

PLANNED TO RUSH ARCHBALD CASE IN THE SENATE

Young Women Will Not Be Called—Tradition That No Woman's Voice Be Heard in Chamber.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The house managers today announced that they would try without subjecting Miss Mary Boland and Miss Anna Blackmore, stenographers, to the ordeal of

DON'T WEAR A TRUSS!

After Thirty Years' Experience I Have Produced An Appliance for Men, Women or Children That Cures Rupture.

I Send It on Trial. If you have tried most everything else, come to me. Where others fail is where I have my greatest success. Send attached coupon today and I will

The above is C. E. Brooks, inventor of the Appliance, who cured himself and who has been wearing others for over 30 years. If ruptured, write him today.

Send you free my illustrated book on Rupture, and its cure, showing my Appliance and giving you prices and names of many people who have tried it and were cured. It gives instant relief when all others fail. Remember I use no knives, no harness, no lies.

I send on trial to prove what I say is true. You are the judge and once having seen my illustrated book and read it you will be as enthusiastic as my hundreds of patients whose letters you can also read. Fill out free coupon below and mail today. It's well worth your time whether you try my Appliance or not.

testifying before the senate. Should either take the stand it would be the first time, in recent years at least, that a woman's voice has been heard in the senate chamber. Quick disposition of the remaining charges against Judge Archbald was the intention of the house managers.

TATF PRESIDENT OF THE RED CROSS

Washington, Dec. 12.—President Tatf was re-elected yesterday president of the Red Cross at the eighth annual meeting of the organization. Other officers chosen were: Robert W. DeForest, New York, vice president; Charles L. Magee, Washington, secretary; Sherman Allen, assistant secretary of the treasury, treasurer; William Bullitt, solicitor of the department of justice, councillor.

FIVE TRAINMEN KILLED IN WRECK

Cumberland, Mo., Dec. 12.—Five trainmen were killed today near Glen-coe in a wreck of a Baltimore and Ohio train of two engines and 42 coal laden cars which, when the brakes suddenly refused to work, dashed eight miles down a mountainside, when both locomotives and every car leaped from the rails and plunged into a ditch. Four other trainmen were injured, two perhaps fatally.

PRESIDENT OF CHINA RECEIVES DELEGATES

Peking, Dec. 12.—Yuan Shi Kai, president of the Chinese republic, today received 340 Chinese delegates to the sixth triennial world convention of the Young Men's Christian Association, which will open here tonight. He spoke appreciatively of the association's work in China.

Reflections of a Plagiarist. (From Judge) I sometimes hold it half a sin To paraphrase the thought I steal. But otherwise I can't conceal The secret of their origin.

RANCHER DROPS DEAD IN STORE

While waiting for a package at the Golden Rule store this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, John F. Miller, owner of the Green Meadow ranch and one of the best known ranchers of the Boise valley, suffered a stroke of apoplexy, sank to the floor and expired within three minutes.

Clerks in the store noticed Mr. Miller the moment he collapsed, and at once went to his assistance, carrying the prostrate form to the rear of the store. Drs. Froom and Bower were summoned and arrived within five minutes, but life was extinct and the body was removed to the undertaking parlors of Schreiber & Sidenfaden.

Relatives of Mr. Miller were at once notified of his untimely death, which proved a great shock as he had left home but a short time before, apparently in good health. He was one of the pioneer ranchers of the Boise valley and his ranch on the Hill road was known as one of the model farms of the valley. He is survived by his wife, two sons and a daughter.

CHANCE TO RECEIVE A HANDSOME SALARY

Chicago, Dec. 12.—Frank Chance will receive a salary of $19,000 a year and 5 per cent of the club's net earnings if he becomes manager of the New York Americans, it was reported today when the American league magnates resumed their sessions. Owner Farrell did not confirm this report, but said he would have something positive to say on the subject of the managership later in the day.

Weds Congressman-Elect. New York, Dec. 12.—Miss Marlon H. Graham, daughter of George S. Graham, recently elected to congress from the Second Pennsylvania district, was married to Harry Palmerston Williams of New Orleans in this city today. A reception at the Metropolitan club followed the wedding ceremony.

