

SCOOP, the Cub Reporter

The City Ed. Knows a Good White Hope When He Sees One.

Copyright, 1912, by The International Syndicate.

By "HOP"

BOISE FOOTBALL MACHINE WORKS IN GREAT STYLE

Nampa Is Slaughtered to the Tune of 61 to 0 by the High School Gridiron Warriors.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL RESULTS

- Boise defeated Nampa high. Score, Boise, 61; Nampa, 0. Weiser defeated Caldwell. Score, Weiser, 7; Caldwell, 0. Caldwell and Nampa are virtually eliminated from the championship series, leaving Boise, Payette and Weiser in the race.

Smashing through the line for big gains, breaking around the ends with splendid interference for long sprints and using the forward pass with fatal effect, Boise high school's football team yesterday defeated the Nampa high eleven by the biggest score of the season, 61 to 0.

were good for one apiece, making nine in all. Johnston kicked six goals and Horrie one. In the last half Coach Worthwine sent in a number of subs who not only held Nampa, but scored as well.

Nampa found little consolation in working the forward pass during the early part of the game. Poor judgment of distances and the blocking of Boise, spoiled most of them. Towards the latter part of the game, however, the visitors were more successful with them, and often gained the required distance. Bad fumbles and sometimes passes into the hands of Boise players kept Nampa from getting over the Boise line.

Big Game with Salt Lake. The defeat of Nampa here and Caldwell's defeat at the hands of Weiser, eliminated Nampa and Caldwell from the championship running.

Next Saturday Boise meets Caldwell and will, in all probability, win. The two hard games will be with Payette and Weiser. The big game for Boise and southern Idaho will be on Saturday, Nov. 2, when the Boise high meets Salt Lake. It will be one of the greatest football contests ever seen in southwestern Idaho, for Salt Lake has a wonderful fighting machine and will come to Boise to win.

It is believed that scouts from the Salt Lake high were in Boise yesterday looking over the local team with a view of getting a line on the style of play Worthwine's machine is putting up. This is evidence that Salt Lake expects to have a hard game with Boise and will prepare for a strenuous football battle.

LACKING IN VETERANS, PENNSY AND PRINCETON EACH MUST REBUILD FORWARD LINE; COACH YOST GATHERS HEAVY SQUAD

Captain Mercer of Pennsylvania, Captain Thomson of Michigan and Captain Pendleton of Princeton. As the football season opens, Princeton and the University of Pennsylvania face practically the same gridiron difficulties. Each has splendid material for a back field, but suffers from lack of veterans for the line. The Tigers are fortunate in having three members of the 1911 back field quartet in Captain Pendleton, Baker and De Witt. Pennsylvania is even better off in the back field, having a veteran quartet in Captain Mercer, Minda, Marshall and Harrington. At the University of Michigan Yost is gathering a heavy squad. Among the eight returning veterans who will surely find a place on the 1912 eleven are Captain Thomas at full, "Bubbles" Patterson at center and Jimmie Craig at half.

BOWLERS HAVING SOME RARE SPORT

Engineers Retain Their Lead With Two Teams Tied for Second.

Table with columns: Club, Won, Lost, Pct. Rows include Engineers, Pirates, Bankers, Idaho Traction, All Stars, Irrigators, State Seals, and Abe Martins.

The city bowling league has finished another week's series and still the fight for the championship is far from being clinched. In fact playing has only added to the speculation as to the strength of the eight clubs participating. So far the Engineers are leading, but the margin that entitles them to the top of the percentage column is so small that they may be easily removed from there with the result of play this week. The Pirates and the Bankers are within striking distance and good bowling will boost them higher. The Abe Martins seem to be making good at the foot of the column, but there are a number of good players with the fun makers and they may be able to cut into their apparently more successful opponents before the season is much older.

Individual Averages. The individual averages compiled as the result of play so far show that Stolle is leading with 184 out of nine games played. These averages are as follows:

Table with columns: Name, Games Played, Average. Rows include Stolle, Henderider, Worley, Dr. Titus, Rogers, Case, Dicke, Charles, Ambrosini, Schultz, Abercrombie, Hester, Whyman, Davis, Allison, Harvey, Greenlee, McKinley, Hamilton, Schenck, Drinkwater, Ness, Sam Langford, Sam McVea, Jim Jackson, Tunny, and Gove.

EXPERT POOL PLAYER WINS FROM LOCALS

Edward Dowd, champion pool player of Canada, who is appearing in exhibition games at the Waldorf pool parlors this week, won both games played Friday afternoon and evening. He defeated Jim Smith, who is regarded as one of the crack cue experts of the city, running 200 balls to Smith's 9, and in turning the trick Dowd made 2 number of small runs like 33, 37 and 59. He scored the 200 in 14 runs with an average of 17 to the run.

