When the blaze was extinguished Hyde's body was found. He was still holding the photograph of a beautiful young woman in his hand.

BEVERIDGE SENT MONEY BACK TO GEO. W. PERKINS

New York Man Gave Him $30,000 in His Campaign for Re-election to the Sen- ate in 1904.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Former Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana, before the Clapp committee today, corroborated other testimony that in his 1904 campaign for the senate he received $30,000 from George W. Perkins, $25,000 from Edward L. McLean and $25,000 from Gifford Pinchot. Perkins had testified that he gave Beveridge $10,000 which was returned.

Beveridge testified that he received one draft and two certificates of deposit from Perkins. He said he returned all the money the day after election. He produced letters to both Perkins and McLean returning the money. Each letter was witnessed and signed by L. G. Rothschild, John F. Hayes, Lars Whitcomb and Thomas R. Shipp. The indorsement on each letter certified that the witness had seen the money enclosed and seen the letter sealed and sent. Beveridge said no other funds were furnished him by Perkins.

"Did he give you any money to finance the Indianapolis Star?" asked Senator Pomerene.
Beveridge said he did not.

EDITOR IS SUED FOR SLANDER BY COL. ROOSEVELT

Action Brought Because of the Campaign of Vilification Being Waged by the Partisan Press.

Marquette, Mich., Oct. 26.—Suit for $10,000 for libel was filed yesterday by a Detroit attorney, acting for Theodore Roosevelt, against George A. Newett, editor of the Iron Ore of Ishpeming, Mich. The praecipe alleges libel in that Newett printed an article in his paper charging that Colonel Roosevelt was intemperate in the use of language and liquor.

Reasons for Action.
New York, Oct. 26.—That the charges over which the Michigan suit was filed constituted the culmination of "an insidious campaign of slander" against Colonel Roosevelt is the declaration of the Progressive national committee in a statement last night.

"Knowing the cruel falsity of this charge," the statement says, "those who have been interested in circulating it have been in the dark and under cover. No respectable person of responsibility, so far as he is known to Colonel Roosevelt and his friends, has dared to make this charge in an open and responsible way until Mr. Newett made it in his newspaper."
"On Monday, Oct. 14, the day he was shot, Colonel Roosevelt was in Chicago, preparing to go to Milwaukee, when a copy of the paper was put in his hands. Upon reading the article Colonel Roosevelt gave directions to proceed against Mr. Newett at once."

"Colonel Roosevelt, however, in taking this action, is not seeking to recover money damages, and the amount asked in the suit is therefore fixed at a nominal sum."

The statement adds that the action was begun because by the publication in question "Mr. Newett has furnished the first opportunity that Colonel Roosevelt or his friends have been able to 'find' for the 'prompt disproof' of the charges."

WILL NOT NAME SENATOR AT PRESENT

Governor Hawley De- cides to Wait Until After Election

NORTH IDAHO MAN IN LINE FOR THE PLACE

Declares That the Democrat Named to Succeed Senator Heyburn Will Be From Panhandle—Much Specu- lation Concerning Complicated Situation.

No Appointment Until After Election.
"I will not announce my appointment of a senator to fill the interim until the legislature elects until after election. I have made up my mind to appoint a north Idaho Democrat to the position, although I have not made my decision as to the individual."—Excerpt from address of Governor James H. Hawley delivered at Idaho Falls.

The rumors and counter rumors that Governor Hawley had made his selection from among the many north Idaho candidates to fill the recess senatorial appointment, are emphatically denied by the chief executive in his address at Idaho Falls this week. Governor Hawley announced that he proposed to select a Democrat from the panhandle. He declares, however, he has not decided who will be given the honor.

Political circles were interested today in the report that a large sized boom for the recess appointment had been started by the friends of Judge J. H. Forney of Moscow. The judge is a typical Democrat of the old school who has been a loyal advocate of Democratic principles. He has always been prominent in party councils and is considered conspicuously able to give honor to such an appointment, it is claimed by his ardent friends, who have charge of his boom.

Confidence with Clark People.
Governor Hawley did not escape from the southeast on his recent trip without a conference with the prominent Democrats behind the D. Worth Clark boom. What the outcome of this conference was, cannot be ascertained. Clark was urged as the recess appointee by his backers, the argument being put forth that it was not necessary to send the appointment north, for it is but a recess one and honorary, therefore it could just as well go to southeastern Idaho. Strong pressure was brought to bear upon Governor Hawley to see this argument, but it is understood that he stood firm in his determination to select the appointee from among the senatorial timber in the northern part of the state. The Clark backers have, however, not given up hope. They expect to back their man to the last.

Would Eliminate Rival.
It is now said by party leaders that the appointment by Governor Hawley all depends upon the result of the election. They claim that should the legislature be Democratic, the governor may enter into a combination deal by which the man he will appoint from the north, will be one of the two out-and-out candidates for senatorial honors before the next legislature, or George W. Tannahill of Lewiston and Frank R. Moore of Moscow. By appointing the stronger of the two, it is claimed the governor will successfully dispose of his most dangerous rival, and will at the same time pave the way for his own candidacy when the legislature meets, gaining the support of the north Idaho members of that body. Should such a combination as this be formed, and it all depends upon the complexion of the legislature, the governor will select the north Idaho man to receive the recess appointment as the one who he wishes to team with, it is claimed.
May Appoint Himself.
Governor Hawley may be defeated for re-election, or the legislature may, and probably will be, Republican. Many things are possible then. The governor is ambitious to wear a toga. He has a burning desire to be a member of the United States senate, even if but for a month, declare those close to the present situation. In the event of his defeat, it is pointed out, it is not at all improbable but that the governor will endeavor to grasp the re-entrance. Why could not the governor appoint himself to fill the recess vacancy? That query has been
