

MAY CALL OUT COMPANY H TO DO GUARD DUTY

Governor Alexander Awaits Word From the War Department Before Taking Any Action on the Military Situation.

ENTIRE REGIMENT MAY SEE SERVICE

Officers Believe It Likely That the Second Idaho Will Be Called Out Again and May Be Sent to the Coast.

While he has not as yet received directions to do so from the war department, Governor Alexander said today that he is awaiting for instruc-

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime. Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

My pimples are all gone! Resinol Soap did it

Think what a difference it makes to me! A week ago I was ashamed to be seen. When I did go out, people seemed to avoid me. But now that Resinol Soap—with just a little Resinol Ointment—has given me back my good complexion, I am ready for anything. All druggists sell Resinol Soap and Ointment.

tions to call out Company H, of the Second Idaho regiment for police duty at the Boise barracks. This precaution may be taken to protect the government property that is located here.

While Boise barracks is not in any immediate danger, the governor anticipates that the war department may take the precaution to direct suitable guards be thrown about the property.

It would not surprise officers of the Second Idaho if the regiment was ordered to mobilize at Boise for police duty either in the state or along the coast. Orders to that effect have not as yet been received.

PREPARE FOR EMERGENCY.

In the meantime and for the purpose of preparing for any emergency, the officers are quietly taking stock of regimental affairs so as to make mobilization rapid if the orders are received.

"I am awaiting orders from Washington before I take any step with regard to the calling out of the guard or any company there," said the governor this morning. "It has been suggested as a precautionary measure that Company H of Boise be mobilized for police duty in the protection of Boise barracks property, but I have so far taken no action."

The picturesque statue of Kamehameha the Great, "Napoleon of the Pacific," stands between the old Royal palace and the judiciary building in Honolulu, capital of the territory of Hawaii, illuminated every night with the opening of the winter tourist season. It depicts a brown-skinned warrior wearing his wonderful golden feather cloak, the finest to be seen anywhere in the world. The illumination by night will make the statue one of the best remembered civic center objects to hosts of travelers who annually visit the paradise of the Pacific.

Parent Teacher Associations and Mothers' Congress Circles

"Home and School; We work Together."

(Address all items of above circles to Mrs. John F. Baird, Meridian, state press chairman of the State Congress of Mothers.)

MERIDIAN.

The Parent-Teachers' association held a very profitable and instructive session at the rural high school building Thursday afternoon, Jan. 25. The meeting was opened by a talk on "The Home Beautiful" by Professor Minden, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. The purchase of a Victrola was discussed, a demonstration of the machine being given by a salesman from Boise.

The question of school lunches was handled in a most able manner by Miss Shaw, who made some very valuable suggestions as to what should go in a child's lunch in order to make it enjoyable and nourishing.

A membership committee, consisting of the following ladies, was appointed by the president: Mesdames Matlock, Baldwin, Burns, A. Garret, Nichols, Rife, Hartman, Cook and Tallman.

The membership of the association is now 112, a gain of 76 members since the beginning of the school year. The next meeting will be a community center meeting to be held on Thursday evening, Feb. 8, at the Booster club hall. The public is urged to be present.

GLENDALE.

The Glendale Parent-Teachers' association started the new year with much new energy. On Jan. 26 a meeting was held with Mrs. Burton. The subject discussed was "Parents' Obligations to the Schools," with Mrs. Rowe as leader.

COLLISTER.

Following is the Collister Parent-Teachers' association report for the school year, telling of definite things that have been accomplished by this circle.

The Collister Parent-Teachers' association gave a Halloween entertainment at the school house the Friday evening before Halloween.

A highly enjoyable program was given by the school, under the supervision of the teachers.

"The Witches' Dance," by the grammar grade girls, was a very effective number, while the "Jaber-wock" and the "Gob-o-links," given by the intermediate grades, proved spooky enough to give even the bravest a thrill. The playlet, "Tardy Tom," proved to all that it was not safe to be out on Halloween for witches, goblins and fairies were all abroad.

The primary grades gave a beautiful little operetta, "Good-bye to Autumn," showing many Mother Goose friends, and it proved to be a very pleasing farewell number.

