

CALL FOR HELP SENT TO THE IDAHO POSTMASTERS

Republicans Resort to Clear Violation of Federal Law in Soliciting of Funds

That the Republican state central committee is getting desperate even of making a respectable showing in the campaign and that they are not so well pleased with their success in getting a decision whose effect was to disfranchise a large number of the voters of the state except as those voters may write in the names of the presidential electors and candidate for congress, is shown by the fact that they have induced a postmaster of the state to violate a federal statute and to make himself liable to dismissal from his position through the solicitation of funds for campaign purposes from federal employes.

A general cry for help from the "Federal Brigade" has just been mailed out from headquarters in this city. It is in the shape of a general circular letter addressed to postmasters, postal clerks and other federal employes asking them to contribute to the Republican state central committee's coffers. There is no doubt but the offending postmaster who has been made the agent for the state committee, and the state committee itself have all violated the law and are subject to punishment and the postmaster subject to dismissal from his position.

A copy of the letter has been secured and will be turned over to the proper federal authorities with a formal demand that action be taken to enforce the provisions of the law which have been violated by this method of forcing contributions to the Republican campaign fund.

As the letter admits and as every one knows the Republicans this year have not been able to make the usual combines with legitimate business merely because business men generally know there is no prospect of success for the Republicans in this campaign. The special interests in Idaho are contributing more largely to the Democratic campaign fund than the Republican because they realize that, although both parties are entirely satisfactory to them, the chances for success are better for the Democrats than for the Republicans and they know that in the closing days of the campaign they can throw the Republican vote to the Democratic candidates and thus, as they think, make success doubly certain.

The Offending Letter. Postmaster S. M. C. Reynolds of Meridian is the agent selected by the state central committee through which the campaign contributions are solicited. It is not known in what manner pressure was brought to bear upon Dr. Reynolds in order to induce him to run the chances that he took in signing the letters, but it is believed by his friends that it must have been threats of removal from office if he did not comply with the demand made upon him. That the state central committee is sending the letters out, is confirmed by the fact that the letters bear the Boise postmark instead of that of the Meridian post office where Reynolds is postmaster. The letter is as follows: "Meridian, Idaho, Oct. 12, 1912.

"My Dear Fellow P. M.—I called at the Republican state headquarters the other day and found that the committee is putting up the most aggressive campaign possible for, the Republican party of this state and our Republican delegation in congress. They are very much handicapped, however, for lack of funds. Business men seem to be very unwilling to contribute this year, on account, perhaps, of the unfortunate division in our party, and the committee is face to face with a very serious proposition. They must have money to continue the campaign if we are to carry this state. Now, it has occurred to me that we who are particularly interested in the success of the Republican party can come to its aid and rescue it in no uncertain way at this time. Suppose each of us constitute himself or herself a committee of one in the different communities where we reside to see to it that some financial assistance is furnished the committee. Let each of us send to the committee today a remittance of such size as we can afford, anything from one dollar up, but let us not fail to send at least something.

"I am sending my check today for ten dollars and I hope that each of you will send whatever you can afford. If your own contribution is small, perhaps there is some one in your community who will join with you in increasing it. I believe that we should all unite in doing this, and that the money we raise in this way should be sent to the state committee as a pleasant surprise to them. Address your letter to Captain E. G. Davis, secretary, Republican state central committee, Boise, Idaho, and do not fail to send it TODAY.

"Yours very sincerely, "S. M. C. REYNOLDS." The "pleasant surprise" which Dr. Reynolds is good enough to suggest for the state committee, will no doubt come in the publication of this letter and the exposure of the scheme for raising campaign funds from federal employes.

BORAH CLUB HAS AMBITIOUS PLANS

Speakers Will Be Heard in Every Precinct in the County.

