

CANYON COUNTY FAIR IS OPENED, FINE EXHIBITS

Senator Stone Prases Fair and Is Too Interested in the Exhibits to Make a Speech.

Too interested to speak. Caldwell, Oct. 1.—Senator William A. Stone of Missouri, arrived here this afternoon and was to deliver a 15-minute address at the Canyon county fair, but he became so interested in the exhibits that he consumed more time than he realized in looking over the products, which were greatly admired and praised, and was obliged to leave without speaking, much to the disappointment of the crowd. He left the grounds at Boise at 2:15 o'clock.

(Staff Correspondence) Caldwell, Oct. 1.—The Canyon county fair opened this morning under most auspicious circumstances. The big exposition hall is again a very interesting place to see perfect fruit of all kinds, and all sorts of farm and garden products. The horse show is the biggest and best ever seen here, as is also the swine and sheep shows. The cattle and poultry shows are up to the high standard set by previous fairs given by this association. The art hall is prettier than ever. Mrs. Ross Cartee, Miss Margaret Roberts and Mrs. George Barnard of Boise will act as judges in the several departments in the art hall; Mrs. Brooks of Caldwell will judge the fine arts display in this department. Four judges from the state university will place the premium ribbons in the departments of fruit, grain, stock and dairy.

Buckaroo Sports—Races.

The amusement programs at the Canyon county fair this week will be better than ever before. There will be some high class buckarooing and good horse racing every afternoon beginning at 1:30. Forty wild range mules and 200 bad horses have been secured for the buckaroo sports. There will be a bucking contest every day for four days, not less than five riders each day. The winner of the first three days will be picked to ride on the fourth day when the two prizes will be awarded: $100 to first and $50 to second.

Hawkes & Co's big Caldwell nursery has a fine nursery exhibit in this wing. The central portion of Exposition hall is occupied with a most attractive and interesting aviary display.

The Art Hall.

There are more entries this year than last year in the Art hall, which is in complete charge of the ladies, who have made this hall a place of much beauty and interest to everyone, but more especially to the thousands of ladies who will visit the fair this week. The ladies in charge of the several departments in the Art hall are: Fine arts, Miss Julia V. Finney of Caldwell; household, Mrs. Ed L. Bryan and Mrs. T. S. Jackson; women's work, Mrs. Fred Boyson and Mrs. H. T. French; children's work, Mrs. George Hardy; moral, Mrs. I. N. Binford and Mrs. Jones Madden; babies, Misses Jennie Wood and Juanita Stewart.
Mrs. T. A. Buckner is the general superintendent of the Art hall. Miss M. G. Carleton and Miss Buty are in charge of the children's work in the special premium department.

Great Horse Show.

The horse show is by all odds the best ever shown at the Canyon county fair. This is saying much, because this fair in past years has had some very good horse shows. All classes of horses are entered, and there are some extra good horses shown in each class. A feature of the horse show this year is the large number in the imported Belgian class. It is the best line of imported Belgians ever before shown at any fair in the history of Idaho. Those having Belgians here are Robert McCluskey, D. A. Haylett and C. H. Turner of Caldwell; Metcalf & Nichols of Nampa, and C. W. Lake of New Plymouth.
The Percheron display is also an extra good one this year, being larger and better than ever before at this fair. There are 18 stalls used by the Percherons. Included in the Percheron show are eight registered Percheron stallions and several registered bays and fillies.
The swine and sheep shows are also did this year. The sheep pens are full and so are the hog pens. There are just double the number of hog pens this year over last year, and they are all filled. J. M. Royston's great 850-pound boar and 640-pound sow, Poland Chinas, are on exhibition.

The cattle entries were a little slow in coming in, but the cattle show promises to excel all those previously held here. Jack Riddle is in charge of the departments of horses, cattle, sheep and swine.
The poultry show is up to the high standard set by the previous fairs held here. The dog show is the best one ever seen at any Canyon county fair. J. A. Elston is in charge of these two departments.

