

WANT ADS

Will bring results in a day.

Vol. XXIX

SIXTEEN PAGES

BOISE, IDAHO, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1912.

No. 84

BOSTON RED SOX TAKE THE FIRST GAME OF THE WORLD'S SERIES

Giants Took Early Lead But American League Champions Passed Them in Seventh and Won By Score of 4 to 3—Woods Has Terrific Speed

Table with 10 columns: Innings, R, H, E. Rows for New York and Boston.

BATTING ORDER.

Boston—Hooper, rf.; Yerkes, 2b.; Speaker, cf.; Lewis, lf.; Gardner, 3b.; Stahl, 1b.; Wagner, ss.; Cady, c.; Wood, p.

New York, Oct. 8.—The Bostons won the first game of the world's series this afternoon. Forty thousand persons saw the pitchers' battle in which Joe Wood, of Boston, turned back the Giants from the plate time and again by clever box work.

New York, Oct. 8.—The day of the opening of the world's championship baseball series between the New York Nationals and the Boston Americans, broke fair and crisp.

Back of the Red Sox bench was a crowd of fans from Boston. They were there to cheer and did it lustily.

Commission Holds Meeting. The national commission held a meeting this morning and gave instructions to umpires.

Neither of the rival managers was prepared to announce his batting order early today, for everything depended upon the selection of box work just before the game.

Few of the players were recognized in their street clothes as they edged their way through the jam at the entrances.

"We naturally expect to win," said Captain Larry Doyle, the New York second baseman.

Manager John J. McGraw has looked the Americans over and studied the fine points of their play, but the New York players said this morning it was doubtful if he had laid out any plan of battle in advance.

Odds on Boston. Thousands of dollars was wagered on the outcome of the series, Boston being the favorite at 10 to 8 and 10 to 9.

It was announced that Tesreau and Myers would be the battery for New York, and Wood and Cady for Boston.

First Inning. Boston—Hooper was walked by Tesreau. He was somewhat unsteady, but allowed no hits and the side was retired.

Second Inning. Boston—Gardner was safe on Fletcher's error of a ground ball. Fletcher fumbled badly; Stahl went out stealing.

Third Inning. Boston—Wood was walked to first on four balls. Hooper sacrificed, Yerkes went out, Doyle to Merkle. Wood took third. Speaker was purposely passed to first.

Fourth Inning. Boston—Gardner went out on a foul to Herzog. Stahl struck out. Wagner fouled to Merkle. No score.

Fifth Inning. Boston—Cady went out, Doyle to Merkle. Tesreau is in his best pitching stride. Wood went out on grounder to Merkle, unassisted.

Sixth Inning. Boston—Yerkes flied to Snodgrass. Speaker got a three-bagger to left. Speaker scored on Lewis' grounder to Doyle, who threw the runner out at first.

Seventh Inning. Boston—Stahl went out, Doyle to Merkle. Wagner singled to center. Cady singled to center, Wagner taking second. Cady was forced at second when Doyle tossed Wood's grounder to Fletcher.

Eighth Inning. Crandall went into the box for New York. Lewis went out on a grounder, shortstop to Merkle. Crandall pitched a slow overcurve and slow drop ball.

Ninth Inning. Boston—Wagner doubled to left. Cady sacrificed and Wagner took third. Wood went out, Crandall to Merkle. Wagner was held at third. Hooper lined to Doyle. No runs.

Famous Old Market. New York, Oct. 8.—The centennial celebration of Washington market, one of the famous places of its kind in the United States, was begun today.

Wabash Railroad Meeting. Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 8.—The stockholders and debenture mortgage bondholders of the Wabash railroad met here today for the purpose of electing officers and transacting other business.

Captains of the Opposing Teams

Captain Larry Doyle of the New York Giants as he stands at the plate waiting for one in his favorite groove, and Captain Hains Wagner of the Boston Red Sox, who deserves the credit.

MARTIN SPEAKS TO LARGE CROWD AT TWIN FALLS

The Progressive Nominée for Governor Again Declares in Favor of Public Utilities Commission.

(Capital News Special Service) Twin Falls, Oct. 8.—G. H. Martin, Progressive nominee for governor, held an enthusiastic meeting at which he addressed a large audience in Cotton hall last night.

Mr. Martin reiterated here his demand for a public utilities commission as being a requisite for the people against infringements of corporate wealth and as being in line with the progress of the state and of the country.

DISTRESSING SCENES FOLLOW EVICTION OF STRIKING MINERS

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 8.—Distressing scenes were witnessed along Cabin creek today when deputy sheriffs evicted the families of many of the striking miners from the homes they have occupied ever since the mines were opened.

