that is pending in the federal court, wherein the settlers on the Twin Falls project ask for heavy damages amounting to over $500,000 and the one in which the company behind that project brought a counter action to secure an annulment of the suit filed by the settlers. This case is to be heard on its merits in the federal court during the present term.

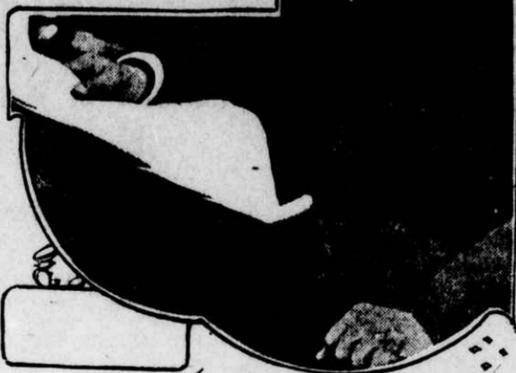

While little information could be gained from either Mr. Buhl or Mr. Milner, as to their plans in connection with the big Bruneau-Twin Falls project, reports that come from an authentic source are to the effect that their mission here has much to do with it. They arrived yesterday and since then have been in consultation with their representatives here.

MADERO GOVERNMENT HAVING FAILED MEXICANS MAY ASK DIAZ TO RETURN

Porfirio Diaz, for many years president of Mexico, who is now in exile, may be called back to again govern the unhappy people of the republic to the south. President Madero, having failed to give the country a stable government, can hardly remain at the head of Mexican affairs much longer. Many Mexicans wish Diaz to return, and he may do so if the call becomes insistent enough. He has declared that he would respond if this country needed him.

Ex-President Diaz.

COMPANY REFUSES TO END STRIKE OF STREET CAR MEN

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 23.—Willing to end the strike, the union carmen of Duluth made known their terms today, which include: All the men on strike be taken back without prejudice, excepting the original nine men discharged, the cases of the nine to be arbitrated; open shop, but no objection to unionism; that the spread of hours to get 10 hours' work be reduced from 13 and 16 to 12; that no increase in wages be asked. General Manager Warren refused these proposals. "There is nothing to arbitrate," he said. "The traction company will appeal to the state supreme court from the decision of Judge Dibell, ordering the company to resume service."

RECORD FOR APPLES IN PAYETTE VALLEY

Only 93 cull apples out of 511 boxes of Jonathans picked from the Mona Lisa orchard at New Plymouth owned by P. Monroe Smock, sets a new record for high grade apples raised in the New Plymouth country. The apples were packed at the Union packing house at New Plymouth under direction of the superintendent, J. W. Phillips, who figures that only one apple out of a thousand showed any effects whatever of the codlin moth. The apples comprised the first car shipped out of the valley and they were consigned to Columbus, Neb.

Mr. Smock, who is president of the New Plymouth Fruit Growers' union, states that the apple crop in the Payette and New Plymouth country is of high quality this season and he believes that section will furnish the finest apples sent to the eastern market this year.

JUDGMENT OF LOWER COURT IS AFFIRMED

The supreme court today handed down an opinion in one of the most peculiar cases that has come before that high tribunal—action to recover judgment for a sum paid under duress—represented in the case of M. D. Wilbur versus Ray M. Blanchard, appealed from the judgment given Wilbur by the Fourth judicial district court for Elmore county, Edward A. Walters presiding, which judgment is affirmed by the supreme court. The opinion is written by Justice James F. Allshie and concurred in by Chief Justice Stewart and Justice Sullivan.

This action was instituted by the plaintiff for the purpose of obtaining a judgment for $2150, charging the defendant with the extortion of this sum from him on two several dates, the sum of $1500 on the 26th day of November, 1908, and $650 on the 16th day of January, 1909. It was alleged that the foregoing sums were extorted from the respondent by threatening to prosecute him for the commission of the crime of larceny. It was admitted by the answer that the plaintiff had paid the defendant the sum of $2150, but defendant denied that the payment had been procured unlawfully or unjustly. The case was tried before the court with a jury and a verdict was returned and judgment entered against the defendant for the sum of $2000, being $150 less than the sum which it was admitted had been paid. The defendant appealed from the judgment.

