CHAMP BATTLE UP AT AUCTION; PRICE LOOKS PROHIBITIVE

Decoin, French Promoter, Joins Competition for Carpenter-Dempsey Match—Incredible Sums Are Offered.

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Staff Correspondent) New York, Dec. 6.—The battle of the promoters now draws near. Three fight impresarios, who seem to have a lien on the Bank of England, the mint of France, and the Yankee coin market, are squaring away for a battle royal for the Dempsey-Carpenter match.

C. E. Cochran, London, claims to have the match all lined up for $175,000. Dominick Welch, New Orleans, is just as insistent that Dempsey has promised to fight for him for $250,000. On the heels of these comes the French promoter Decoin, who is playing wise.

LONDON GOES WILD ABOUT CARPENTIER; BOTH PUGS EXPLAIN

Great Ovation to Frenchman—Beckett Says He Was Dazed—British Sure They Will Get Dempsey Match.

London, Dec. 6.—Georges Carpentier, conqueror of Joe Beckett, will return to Paris tomorrow. The French fighter appeared several times yesterday on the streets and was given a great ovation. Children were held up to him to be kissed, girls threw their arms around him and men gave him resounding thumps on the back and wrung his hands—those who got near enough to him.

Beckett now attributes his defeat to his inability to concentrate. "I was thoroughly dazed when I entered the ring," he said. "I had just received word of the death of my old friend, Charles Wilcox, following a boxing match the previous day. He had helped me train for three weeks and had been with me constantly. The news affected me terribly."

Carpentier said he was especially glad because he won before the future king of England. "I was a little bit nervous when I entered the ring," he said, "but after the first punch I knew I was the faster man. I became confident I would win and decided to try for a knockout with a right as soon as possible. I failed the first time, but I knew it was the last, and the next opening gave me the chance."

London feels confident that the Dempsey-Carpentier fight will be held here. Britishers claim there are too many restrictions on fighting in America and that English promoters will offer more money. Promoter Cochran is to leave within a few days for America to see Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager. Cochran claims he already has the signature of the Frenchman on paper and that the fight will be held June 7 at the Olympia club.