Prepared to wage a vigorous campaign in this county in support and in behalf of Senator William E. Borah, the Borah club has made active plans for speakers who will be heard in every precinct of the county and who will follow out set itineraries. These speakers will not only lay before the electors the remarkable one-term record of Senator Borah, but they will instruct voters as to the manner in which they must mark their ballots in order to vote for him. The campaign will continue to be, as it has in the past, conducted from the Borah headquarters located in the Idaho building, in charge of Dean Perkins. Since the organization of the club hundreds of names have been added to the Borah membership roll until today the sum total is several thousands. It is estimated there will be between 10,000 and 12,000 votes cast in Ada county Nov. 5 and the club will have a great many of the names of these voters on the membership rolls before the present campaign is over.

It will be explained to electors by speakers for the Borah club that the six legislative candidates on the Republican ticket must have their support if they wish to vote for Idaho's junior senator. These candidates are Fairchild for senator; Koelsch, Storey, Lawson, McDermott and Gardner for representatives. These candidates have pledged not only their individual and collective efforts in behalf of Senator Borah should they become members of the next legislature, but they have unqualifiedly pledged their votes for him. If they are successful at the polls Senator Borah will have six votes from his home county to head the list of counties supporting him.

The Borah clubs are meeting with the same success over the other counties as they have in Ada. Many counties as well as county clubs are being organized and voters are rallying to enlist their names. It is freely predicted that Senator Borah will receive an endorsement in this state on election day, never before tendered a candidate for re-election to the United States senate, but regardless of this belief, his friends are determined to wage the campaign up to Nov. 5.

ONE MORE GIVES HIS PROMISE TO SUPPORT TICKET

John M. Haines Takes the Pledge Required for Membership in the Idaho Republican League.

The Idaho Republican league, defender, champion and bulwark of the rapidly dwindling reactionaries, stand-patters and self-appointed minority endeavoring to dictate to the majority of the party and to pass judgment on their Republicanism, boasts of another candidate who has officially decided to place his stamp of approval on the Chicago steal by declaring himself for William Howard Taft for president. That candidate is John M. Haines, who is being sacrificed, it is claimed, at the Republican altar for gubernatorial honors. He is the fourth candidate out of a total of several hundred over the state who is willing to go before the people and champion the cause of their in a nomination for the high office of president of the United States.

is Anti-Borah Organization. The Idaho Republican league is well known as an anti-Borah organization. Its main object is to defeat Senator William E. Borah for re-election to the United States senate, and irrespective to the private denials made to this charge, this is well known to an established fact through the admission of L. Cobb, son of C. Cobb, a local publisher. L. Cobb is the personal representative of the Barber Lumber company, a subsidiary of the Weyerhaeuser Lumber syndicate, the largest timber corporation in the world. When circulating the petitions for membership for the Idaho Republican league he admitted that the main object of the organization was to attack Senator Borah.

Have Binding Pledge. The pledge contained in the constitution of this league binds those who sign its membership roll to vote against any candidate for office on the Republican ticket who refuses to give his stamp of approval to the theft of the century—the one pulled off at Chicago when a standpat national committee deliberately stole enough delegates to nominate President Taft as the party's candidate for a second term, with his sanction, irrespective of the fact that these candidates believe that the only way the party can purge itself of dishonest politics is to voice their convictions against such acts.

The pledge in the constitution is in full as follows: "We endorse the wise and patriotic administration of William Howard Taft as president of the United States, believing it to be a faithful example of the principles of the Republican party, entitling him to re-election to the office of president.

"We pledge him our support for re-election; and further, we oppose the election of any candidate as a Republican who does not work to that end."

Haines Takes Pledge. Those Republicans, whose names are upon the mailing list of the league will within a short time receive postal cards informing them of the somewhat remarkable fact that a fourth candidate, out of several hundred in the state, has decided to take its sacred pledge. This candidate will be Mr. Haines. It is now generally conceded that the purpose of the league was not only to knife Senator Borah but to strike at every other candidate who is in sympathy with his cause or who proposes to work for his re-election. That Mr. Haines has decided to abide by the iron bound pledge of the club "to oppose the election of any candidate as a Republican who does not work to that end," the re-election of President Taft, and will speak for and support the reactionary cause, is evident from an interview and address he gave in Pocatello Thursday, in which he said: "At the November election the Gem state will roll up a splendid majority for the Taft electors and for the entire state ticket."

