BOISE IS ANXIOUS TO MEET THE CHAMPIONS OF STATE OF OREGON

Boise football enthusiasts are endeavoring to bring the Boise high school team and the Washington high school eleven of Portland together following the Thanksgiving battle here Thursday between Coach Worthwain's huskies and the Twin Falls team, champions of the southeastern Idaho interscholastic league. Washington won the championship title from the Lincoln high of Portland in the deciding game played off last week at Portland. Fans here believe that if the Washington eleven can be induced to come to Boise and play for the championship of the two states, the game would be one of the best possible drawing cards. Coach Worthwain rather favors the match.

Washington high piled up a score of 21 to 0 against the Lincoln team, although the dope had indicated a close score at the finish.

Amusements

At the New Boz.

The feature of the bill shown at the New Boz for the first half of the week, a bill which is excellently balanced and includes all good pictures, is a Selig production taken from Chateaubriand's masterpiece, "Atala." The story deals with the days of St. Augustine and the lead as played by Hobart Bosworth is portrayed in all its vividness. Bosworth is well supported by a good company and the photography and some of the outdoor scenes are excellent. Another good drama shown is "Jim," written by James Oppenheim and made by the Edison actors. It is up to the well known Edison standard. "A Fugitive From Justice" is another one of the good pictures on the bill and the laughs are produced by Vitagraph's "The Unexpected Honey-moon" with Flora Finch taking one of the leading parts.

Bill at Empress.

For Thanksgiving week the Empress management has secured a bill that furnishes a variety of amusement that pleases all.

Eul and the La Vigne sisters, who top the list, come direct from the Pantheons circuit and introduce a song and dance act that is splendid. Mr. Eul's acrobatic dancing made a big hit with the audience. The act is beautifully

EASY AND SURE WAY TO CURE COLDS

Don't Neglect a Cold, Ely's Cream Balm Will Stop It in the Sneezing Stage.

A cold generally attacks the weakest part, affecting the eyes and ears in some and producing nasal catarrh and throat troubles in others. A cold is due to an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and may be promptly cured with a little Ely's Cream Balm, which immediately relieves the inflammation and all the distressing symptoms, such as sneezing, coughing, running at the nose and eyes, hoarseness, sore throat, fever and headache. One reason why this pure, antiseptic Balm acts so quickly is because it is applied directly to the tender, sore surfaces.

Even in severe, chronic cases of catarrh, Ely's Cream Balm never fails to quickly and effectually check the poisonous discharge which clogs the head and throat, causing the disgusting hawking, spitting and blowing of the nose. This remedy not only drives out the disease, but heals and strengthens the weakened membranes, thus ending catarrh.

Catarrh is a filthy, disgusting disease. Don't put up with it another day. Get a 50-cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and see how quickly you will be relieved. It is perfectly harmless. Agent, Whitehead drug store.—Adv.

costumed and is high classed throughout.

The Sterling brothers do some excellent hand balancing and Roman ring work. They perform some wonderful feats of strength and their act is pleasing.

Otis Mitchell, banjoist and instrumentalist, makes a big hit with his selections.

Jack Hearn in his portrayal of a southern deacon is fine and keeps the audience in a constant uproar with his comical talk. Mr. Hearn will be remembered by many of the Empress patrons as having appeared here three years ago and those who enjoyed him then will be glad to hear him again.

Con Daley and his beautiful tenor voice is growing more popular each week. His songs are catchy and his way of singing them makes one enjoy him more each week.

The Empress company completes the bill. Manager Dupuy is to be congratulated on this week's bill and on his policy to make each week better than ever and the house is enjoying an ever increasing patronage. It is good clean, refined vaudeville from start to finish.

"Polly of the Circus."

What an interesting bit of humanity—for that is all she is, with her sweet, childish face and not too long frocks—Miss Elsie St. Leon of "Polly of the Circus" is.

In this rush-a-day world where the majority of mankind have lost the spreading glow of content and first freshness of outlook, it is a good thing to spend half an hour in such company with their enthusiasms—for an interview with Miss Elsie St. Leon, includes her mother, Mrs. St. Leon, and Miss Vera St. Leon, who make up part of her real family as well as the stage circus folk—and spontaneous way of seeing every thing through unfiltered glasses, they are as refreshing as a breeze straight from the hills.

For they are really circus people, you see, Miss Elsie having been born in China and Miss Vera St. Leon in Australia, while several other members of the family claim different eastern countries as their birth places. So, while they have been decidedly in the world, covering it from one roundness to the other, they can hardly be said to have been of it, being such busy people, and living within the circle of a circus city of several hundred people only.

And that explains in part, perhaps, although wholesome family circle atmosphere has something to do with it, I fancied when looking at the mother.