GINK AND DINK

By C. A. Voight

"WELL, JOSIE DEAR, I'VE TRIMMED 'DOC' TODAY AT GOLF—"

"I ONLY BEAT HIM A HOLE AND A STROKE — IT CERTAINLY WAS CLOSE —"

"OH, TELL THAT TO SOMEBODY ELSE — I DON'T WANT TO HEAR A WORD ABOUT YOUR OLD SPORTS!"

"IT WAS A PEACH OF A SCRAP — MUGGINS SLIPPED OVER HIS RIGHT WING TO SKINNY'S JAW, AND KNOCKED OUT SIX OF HIS TEETH — SHINNY CAME BACK, AND BROKE MUGGINS' NOSE WITH A LEFT JAB — THERE WAS BLOOD ALL OVER —"

"OH, PETEY DEAR, PLEASE DON'T TELL ME ABOUT PRIZE-FIGHTS"

"AW, GEE WHIZ! A FELLER CAN'T TALK ABOUT ANY-THING —"

"SAY, GINK, DOES YOUR WIFE OBJECT TO YOUR TALKING ABOUT SPORTS?"

"NOPE — MY JOSIE STAYS UP LATE — LISTENING TO ME."

"SAME OLD DUMP."

Something Comp.

Son—Say, mama, father broke this vase before he went out.
Mother—My beautiful majolica vase! Wait till he comes back, that's all.
Son—May I stay up till he does?

Extorting Confession.

"Yes, a barber invariably keeps asking you whether the razor hurts you till you are forced to own up."

An Expert.

"Is your chauffeur an expert?"
"Yes, indeed," replied Mr. Chuggins. "He can explain in a most interesting way exactly why the car isn't running most of the time."

HELL' HAVE PLENTY OF PIN MONEY SOON

A nervous man took his wife to a party, and having laid aside his things waited for her to come down stairs from the dressing room. The hostess saw him standing alone in the hall, and exclaimed excitedly:
"Oh, Mr. Jenks! Hasn't your wife come too?"
"Dear me, madam!" screamed the nervous man. "Nobody told me she had fainting!" And he rushed up stairs before the hostess could explain.—Woman's Home Companion.

Con W. Hesse, Watch Inspector of O. S. L. for 16 years. There's a reason.

After October 30 next Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt will not be embarrassed for the lack of pin money. In fact, he will be tolerably well fixed, for on that day he will come into possession of a sum estimated conservatively at $25,000,000. Under the will of Cornelius Vanderbilt, father of Alfred Gwynne, the son was to receive half of a $50,000,000 estate when he became thirty, and the other half on his thirty-fifth birthday. Alfred Gwynne will pass his thirty-fifth milestone on October 30 next.

You would gladly mortgage your business to pay for a policy of "Profit Insurance" — wouldn't you?

If you could take out a policy of insurance which guaranteed you certain dividends from your store, or business enterprise, securing against losses, you would be glad to lose a little sleep in securing such a form of insurance—wouldn't you?
And yet, in any business under the sun, what amounts to such a policy of insurance is embraced in an intelligent advertising campaign.

No advertising campaign that was well devised and carried out with unflinching persistence ever failed to furnish actual "Profit Insurance" for a business.

The cost of this sort of insurance for a store or other enterprise is not "beyond your means,"—unless you are one of the folks who ought not to be in business at all, WHICH YOU ARE NOT! This cost is partially payable in cash, of course, but only partially. A large part of it is payable in INTELLIGENCE, in the capacity of profit by experience, in what is generally known as "grey matter." This does not mean that you must "worry." It means that you must THINK—that you must plan and execute.

You can make your advertising campaign your "Policy of Profit Insurance"