BIG WAR FLEET IN THE HUDSON RIVER

New York, Oct. 8.—Fifty vessels, representing the flower of the American navy, are riding at anchor in the Hudson river today. Nearly one-half of the vessels are battleships, which vary in size from the great super-dreadnought of the Wyoming type to the now obsolete type represented by the famous old Ohio.

Government Given More Time. New York, Oct. 8.—The United States district court granted the application of the government for 100 days additional time to introduce evidence in the dissolution suit against the American Sugar Refining company.

WAR DECLARED TODAY ON TURKEY

Montenegro Sends Its Troops Across the Frontier

FIERCE FIGHTING IS NOW IN PROGRESS

Powers Give Warning That They Do Not Approve the Balkan Attitude of the Balkan States—Serbia Prepares for Struggle.

London, Oct. 8.—Montenegro formally declared war on Turkey this morning. The declaration was delivered to the porte by the Montenegrin chargé d'affaires early today.

Action by Powers. Sofia, Oct. 8.—The Austrian and Russian ministers at noon made joint representations to the Bulgarian government in behalf of the powers.

Troops Cross Frontier. Belgrade, Oct. 8.—Reports reached here today that Montenegrin troops had crossed the Turkish frontier. The Serbian parliament today voted an extra credit of $8,000,000 for military purposes and the merchants of the city are making large donations to the fund for the assistance of families whose bread winners have been called to military service.

Danger Still Remains. Paris, Oct. 8.—The tension in the Balkan situation, it is thought at the foreign office and among diplomats, shows a slight slackening. It is a hard fact, however, that the danger from martial enthusiasm remains and it is feared that the crisis will persist as long as 1,000,000 troops are spoiling for a fight continue under arms.

(Continued on Page Four.)

MULTITUDE NOT FIT TO RULE SAYS MORMON APOSTLE

Law Must Be Administered by Church Tribunals Declares Penrose—Officials Are Sustained.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 8.—The eighty-third semi-annual conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints was closed Sunday, after the members had sustained the church officers and listened to sermons by several leading churchmen.

"The multitude is not fit to rule itself," said Apostle Penrose, "and would bring on itself anarchy and tyranny. The law must be administered by the tribunals that have been raised (Continued on Page Eight)

HEYBURN FLAYED IN HOME COUNTY BY PROGRESSIVE

Kellogg Crowd Thunders Its Applause as P. Monroe Smock Attacks Senior Senator From Idaho.

P. MONROE SMOCK.

(Capital News Special Service.) Kellogg, Oct. 8.—P. Monroe Smock, Progressive nominee for congress, flayed Senator Heyburn for his standpoint and reactionary principles right in his home county during his speech here last night and a full house thundered applause at his castigations.

Sale of Government Land. Provo, Utah, Oct. 8.—The third lot of government lands in the one and one-half millions acres in the former Shoshone, Uintah and Crow reservations go on sale here today, the auction being conducted by James W. Wilten, superintendent of opening and sale of Indian lands.

Abe Martin

Miss Fern Pash has returned from a month's visit highly pleased with her relatives. White shoes may be cleaned by removin' th' spots.

FAILS TO RECALL REPORTED VISIT OF J. P. MORGAN

Former Secretary of Treasurer MacVeagh Appears Before Clapp Committee at Washington.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Wayne MacVeagh, former attorney general, testified before the Clapp committee today that he did not recall the alleged conversation between J. P. Morgan and E. H. Harriman, in 1904, about the Republican campaign funds.

"I never saw Morgan use the telephone or knew of his being called to the telephone," said MacVeagh. "I may have called on Morgan the day I have in mind, but I remember calling on H. McTombly at his office the latter part of October, 1904.

He said something which led me to infer that Morgan would give $50,000. I recall that he expressed the opinion that the contributions would be practically wasted, that Roosevelt was sure of his election, but that Harriman, who had been acting in common interest, could not be expected to stand the entire contribution."

FREE COURSE IN THE ART OF COOKING AN ASSURED SUCCESS

Many Inquiries Received Regarding the Free Cooking Demonstration—Society Promises to Turn Out in Full Force.

LECTURES TO BE HELD ALL NEXT WEEK

at Pinney theater, the noted lecturer-demonstrator, who will conduct the Capital News free course in the art of cooking, at the Pinney theater, beginning next Monday at 2:30 p. m., in speaking of the duties of a hostess, told the following anecdote to a large audience not long ago.