Use Membership As Club. The Idaho Republican league claims a membership of 600 and over, but those who have been seen and have after the closest questioning admitted they have signed the roll, although they are reluctant to do so, declare they do not propose to be bound by any such a pledge as the constitution contains and they will vote for whom they please. It is asserted that the reason given to claim this membership is for the sole purpose of using it as a club on candidates, and that in reality the membership is more like 150, confined to the disgruntled Republicans known to be anti-Borah.

The headquarters of the club are still maintained on the second floor of the Boise City National bank building, in which are many chairs for the purpose of accommodating those in the confidence of the league officials who refuse to permit the publication of their names. L. Cobb, General George H. Roberts, James R. Stotts and other stand-patters are usually to be found at the anti-Borah headquarters.

Suit for $7517.25 for coffee and tea said to have been sold to Duncan Johnson and Julius Raabe was brought in the district court today by the Davidson Grocery company. Davidson alleges in his affidavit that Johnson and Raabe converted the goods to their own use without the knowledge of the plaintiff company. He says that Johnson's acts were so suspicious at times that the company checked up his books and came to the conclusion that the property was being converted by the defendants. Johnson was discharged. The complaint mentions 25,725 pounds of coffee at 25c, 3000 pounds of tea at 30c and 100 pounds of sugar at 5c.

WOMAN LOST IN THE MOUNTAINS FOR THREE DAYS

Mrs. H. G. Rogers of Boise, Has a Terrible Experience in the Deer Creek Wilds—Wandered 18 Miles.

Lost in the deep weeds at the head of Deer creek and wandering around through the forest with nothing but the wild huckleberries to eat and the waters of the torrent to drink, Mrs. H. G. Rogers, after two days and nights, finally discovered a house in the wilderness where she was cared for until her husband found her.

Jumping on a pony to help her husband round up a horse that had gotten away from the camp during the night, she rode farther away than she thought and penetrated the forests until she lost her sense of direction and could not find the way home. Still sure that she would discover some house where she could find somebody to direct her, she wandered on down the waters of a human being, with nothing to eat but the berries that grew on the shrubs by the side of the trail that she made for herself through the woods.

For 18 miles she rode and walked through the weeds alone. Finally she saw a house across the stream, Bert Leggett's home, and called across the creek for help. A tall Swede working at the house waded across the falls and carried her over on his back and there she heard the shouts and gun shots of her husband who had been decided to regular intervals to attract her if she were anywhere within reach of the sound. It was the firing of his gun on the opposite bank of the stream that told her he was on the trail and that brought them together after the two days and nights of frantic search through the forest.

Mrs. Rogers had abandoned the horse after she had reached the thickest part of the forest for the trails were so narrow that a pony could not make his way through the dense weeds. After Mr. and Mrs. Rogers returned, the party decided to break camp and go home. The Rogers live near the head of Schaffer creek.

OREGON ELECTRIC TO OPERATE FAST TRAIN

Eugene, Ore., Oct. 14.—With the arrival at noon tomorrow of an excursion train from Portland—the first over the new Oregon Electric railway—citizens of Eugene and vicinity will join in a parade, speechmaking and banquet in celebration of the coming of the Hill railroad into a territory that for 40 years or more has had but one railroad, the Southern Pacific line. Less than two years ago the Oregon Electric announced its intention to build a 70-mile extension from Salem, the state capital, to Eugene, at the head of the Willamette valley, and tomorrow the first trains will be run and schedules established.

Impelled by the building of the Oregon Electric, the Southern Pacific, under the name of the Portland, Eugene and Eastern, is building a section of road 24 miles long to connect with Corvallis, and will electrify all of its west side lines, so as to give a second electric line to Portland. Grading of this latter road is about complete and service will begin about the first of the year.

