

TURKISH CABINET HAS APPROVED TERMS OF PROTOCOL

Document Will Be Formally Signed Today—Details of the Agreement Are Not Made Public

Constantinople, Dec. 1.—(Sunday)—The Turkish cabinet early today approved the peace protocol agreed on by the Ottoman and the allies' representatives.

It could not be learned, however, what arrangement was reached concerning the wide area in western Turkey overrun by Serbia and Greece.

It is expected the Bulgarian force before Tebatlja will return home immediately.

London, Nov. 30.—Assurances that Turkey and the Balkan allies will sign a peace protocol Monday was interpreted here tonight as, on the whole, a development calculated to improve relations between the big powers.

It was realized that with the restoration of peace in the Balkans the question of each interest's claim in European peace will become pressing.

Holiday business has suffered throughout Europe as a result of the war scare. In the Balkan states this was to be expected with war actually on.

Continues Military Preparations. Tonight's messages from the continent described Austria's continuing its military preparations and bank depositors both in Austria and Germany as having withdrawn huge sums of money during the day.

Only Nominal Independence. The general impression here was that the country will be allowed to retain nominal independence, really being an Austrian protectorate, owing just enough allegiance to Turkey to save the sultan's face and with Serbia entitled to a commercial outlet to the Adriatic by way of Durazzo, as Ismail Kemal Bey doubtless inspired from Vienna, has already offered.

Bulgaria and Greece were expected to get enough Turkish territory to enable their governments to tell the people they have won.

To Watch Operations. Sofia, Nov. 30.—That J. P. Morgan, Jr., is expected here soon and has asked the government's permission to watch the army's operations at Tebatlja was reported tonight.

Index of Today's Paper.

- First Section. 1—Turkish Cabinet Approves Terms of Protocol; Inaugural Festivities to Be Held April 24; Detective Burns Talks Stand; Dynamite Trial; Detectives Show Jack Johnson; Demonstration in Etor in New York; Dubois in Line for Cabinet Place; King Leader of Smugglers Sent to Prison; Patrick Decides to Fight for Rice Millions; 2—Caucasus of Idaho Vote Is Complete; Boy Medler Puzzles Aliens; 3—Uncle Sam Is Collecting Agency Under Paris Post Law; Improvement in Mail Delivery; 4—Radical Changes in Marriage and Divorce Laws Proposed by Judge Davis; 5—Reform School of New York Is Model Institution; Report on Carey Act Department; 6—Your Defeat Army, 6 to 0; Other Sports; 7—Beaver River Power Company Extending Line to Meridian, Nampa, and Caldwell; Great Gold Strike in Eastern Oregon; 8—Enemies of Brah Abandon Plan; Defeat Him Senators and Congressmen Ready for Fall of Gavel; Attorney General Holds That Amendment Proposed by Adams Is Self-executing; Russia and China at Brink of War; Alleged Forger Under Arrest; Decision Against Railroad by Supreme Court; 9—Evanella Small Predicts Prohibition Will Be National Issue; Mountain Home Project to Have Additional Acreage; Second Section. Pages 1—Fiction News; Pages 2 and 3—Theaters This Week; Page 4—Editorial and Features; Page 5—Additional Sports; Page 6—Uniform Medical Legislation Urged; Page 7—Classified Misc; Page 8—New Offer in Booklover's Contest; Third Section. Page 1—Caribbean Letter: "The Capital of Guatemala"; Page 2—Purs for Formal Occasions; Page 3—"Your New Gown," by Lady Duff Gordon; Pages 4 and 5—Chile Section; Page 6—"At What Age Is Woman Most Beautiful?"; Page 7—"The Afternoon Promenade," by May Mantou; Page 8—Continued Story, "His Rise to Power."

DUBOIS IN LINE FOR PLACE IN THE WILSON CABINET

Politicians See Chance for President-elect to Cement Party by Honoring Clark's Manager.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Governor Wilson's success in keeping his own counsel is getting on Democratic nerves. More than one leader is starting at shadows.

Now it is said they will meet soon after the president-elect returns. Democrats here discuss by the hour, not the probability of Mr. Bryan's entering the cabinet, but whether, if he does, he and Mr. Wilson would be chased that phantom away.

JOHNSON SHOWS LETTERS SENT BY LUCILE CAMERON

Police Watch Negro in Hope of Locating the Girl—Declares He Is Willing to Marry Her.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—In their search for Lucile Cameron, friend of Jack Johnson, government agents tonight watched Johnson on the theory that he and the 19-year-old girl would meet.

Johnson admitted he had talked with her over the telephone, but said he told her it would be better if they did not see each other. He made public two letters which he said he received from the girl this afternoon.

Johnson insisted that he did not know where she was and had not seen her since she disappeared from her mother's hotel, after being released from jail on her promise to remain with her mother.

