

FRESH AND SALT MEATS

Home Cured Bacon and Hams

Ask those who have tried them

Vegetables, Fruits, Etc. Mail orders promptly filled. Your patronage is appreciated

CITY MEAT MARKET

LEATON AND CAMERON, Props.

Challis, Idaho

ITEMS ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Visit School—President Frazier of the Idaho Tech. at Pocatello, was here last Friday for the purpose of inspecting the Challis school in order that it might be put on the accredited list. Mr. Frazier states that he was well pleased with the school here which means that we will receive the desired standing. An accredited school gives its graduates the right to enter any school or college without an examination. This will place Challis on the same schedule and rating as any other high school in the country.

Will Return—Word from Mary Woodson, who has been teaching the last term of school at Skagway, Alaska, is to the effect that she will return to Challis about the 19th of June. Miss Woodson has a large number of friends here who will be glad to see her again.

From Pahasmarol—John Johnson, prominent ranchman of Pahasmarol and one time county commissioner of this county, arrived Tuesday to look after legal business at this session of the District Court.

Judge Arrives—Judge Ralph W. Adair, accompanied by Court Reporter, Earl Weaver, arrived last Sunday evening from their homes in Blackfoot, to hold the spring term of the district court here.

Expert Witnesses—Dr. Fox of Halley and Dr. Farrell of Mackay arrived in town Wednesday morning and they with Dr. Richards of Mackay and Dr. Kirtley of this city will act as expert witnesses in the manslaughter case.

From Leadore—Sam Jarvis, well known to many of our citizens, came in from his home in Leadore Tuesday and went on down to Mackay this Wednesday morning.

Visiting Relatives—A. L. West and wife arrived in Challis, from Dixey Tuesday. Mr. West is a juror and he and Mrs. West are enjoying a visit with relatives here.

Mrs. Papworth Dead—Mrs. J. R. Papworth, a former resident of East Fork, and now residing at Ogden, passed away at her late home in that city, last week.

Spencer Here—Tom Spencer, the well known stock buyer of Ogden, passed through town Tuesday, on his way to the Spencer Livestock ranch on East Fork.

Burnett Home—Assessor D. M. Burnett returned home last Saturday from a two weeks' stay in Lost River Valley, where he had been assessing property owners.

Hansen Here—L. A. Hansen, the well known auto dealer of Mackay, was here the latter part of last week exhibiting one of the new Baby Overlands.

From Mackay—A. B. Fitzjarrod, prominent in mining circles in the southern portion of this county, arrived here Tuesday evening to act in the capacity of a juror.

Ladies' Furnishings—Just received, a complete line of ladies' furnishings, including dresses and hosiery.—Mrs. NELLIE WADDELTON.

Ambrose Here—Attorney Geo. L. Ambrose arrived Monday from his home in Mackay to be in attendance at this term of District Court.

Judge Smith Here—Judge Smith came down from his home at Custer last week for a visit with friends here.

Joins Masons—Earl J. Michael, went down to Mackay last Wednesday where he joined the Masonic lodge.

Becomes a Citizen—John Mangus was granted citizenship papers by Judge Adair, Tuesday.

At Mackay—Frank Baxter and family were at Mackay last week on a shopping trip.

Compelled to Deny—The Board of County Commissioners which was in session last Monday were presented with petitions from stockmen over the county praying for an appropriation to be used in the extermination of wolves. The Board, though heartily in favor of the matter, were compelled to deny the petitions for the reason that the Attorney General advised them that no funds could legally be granted for that purpose.

Stevens Here—Judge J. M. Stevens arrived Monday evening from Pocatello and is representing clients in this term of District Court. Judge Stevens is well known to the citizens of Central Idaho and has many warm friends here who are glad to see him again.

At Mackay—N. C. Hovey and family and Mrs. E. K. Tunison and little son, Junior, went down to Mackay last Friday evening for a visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Tunison and F. L. Hudlow joined them on their visit in the Copper City, going down Saturday evening.