AMHERST IS AN EASY VICTIM OF HARVARD

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 19.—It was all Brickley this afternoon and Harvard walked away with Amherst, 46 to 0. The sensational halfback was the cog in the crimson machine in the absence of Captain Wendell. He scored two field goals, one of them from near the sideline, and plunged over the line for four of the six touchdowns.

SWEET REVENGE FOR YALE FROM THE ARMY

West Point, Oct. 19.—Thanks to the work of "Lefty" Flynn, Yale's new "Ted Coy," the eleven of Eli defeated the Army today, 6 to 0, the first time West Point has lost to Yale in three years.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

Table with columns: Club, Won, Lost, Pct. Rows include Oakland, Vernon, Los Angeles, Portland, San Francisco, Sacramento, and others.

FRANK MORAN MATCHED

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—Frank Moran of Pittsburgh and Charlie Horn of San Francisco have been matched to box 10 rounds at Oakland Oct. 30. Horn began training today under the direction of his manager, Tim McGrath.

JOE MANDOT HAS ENGAGED "HOB" DOUGHERTY

Joe Mandot has engaged "Hob" Dougherty, ex-trainer of Ad Wolgast, to train him for his bout with the champion, scheduled for New Orleans, Nov. 2.

JACK JOHNSON BEING WILLING TO MEET SAM LANGFORD

Jack Johnson being willing to meet Sam Langford, Sam McVea and Jim Jackson, Flynn looks good on paper, but fight fans are from Missouri and will have to be shown.

McGOORTY REALLY HOLDS THE TITLE FOR HIS CLASS

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—It is a pity for Eddie McGoorty's sake that his bouts with Australian Dave Smith and English Jack Harrison were not in accordance with middleweight conditions in the matter of poundage. If they had been the question of championship in the 155-pound class, which has been in a sadly vexed condition since Stanley Ketchel died, would be mighty close to a settlement.

YOUNG DIXON IS COMING TO BOISE

Young Dixon of California has been matched by Promoter Mickey Morton to meet Montana Kid, the two lightweights to go on at Forest park in a boxing exhibition Friday night, Nov. 8. The proposed Carpenter-Montana Kid go has been called off but having secured Young Dixon, Promoter Morton has arranged for a card that fans here will not regret. Dixon is touted as one of the toughest boys in the west and while Montana Kid has never met or seen him, he knows the lightweight by reputation and realizes that he is up against one of the fastest boxers in the country.

SYRACUSE OFFERS LITTLE DEFENSE

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 19.—Princeton's game here this afternoon with Syracuse proved to be even less strenuous than a scrimmage with the freshmen, Princeton winning, 62 to 0. Syracuse offered little defense after the first period and the swift Princeton backs ran the ends almost at will.

WITH THE BOXERS

New Haven fans will see their first bouts of the season Oct. 23. "One Round" Hogan and Phil Brock have signed for a clash to take place in Cleveland Oct. 23.

THOMPSON PLACES McGOORTY IN A DUBIOUS LIGHT

This looks like rubbing it in. First of all Thompson places McGoorty in a dubious light by doing the bulk of the light fighting that was done at Cincinnati and then, totally ignoring the fact that McGoorty has just swept the foreign middleweight situation as clean as a whistle, Thompson calmly claims the middleweight laurels.

McGOORTY LIKED THE FOREIGNERS, BUT I HATED McGOORTY

It certainly is high time that the Cyclone and the man from Oshkosh were matched again. More than one critic has remarked lately that fight promoters are going out of business in bunches and that the high prices demanded by ring stars is being suggested that the time

McGOORTY REALLY HOLDS THE TITLE FOR HIS CLASS

His Defeat of Australian and English Middleweight Champions Should Make His Title Clear.

By W. W. Naughton.

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—It is a pity for Eddie McGoorty's sake that his bouts with Australian Dave Smith and English Jack Harrison were not in accordance with middleweight conditions in the matter of poundage. If they had been the question of championship in the 155-pound class, which has been in a sadly vexed condition since Stanley Ketchel died, would be mighty close to a settlement.

McGoorty would have been in a position to say, "my right there is none to dispute," for with the scalps of the Australian and English champions dangling at his girdle it would be easy enough for him to bring confusion to any one inclined to argue that he was claiming too much.

Of course France could claim that until she was vanquished McGoorty's conquest of the middleweight universe was not complete, but the protest from the land of the Gaul would sound like a very still, small voice.

For that matter, judging from the way he handled Smith and Harrison, McGoorty could hop over to Paris and settle the pretensions of George Carpenter in a jiffy. Then with all foreign territory subdued, Eddie could entertain challenges from his own countrymen or else invest in some fanciful sparring costumes and take a long fling at the theatrical game.