Immediately following the program the official crier announced that the "Midway" held attractions for all. Admission being only 5 cents. The candy booth, which was beautiful in the Halloween colors and symbols, was a very popular place and the snowy palace, where pop corn snowballs were sold, proved a close second.

The apple bobbing booth was surrounded by youthful "bobbers," all anxious for their turn, and the pretty place where hot coffee and doughnuts were sold, was surrounded by young and old.

The bubbling cauldron presided over by the Witch of Fate and the Gypsy Fortuneteller, were both continuously patronized.

The proceeds, $23.19, were used to provide equipment for the domestic science and manual training classes, and to procure the needed utensils for serving hot lunches.

The Parent-Teachers' association also voted to use $21.16 that was in the treasury for playground apparatus. The school grounds are now well equipped.

The regular monthly community center meeting of the Collister Parent-Teachers' association was held on Dec. 16. The first part of the entertainment consisted of an informal program given by the ladies of the association.

This was followed by an interesting talk on the Hawaiian Islands by Mrs. C. A. Southwell. At this meeting a Collister Literary society was formed under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' association. This society now gives debates and lively programs every two weeks.

On Jan. 9 a silver tea was given by the Parent-Teachers' association at the Collister school house. Miss Fay Fowler of the university extension work gave an informal talk on mothers' circles and what they had done.

Miss Lula Vance also gave a few informal remarks.

The proceeds were given to the Burbank federation.

A nice table and chair were purchased by this association and presented to the school library. That room is now nicely equipped.

FROM NATIONAL PRESIDENT.

Mrs. Frederic Schoff, president of the National Congress of Mothers' and Parent-Teachers' association, writes that it should be definitely stated to each association that when there are elections and change of officers, the national office should be notified.

We can be of great service to every association if we can have the names and addresses of the officers. They should be sent by the treasurer when the dues are sent.

HAWTHORNE.

The Hawthorne Parent-Teachers' association met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John Arbuckle, 1213 East State street. Music was furnished by Mrs. Roseme, Mrs. Manville and Mrs. McReynolds, accompanist, Miss Buis. The trios and solos rendered were greatly enjoyed by all present.

The plans for a new school house were discussed and a committee was appointed to interview Professor Rose.

Mrs. Anna M. Moody gave a very interesting talk and some good advice and pressed the need of a new school house strongly. The Hawthorne school has but four grades and when the children have completed the fourth grade they are compelled to attend the Lincoln school, where they remain for another two years, then they are shifted to the Central school.

All this with the long distance to walk four times daily, or else cold lunches, is required of children less than 10 years of age. Some live as far out as the penitentiary.

The meeting was the largest held this term, everyone showing much interest in the new plans.

The Lincoln school teachers were invited as guests for the afternoon. At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served.

WASHINGTON.

The Washington Parent-Teachers' association of Caldwell met at the school house Friday afternoon with 30 members present. It was a rally meeting for 1917. A short musical program was furnished by the pupils and a very helpful and instructive talk given by the president, Mrs. W. W. Ewing. After a short business meeting the society adjourned for a social hour. Light refreshments were served by a committee.

CHILD WELFARE DAY.

The fact that Child Welfare day and the birthday of our reverend war president, who held the welfare of humanity so close upon his heart both occur in February, is in itself pleasantly significant and Lincoln was a lover of home, of mother and of children. It seems, therefore, a fitting tribute to the great and good Abraham Lincoln to give generously of the little coins bearing his image, for promoting the health and happiness of children all over the land.

Child Welfare day, Feb. 17, has been designated as the time for this special offering and it is hoped the members of the Parent-Teacher associations through their organizations and others, too, will assist in this way in working out diversified phases of child problems.

PARK CIRCLE.

The Park Parent-Teachers' circle met at the home of Mrs. Van Loon, 1306 Jefferson street, Thursday. Mrs. Giesle was elected to the office of second vice president to succeed Mrs. Davis, whose resignation was regretfully accepted.

Miss Long delightfully entertained the ladies with two beautiful selections, vocal and instrumental. Dr. Calloway gave an interesting talk on common colds, after which she was deluged with questions concerning many phases of ordinary diseases and their preventives. Her answers were concise and easy to understand, and each one present considered herself fortunate to spend so profitable an afternoon.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Lovett, Morton and Kelley.
