GREECE MAY CONTINUE THE WAR AGAINST TURKEY ALONE

Armistice Will Be Signed By Other Allies Today—Turks Refuse to Give Up Adrianople

Sofia, Dec. 3.—The armistice will be signed today at Baghtche, with or without Greece being a party to it, according to information obtained from reliable quarters here. Greece will be left to continue the war alone against Turkey, if she desires.

GREECE FEARS BULGARIA.

London, Dec. 3.—Greece apparently fears that in case Turkey retains Adrianople, Bulgaria will move actively and dispute the Grecian claims to the possession of Saloniki. The firm attitude of Turkey on the subject of Adrianople is shown in a telegram from the sultan to King Ferdinand to the effect that, while prompted by the most peaceful motives, he is unable to renounce Turkey's hold on Adrianople, which all Ottomans consider a Mohammedan sanctuary.

Pugilist Declares That He Will Marry Lucile Cameron Tonight at the Home of His Mother.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Jack Johnson declared today that he planned to be married tonight to Lucile Cameron, the 19-year-old Minneapolis girl, whose mother caused his arrest. The fighter said a moving picture concern had agreed to pay his $5000 to make a film of the wedding at the home of his mother. H. A. Robert, a negro minister, will perform the ceremony. The marriage will not affect the status of the case against Johnson in federal court.

The wedding will be attended by a few intimate friends and relatives, according to Johnson. "I had a long talk with Miss Cameron yesterday, and we decided to be married tonight," he said. "I explained that I had been blamed for my ill treatment of her and we might as well be married right away. She is alone in the world now. Her mother has left her and her stepfather is quoted as saying that he wanted nothing more to do with her. We love each other and I see no reason why we should not be married. We will spend our honeymoon near Chicago, but will not leave the state."

DOUBLE PAY RECEIVED FOR TRANSPORTATION OF GRAIN

Washington, Dec. 3.—The interstate commerce commission held today that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul received double pay for the transporting of grain, in charging the owner a quarter of a cent a bushel to elevate the grain and a like sum by eastern railroads in transferring the same grain.

Voting on New Government.

Duluth, Dec. 3.—The commission form of government is being voted on here today.

FEDERAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES TO MEET AT CHICAGO

Notable Men in the Religious World Have Places on the Program—Session to Continue Until Monday.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—As an introduction to the opening tomorrow of the second quadrennial meeting of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America a conference of state and local federations was held here today at the Hotel La Salle. The quadrennial meeting of the Federal Council will open with a reception to the visiting delegates at Fullerton Hall, in the Art Institute tomorrow evening. The Federal Council will remain in session until next Monday and the great interdenominational gathering will close with a banquet given by the social unions and church clubs of this city on Monday evening. Thirty-two denominational groups of churches in the United States are represented in the federation, including a membership of nearly 17,000,000 communicants and many other adherents and supporters of the federation outside of the regular churches.

Bishop H. R. Hendrix of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, who is president of the council, will preside at the opening reception and will deliver an address on that occasion. He will also preside at the regular day meetings of the council. On Thursday and on Friday evening public meetings will be held at Orchestra Hall, at which noted speakers, among them Vice President-elect Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana, Dr. J. H. Jowett of the Fifth Avenue church, New York City; Francis E. Clark and others, will deliver addresses. On Sunday morning many of the delegates will preach in various churches and in the afternoon a meeting of workmen will be held at Orchestra Hall, with Rev. Frank Mason North of New York, presiding. International peace will be discussed by the delegates Monday morning and the "Supreme Mission of the Church" in the afternoon.

WILL ASK SENATE TO EXPEL WARREN

Senator Francis E. Warren.

A determined effort is to be made during the short congress session to bring about the impeachment of Senator Francis E. Warren of Wyoming. Warren is charged with "flagrantly violating the act of congress prohibiting the fencing of government land."

Some years ago E. B. Linsen, a special inspector of the interior department, was sent to Wyoming to make a thorough investigation of charges against the Warren Live Stock company, of which Senator Warren is the principal owner. The inspector found that the company had illegally inclosed nearly 50,000 acres of government land. His report has not yet been acted upon in the upper house.