Johnson admitted he had talked with her over the telephone, but said he told her it would be better if they did not see each other.

The second letter displayed by Johnson was a hastily written note which was mailed at a post office substation about four blocks from Johnson's home. In it was a statement that she will be a "mighty lonesome girl" while away from Johnson.

Johnson Willing to Marry. "I will marry the girl if it can be arranged," said Johnson tonight, as he sat in his home and played cards with Joseph Levy, his white valet.

Levy asked the negro for "some small money." Johnson gave him a $20 bill. Levy returned presently with a quart of champagne and helped himself. Johnson did not drink.

"I love the girl," said Johnson, "and she says she loves me enough to marry me. What should hinder it? I am in trouble now, that's true, but I'm going to ask for a quick trial and what ever is coming to me I want to have it over with. I don't see where I've done so very wrong and I think I'm going to come out of it all right."

Johnson said he blamed his present troubles on friends of Jim Jeffries. "Ever since I took the championship from him," said Johnson, "they have been trying to make me uncomfortable."

Johnson's sister listened to the pugilist and then she said: "It's just this: Jack has had four or five years of good luck. Now he's going to have four or five years of bad luck. Things have come mighty easy for him and now they're coming harder."

DEBS SAYS MORGAN CAUSED INDICTMENT

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 30.—Charging that his indictment and coming arrest on a federal charge were instigated by J. P. Morgan for the purpose of preventing the growth of Socialism, Eugene V. Debs tonight declared that the indictment was drawn after the Kansas prosecutor was called to Washington by Attorney General Wickersham, who Debs termed "the watchdog of Wall street."

"For six years the 'Appeal to Reason' has been in the custody of the court upon trivial charges which have been a mere pretext for an organized attack upon the rising tide of Socialism," said Debs. "So far as we are individually concerned, we are not in the question at all."

GOVERNMENT AFTER INFORMATION FROM DEVASTATED ISLANDS

Washington, Nov. 30.—Unable to pierce the veil of silence that hangs over the islands of Leyte and Panay, of the Philippine group, reported devastated by a typhoon on Nov. 24 with great loss of life and property, the navy department tonight cabled Admiral Nicholson, commanding the Asiatic squadron, to attempt wireless communication with the cruiser Cincinnati, sent to Panay early today.

The Cincinnati is due Sunday at Capiz, where the greatest havoc was wrought. Admiral Nicholson is preparing to rush special ships if aid is needed. Exact conditions in the stricken district are unknown. From the silence of several liners in the path of the storm, it is feared they may have been wrecked. An effort is being made to get details of the damage from surrounding islands.

BURNS GOT HIS TIP FROM HOCKIN

Disapproved of McNamara's Plan of Taking Lives

M'NAMAL IS AGAIN CALLED TO THE STAND

Dramatic Scene in Court When Woman Is Brought in on Stretcher to Testify—Government to Close Its Case Soon.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 30.—The government at adjournment tonight had arrived within a witness or two of closing its case against the 45 defendants in the alleged dynamite conspiracy. The day's developments included: Testimony by William J. Burns, the detective, that Herbert S. Hockin, secretary-treasurer of the ironworkers' union, and a defendant, told him the McNamaras hid their dynamiting plans from the union's executive board.

Repetition of the story that J. B. McNamara told the detective taking him from Detroit to Chicago: "The American Federation of Labor is behind me." Admission by William J. Burns that he allowed the McNamaras and Ortle McNamagal to commit depositions after the Los Angeles Times explosion and other dynamiting, that the Burns agency might land "men higher up."

That Hockin declined to enter Burns' employ as a spy and also refused any cash except for expenses incurred on his "double-crossing" trips. "Hockin's Release for 'Peaching.'" William J. Burns testified that Hockin's reason for "peaching" on his comrades was that he disapproved of their killings. "J. J. McNamara believes that the more people killed the greater the effect," the witness said Hockin told him.

The indicted labor leader also told him, said Burns, that J. J. McNamara was authority for the information that Ortle McNamagal, the labor leader of the Pacific coast, and the McNamaras schemed to "get" the detective.

"I asked Hockin for the details as to who were behind the Times explosion," said Burns, "and he replied that J. J. was the man. I asked him if the national board didn't know about the conspiracy and Hockin replied the board knew nothing about it, unless Eugene A. Clancy (a board member of San Francisco) knew of it. I asked him if President Ryan was in on it, and Hockin replied that Ryan knew nothing about it. I then told Hockin that it was impossible for the executive board to appropriate a large amount of money every month without Ryan knowing where it was going."

"I told Hockin I was after the men higher up; that I didn't want McNamagal or J. B. McNamara just at that time. Hockin told me J. J. was the man I wanted, but I insisted there were men higher up."

