

GOVERNOR-ELECT HAINES RETURNS AND IS BUSY MAN

The First Appointment Announced Is That of Captain E. G. Davis as Private Secretary.

Governor-elect John M. Haines, accompanied by Mrs. Haines and Mr. Haines' father, Isaac L. Haines of Jasper county, Iowa, returned last night from an extended business trip to California and a journey to Iowa, where the father of Mr. Haines was induced to come to Boise and spend the winter with his son. When interviewed today, Governor-elect Haines authorized the announcement he had appointed Captain E. G. Davis his private secretary, and declared that he proposed to be governor of all the people of this state, instead of a faction, and would counsel with all Republicans on the needs of Idaho and the legislation to be enacted. He denied that he had given interviews as reproduced in coast papers in which he was placed in the light of criticizing progressive Republicans.

"I realize that I have an important duty before me during the next two weeks in the selection of the men who will take charge of departments in the state government," said Mr. Haines. "My business kept me in California longer than I expected but now that I have returned I propose to give the important matters that confront me close attention before taking up the active duties of governor."

"I induced my father to accompany me back to Boise and to remain during the winter with me here. He is now with us and will make his home at our home."

Report Erroneous.

"As was to be expected, perhaps, I was besieged by newspaper reporters in the various towns which I visited, particularly in Portland and San Francisco, who tried in every way possible to get statements from me with reference to political conditions in Idaho. They seemed particularly anxious to know what my attitude as governor would be toward the different factions of the Republican party, and the policy I would follow in such state appointments as will fall within my power. The published reports of such porters have done me great injustice, for the reason that they contained little if any truth."

"I did not say at Portland, for instance, that the Republicans of Idaho will no longer recognize the so-called Progressives as belonging to our party or being even an adjunct to our party. The balance of the country may do as it pleases, but in Idaho we propose to continue the Republican party in all its purity, and fight our battles along the same lines as in the past."

"What I did say then and what I say now is that the Republican party is the dominant party in Idaho and that we expect to continue it as such by bringing about within the party every reform necessary to keep the Republican party in the future as it has been in the past the party of progress and advancement in this state."

Represents No Faction.

"I desire to repeat now, having been elected governor of the state of Idaho, what I said in a public statement issued after the official canvass of the votes cast at the primary election showed that I had been nominated by the Republican party as its candidate for this office, that I shall regard myself as the governor of the whole people and not as the governor of a party or faction within a party."

"No special interest of any kind need expect favors at my hands, nor shall the rights of the humblest individuals ever fail to command my careful attention and fullest consideration."

"As I stated at that time also, I shall insist upon an honest performance of every pledge contained in the party platform on which I was elected. The legislature being overwhelmingly Republican, I shall take the ground that the members of our party must not measure and limit their obligations to the people by the statements contained in the party platform."

"It is my belief, and I shall so advise the legislature, that their party platform is to be considered as a measure of performance below which the dominant party must not fall, but that it is in no wise to be considered a limit beyond which it may not go. In this view of the matter I shall not hesitate to recommend to the careful consideration of the legislature all such matters of progressive legislation as the people have shown themselves interested in, notwithstanding the fact that these matters may not be included within the platform of my party."

"All legislation which I believe to be for the best interests of the people of this state I shall unhesitatingly recommend and to the best of my ability insist upon, whether it is promised in the platform of the Republican, Democratic or the Progressive parties, or whether it may have been overlooked by those who framed the platform of all these parties."

"I expect to devote the best energies of my life toward making my administration the most economical, the most efficient and the most progressive which we have had in this state, and it is my purpose, by a wise exercise of the appointive power vested in me, to associate with myself those members of my party who are best able to help me accomplish these results. If no can be brought about here will be no excuse for the continued existence of this state of a third party. The Republican party will have been shown to be the progressive party of the state, the party most vitally interested in the welfare of the state, and the party to be trusted with the administration of public affairs."

