Declare War on Colds. A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold: "Don't sit in a draughty car." "Don't sleep in hot rooms." "Don't avoid the fresh air." "Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces your resistance." To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all dealers. Adv. T Th 8

EMMETT NEWS NOTES. (Capital News Special Service) Emmett, Nov. 5.—Superintendent J. T. Barnes was attending business in Emmett and Montour Friday. Rev. C. L. Bent will preach the union Thanksgiving sermon in the Methodist church. Misses Alice Holmerson, Ora and Blanche Fowler went to Boise Friday on a business visit. Ben Demasters has traded his town property for a ranch at Sweet. The ranch was formerly owned by Mr. Demaster's father-in-law, Robert Badley. Green Riggs will take charge of the cash grocery delivery wagon when Mr. Demasters leaves. W. Baker, of the Golden Rule, left for New Plymouth Friday with a stock of goods. He will start a store there. The Holloween social held by the Baptist Young People's union was a decided success. The basement of the church was used for a social room. Florence Boor spent three days this week in Fruitland visiting her mother. The program for the annual lecture-entertainment course was made out this week. It is to consist of five numbers. The officers elected by the association were Professor G. D. Knipe, president; Rev. Parker, secretary, and V. T. Craig, treasurer. The course will be made an entertaining this year as it was last.

Professor M. E. Lewis of Lewiston was here Friday on a business visit.

A Night of Terror. Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all dealers. Adv. T Th 8