McManagal Recalled. On a brief cross-examination Burns stuck to his story. Ortle McNamagal, recalled, testified in detail concerning his movements with explosives between Bellefontaine and Marion, O., and Indianapolis, in January, 1911. Ortle was not so sure to the day of his previous

(Continued on Page Two)

RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS IS CHARGED AGAINST IDAHO MAN

Seattle, Nov. 30.—William Vane, a pioneer and one of the wealthiest residents in northern Idaho, a justice of the peace in Newport, Bonner county, has been arrested on a warrant accusing him of being a "fence" or receiver of stolen goods, including thousands of dollars worth of freight alleged to have been taken from cars of the Great Northern Railway company. Assistant Chief Special Agent James J. Davis, of Seattle, has built up a startling case against Vane, who has furnished a $10,000 bond for his appearance at Sandpoint, Idaho. A great part of the goods was consigned to Seattle merchants. Vane is alleged to have disposed of most of the stolen freight through peddlers. He is conservatively estimated to be worth $250,000.

ABE MARTIN

The prohibition vote wasn't so light, after all, when you consider that very few of us live 't be ninety-five or a hundred. You never kin tell about a woman. She's just as liable 't laugh at a funeral as she is 't cry at a wedding.

ETTOR IS CENTER OF ATTRACTION IN NEW YORK PARADE

Escorted by W. D. Haywood, Acquitted Labor Leader Is Given Ovation by the Industrial Workers.

New York, Nov. 30.—While the fur-coated, sable-lined Fifth avenue Saturday afternoon crowd were thickest today, handsomely dressed women hailed and rich brokers slowed down their automobiles to watch curiously a crowd of a thousand shabbily dressed men parade down that thoroughfare of wealth, singing the Marseillaise in three languages.

Arm in arm, in the center of the crowd, marched two men, Joseph J. Ettor, a ruddy faced young man, fresh from acquittal from a charge of murder by a Massachusetts jury, and William D. Haywood, head of the I. W. W. Men, women and children workers flung themselves upon Ettor to congratulate him and express their approval, and the battered, wide-brimmed black felt hat of "Big Bill" Haywood bobbed about continuously, for it required all of his strength to keep the enthusiasts from carrying Ettor away bodily.

Ettor Makes Speeches. The procession formed at Grand Central station, where Haywood met Ettor on the arrival here, and the men marched down the avenue to Union square, where Ettor made two brief speeches, one in English and another in Italian.

Thousands heard him. A little girl presented him with a floral design of an axe and a torch, the "one to break down the despotism of capital and the other to shed liberty and light."

"It is said that I failed to show a spirit of gratitude to the courts of Massachusetts for my acquittal, and that I am not appreciative," said Ettor. "My reply is that I owe my life to only one crowd of people in this world—namely, the men, women and children who dream, hope and aspire as I do. I have no one to thank for my liberty but the working class. It is only because the women and children of the working class took the rings from their fingers and threw them into the melting pot to raise funds to hire the best legal talent, that I am free."

Ettor will address a mass meeting tomorrow night in Harlem.

LULU GLASER SUED FOR ALIENATION OF HUSBY'S AFFECTION

Pittsburg, Nov. 30.—Suit was filed today for $50,000 damages for alleged alienation of affections against Lulu Glaser. Here, the actress, by Mrs. Martha Richards, wife of Thomas Richards, stage partner of the singer. Richards and Miss Glaser appeared in a vaudeville act at the Grand opera house this week here. Mrs. Richards was a former soloist in the First Presbyterian church and a well known local music teacher. The actress also was a Pittsburg girl.

The actress' bond was placed at $2000 after a capias for an arrest had been secured from the court.

Liberty Bell Is Ill. Philadelphia, Nov. 30.—Besides being cracked, the liberty bell is sick, say the experts in bell-ology, who examined it today. They decided it will not be safe to take it across the country to be exhibited at the Panama-Pacific exposition in 1915.

French Aviator Killed. Paris, Nov. 30.—Aviator Aronde fell with his aeroplane today 200 feet to his death.

APRIL 24 FIXED AS THE DAY FOR INAUGURAL CEREMONIES

President-Elect Wilson Will Take Oath of Office on March 4 But Festivities Come Later

How the elements have behaved at the inauguration of former presidents:

- 1789—Washington, cold. 1853—Pierce, snow.
1793—Washington, rain. 1867—Buchanan, fair.
1797—Adams, fair. 1861—Lincoln, cold.
1801—Jefferson, fair. 1865—Lincoln, cold.
1805—Jefferson, snow. 1869—Grant, rain.
1809—Madison, fair. 1873—Grant, blizzard.
1813—Madison, cold. 1877—Hayes, cloudy.
1817—Monroe, cold. 1881—Garfield, snow.
1821—Monroe, snow. 1885—Cleveland, cold.
1825—John Quincy Adams, cold. 1889—Harrison, rain and snow.
1829—Jackson, fair. 1893—Cleveland, snow.
1833—Jackson, cold. 1897—McKinley, fair.
1837—Van Buren, fair. 1901—McKinley, rain.
1841—Harrison, cloudy. 1905—Roosevelt, rain.
1845—Polk, cold. 1909—Taft, snow.
1849—Taylor, snow.