Offered to Give Him Machine. Cincinnati, Dec. 12.—Testifying at the anti-trust trial of the National Cash Register company today, A. J. Rennie, a druggist of Montgomery, Ala., said that agents of the company offered to give him a National machine if he would throw the register of a different make he had purchased into the junk pile.

Monopolies. (From Judge) Though steel and gas and iron must Divide the world in parts, Yet love controls the strongest trust—The syndicate of hearts.

Thoughtful Gifts

For enduring remembrance or lasting pleasure there is no gift so appropriate as furniture. Gifts that are beautiful and at the same time useful. Gifts that suggest ease, comfort and satisfaction.

This store is filled with hundreds of gifts of this nature, all bearing the marks of excellence and distinction that every buyer is looking for. Never before have we ever displayed such a varied choice of truly worthy gifts, both for appropriateness and rightness of price.

Novelties

We have just received a large shipment of library, bedroom lamps and candlesticks, which consist of all the different designs in brass, mahogany, white enamel, gray and gold finishes. The candlesticks are very dainty each having a removable silk shade mounted with silver. If you are looking for a gift of this kind it will be impossible to find an assortment as complete as the one we have on display. These are handsome gifts that can be obtained for a very small amount of money.

Plans are under way for the formation of a local medical society to be composed of the physicians practicing in the city. In view of perfecting such an organization a meeting has been called for Friday night at 8 o'clock in the Commercial club rooms.

The recently elected board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. have elected officers for the year as follows: President, Judge F. S. Dietrich; first vice president, Dr. R. L. Glass; second vice president, D. D. Williams; secretary, H. J. Dick; treasurer, Dr. J. M. Taylor.

R. P. Chaitin, the well known attorney and stockman of Mountain Home, had a finger amputated yesterday at St. Luke's hospital. The amputation was made necessary because of blood poisoning in the member which had been injured some time ago.

A. Von Padua has decided to add another story to his business building being erected at Ninth and Grove streets. The original plans called for a one-story structure, but plans for a second story which will be used for a rooming house and which will contain 48 rooms, are now being drawn by the architects.

While approaching Meridian this morning, the cylinder head of the engine pulling the Pony blew out, causing it to go dead. After some work the train reached Meridian, where it laid over for a hour and was then hooked to the Short Line officials' special and given a start after which the trip was made through to Boise, although no stops could be made.

Work is to start at once on the remodeling of the State and U. S. restaurants on Main street. The buildings are owned by John Broadbent, who will completely remodel them and extend them back to the alley, putting in walls that will stand additional stories as the city demands. The cost of remodeling will be between $6000 and $7000. Plans for the work were drawn by Paradise & Nesbit.

The International Temperance bureau has written the supreme court of this state asking for information on the probation laws of Idaho especially with reference to the law governing offenders addicted to the drink habit. It is stated in the inquiry that a conference is to be held in Germany for the purpose of amending and strengthening the German imperial criminal law.

W. H. Bancroft, general manager of the Oregon Short Line; E. C. Manson, assistant general manager; Karl Stradley, chief engineer; A. E. Stevenson, division superintendent, and Edward Dewey, president and general manager of the Dewey system, paid Boise an hour's visit this morning. The party of railroad officials came in on Mr. Bancroft's private train. They are out looking over improvements on the road and visiting all points.

Three victims of the drink habit stood before Judge Dunlap in municipal court this morning and pleaded for leniency, stating that they had spent all their money in the saloons and had then fallen into the hands of the law, arrested for disorderly conduct and being drunk, but wished an opportunity to get out and go to work again. Judge Dunlap gave each of the men a severe lecture, fined two $10 and costs and ordered them committed and the other was fined $5 and costs and committed. One $5 cash bond was forfeited by a man arrested for being drunk.

The Reason. (From Judge) "Why do they call him 'the fighting parson'?" "Because he has to fight his parishioners to get his salary."

Where Safety Lies. (From Judge) "Nothing ventured, nothing gained." "Is a motto that has cost." "The safest way to put it in—'Nothing ventured, nothing lost!'"