You Can't Afford It—If you are not now a subscriber of The Challis Messenger you are overlooking a bet which you can't afford. You get all the news that's fit to print each week. The Messenger covers Central Idaho, like the mountain dew. Let us put your name on our list.

Salmon Attorney—Senator E. W. Whitcomb, one of our leading legal lights and a very prominent man politically, arrived here Tuesday from his home in Salmon and is looking after the interest of clients at this term of District Court.

Streeter Here—A. D. Streeter, well known throughout our county arrived in town Tuesday evening to act in the capacity of juror at this session of District Court.

Having Dental Work Done—Ber. Garland came down from Bayhorse Tuesday to have some dental work done.

We Have It—The Messenger has a large supply of adding machine paper of the very best grade. Let us have your order.

At Pahasmarol—L. M. Cameron and family visited friends in Pahasmarol last week.

From Bay Horse—Wm. Groth was here last Thursday from his home at Bayhorse.

From Utah—Mrs. Frank Keyser arrived last Thursday from her home in Gunnison, Utah.

Visiting Sister—Miss Thatcher arrived last week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. William Chivers.

Game Warden Here—Game Warden Ager arrived last Sunday from his home in Stanley Basin.

To Lemhi—George R. Ashton and wife left last Sunday for Lemhi valley on a short visit.

From May—Lynn Finch and wife were here from May Tuesday on legal business.

In From Mine—Everett Welker was here Tuesday from his mining property up the river.

From Chilly—Will Bradshaw is here from his home near Chilly, on legal business.

Parsons Here—Robert Parsons came in Tuesday from his home on upper Lost river, to serve on the jury.

From Chilly—Henry Larter is here from his home near Chilly and is serving in the capacity of juror.

Notice—After May 1st, our terms are strictly net cash—30 days.—The GEO. MCGOWAN COMPANY.

Sister Dies—Earl J. Michael received the sad news of the sudden death of his sister, which occurred at Greeley, Colo. Mr. Michael was at Mackay when the news reached him and he took the train Thursday for the Colorado town. Miss Michael is well known to many of our citizens, having taught school here at one time. The many friends of Mr. Michael extend their sympathy.

Birthday Surprise Party—Mrs. Belle W. Thompson gave a birthday surprise party at her home on Garden creek on April 27th, the occasion being in honor of the 7th anniversary of the birth of Ethel Philips. Fifteen of the girl friends of Miss Ethel were in attendance. An afternoon of unalloyed pleasure was enjoyed by the young folks.

Salmon Couple Wed—Ralph P. Quarles, Jr. and Madge Yearian, both of Salmon, were united in marriage by Probate Judge Jonathan Job on April 9th. Upon request of the contracting parties, this item of news was held up until the present time.

Mrs. Hooper Here—Mrs. Matilda Hooper arrived Monday from her home in Pahasmarol to look after legal matters. While in town Mrs. Hooper paid this office a call and renewed her subscription for another year.

Aldredge Back—George Aldredge arrived Tuesday from Jerome, Idaho, where he has spent the past winter. He went on to Stanley Tuesday morning and will reopen his garage there for the coming summer's business.

From Bayhorse—Thos. Jose and wife, G. A. Joslin and wife, Corrie Sullivan and wife and Mr. Skeels were Bayhorse visitors here last Friday night, coming down to take in the dance.

Brother Here—Fred Wilcox of this city, met his brother, Charles, last Monday upon his arrival in this city on his way from his home back East to Pahasmarol valley where he will make his home the coming summer.

To Stanley—Bertlett Falls left on Tuesday for Stanley, where he will set his ranch home in readiness for Mrs. Falls, who arrived that day from Blackfoot, where she was called some time ago by the illness of her mother.

From Mackay—H. B. Garletz and Ray Webber arrived in town Wednesday noon, from their homes in Mackay being called here as witnesses in the manslaughter case.

Attorneys Here—Attorneys Chase A. and Selon B. Clark arrived last Sunday from their homes in Mackay to look after clients' interests at this session of the district court.

From Pahasmarol—Lyle Churchill and Lettie Campbell were here last Sunday from their homes in Pahasmarol valley, where they are teaching school.