POINDEXTER TO SPEAK IN BOISE FOR ROOSEVELT

The Washington Senator to Deliver Two Speeches in the North for the Progressive Ticket.

Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington, who is one of the most prominent Progressive leaders of the nation, and who won his election to the United States senate through advocacy of progressive principles two years ago, will visit Boise Wednesday of next week to deliver an address here in the interests of the Progressive ticket.
Senator Poindexter's visit here will follow two speeches delivered in the northern part of the state, one at Moscow on Saturday night and the other at Lewiston on Monday night.
The news of the coming of Senator Poindexter was received by State Chairman Gipson in a telegram from Paul Clagstone, a member of the executive committee of the Progressive party, who wires that he will accompany Senator Poindexter on his speaking tour of the northern part of the state. Mr. Clagstone had been requested to speak at the Caldwell fair on "Progressive Day" and a portion of his message was an explanation of why he could not accept the invitation. His message is as follows:

"Spokane, Wash., Sept. 30, 1912.
"J. H. Gipson,
"State Chairman Progressive Party,
Boise, Idaho.
"I am going with Senator Miles Poindexter to a meeting at Moscow Saturday and Lewiston on Monday. Senator Poindexter will leave Lewiston next morning for a meeting at Boise Wednesday, Oct. 3. Please arrange for a big meeting. I am very sorry that important legal and business matters prevent my coming south for some time, and especially do I regret my inability to attend the Caldwell fair.
"PAUL CLAGSTONE."

GREAT FRENCH VESSEL LAUNCHED

Toulon, Oct. 1.—Within less than 12 months from the time her keel was laid down, the battleship Paris, designed to be the most formidable warship ever built for the French navy, was successfully launched here today. The distinguishing feature of the new vessel is her armor plate, which is made entirely of a new metal of French invention, which will, it is expected, render a battleship less vulnerable to shell fire and mark a new epoch in naval shipbuilding.
The Paris belongs to a series of seventeen battleships that France proposes to add to her fleet under the Septennial program adopted in 1910. The first two, the Courbet and the Jean Bart, are about ready to go into commission. The France will soon be ready for launching, and three others have been laid down.
The armorment of the Paris will be 12 guns of 350 millimetre calibre and four guns of 47 millimetres. Her tonnage will be 23,500 and her contract speed 20 knots.

AMERICAN HEIRESS WEDS SON OF PEER

New York, Oct. 1.—An international love romance somewhat out of the ordinary culminated in the marriage today of Miss Antoinette Hecksher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Hecksher of this city, and the Hon. Aliver Sylvain Baillet-Latour, eldest son and heir of Viscount Escher of England. The wedding took place at Win Coma, the country estate of the bride's parents at Huntington, L. I. The bride had Mrs. Drelicourt Martin as matron of honor and the only attendant, Cyril Stephenson, a countryman of the bridegroom, was best man.
The engagement of the couple was first announced more than a year ago. Some months later society was surprised to learn that the engagement had been broken. Mr. Brett was quite ill for some time, and after his recovery he was seen frequently with Miss Hecksher's brother and other members of the family during his former fiancée's absence in Europe. But there was never any suggestion of the engagement being renewed until the cable announced some two or three weeks ago that Mr. Brett had sailed for New York to claim his bride.
Mr. Brett is the eldest son of Viscount Escher. The title is a recent one, having been conferred on Mr. Brett's grandfather in 1885. The bride today will inherit a fortune of many millions from her father. She is highly cultivated, has traveled much and is actively interested in the woman suffrage movement.

To End Pollution of Lakes.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 1.—The international joint commission on waterways met in this city today for what is regarded as the most important session that has yet been held by that body. The chief purpose of the meeting is to formulate a program for the investigation of the pollution of the great lakes and other boundary waters between the United States and Canada. This question, in the opinion of officials of the two governments, has become the most pressing of all problems affecting the welfare of the people of the two countries.