"If this can be brought about, also, those members of the Republican party who have temporarily allied themselves with the third party movement in this state will be glad to renew their allegiance to the Republican party, for will have been made all that they could desire in the matter of due and proper regard to the rights of all the people, since the government will have been brought close to the people and will have been made responsive to their every just demand."

"Holding such views I would be manifestly improper for me to issue any statement which could possibly be construed as a threat, or as a desire to read out of the Republican party any man who now calls or who ever has called himself a Republican."

"Should Return to Party." "Those Republicans who, in this campaign, for reasons which were no doubt satisfactory to them, thought it necessary to temporarily sever their connections with the Republican party, should now return to their party allegiance and should be willing to work with us for the accomplishment of such results as will demonstrate beyond all question of doubt that there is no room in this state for a division of the Republican party on questions of real progress or progressive legislation. All this is, of course, wholly apart from the question which existed in the minds of many in the campaign through which we have just passed as to the necessity of such a division."

"Instead, therefore, of being counted out of the party, those members of the Progressive party who were Republicans will be welcomed back into the party and will be invited to confer with and assist us in every proper manner in bringing about the best results for the people of this state. The war is over; let us have peace and progress."

THREE MORE GAMES TO BE PLAYED IN EAST

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—Three more important games remain on the football schedule in the east, the season closing with the Army-Navy game here next Saturday. Thanksgiving Pennsylvania is expected to add another victory to her long series of triumphs over Cornell.

The Indian-Brown game is regarded as a doubtful proposition, owing to the poor defense shown by Carlisle in the last few contests.

The Army-Navy game at Franklin field will be the same blue ribbon event as in previous years. The cadets have been beaten by Yale and Carlisle and the sailors by Lehigh, Swarthmore and Bucknell. West Point's team is considered a better balanced eleven than the Annapolis team, and the soldiers are the favorites here.

BONNER MAN OUT FOR SPEAKERSHIP FOR ENGINEERS

A. H. Connor Deplores What He Calls Attempt to Divide Party.

A. H. Connor, representative-elect of Bonner county, is out in the open with a statement in which he makes it plain he is a candidate for speaker of the house of representatives of the Twelfth Idaho legislature. He declares in his statement that he deprecates the attempt he thinks is being made to divide the members of the next legislature along progressive and reactionary lines, and points out that in the north he has been classed as a conservative and in the south as a progressive. His statement is as follows:

"Of course, I would like to be speaker. The movement, like all other candidacies, was started by some of my friends and has been favorably received both in this and other counties. While I would appreciate the office for the honor which it confers, my sole desire is to work where I can do the most good for the Republican party and the people of the state. In the north I have been classed as a conservative and in the south, owing to my advocacy of certain measures in the state and county platforms, I have been classed as a progressive. I believe that the future of the Republican party in Idaho will depend to a large extent upon the next legislature. I would deplore any division among the members of that body along with the so-called progressive and conservative lines, and I think that all of the members should soften their ideas sufficiently to permit concerted action in both bodies of the legislature in the consideration and passage of those progressive measures which have been advocated in our state and county platforms. If the members think I can aid in accomplishing this by being speaker, it will be my pleasure to do everything possible to that end. If they think I can do more in some other capacity I will be perfectly satisfied to relinquish any ambition that arises from a personal desire to be the presiding officer of the house."

Mr. Connor further stated that he had received warm assurances of support not only from his own county, but from various other counties in the north and from his numerous friends in the south. Mr. Connor was one of the floor leaders in the Ninth session of the legislature, he having represented Shoshone county in that body.

PARTIAL VICTORY FOR ENGINEERS

Washington, Nov. 25.—Thirty thousand locomotive engineers on 52 railroads gain a partial victory in their demand for more wages, under the award announced yesterday by the board of arbitration.

The board holds that the public, which had no voice in the controversy, had more at stake than the engineers or railroads, and emphasized the necessity of plans to safeguard the public against the possibility of a future strike.

