Patriotic.

Patience—I saw Harry at the patriotic meeting last night. He was in khaki. Patrice—Oh, you saw him, did you? Patience—Yes, and he was so patriotic that he stood up during the entire meeting. Patrice—Oh, that wasn't altogether patriotism. He's joined the cavalry, you know, and yesterday was the first day he'd tried to ride a horse.—Camp Lee Bayonet.

Important to all Women Readers of this Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and maybe dependent; it makes anyone so. But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women. Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney liver and bladder medicine will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase the medium and large size bottles at all drug stores. Adv.

HOW HUNS FORCED WORLD INTO WAR

GERMANY FOUND EXCUSE IN THE ASSASSINATION OF GRAND DUKE FERDINAND.

Students of Situation Believe This to Have Been Part of Plot to Embroil Europe with the Aim of World Dominion.

The prologue in the greatest war in history began with the assassination of the Austrian Grand Duke Ferdinand while he was visiting Sarajevo, Bosnia, June 28, 1914. The assassin, Prinzip, believed to be a tool of pan-Serbian fanatics, fled to Serbia, to which country Austria sent a drastic ultimatum on July 23. This accused Serbia of permitting and furthering intrigue against Austria, demanded the dissolving of certain societies of a patriotic nature, and the prosecution of certain officers and officials, as well as a limitation of the privileges of the Serbian press. To this ultimatum Serbia replied promptly, agreeing to all conditions, but questioning the right of Austrian officials conducting inquiries into Serbia which that country suggested should be referred to The Hague for arbitration.

In this very temperate and reasonable reply Austria found cause for sufficient umbrage to declare war, stating that the Serbian answer was "unsatisfactory." Serbian vessels were seized almost immediately and on July 29, 1914, Belgrade was bombarded. Thus began the world war with a seemingly trivial incident which students of the situation now believe to have been part of a carefully prepared plot to embroil Europe with the aim of world dominion on the part of Mittel Europa.

July 31, Germany sent an ultimatum to Russia, demanding demobilization, which the czar's government haughtily ignored. The following day Germany declared war on Russia and invaded Luxembourg.

August 2 German troops entered Belgium, despite an acknowledged treaty to safeguard the neutrality of the latter nation, which the German premier later spurned as "a scrap of paper." This invasion brought an ultimatum to Germany, August 4, demanding that Belgium's neutrality be respected. German troops attacked Liege and President Wilson issued a proclamation of neutrality.

The following day, its demands having been ignored, England declared war on Germany. August 7 the Germans entered Liege, and the French invaded southern Alsace. Italy declared neutrality.

These were the opening movements of the great conflict which, little by little, involved practically the entire world. Each day was crowded with events of international import. France and England declared war on Austria on August 12, and three days later Japan sent an ultimatum to Germany which soon drew the former nation into the martial whirlpool—a conflict marked chiefly by the taking of Tsingtao, Germany's Asiatic colony, November 6, after a long siege.

By far the most important and basically important year of the war was 1917. A forecast of America's entry into the conflict came with the president's "peace without victory" speech January 22 and the passage of the $51,000,000 fortification bill by congress.

By February 12 the feeling over "unrestrained submarine warfare" had become so strained that this country refused to discuss the matter with Germany. February 14 diplomatic relations were broken, and February 26 permission was asked by the president to arm American merchantmen, which was later granted. In the meantime, however, the world was startled by the Russian revolt and the overthrow of the Romanoff government. America formally recognized the republican government of Russia.

In a swift panorama of martial happenings, all of the greatest importance, passed the days and months of 1917, the first vital event after war declaration being the conscription bill of April 28 for the raising of an army of half a million. Then came the espionage bill to deal with the menace of internal pro-German propaganda and intrigue. A general war appropriation of $3,342,300,000 and the first $2,000,000,000 war loan were passed. Herbert C. Hoover was appointed to handle the food situation.

Cancel Contracts Gradually.

Washington.—Chairman Baruch of the war industries board has authorized the statement that the coming of peace will not result in immediate cancellation of war supply contracts, but that contracts will be cancelled gradually as requirements are reduced, making it possible to lift curtailments and restrictions upon ordinary industrial activities.

REPUBLICANS ARE VICTORS IN IDAHO

BORAH, SMITH AND FRENCH WILL GO BACK TO WASHINGTON FOR ANOTHER TERM.

Davis Chosen as Governor and Entire State Ticket Elected, With Exception of Gooding, Who Lost to Nugent.