NEW YORK HERALD POLL GIVES TAFT BUT TWO STATES

Concedes Illinois, Michigan and Many Other Big States to Roosevelt—Taft Very Poor Third.

Senator Joseph M. Dixon, chairman of the Progressive national committee, has wired Chairman Gipson of the Idaho state committee, the result of the third nation-wide poll taken by the New York Herald, a newspaper bitterly opposed to Roosevelt. According to this third poll the Roosevelt strength all over the nation is rapidly growing, and the Taft sentiment, what little there was, has waned until in many formerly very strong Republican states, it shows that he will take fourth position, even Debs, the Socialist candidate, being a stronger vote getter than the president. The message is as follows: "New York, Oct. 12, 1912.

"J. H. Gipson, Chairman, Boise, Idaho. "The New York Herald's third nation-wide poll was printed this (Sunday) morning. The Herald is most bitterly opposing Roosevelt and Progressive party, yet its poll shows that Roosevelt and Johnson pluralities in Illinois are 167,000 over Wilson and 276,000 over Taft. "Michigan—Roosevelt plurality over Wilson today 8000; over Taft 55,000. "Connecticut—Roosevelt plurality over Wilson 4000; over Taft 37,000. "Idaho—Roosevelt plurality over Wilson 25,000; over Taft 30,000. "Washington—Roosevelt plurality over Wilson 28,000; over Taft 79,000. "The Herald's poll indicates that Taft will carry only two states by a narrow margin, Wyoming by 600 and Utah by less than 11,000. In all other states except six the poll indicates that Taft will run third except in Connecticut, where Taft takes fourth place, Debs leading him by 15,000. "According to the Herald poll Roosevelt leads Taft in New York by 104,000; New Jersey by 24,900; Maryland by 25,000; Indiana by 95,000; West Virginia by 40,000; Kansas by 35,000; Oklahoma by 30,000; Nebraska by 28,000; Iowa by 48,000; South Dakota by 15,000; California by 40,000; Arizona by 550; Nevada by 2400; Missouri by 40,000; Kentucky by 58,000. "The Herald poll puts Montana, Maine and Vermont in the doubtful list. The Herald estimates are based on individual polls of 154,771 voters scattered throughout all the states. "JOSEPH M. DIXON, "Chairman National Committee."

FORMER IDAHO MINING MAN IS DEAD IN PENNSYLVANIA. Word has been received here of the death of Charles W. Miller, formerly of this state, which occurred at Meadville, Pa., Sept. 25. Mr. Miller was one of the old mining men of the state, having opened up and operated a big property at Atlanta. He sold his interests about two years ago and went to Pennsylvania, where he resided up to the time of his death.

The news of his death came in a letter to Frank Wynan. Mr. Miller was a close friend of Governor Hawley, George W. Fletcher and many others of the oldtimers, especially those who at any time were interested in mining in this state.

GOVERNOR HOME FROM SOUTHERN IDAHO TRIP

Governor James H. Hawley returned last night from the southern part of the state after a week of campaigning. He went away ill but came back feeling greatly improved in health. When seen this morning the governor stated that he was greatly pleased with the week's trip and the enthusiastic receptions given him at all the political meetings held. He opened the week with an address at Gooding and closed with one delivered at Buhl.

In his address at Buhl Governor Hawley defended his veto attached to the public utilities bill and for which he was attacked by G. H. Martin, Progressive candidate for governor. Governor Hawley said he had vetoed the measure and was proud of his action in so doing. He read extracts from the bill, pointing out what he termed its absurdities. He showed where it would have provided enough commissions to have afforded a public office for every voter in the state. Continuing, the governor characterized the bill as the most absurd measure ever passed by a legislature laboring under a mental aberration, and declared that, had he signed it, he would have been committed to a home for the insane or feeble minded. He closed his argument by stating that he had always favored a public utilities commission and that, should he be re-elected and such a bill, properly drawn, be submitted to him, he would gladly affix to it his signature.