POLICE LURED INTO TRAPS SET FOR THEM BY CHINESE GAMBLERS

San Francisco, Dec. 3.—Only by use of the small axes they carry did Police Corporal Goff and Officer Bailey escape the traps prepared for them by Chinese gamblers last night. Responding separately to tips furnished by Chinese they entered gambling joints and found themselves locked in chambers where gas jets were turned on. Each escaped by chopping a hole through the wall.

HOSPITAL PATIENTS HAVE THE SMALLPOX

Toledo, Dec. 3.—Eighteen patients of the Toledo state hospital believed to have been suffering from chickenpox, were declared by the health department today to have smallpox. A strict quarantine has been established over the patients together with one hundred others who have been exposed.

DEMOCRATS RUSH FOR PIE COUNTER

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Democrat office seekers crowded the corridors of the city hall and county buildings with delight this morning as a preliminary to the newly elected officials assuming their duties today at 4 o'clock. In the morning the throng of job hunters numbered several hundred. For the first time in several years the Democrats have control of practically all the city and county offices and the rush for the places held by Republicans led Democratic party workers to the public buildings long before daylight.

LEADER OF THE SUN CULT WILL BE TRIED

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Preparations are being made for the trial in the federal court here next week of Ottoman War Adahat Hanish, leader and founder of the Mazdaman sun cult. Hanish is under four indictments, charging violations of the postal laws by the sending of improper literature, including the "Inner Studies," through the mails.

The trial of the accused is awaited with considerable interest, inasmuch as the members of the cult are said to include maids and matrons of social prominence, not only in Chicago but in Massachusetts and in Canada, where Mazdaman colonies have existed. Hanish, the founder of the cult, had led his followers to believe that he was born in Persia and reared in a monastery by followers of Soroaster. As a matter of fact, it has been established that he is the son of Richard E. Hanish, an aged musician of Milwaukee, in poor circumstances.

SNEAD IS FOUND NOT GUILTY BY JURY

Remarkable Demonstration in Court Room at Fort Worth

ATTORNEYS ARE FINED FOR THEIR ACTIONS

Snead Was Tried for the Killing of Captain Boyce, Father of the Man Who Had Eloped With Snead's Wife.

Fort Worth, Tex., Dec. 3.—J. Beal Snead was today found not guilty of the murder of Captain Al G. Boyce, Sr.

Snead shot Boyce soon after Snead had returned from Winnipeg, Canada, with his wife, with whom the son of Captain Boyce had eloped. Snead claimed self-defense and also conspiracy on the part of Boyce to rob him of his wife.

Al Boyce, Jr., was killed by Snead at Amarillo, Sept. 14. He will be tried on this charge in February at Vernon. Both families involved are wealthy and prominent.

The demonstration by Snead and his attorneys over the verdict was spectacular. Two of the defense lawyers were fined for throwing their hats over the chandelier in the court room. Snead emitted a cowboy's yell, but the court refused to censure or fine him.

SENATOR PERKY TAKES THE OATH

(Capital News Special Service.) Washington, Dec. 3.—Senator K. I. Perky was presented to the United States senate today by Senator Borah and took the oath of office, thus giving him official standing upon the floor of that body. His appointment became effective immediately upon announcement by Governor Hawley and the new senator began to draw pay from that date. Owing to adjournment yesterday out of respect to Vice President Sherman, Senator Heyburn and Senator Rayner, the oath could not be administered yesterday, but was administered shortly after the convening of the senate this morning.

Sacrifices Life to Save Boys.

Salt Lake, Dec. 3.—Rather than injure and perhaps kill some smaller boys who were in the path of his sled, Allen Ross Lyon, aged 15, chose death for himself yesterday. He was coasting on a steep hill at E street. Finding that the only way to avoid those ahead he turned his sled sharply into a water culvert and sustained internal injuries from which he died soon afterward.

Mrs. Tipton Bud's niece and her husband have finally split up. She gets the custody of the children and the lawyers get the auto. The temptation to write too much seems to be even greater than talkin' too much.