Boise, Idaho.—The Republicans were successful in the election of November 5, the state ticket being elected, although Frank R. Gooding has been defeated for the short term to the senate by John F. Nugent.

Senator William E. Borah has returned to the senate, being elected to represent Idaho until March 4, 1925.

Congressmen Smith and French have been endorsed by the voters of Idaho and will retain their seats in the house of representatives.

D. W. Davis will be the next governor of Idaho; C. C. Moore, lieutenant governor; Robert O. Jones, secretary of state; Edward G. Gallett, auditor; John W. Eagleson, treasurer; Roy L. Black, attorney general; Ethel E. Redfield, superintendent of public instruction; Robert N. Bell, inspector of mines. Alfred Budge was elected as a justice of the supreme court.

The race between Senator Nugent and former Governor Gooding was a close one; so close indeed that it is announced Governor Gooding will demand an official count.

With the exception of Senator Borah, John W. Eagleson, the Republican state treasurer, and Senator John F. Nugent, none of the candidates endorsed by the Non-partisan league in Idaho was elected.

The league was also unsuccessful in the counties and elected only about twenty members of the legislature.

The legislature will be safely Republican in both houses.

Every Republican on the Bingham county ticket was successful in Tuesday's election. The county also was Republican in its vote on state officers.

One of the features of the campaign just ended was the absence from the town halls of the state of the campaign speaker—the candidate who in the past has been supposed to visit every section of the state and tell the voters what an ideal man he is for the place he seeks, and why they should vote against his opponent for political honors.

The influenza epidemic caused a ban to be put upon public gatherings of all kinds, hence the oratory of the different candidates was lost to the Idaho citizenry. But there was no lack of interest in the campaign. Being denied the privilege of addressing the voters of the state in person, many of the candidates resorted to newspaper publicity, and many columns of campaign arguments were published in the press of the state, to the gratification at least of the publisher. How the public appreciated the innovation is a question open to debate.

The prevalence of influenza was responsible for a much lighter vote than would have been cast had health conditions throughout the state been normal. Many did not vote because they were confined to their homes with the disease, while others doubtless did not go to the polls because they desired to avoid coming in contact with some who were probably afflicted with the disease.

SENATOR W. E. BORAH

Senator Borah has been again selected by the voters of Idaho to represent the Gem state in the senate.

Slow Count in Montana.

Helena.—United States Senator Walsh was leading in the contest for the United States senatorship in Montana when the votes of 422 precincts out of 1400 in the state had been counted Tuesday night.

Clemenceau Given Ovation.

Paris.—M. Clemenceau, the premier, was accorded a wonderful ovation in the chamber of deputies as he read to the deputies the terms of the armistice with Austria-Hungary. He said terms had been submitted to Germany.

REPUBLICANS WILL CONTROL CONGRESS

WILL HAVE FORTY-THREE VOTES TO GOOD IN THE HOUSE AND TWO IN THE SENATE.

Senate Will Be Made Up of 49 Republicans and 46 Democrats, House Membership Will Be 239 Republicans and 194 Democrats.

Washington.—A Republican majority in the next congress of at least two in the senate and of not less than forty-three in the house is assured from returns from the scattering doubtful districts of the recent elections.

Word from Detroit of election in Michigan upon almost complete unofficial returns of Truman H. Newberry, Republican candidate for the senate, over Henry Ford, Democrat, increased the Republican senate roll to forty-nine—a bare majority. The Democrats have forty-six, with the Idaho contest between Senator Nugent, Democrat, and former Governor Gooding probably decided in favor of Senator Nugent, although Governor Gooding has demanded an official count.

Returns from the last missing house district—the Second Montana, where a Republican was elected to the seat now held by Representative Jeanette Rankin, unsuccessful independent candidate for the senate—were received on Friday.

On the face of now complete unofficial returns, the political line-up of the next house is as follows:

Republicans, 239; Democrats, 194; Independent, 1; Socialist, 1.

Prospect of holding not less than forty-nine seats in the senate, regardless of the outcome of the Idaho contest, places the Republicans in a position to take control of the senate from the Democrats and reorganize it. With forty-nine votes necessary to control, however, Republican leaders realize that organization will depend upon unbroken partisan alignment. They recall that, even before the Democrats swept into control of the senate with President Wilson's inauguration in 1913, they had a majority of the senate, but were unable, because of Republican factional defection, to elect former Senator Gallinger president pro tem. When the new senate convenes March 4 next, however, such difficulties, according to Republican leaders, are not expected.

