

TUESDAY WILL BE ONE OF BIGGEST DAYS AT THE FAIR

An Effort Will Be Made to Have Every Business House Close During the Afternoon.

Next Tuesday promises to be one of the biggest days during the week of the fair. It is merchants' day and an effort is being made to have every store, bank and business institution in the city close its doors from 1 o'clock to 6 on that afternoon, so as to allow their employees to visit the fair.

The program will start with the big parade of pioneers in the morning, in which every type of character identified with the early settlement of the west will be portrayed. The old stage coaches laden with their passengers bound for the land of the setting sun, miners, prospectors, Indians, cowboys and soldiers will have their places in the procession, while in a large number of autos the early pioneers of Idaho will ride.

At 1 o'clock it is expected that practically every place of business will close and since the day is also Boise day at the fair an extra large attendance is anticipated. On this day, too, the visitors from Ontario and eastern Oregon are expected in largest numbers.

As yet no parades or spectacular features have been arranged for Tuesday evening, but it is thought that the run of the Boise city fire department will be scheduled for that night. The outdoor carnival with its throngs of merry-makers deluging each other with clouds of confetti will be held as usual on Tuesday evening. Boyd and Ogle's circus will give its performances on the platform to be erected, as one of the numerous free attractions, while the famous Peis' imperial Russian band will give its nightly concerts on the capitol steps.

Performance of King Pharaoh. Among the free attractions scheduled for Tuesday evening is the wonderful performance of King Pharaoh, the horse with a human brain. Pharaoh is said to be one of the wonders of the age. Without assistance from his trainer, who may be absent, Pharaoh will solve mathematical problems, spell simple words, choose colors and answer questions in a manner that is the despair of scientists.

Dan Hart, the most famous clown alive, and who is said to be the oldest member of his profession, will also gladden the hearts of the crowds with the assistance of his trick mule. Dan has traveled with every tented aggregation that has shown in this country and was a member of the original Ringling circus when it consisted of a wagon or two, a few horses and Dan.

Some beautiful ponies will execute drills and formations and later will work in conjunction with a troupe of trained dogs. This act especially, should prove a delight to the younger members of the festival throng.

In addition to the acts engaged by the Rainmakers' committee a carnival company which will show here during festival week will furnish a large number of free acts. According to advance accounts of the show the

JOSEPH E. HOWARD AND MABEL McCANE IN "THE GODDESS OF LIBERTY."

The American press has been so unanimous in its praises of the prolific composer and singing comedian, Joseph E. Howard, that the announcement of his own appearance here at the Pinney Friday and Saturday night in his latest and most conspicuous success, will cause theater-goers to immediately secure seats in pleasurable anticipation of a perfect and entirely up-to-date performance.

Mr. Howard will appear in "The Goddess of Liberty," which ran an entire year at the La Salle theater, Chicago, and six months in New York City, where its unprecedented runs were interrupted by previous bookings, much to the sincere regret of the management, and since which time has been greeted on tour with unbounded enthusiasm before capacity audiences. Accompanying Mr. Howard on this tour is America's most captivating singing comedienne, Miss Mabel McCane, a pretty, dainty little creature, bound to win the hearts of everyone by her sweet personality and remarkable voice.

Miss McCane wears a varied assortment of attractions carried by the company are of a highly thrilling nature. They Make You Feel Good. The pleasant purgative effect produced by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the healthy condition of body and mind which they create make one feel joyful. For sale by all dealers. FAMOUS AVIATOR TO MAKE FLIGHTS

Aeroplane Stunts Will Be Feature of Caldwell Fair Closing Days.

(Staff Correspondence) Caldwell, Oct. 3.—Aviator Christopherson of Portland will be at the Canyon county fair Friday and Saturday of this week and will make two great flights each of the two afternoons, with his powerful Curtiss 1912 model biplane. Christopherson has been an aviator two years, and is today one of the most successful in the United States. The biplane he uses cost $5000 and flies 60 to 70 miles an hour. No doubt the Canyon county fair will have big crowds Friday and Saturday to see this famous aviator perform some of his wonderful aerial stunts.

Splendid Amusements. The Canyon county fair is this week having the best all-round amusement program each afternoon, in the history of the fair. Instead of a lot of professional horse racing the association this week is giving some of this kind of racing, but is paying more attention to other features of real amusement to the crowds, such as the bucking contests, relay races, wild mule races, etc. There is something doing nearly every minute during the progress of each afternoon's program. The program each afternoon consists of 13 events, including the motorcycle race and the flight of the biplane.

Wednesday's program was an excellent one, the only feature to mar the afternoon being the dropping to death of the race horse Redmont, owned by Hogoboom and ridden by McCles, two of whose ribs were broken by the horse falling on him. The accident occurred in the 3/4-mile running race, just after Redmont had entered into the homestretch.
