

SALVATION ARMY WORK

Citizens of Meridian and Kuna Hear of Second Army in War Zone.

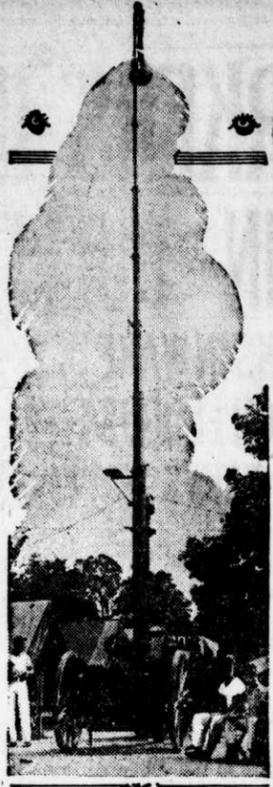

Citizens of Meridian and Kuna Monday night learned first hand from soldiers who knew, the part the Salvation Army played in the war activities at the front. Meetings in the interests of the Salvation Army Home service drive were held in both towns under the auspices of John Regan Post of the American Legion.

Col. L. V. Patch was the speaker at Meridian. Being in the thickest of the fight and where the Salvation Army men and women were active, he gave a vivid story of their work and their sacrifices in behalf of the dough-boys and also outlined their work at home for which funds are soon to be solicited.

Ralph Wyman, who was an entertainer of the army of occupation for several months, proved his value in that line with his popular song hits and the large audience would hardly let him leave the stage. He sang several army songs and gave an interpretation of how the American boys sang, "I want to Go Home," and of how it was sung by the English Tommies.

Kuna people turned out in force for the meeting in that town at which Rev. Harvey presided. The speakers were Captain Ed. Hawley, Mark Shields, Jay Parish, Albert Shellworth, McKeen Morrow and Baynard Welsh. Several musical selections were rendered by Miss Walbank. The meeting was a great success and the work of the Salvation Army was highly praised by all speakers.

PRINCE'S PERISCOPE AMERICAN TROPHY

West Pointers using crown prince's periscope.

To enable his royal highness to view the battle of Verdun from a safe distance, this monster portable periscope was constructed for the crown prince. It was captured by the Third division of the Third U. S. army corps at Mont Faucon, October, 1918, and is now in use at West Point.

long as such companies as the Harvey Greater Minstrels of forty really clever and talented people provide the entertainment, they do and for the popular prices they do. A noon day parade is made. The wardrobe for the men and women far exceeding anything ever worn in a similar parade.

MERRIMENT AT MAJESTIC.

The bill at the Majestic, which opened yesterday and will continue at all performances today, is built for fun, with the exception of the principal picture—a serious drama of scandal and intrigue in royal circles, with a panorama of the underground working of politics, entitled "The Woman Pays."

The vaudeville program is loaded to the brim with fun. Mason and Murray lead in the round of laugh producing. They have a sketch they call "Two-Self-Confessed Nuts," which yesterday kept the crowds in a continuous roar of laughter. The turn is irresistible in its comedy.

Jolly entertainers are the Eskies, who are on the bill in a novel comedy mind reading act that is amusing and puzzling. Especially marvelous is the memory retentiveness of the young woman of the team. Probably nothing more wonderful has been presented here by mental telepathists making broad claims to superiority.

WHAT RAY RAISES.

Charles Ray, he raises the very Dickens in his latest movie—"Bill Henry." In this wonderful comedy, with enough romance to give it a touch of tenderness, he is a rural salesman of electric vibrators—on the road. He tries the vibrator at random and makes an electric get-away in most cases.

He gets a job as clerk in a hotel, agreeing not to play poker. A beautiful girl comes to claim a landed inheritance, finding it worthless. Naturally she sobs. Bill offers her his savings, but she refuses.

A bunch of "fly" traveling men manage to inveigle Bill into a poker game to fleece him, but Bill knew things about poker they never dreamed of. He makes a winning, buys the worthless land and, of course, oil is struck on it. Then the trouble starts, because there is always someone trying to beat Bill. When he gets mad—but it can't be reduced to cold and calculating type. Altogether it is a rattling good picture. Supplementing it is a straight comic: "The Simple Life." It all happened at the Strand and will be there again tomorrow.

BIG ATTRACTION.

An extraordinary attraction is billed for the Majestic tomorrow and Thursday—William Farnum in "The Man Hunter," the best thing since "Les Miserables." This picture is undoubtedly the finest vehicle that has been devised for the remarkable talents of Farnum.

Why ACID-STOMACH Must Cause Weakness, Bad Health and Awful Misery

Trace the disease to its source. Then remove the cause. Physicians say that more than 70 non-organic diseases can be traced directly to an Acid-Stomach, or hyperacidity as they call it. Besides this, there are numerous ailments which can hardly be classified as true diseases but which, nevertheless, cause untold suffering, and these, too, are found to have their origin in ACID-STOMACH.

Now there must be good and sufficient reasons why so much human misery, suffering and ill health that affect practically every part of the body, all get their start in a sour, gassy belching, Acid-Stomach.

There ARE such reasons—and here is one of them: Because of excess acidity an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Unless food is fully digested its nourishing elements cannot be properly assimilated. Hence the blood becomes thin and impoverished. Even the strongest body cannot maintain its strength very long if proper nourishment is denied. And that is the very reason why so many people are weak, sallow-skinned, emaciated and anemic—always ailing!

Here is another reason: Excess acid causes food to sour and ferment in the stomach. This gives rise to indigestion, belching, sour, gassy stomach, disgusting food repeating, heartburn, dyspepsia, etc. Moreover, this sour, fermented, partially digested food when it passes the intestines sets up irritation all along the intestinal tract—irritation so severe as frequently to result in ulcers, catarrh and even cancer.

Just think how acid-mouth ruins teeth—how the acid eats right through the hard enamel and causes decay. Think, then, how destructive to the human organism acid-stomach must be!

And here is still another reason—one discovered by Prof. Metchnikoff, the famous scientist. Imperfectly digested food, charged with acid, when it reaches the intestines, becomes the breeding place for countless millions of disease germs. These poison germs are absorbed into the blood stream and carried throughout the system. Hence the severe attacks of blinding headache so many people suffer; the nervousness, irritability, insomnia, mental depression, melancholia, dizziness, and vertigo. The entire system soon becomes more or less saturated and clogged up with these poisons, and besides the many ills mentioned, we can add rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, biliousness and often times valvular heart trouble and heart failure—all of which can be traced to the one common source—ACID-STOMACH!

Thousands, yes millions, of men and women suffer daily from these troubles and never dream that Acid-Stomach is the cause of their ill health.

The common sense, logical thing to do is to go right to the seat of the trouble and REMOVE THE CAUSE. You must get rid of your Acid-Stomach immediately.

You can now rid your stomach of its excess acid. A wonderful modern medicine called EATONIC literally wipes it out. It does the work easily, speedily and thoroughly. It makes the stomach pure, sweet, cool and comfortable. It helps you get full strength out of every mouthful of food you eat; and unless you DO get full strength from your food you cannot enjoy robust, vigorous health.