Republican control of both senate and house and harmony of action between Republicans of both bodies are expected here to have much effect on legislative policies. Like the reorganization of the house, Republican organization of the senate principally affects chairmanship besides legislation. Seniority of service is the almost unbroken precedent in the senate, as in the house, of electing committee chairman.

REPUBLICANS GET MOST GUBERNATORIAL SEATS

Washington.—The governorship contests in thirty states resulted in twenty Republican candidates being chosen by the people, while ten Democratic candidates were successful, as follows:

- Alabama—T. E. Kirby, Democrat.
- Arizona—T. R. Campbell, Republican.
- Arkansas—C. H. Brough, Democrat.
- California—W. E. Stephens, Republican.
- Colorado—O. H. Shoup, Republican.
- Connecticut—M. H. Holcomb, Republican.
- Georgia—H. M. Dorsey, Democrat.
- Idaho—D. W. Davis, Republican.
- Iowa—W. L. Harding, Republican.
- Kansas—H. J. Allen, Republican.
- Massachusetts—C. Coolidge, Republican.
- Michigan—A. E. Sleeper, Republican.
- Minnesota—J. A. A. Burnquist, Republican.
- Nebraska—S. R. McKelvie, Republican.
- Nevada—E. D. Boyle, Democrat.
- New Hampshire—J. H. Bartlett, Republican.
- New Mexico—O. O. Larrazolo, Republican.
- New York—A. E. Smith, Democrat.
- North Dakota—S. J. Doyle, Democrat.
- Ohio—James M. Cox, Democrat.
- Oregon—J. Withycombe, Republican.
- Pennsylvania—W. C. Sproul, Republican.
- Rhode Island—R. L. Beekman, Republican.
- South Carolina—R. A. Cooper, Democrat.
- South Dakota—P. Norbeck, Republican.
- Tennessee—A. H. Roberts, Democrat.
- Texas—T. P. Hobby, Democrat.
- Vermont—P. W. Clement, Republican.
- Wisconsin—E. L. Phillip, Republican.
- Wyoming—R. D. Carey, Republican.

DRUGGISTS!! PLEASE NOTE VICK'S VAPORUB OVERSOLD DUE TO PRESENT EPIDEMIC

Tremendous Demand Last Few Days Has Wiped Out Excess Stocks That We Had Estimated Would Last Until Next January. Last Week's Orders Called For One and Three Quarter Million Jars—Today's Orders Alone Amount to 932,459 Jars.

Big Shipments Are En Route to Jobbers. Until These Arrive There May Be a Temporary Shortage. All Deals Postponed—Buy in Small Lots Only.

RETAILERS CAN GET IMMEDIATE SHIPMENTS DIRECT BY PARCEL POST.

This advertisement is written on Monday, October 21st. It is directed to the attention of all distributors of Vick's VapoRub, both wholesale and retail. In an emergency such as the present epidemic—our duty—and your duty—is to distribute VapoRub in the quickest possible manner to those sections stricken by Influenza. We, therefore, call your careful attention to the following:

DANGER OF SHORTAGE IF SUPPLY IS NOT CONSERVED

On October 1st we had on hand, at our factory and in twenty warehouses scattered over the country, sufficient VapoRub to last us, we thought, until January 1st, allowing for a 50 per cent increase over last year's sales, and not counting our daily output. This big excess stock had been accumulated during the summer months.

Then this epidemic of Spanish Influenza hit us—and in the last ten days this stock has vanished. At first we thought this tremendous demand would last only a few days, but the orders have run:

- Wed., Oct. 16.....18,504 doz.
- Thur., Oct. 17.....25,323 doz.
- Fri., Oct. 18.....39,256 doz.
- Sat., Oct. 19.....45,833 doz.
- Mon., Oct. 21.....77,705 doz.

Up to Saturday, October 19th, we have actually shipped for this month $400,284.10, or over two million jars of VapoRub.

THE PROBLEM NOW IS TO DISTRIBUTE VAPORUB QUICKLY.

Most of this tremendous quantity is still en route to the jobbers, but freight and express are both congested nowadays, and it may be some time before this supply reaches the jobbers. In the meantime, therefore, it is necessary that we distribute, as widely as possible, the stock that we are manufacturing daily, together with that now on the jobbers' and retailers' shelves, in order that it may get to the Influenza districts quickly. Our normal output is about 4,000 dozen per day. We are putting on a night shift, but it will be a little while before that is producing.