"It would be difficult to exaggerate the seriousness of such a calamity," reads the report. "It is safe to say that the larger cities of the east would find the supply of many articles of food exhausted within a week. The interests of the public so far exceed those of the parties to a controversy as to render the former paramount. To this paramount interest both the railroad operators and the employers should submit."

The board advocates the creation of the federal and state wage commission. The commission, the board suggests, should be vested with practically the same powers over organized labor as public utilities committees now exercise over the quasi-public corporations.

The award dates back to May 1 and will hold for one year from that date. Mr. Morrissey, representing the engineers, already has indicated doubt as to its renewal. The attitude of the railroads, as outlined in a statement by President Willard of the Baltimore & Ohio, who represented the railroads on the arbitration board, is indefinite as to the future.

WALKING IN SLEEP WOMAN FALLS FROM A 7-STORY WINDOW

New York, Nov. 25.—Dreaming of fire in her apartment, Mrs. Ida Radt, wife of a New York banker, walked in her sleep through a window in an uptown hotel early this morning and plunged down straight seven stories. She was seriously if not fatally hurt.

GIRL MAKES CHARGES AGAINST SHOW PEOPLE

Atlanta, Nov. 25.—Disclosure by Miss Genevieve Goodwin, 19 years old, of Cincinnati, O., of an alleged attempt to use her as a "white slave" resulted in the arrest here of Mrs. Emma Pauline Hudson, manager, and Robert Grier, stage director of a musical comedy company on federal warrants charging violation of the Mann act.

Mrs. Hudson and Grier will be arraigned before United States Commissioner Fuller next Tuesday. According to Miss Goodwin's story she was until recently a trained nurse in the city hospital at Cleveland. She listed an application with a Cincinnati theatrical employment agency, and she said, last week was directed to the comedy company, with an offer of $10 a week and her transportation.

Upon her arrival here, she alleges, Mrs. Hudson informed her that she would have to "pass as the wife" of one of the two "odd men" in the company. Miss Goodwin asked for her rights to Cincinnati. She states that this was refused and she notified the police. The entire troupe was brought to the police station. Mrs. Hudson and Robert Grier first were held on a charge of disorderly conduct, and later were taken into custody on federal warrants. The others were released.

Miss Goodwin says she is the daughter of a prominent Cincinnati broker, but refuses to give her name.

VILLAGES DESTROYED BY MEXICAN TROOPS

Mexico City, Nov. 25.—Not less than 25 villages have been destroyed in the state of Oaxaca in the last 10 days by government troops. The administration believed the revolution in that vicinity had been cowed by the terrible warfare that had been waged and sanctioned order for the retirement of the greater part of the federals from the state.

Five hundred Indians have surrendered, but a large part of these were without arms, affording some basis for the unofficial declarations that little of real value had been accomplished toward the subjugation of the rebels, who, it is feared by the residents of the city of Oaxaca, will redouble their efforts, with the added motive of revenge.

In spite of the fact that the federals in all the districts infested by Zapatistas have been using the right conferred by the suspension of the guarantees to execute summarily, there is little improvement in the general situation. In no less than 46 engagements reported last week, the federals claim victories, but they have been for the most part insignificant.

Two circulars have been issued, signed by Zapatistas. One demands that the owners of haciendas unite to contribute 5000 pesos a week to the rebel cause in certain fixed areas; the other urges planters to hurry the work of the peons or their plantations as much as possible, because Zapata soon will require all able bodied men. Destruction of their property is the alternative offered.

Plans for withdrawing a large number of federals from the north to join the campaign against rebels in the south are maturing. Many volunteers who enlisted to fight Orozco are being mustered out, having served the stipulated six months. Efforts are being made to maintain the strength of the army, however, and as a result many prisoners are being drafted.

HOPE FOR PRESERVING

from the ill can be accomplished.

Belgrade, Nov. 25.—The Servians have captured Ochrida, in Albania, without resistance.

In response to an inquiry from a Servian general as to whether Greece could provision troops operating along the Adriatic coast, the king of Greece has replied that he would be glad to testify to his admiration for the boundless bravery of the Servian army by sending Greek ships for that purpose.

