

JUDGE KING HAS INDORSEMENT OF MALHEUR COUNTY

Ontario and Vale Commer- cial Clubs Pass Strong Resolutions Favoring Ore- gon Man.

(Capital News Special Service)
Ontario, Ore., Dec. 12.—The Ontario and Vale commercial clubs and the Ontario city council have passed resolutions strongly indorsing Judge Will R. King for secretary of the interior. These resolutions were all adopted unanimously and is conclusive evidence that this section regardless of party is strongly in favor of the man who managed Wilson's western campaign.

Following are the resolutions adopted by the Ontario Commercial club and indorsed by the mayor and city council of Ontario.

"Whereas, Will R. King of Portland, Oregon, is being prominently mentioned for appointment as secretary of the interior under the incoming administration; and

"Whereas, Mr. King is practically a native son of this county, having moved to this county with his father when a small boy, growing up among the people here and afterward spending a number of years in this city in following the practice of law, in which profession he built up a large and lucrative practice exceeded by none in eastern Oregon and gaining for himself a reputation as an able, conscientious and fearless advocate of the law; and

"Whereas, Mr. King has ably represented this district, both in the state legislature and in the senate, there proving himself a fearless advocate of the rights of the people and a progressive and constructive statesman; and

"Whereas, Mr. King was called from the bar at Ontario to the supreme bench of this state and there distinguished himself as a jurist, unusually capable and far seeing, and, while on the supreme bench, particularly distinguished himself for the clear and concise opinions which he wrote in upholding the popular people's laws of this state, as well as for his opinions settling irrigation and public land questions in this state; and

"Whereas, Mr. King has undoubtedly had more experience in irrigation and public land questions than any other man west of the Rocky mountains and has always taken a prominent part in the solution of irrigation and land questions and largely through his efforts has secured to the state of Oregon the most complete and comprehensive water code in the United States; and

"Whereas, The people of this community have been acquainted with Mr. King and have known him personally since his childhood days and know his qualifications and believe that no man could be chosen who would be better qualified to fill the office of the secretary of the interior than Mr. King; and, believing that from his large experience in such matters he can better solve the problems which are daily presenting themselves before the department of the interior respecting public lands, irrigation and conservation questions, and having every confidence in his integrity, fearlessness of purpose, ability and qualifications, and knowing it to be the universal wish of the people here, regardless of politics, to see this office filled by Mr. King.

"Now therefore, The mayor and city council and Commercial club of the city of Ontario, Malheur county, Oregon, in meeting here assembled, do hereby unanimously resolve and recommend the appointment of Mr. King as secretary of the interior and direct that a copy of this resolution be mailed to President-elect Woodrow Wilson."

"The Red Rose." with Zoe Barnett in the leading role, under the personal direction of John C. Fisher, the well-known producer of "Florodora." "The Silver Slipper," "San Toy," etc., will be the attraction at the Plimney theater on Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 16-17. The book and lyrics were written by Harry B. and Robert B. Smith and the music by Robert Hood Bowers. "The Red Rose" is said to be as serious a piece of work as Harry B. Smith has done since "Robin Hood." It relies for its effect on no staculousness. The company supporting Miss Barnett numbers some 65 people. Among the principals are Bly Brown, Maurice Darcy, Russell Lennon, Wayne Nunn, Charlotte Philbrick, William H. Conley, David Reese and Walter H. Catlett.

At the New Box.
Two good dramas, a comedy and the Weekly make up the bill at the New Box for the last part of this week. "The New York Hat," by the Biograph company, is a well acted rural drama in which Mary Pickford, as the poor girl, holds the attention of the audience through all her trials. A Selig western, "The Mantle of Red Evans," is also shown and is of the usual clearly photographed Selig style. A Vitagraph comedy in which the best comedians of that company

TO GENERATIONS ARE NOW USING IT

Nation's Most Popular Laxative Keeping Millions of American Families in Good Health.

There must be genuine merit to an article that has stood the test of two generations of users.