WHAT WE ASK THE WHOLESALE DRUGGIST TO DO.

Last Saturday we notified all of our jobbers, by Special Delivery, as follows:

- 1st—Deals and quantity shipments of all kinds are cancelled. Fill no quantity orders of any kind, whether taken by our salesman or by your own. Sell in small lots only.
- 2nd—Order from us in as small

The country boy had come to visit his city friends, and before leaving home his mother had spent much time on his wardrobe, but he soon saw that things were not quite right.

At a small party given in his honor he remained firmly fixed in a corner. At last his hostess, thinking to make him feel more at ease, said: "How nice you look, William; who made your suit?" From the depths came the reply: "Mother, blame it!"

At Least He Had None Left.

Charles went visiting with his father and on their return his father was asked as to the boy's behavior. "Beautiful," was the answer. "He couldn't have been better." Whereupon the young hopeful said: "I used all the manners I had." And the family judged from his behavior the next day or two that he certainly had.

quantities as possible. If you are out we will try to ship a limited amount by Parcel Post or express, and pay the charges ourselves.

3rd—In order to make distribution still quicker, we will ship direct to your retail customers quantities not more than three (3) dozen 30c size at any one shipment.

4th—We are now out of the 60c size and will be for the next ten days. WHAT WE ASK THE RETAIL DRUGGIST TO DO.

Buy in as small quantities as possible. If you have any quantity orders, given the jobber's salesman or given to our salesman, don't bother about them—no need to write us—it is absolutely impossible to fill these orders at this time. If the jobbers in your territory are out of Vick's VapoRub, we will ship you by Parcel Post, prepaid, quantities not more than three (3) dozen 30c size in any one order. Naturally, we can't open accounts at this time, so your check or money order for this amount must accompany order. Don't write us stating to ship thru your jobber, as we then have to wait until we write this jobber and get his O. K. If you wish the goods to come thru your jobber, have him order them for you.

SNOWED UNDER WITH CORRESPONDENCE.

Our force has already been "shot to pieces"—twenty-four of our men are wearing Uncle Sam's khaki—and this recent rush has simply buried us. All our sales force has been called in to help in the office and factory. We just mention this so you won't hold it against us if your wires and letters aren't answered promptly.

SPECIAL BOOKLETS ON SPANISH INFLUENZA.

We will send, on request, to any retail druggist, 100 or more little booklets, just issued, on Spanish Influenza, giving the latest information about this disease—its history—the symptoms—the treatment, and particularly the use of Vick's VapoRub as an external application to supplement the physician's treatment.

NEW WAYS TO USE VAPORUB.

In addition to the usual method of using VapoRub—that is, applied over the throat and chest and covered with hot flannel cloths—our customers are writing us daily telling of their success in using VapoRub in other ways, particularly as a preventive. They melt a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors arising, or melt it in a benzoin steam kettle. Where the steam kettle is not available, VapoRub can be used in an ordinary teakettle. Fill the teakettle half full of boiling water, put in half a teaspoon of VapoRub from time to time—keep the kettle just slowly boiling and inhale the steam arising.

According to a Bulletin just issued by the Public Health Service, Dr. Stiles recommends that the nose and throat be kept coated with some oily substance. For this purpose VapoRub is excellent—just put a little up the nostrils from time to time and snuff well back into the air passages.

Too Much for the Skunk.

Mr. Cackle Berry vouches for the following story:

A Frenchman, an Englishman, an Irishman and a German prisoner were in an argument as to which was the bravest.

A Yank overheard the controversy and decided to settle it. Pointing to a near-by poultry house, he told them that there was a skunk inside and asked the Irishman to step inside and see how long he could stand it.

Pat did as he was told. In five minutes he came out. The Englishman followed, but he stood it only four minutes. The Frenchman next tried it, but five minutes was enough for him. It was the German's turn. He went in and the others waited. The minutes passed—one—two—three—four—five—six—seven—but no German. Eight minutes—ten—the skunk came out.

Something Wrong Somewhere.

Mr. Clout read in a paper that digestion is stultinated by talk and laughter at meal times; he cogitated over the idea, and finally addressed his family thus:

"Now, this keeping mum at meals has got to stop. You hear me, you girls. You begin to tell stories, and keep up agreeable sort of talk like; and you boys, laugh and be jolly or I'll take and dust your jackets with the strap till you can't stand. Now begin!"

And yet, somehow the jollity seemed forced.