Reports have been received of a battle preceding the capture of Monastir, described as "the bloodiest of the whole war." They say Shekhi Pasha escaped in the direction of Florina, and that Pethi Pasha, who occupied the center position immediately before Monastir, retired with his defeated army toward Resna, but was overtaken and killed and his army routed.

The Servian troops managed to cross the Chorna river with the greatest difficulty and at a heavy cost, as the Turks were strongly entrenched on the banks. The Servians had to take position after position at the point of the bayonet in desperate hand-to-hand fighting.

For Garrison Duty. Sofia, Nov. 25.—After 21 days' training, the 1912 recruits will leave Sofia today for garrison duty in Macedonia, where a majority of the Greek and Servian forces are held in readiness to go to Tchatalja in event of failure of the peace negotiations. Railway communication has been established along the whole line at Demotica, Eski Baba, Kirk Kilesseh and other points. This will facilitate the concentration of the forces at the front, should the war be resumed.

It is announced confidently that the combined forces will enter Constantinople together. The foreign attaches who have been at Kirk Kilesseh for the last week returned to Stara Zagora yesterday. The Bulgarian plenipotentiaries have arrived at Tchatalja. The meeting of the respective representatives will take place between the two armies.

One Case in Sofia. Sofia, Nov. 24.—The examination into the case of a soldier sent here showed he was suffering from cholera. No further suspected cases have developed in Sofia.

American Cruisers Proceed. Gibraltar, Nov. 25.—The cruisers Tennessee and Montana, which arrived here Thursday under command of Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight, proceeded for Turkish waters yesterday in the protection of American citizens. The Tennessee sailed for Smyrna and the Montana for Beirut.

Greek Vessels for Bulgarians. Athens, Nov. 25.—A Saloniki dispatch says the Seventh division of the Bulgarian troops is leaving that city. Twenty-nine Greek vessels have been engaged as transports.

Safeguarding Roumanian Interests. London, Nov. 25.—As the war approaches a conclusion, public opinion in Bucharest, according to the correspondent of the Standard, is getting more excited with reference to safeguarding Roumanian interests.

Masses were held Sunday to protest against the reported Greek persecution of the Kutzvachas in Macedonia. The leaders of this race strongly object to the division of Macedonia between Greece, Bulgaria and Serbia, as they fear their own nationality would be squeezed out. Roumania intends to secure guarantees against this.

It is said Roumania is not claiming Rusehuk and Varna, as this would add a large Bulgarian population to Roumania, but only Sillistria and the frontier running thence to the Black sea at a point considerably north of Varna. Dr. Danef, president of the Bulgarian chamber of deputies, is expected at Bucharest to negotiate these claims.

The peace delegate Osman Nizam Pasha, the Turkish ambassador to Germany, arrived at Bucharest Sunday. He will have an interview with King Charles before leaving and it is expected that Roumania will make its influence felt in the negotiations on the peace terms.

No Serious Fighting. London, Nov. 25.—No serious fighting is reported on the Tchatalja lines where both sides appear awaiting the issue of armistice.

Bulgaria is shipping her forces from Saloniki in Greek transports, presumably for transfer to Gallipoli peninsula, where Turkey also is strengthening her forces by Anatolian troops. Here an attempt will be made by the allies, assisted by the Greek fleet, to take the Dardanelles.

The rest of the allied forces liberated in Macedonia will be sent by rail as speedily as possible to reinforce the Bulgarians attacking the Tchatalja lines. Their places will be taken by the Bulgarian 1912 recruits who, after three weeks' training, are being drafted into Macedonia for garrison duty.

The only news of military importance last night was the occupation by the Servians of Ochrida, a large town near Monastir. The positions at Adrianople and Sautari apparently are unchanged. Official statements at Vienna continue to defy the reported war preparations. Letters from Vienna have reached London, however, confirming reports that the strength of six army corps is being increased and that a large number of reservists have been