But whether it gains him a world's championship or not, McGoorty's work as prominent a figure as there is in the athletic realm today. To begin with the men he defeated were champions of their respective countries, even though the weight requirements were not conformed with when McGoorty came into their lives.

And to knock out a brace of world's champions in less than four minutes of fighting time, all told, and all in the space of three weeks, is a feat that has not been duplicated since men began to box with "muffled hands."

It is to be regretted that, sandwiched in between McGoorty's world's startling performances, was that spiritless go with Cyclone Thompson at Cincinnati. There was something about the affair which did not ring true.

Some of the reports which reached the coast had it that both men were hissed for their slouchy work while others told how the Cyclone chased the Oshkosh boy from pillar to post and went near to knocking him out several times.

The showing with Thompson is as a blot on McGoorty's escutcheon, especially at this time when Eddie is achieving distinction as the quickest demolisher of foreign pugilistic champions the boxing game has known. It looks as though it is up to Eddie to remove the stain by tackling the Cyclone once more and administering a drubbing to him.

Apart from what happened at Cincinnati there is sufficient provocation for a McGoorty-Thompson battle. Thompson, through his manager, one Larry Lychtenstein, has laid claim to the middleweight championship, on the strength of a victory over Billie Papke at the Antipodes.

This looks like rubbing it in. First of all Thompson places McGoorty in a dubious light by doing the bulk of the light fighting that was done at Cincinnati and then, totally ignoring the fact that McGoorty has just swept the foreign middleweight situation as clean as a whistle, Thompson calmly claims the middleweight laurels.

In a way it tantamount to saying, "McGoorty licked the foreigners, but I licked McGoorty." It certainly is high time that the Cyclone and the man from Oshkosh were matched again. More than one critic has remarked lately that fight promoters are going out of business in bunches and that the high prices demanded by ring stars is being suggested that the time

YOUNG DIXON IS COMING TO BOISE

Fast Lightweight From California Is Matched With Montana Kid.

Young Dixon of California has been matched by Promoter Mickey Morton to meet Montana Kid, the two lightweights to go on at Forest park in a boxing exhibition Friday night, Nov. 8. The proposed Carpenter-Montana Kid go has been called off but having secured Young Dixon, Promoter Morton has arranged for a card that fans here will not regret. Dixon is touted as one of the toughest boys in the west and while Montana Kid has never met or seen him, he knows the lightweight by reputation and realizes that he is up against one of the fastest boxers in the country.

Montana Kid went on here with Tommy Driscoll and defeated him in 10 rounds of clever fighting. Owing to counter attractions the go was not a profitable one from the gate end and although the exhibition was one of the best, few fans saw it. Those who did as well as those who did not have been anxious to have Montana Kid remain here and match with some other fast lightweight. The services of Mickey Morton were secured and when that was accomplished, it was taken as settled that some good lightweight would be secured. Had it not been for the fact that Young Dixon was at Coeur d'Alene it is very probable that he would not have consented to include Boise in his itinerary, but he was, so Promoter Mickey Morton promptly opened and closed negotiations with him. He will be here the early part of next week.

Carpenter, who was to have met Montana Kid took it into his head to box prior to the date of that match at La Grande with a welterweight there, just as he had done prior to his go with Fighting Dick LaRue when he went to Shoshone and matched. That settled Carpenter as a possibility to match here so far as Promoter Morton was concerned and Carpenter was not put on the cards.

SYRACUSE OFFERS LITTLE DEFENSE

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 19.—Princeton's game here this afternoon with Syracuse proved to be even less strenuous than a scrimmage with the freshmen, Princeton winning, 62 to 0. Syracuse offered little defense after the first period and the swift Princeton backs ran the ends almost at will.

Pendleton Dewitt and S. Baker made two touchdowns each, and S. Waller and Emmers scored once each. The Tiger defense had one test, when it held Syracuse on the five-yard line.

WITH THE BOXERS

New Haven fans will see their first bouts of the season Oct. 23. "One Round" Hogan and Phil Brock have signed for a clash to take place in Cleveland Oct. 23.

THOMPSON PLACES McGOORTY IN A DUBIOUS LIGHT

This looks like rubbing it in. First of all Thompson places McGoorty in a dubious light by doing the bulk of the light fighting that was done at Cincinnati and then, totally ignoring the fact that McGoorty has just swept the foreign middleweight situation as clean as a whistle, Thompson calmly claims the middleweight laurels.

In a way it tantamount to saying, "McGoorty licked the foreigners, but I licked McGoorty." It certainly is high time that the Cyclone and the man from Oshkosh were matched again. More than one critic has remarked lately that fight promoters are going out of business in bunches and that the high prices demanded by ring stars is being suggested that the time