Already since going into the broader field, they have been among the spectators at one of the "big shows," but it was Miss Vera alone who, with a determined yet embarrassed nodding, confessed to a "queer feeling" and an inclination to be "one of them" and not an outsider when "that band began to play." Mamma looked dubiously at Miss Elsie and Miss Elsie herself had not the smallest fraction of a doubt. She will have none of it. From a wee sma' mite, she had "played at acting" and hoped for the opportunity which finally came so unexpected through the sudden illness of the "leading lady." All the time she was one of the circus acts and just because she had satisfied a passion for acting by spending her leisure "playing the part" she was able to step into the breach. And now she is on the road with high hopes for the future and a great present content in that they are still all together.

For all Miss Elsie has been before the public eye since she was four years of age, her life has been far more sheltered than most of ours and it seems heretofore had little conversation with the real "Polly" herself, the others telling the tale for her, but today she—so much to be happy about—chatted and smiled her Polly smile, only more so (there is so much to be happy about all the time) and looked barely 15 instead of 18, which she really is. And at parting Mrs. St. Leon said: "Elsie was so glad when she found you were to be a lady," and Miss Elsie herself said: "Yes, it is all so new to me, you see, and I don't know what to say to the men."

She so frankly and girlishly loves the new life and liberty, and is so interested in her work—Miss St. Leon says they have to "make her all fresh again" after her real tears in the second act—that it seems hard to even allow a suggestive thought of the possibility of her having to go back to the more confining daily round.

Miss St. Leon will be seen at the Pinney on Dec. 4 and 5.

"Are You a Knight?"

"Are You a Knight?" one of the most successful comedies ever written by the well known playwright, Leo Ditrichstein, will be presented at the Pinney theater on the evenings of Thursday and Friday, Dec. 12 and 13, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus whose former efforts in this line have always met with unqualified success. Past precautions by these clever thespians speak eloquently for what may be looked forward to in the forthcoming offering. The comedy is perhaps one of the funniest ever produced in this country and it has had long runs in New York, Chicago and Boston, besides all of the other large cities of importance in the United States. It enjoys the distinction of having been translated into more foreign languages than any other comedy on record and it is, at present, the reigning comedy success at the Royal theater in Berlin. Bookings in this country were so arranged that the road company did not come to Boise and it was owing to this fact that the Knights of Columbus were able to secure it for their annual production. Entailing minute care in the preparation of each role and in the general ensemble, the ambitious undertaking of those concerned is worthy of more than passing notice.

As in the past so on this occasion the Knights have left no stone unturned to select as perfect a cast as was possible and to give a performance above the average of many of the traveling professional companies that solicit patronage at the hands of Boise theatergoers. Rehearsals are being held nightly and are going merrily forward, each member of the cast working with a will that is inspiring and each getting all of the fun possible out of his and her individual role. Such capable players as Mrs. E. G. Davis, Mrs. B. F. Griffith, Miss Anna Daly, Miss Mabel Murray, Miss Lorrette Downs, Nick Villeneuve, John M. Regan, Fritz Hummel, E. H. Van Valkenburg and John Scott, all of whom have appeared in the former productions under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, attest to the care and zeal with which the committee of management has gone about its work of selecting the cast. To these names have been added three newcomers, who will have their first opportunity of appearing before the local public, each of whom was picked after much minute and thorough deliberation. They are Miss McAndrews, Miss McAtee and Lawrence Mallison.

The ticket sale is on in full swing and the ticket committee reports the largest advance sale in the history of the organization's productions. What tickets are left will be rapidly disposed of and all tickets sold are exchangeable for reserved seats at the box office of the Pinney theater on and after the tenth of December. A very attractive souvenir program, always a feature of the Knights of Columbus' performances, will be gotten out again this year. A capable orchestra is now working on the entire act music and every minute between now and the time for the production of "Are You a Knight?" will be taken up by all those concerned.

Famous "Pint of Cough Syrup" Receipt

No Better Remedy at Any Price. Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of granulated sugar and ½ pint of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 2½ ounces of pure Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of $2. It never spoils. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold instantly, and will usually stop the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough, and has a pleasing taste. Also excellent for bronchial trouble, throat tickle, sore lungs and asthma, and an unequalled remedy for whooping cough and croup.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (or strained honey) is a prime favorite in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has been initiated, though never successfully. If you try it, use only genuine Pinex, which is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in gualic acid and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this recipe.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

NO ACTION TAKEN IN THE NORTH SIDE CASE

The state land board failed to muster a quorum yesterday and as a result the north side Twin Falls controversy was forced to go over until Dec. 16 before a verdict can be reached. The case was set for final hearing yesterday. It had been set before for final hearing but action was postponed. The governor and Secretary of State Gifford were the only members of the board who responded to the roll call yesterday afternoon and the case has gone over to next month as a result.

The settlers are demanding a forfeiture of contract in this case. They made the demand last spring. The company has contested the motion and the issue has been hanging fire for months before the board.

If your watch passes through our repair department and does not give satisfaction we will give a new movement in exchange.