PUBLISHER AND EDITOR OF THE CAPITAL NEWS CITED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

Late yesterday, an hour and a half after the Capital News had gone to press for the day, R. S. Sheridan, business manager, and C. O. Broxon, managing editor, were served with citation from the supreme court of the state alleging contempt.

The information was filed by D. C. McDougall, as attorney general of the state, "by order and request of the supreme court," as is alleged therein. D. C. McDougall likewise stands as plaintiff in the case. A. R. Cruse, who is also named as a defendant, was served later with copy of the citation.

The information charges the publication in the Capital News of editorial comment relative to the decision of the court in the Progressive ballot decision; the publication of telegrams from Colonel Roosevelt to James H. Gibson, chairman of the Progressive state central committee, through whom Colonel Roosevelt declared his wish to appeal to the people of Idaho; the publication of statements of State Chairman Gibson, of Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington, of Hon. Paul Clegston of this state and of editorials from the Spokane Spokesman-Review; of criticisms of the Republican state central committee for bringing the action which resulted in the decision of the supreme court and of appeals to the progressives of the state to write in the names of the Roosevelt electors and by this manner overcome the effect of that decision. The attorney general, acting under instruction of the supreme court, as he states, declares that these editorial and other publications constitute contempt of the supreme court tending to bring "The above described supreme court of the state of Idaho, and the judges thereof, into disrepute, and lessen the respect due the authority to which the said court is entitled and said articles, items and editorials were and are unwarranted, contemptible and defamatory, and a contumacious attack upon said supreme court and the judges thereof." Came as Surprise. The case came as a complete surprise to the defendants. Talk had been heard during the campaign that the supreme court had under consideration a citation for contempt because of some of the publications in this paper, but these were dismissed as idle rumors frequently started during campaigns and no attention was paid to the talk. The idea that no such action was contemplated by the court was further emphasized when some days ago Justice Ailshie of the supreme court sought an interview with the business manager and sought to ascertain what would be the attitude of the Capital News toward his candidacy for United States senator. It was not until the citation was served upon Mr. Sheridan, who received it first, that any intimation was known that a suit of the character was under consideration. There are 31 different exhibits attached to the information, most of them being editorials, but several of them being repetitions of the message of Colonel Roosevelt in which he appealed to the voters of the state to write in the names of the Progressive presidential electors. This same message was republished a number of times after its original publication, and each publication brought "The above described supreme

GOVERNORS OF NINETEEN STATES IN CONFERENCE

Richmond, Va., Dec. 3.—Nineteen governors, including those of Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada and Wyoming, were present today at the opening of the fifth annual governors' conference. Governor Norris of Montana responded to the welcoming address of Governor Mann of Virginia and the conference took up the details of organization.

Governor Norris advocated the perpetuation of the governors' conference as a permanent organization with its chief aim the moulding of public opinion and shaping public policies. "Much of actual value has been accomplished at previous conferences," Governor Norris said, "but the conferences have not been the potent factor they should have been. No definite position has been taken upon any question and no fixed purpose has been accomplished. There seems no need of timidity on the part of governor. All national questions and policies are intimately related to the states. I am an earnest advocate of an organization permanent in character."

Washington, Dec. 3.—The Chinese in Manchuria are becoming addicted to the use of walking sticks, tight fitting shoes and other marks of civilization, according to a report from the American consul, Albert W. Pontius at Darian, Manchuria.

WEATHER FOILS A DYNAMITER'S PLOT

Nanshan, B. C., Dec. 3.—An attempt to blow up the Trent river bridge with dynamite yesterday was foiled by the elements. Twenty-five sticks of dynamite did not go off when the cap exploded because the sticks had been frozen.

Chinese Are Progressing.

Washington, Dec. 3.—The Chinese in Manchuria are becoming addicted to the use of walking sticks, tight fitting shoes and other marks of civilization, according to a report from the American consul, Albert W. Pontius at Darian, Manchuria.