Hamilton, Bermuda, Nov. 30.—President-elect Wilson announced this afternoon that though he would agree to being sworn in as president on March 4 as provided by the constitution, as the legal beginning of a presidential term, the main inaugural ceremonies would be postponed until Thursday, April 24, because of the notoriously bad weather that prevails in Washington during early March.

As his reason for making the proposed change, Governor Wilson gave the health of those participating in the inaugural ceremonies. He said that in nearly every instance the weather had been inclement on the occasion of the induction of presidents into office.

Changes Old Custom. By his announcement of postponement of the inaugural ceremony, Governor Wilson has changed a custom that has been traditional since the second induction of Washington. The first president, on his first election, took the oath in New York on April 30, but the second time he took up his duties in Washington on March 4, and every president since that time has followed the custom.

On the coming March 4 then, Chief Justice White, acting in that capacity for the first time, will administer the oath of the highest office in the land to Governor Wilson, and then the wheels of government will move on without interruption until the last Thursday in April when the state ceremonies, parades and receptions, will be held in weather that is almost certain to be auspicious.

In his proposed reform, the new president followed customary custom that has prevailed in Washington for generations.

Press Excess Postage. The president-elect received 200 letters from the steamship Bermudian today and had to pay $8 excess postage on them. Most of them contained press clippings about probable cabinet appointments, and advice about whom he should name.

"That is the idea the American people have of giving me a real vacation," he said. "If you see by the newspapers that Wilson has invited this or that man to come to Bermuda relative to some appointment, you may be sure that news has come by way of Constantinople."

RING LEADER OF SMUGGLERS IS SENT TO PRISON

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—A gigantic smuggling ring, covering the entire Pacific coast was dealt a death blow here today when Robert Donaldson, assistant marine superintendent of the Pacific Mail Steamship company and vanguard of the conspirators, was sentenced to one year's imprisonment and fined $200 by United States District Judge DeHaven. Donaldson was convicted of attempting to land $25,000 worth of opium in Oakland from the steamer Siberia. With the sentencing of Donaldson, it is believed, the ring is broken up.

Up to date United States District Attorney John L. McNab has obtained 36 smuggling indictments, including Donaldson, Quartermaster Grifall of the liner Manchuria, Officer C. B. Kenney of the Siberia and customs officials T. K. Romaine, Henry Gallagher and Osmund Everson.

SAYS JOHNSON IS POPULAR IN EAST

Pasadena, Cal., Nov. 30.—Winston Churchill, the novelist, who was Progressive candidate for governor of New Hampshire, declared in an interview here today that Governor Hiram Johnson, of California, is decidedly popular throughout the east.

"I believe Hiram Johnson has the biggest following of any man who ever came from the west," said Churchill. "I predict that he will come mighty close to sitting in the presidential chair. He is one of the strongest men of the nation. The Progressive party is the coming great political power of the nation and Colonel Roosevelt is still America's greatest citizen. The Republican party is no more."

PATRICK DECIDES TO FIGHT FOR THE RICE MILLIONS

New York, Nov. 30.—Feeling, he said, that he owed it to himself and to the dead William Marsh Rice, to endeavor to carry out the "sacred trust" that the aged millionaire put upon him, Albert T. Patrick, free after a dozen years by grace of Governor Dix tonight, reiterated that he would offer for probate the second Rice will alleged to be a forgery.

Patrick said he was not actuated by a desire to get control of the Rice millions but by a desire to carry out the dead man's wishes and to vindicate himself.

The acceptance by the surrogate of the second will as genuine, would automatically vindicate him, Patrick said, in that it would eliminate the motive for murder which the prosecution urged.

Patrick said he was going west in a day or two to visit relatives at St. Louis and Denver.

Governor Dix was angry today when his attention was called to the criticisms that has resulted in certain quarters over the pardon. He declared that he had consulted many persons and was well satisfied that justice had been done when he signed the document that liberated Patrick.

Women Must Shop Early. Los Angeles, Nov. 30.—Women shoppers during Christmas month, must be off the streets before 4:30 o'clock each afternoon, if a measure being considered today by the board of public utilities is adopted. The object, according to the board, is to clear the streets and the cars for the rush of tired showwomen and laborers during the late afternoon and help lessen congestion in the downtown streets.