CHRISTIAN WORK IN THE FAR EAST

Dr. Proctor Tells of the Awakening of the Chinese Empire.

Dr. Proctor, who was recently in Boise and was accompanying 14 Baptist missionaries to the Orient and a man of wide experience in the mission field and of conditions in China, made clear the possibilities of Christian work in the far east and his address in the Baptist church was full of interesting facts.
He began by giving some of the reasons why the Chinese called themselves "Sons of Heaven" and were a proud race. Some of the reasons were that they were the oldest nation on the earth, with an authentic history going back to 2000 B. C., that their reign was absolute over a stretch of territory so big as to be hard of comprehension, and that for 2000 years at least of the reign, they had never been equaled on the field of battle or in diplomacy. For these and many other reasons, they felt that all other nations were their inferiors. Passing on to the direct and indirect influences that had led to the awakening he gave as some of the reasons the following: First in order was diplomatic and consular relations that were forced on China at the point of the bayonet. In this consular service were over 600 men, waited on and served by an army of native servants, and every servant was a means of communication to the millions of others as to how the foreigners lived. Then there were over 45,000 foreigners engaged in trade, representing important business interests in all large cities of the world, and they were waited on by at least 100,000 native servants, not only in the kitchen, but in the drawing, the parlor and bedroom. How they treated their wives, their children and their servants was duly observed by the sharp eyed Chinese and all passed on to others. Likewise their business methods were closely watched and copied, and thus the little heaven was slowly leavening the whole. A total of 4628 missionaries were spreading the doctrine of Christianity, by word of mouth, by example in Christian homes and by deeds. Coupled with this is the work of the schools and 300,000 Chinese children were carrying a message to their parents and relatives. Such was the value of this work, that the government finally established schools all over the empire, using teachers as far as possible from these mission schools, and other mighty levers.

FOUND ONE TAFT MAN IN WEISER

Secretary Davis Declares Miles Cannon Is Having Lonesome Time.

Paul Davis, secretary of the Progressive state central committee, has returned from a trip to his home at Weiser, having gone down to attend the meeting at which G. H. Martin, reputable business, and the strongest firms have proven to be the Anglo-Chinese. This has been duplicated in the 44 other ports of entry and all were mighty levers in the overthrow of the old dynasty.
No one can listen to Dr. Proctor and feel that missions are not worth while, and we doubt if many heard him who will not voluntarily increase their mission offerings.
The 16 missionaries in the party were introduced, and each gave a report on their reasons for going and what they hoped to accomplish, all making a good impression. At the close of the service, a reception was held in the east room and refreshments served. The party left for Portland on the 5 o'clock train, and will take ship from San Francisco to Shanghai, from which point they will scatter to all parts of the compass to engage in the Master's work. One mother is leaving her 1-year-old daughter and 5-year-old boy to be gone seven years. No one will question but what she is doing her share in the foreign field.

FOUND ONE TAFT MAN IN WEISER

Secretary Davis Declares Miles Cannon Is Having Lonesome Time.

Mr. Davis brought in the news of the resignation of Rupert Coulter, secretary of the Democratic county central committee and Joseph Clabber, a member of the county executive committee of that party. It seems that trouble arose between the Progressive faction of the Democratic party led by Coulter and the reactionary, or Hawley element, led by N. H. Carter, the county chairman, the result of which was a practical dissolution of the party organization.
A prominent physician of Weiser, Mr. Davis states, recently returned from a visit with relatives in Ohio and Indiana and he brings back the word that these states will undoubtedly be carried by Roosevelt. He makes this admission although his personal preference is Taft.
"Literally everybody in Washington county is for Borah," declared Mr. Davis. "I was surprised and delighted to find that even the Democrats appreciate his services to the state and have determined to lay aside all partisan prejudice and vote for his return to the senate."