PRESIDENT TO OPEN THE RIVER CONGRESS

Washington, Dec. 3.—The annual meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors congress which opens here tomorrow, promises to be one of the most notable gatherings ever assembled in the history of the United States in the interest of waterway development. The congress is national in its scope, representing all sections and all waterways, and is endeavoring to impress congress with the necessity of a broad and comprehensive policy for improving rivers, harbors and canals of the nation. President Taft will deliver the opening address at the congress. Other men of note who will be heard during the three days' session are Secretary of War Stimson, Senator Simmons of North Carolina, Senator Townsend of Michigan, Senator Martin of Virginia, Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston, F. A. Pezet, the Peruvian minister to the United States and Lieutenant Colonel W. B. Anderson, chief engineer of the department of marine and fisheries of Canada.

MESSAGE SENT ON FOREIGN POLICY

President Taft Tells Congress of Nation's Problems

TRADE EXPANSION IS THEME IN MESSAGE

Attention Called to Necessity for Action in Cases Where Barriers Have Been Raised Against American Goods.

Message in Read. Washington, Dec. 3.—President Taft's first message to the last session of congress in his term was received with close attention by both branches when the legislative business began today. Dealing entirely with foreign relations and America's commercial progress in foreign trade the message paved the way for others dealing with big questions in legislation and government.

ROAD BUILDERS OF THE COUNTRY ARE IN SESSION

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 3.—Nearly all the leading road builders of the United States and Canada are gathered here to attend the ninth annual convention of the American Road Builders' association, which opened its four-day session at Music Hall today. In connection with the convention and with the American Good Roads congress, which is always a feature of these conventions, an interesting exhibition of road building machinery and appliances, road materials, methods of construction and numerous maps, diagrams and photographs to illustrate the work done in various states, has been arranged. The American Road Builders' association was organized in 1902 and comprises among its members the most noted road building experts of the United States and Canada. Nelson F. Lewis, chief engineer of the board of estimate and apportionment of New York City, is the president of the association and will preside at the sessions of the convention. Among the notable delegates in attendance are Harold Parker, former chairman of the Massachusetts state highway commission; Major W. W. Crosby, consulting engineer of the Maryland state highway commission; W. A. McLean, provincial engineer of highways of Ontario; A. J. McPherson, chairman of the board of highway commissioners of the Province of Saskatchewan; Arthur H. Blanchard, professor of highway engineering, Columbia university, New York; and Herman Schneider, dean of the engineering college, University of Cincinnati.

The message is the first of a series of such communications which he will make to congress in the early days of the session, and deals entirely with the foreign relations of the United States. Beginning with the usual reference to the existing good relations with foreign powers, the president adds that these have been strengthened by "A greater insistence upon justice to American citizens, or interests, wherever it may have been denied, and a stronger emphasis of the need of mutuality in commercial and other relations."

Reason for Warning. For the first time in its history says the president the state department has obtained substantially the most favored nation treatment from all of the countries of the world. Therefore, he says that it is only natural that the competitive countries should view with some concern the expansion of our commerce. Hence the warning, "if in some instances, the measures taken by them to meet it are not entirely equitable, a remedy should be found."

To this end, the president strongly recommends the enactment of the bill, recommended by Secretary Knox last December, permitting the government, instead of imposing the full maximum rates of duty against discriminating countries, to apply a graduated scale of duties, up to that maximum of 35 per cent. "Flat tariffs are out of date," said the president. "Nations no longer accord equal tariff treatment to all nations, irrespective of the treatment from them received. It is very necessary that the American government should be equipped with weapons of negotiation and adapted to modern economic conditions."

The state department, "an archaic and inadequate machine," at the beginning of this administration, the president says, has become a new organization, with highly specialized bureaus and experts dealing with every phase of American trade and diplomacy. Holding that the essence of this reorganized service is found in the merit system, which President Cleveland is credited with having introduced, President Taft makes a strong appeal to congress to make this machine permanent, by giving the force of statutory law to the executive orders governing admission to and promotion in the diplomatic and consular services.

Appointments Non-Partisan. To show that these appointments are already largely non-partisan, the president points to the fact that three of the present ambassadors are holdovers; that of the 16 he has appointed, five were by promotion from the