In the field of medicine none has had greater success, nor retained that success to a greater degree, than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is now being used by two generations of people. Its use in families is constantly becoming more general. The reason, primarily, is that it has merit. It is what it represents itself to be, a laxative- tonic. It does not hide behind the name of a well-known fruit or vegetable; it does not make exaggerated claims nor use coarse language to set forth its virtues.

It is a medicine, but so mild and gentle a medicine that thousands of mothers give it to tiny infants, and yet, in a slightly larger dose, it is equally effective for grown-ups. It is for any disorder of the stomach, liver or bowels, for constipation no matter how chronic, for dyspepsia no matter how severe, for biliousness, sour stomach, gas on the stomach, headaches, drowsiness after eating, and similar complaints arising from a clogged-up condition of the bowels. It is pleasant to the taste and does not gripe. It can be used with safety and good results by anyone at any age or in any condition of health, and that person's health will improve. Every druggist sells it and the price is only fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

Thousands of families throughout the country are never without it in the house, among them Mr. William Delbert, Hoxie, Kan., and Mrs. Rose L. Menke, Galt, Cal., and these have learned to avoid the use of cathartics, salts, purgatives and physics generally as they are entirely too harsh. Syrup Pepsin cures gradually, but the cure is comfortable, safe and permanent.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 415 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

take part is the big laugh producer of the program. Pathe's Weekly as usual contains many events of interest.

The lais.
"Old Mam'selle's Secret," by the Reliance company, is the feature at the lais for the last part of this week. Everyone is familiar with the story as written by the great German authors, E. Marlitt, and it is very well put into pictures by the Reliance actors. A split reel Keystone, consisting of two comedies, made the audience roar. Gaumont's Weekly is also shown and contains many events of interest.

At the Woods.
The bill at the Woods for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week is made up of two big feature photographs, one a two reel and the other a three reel picture. "Memories' Tragic Leap," by the Feature Film company, is a semi-military drama which contains many exciting incidents and is clearly photographed. "Hearts of Gold" is the other feature and is of the first water, very well acted and pleasing the audience immensely.

If your watch does not run right, let us repair it. You will be satisfied.

YOUNG WOMAN TELLS STORY OF RELATIONS WITH JOSEPH CARROL

Jessie Ely, the young woman who refused to testify in Judge Adams' justice court that she was the common law wife of Joseph Carrol, arrested on the charge of bigamy, this morning before United States Commissioner Judge Halveston, told a straight forward story on her relations with Carrol and as the result of her testimony and that of other witnesses, Carrol was held to await the action of the grand jury on a white slavery charge and his bond was fixed at $1000, which he was unable to give.

All former feeling which she had shown for the defendant in the preliminary examination before Judge Adams was gone and looking straight at Carrol, who sat opposite her, she told how he had proposed that they live together at Salt Lake and later get married when he could get the money, how she had accepted the proposition, believing that he meant to be fair, and how he had come to Nampa and had sent her a check for $15 to come to him with which she had purchased her ticket to that town and had lived with Carrol at that place and lastly how he had given her $3 and sent her to Pocatello telling her he would join her later, but did not go and when she was sent back to Nampa by the chief of police of Pocatello, she was informed by Mrs. Hansen, the woman with whom they had roomed, that Carrol had been married. The attorneys for the defense attempted to get her to testify that she was Mrs. Carrol and was the common law wife of Carrol, but she declared her name was Jessie Ely for the reason that Carrol had never married her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen of Nampa both testified in the case, as did also Mr. Barnes, superintendent of the Idaho Northern, and T. S. Kibier, proprietor of the Oregon Lunch counter of Nampa, who testified that Carrol had referred to the defendant, as the "old woman," when telling him to let her use his meal ticket.

Congressman Losses Seat.
Washington, Dec. 13.—Representative Charles C. Bowman of the Eleventh Pennsylvania district, was unseated by the house yesterday by the passage, 183 to 118, of a resolution declaring that corrupt practices had been used in his election in 1910. At the same time the house refused, 181 to 88, to seat George R. McLean, his Democratic opponent. It was charged that he had been guilty of the same practices as were alleged against Bowman. The seat from the Eleventh district will be vacant until March 4, when it will be filled by John Casey, Democrat, elected last November.