At Mackay—Frank Leland and wife were Mackay visitors last Thursday, going in the morning and returning that evening.

At Pahasmarol—N. C. Hovey, Cashier of the First State Bank, was in Pahasmarol last Thursday on a mission of business.

From Mackay—M. D. Kilgore and Dr. F. P. Richards arrived in town Wednesday morning from their homes in Mackay.

Mrs. Rowles Home—Mrs. Donald Rowles returned home Tuesday evening from a trip to Moscow and a visit to the schools over the county.

Killian Here—Dennis Killian came up Tuesday evening from his home near Chilly, to act in the capacity of a juror.

From Chilly—Carl Lehman arrived Tuesday from his home on Lost river and is combining a visit with relatives here with jury duty.

From Darlington—W. H. Brown, cousin of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Leaton arrived Tuesday evening and is serving on the jury.

From Bayhorse—Martin Anderson, the man who broke his leg at Bayhorse last winter arrived in town last Tuesday for medical attention.

Bartlett Here—Floyd Bartlett is in town from his home on upper Lost river.

At Pocatello—Verne A. McGowan of the Geo. McGowan Company is in Pocatello on business.

Back from Lake—Roy Huffman returned last week from a trip to Salt Lake City.

From May—Minor A. Brown arrived Monday from May to transact business here.

From Mackay—Sam Hill, of near Mackay, is here on business with the District Court.

Garage Man Here—Sam Miller, well known garage man of Mackay is in town acting as a juror.

From May—George Grubb is in town from his home at May, returning from a trip to Mackay.

Notice—After May 1st, our terms are strictly net cash—30 days.—The GEO. MCGOWAN COMPANY.

From Upper Lost River—A. B. Reed, one of the pioneer ranchers of upper Lost river valley, arrived in town on Tuesday evening, having been summoned as a juror at this session of the District Court.

From Moore—F. F. Johnson, accompanied by his mother and sister arrived Tuesday evening from their home in Moore and are witnesses for the State in the manslaughter case which was begun this morning.

Hunter Here—J. B. Hunter of Chilly, was here Monday transacting business with the Board of County Commissioners, who were in regular road session that day.

From Pahasmarol—O. D. Bartlett came over from his home in Pahasmarol last week and has been spending a few days with friends and relatives here.

Burstedt Here—Claus Burstedt and family motored over from their home in Pahasmarol the fore part of the week for a short visit with relatives here.

From Pahasmarol—Roscoe Hamilton and George Ellis were here from their homes in Pahasmarol the fore part of the week, on a short mission of business.

Dickinson Moves—Dr. Dickinson, the dentist, has moved to offices over the telephone exchange. The rooms he vacated are being remodeled for the law firm of Adamson & Shuey.

To the Hermit—George Keyes and Vern Merkel left Tuesday morning for the Hermit mine, where they have accepted positions for the coming season's activities.

Burnett in Town—Alex Burnett, well known to all our citizens, was in town Monday, renewing old acquaintances.

From Pahasmarol—A. V. Miller and wife, were here Monday from their home in Pahasmarol, combining a shopping trip and pleasure.

Nix Here—C. H. Nix, of Mackay, was here Monday, on his way to Robinson Bar, with a load of freight for Chas. A. Clark.

From Bayhorse—Wm. Patrick and his charming daughter were guests in this city last week, from their home at Bayhorse.

From Antelope—Robert Miller is in town from his home on Antelope creek as a witness in the manslaughter case.

Passes Through—Jack Carr was in town Wednesday morning on his way to the Summit ranch in Pahasmarol valley, on a mission of business.

Harris Here—Evan Harris is in Challis from his home below Mackay having been summoned for jury duty.

From Mackay—George Funduck is here from his home in Mackay. George once lived here and is well known to many of our citizens.

From Mackay—W. H. Brashear, well known Lost river valley citizen, was here the fore part of the week on a mission of business.

Improving—Franklin Cameron writes the home folks that he is now under the care of a chiropractor at Salt Lake City and is doing nicely.

Tearing Country Roads—The County Commissioners have been on a tour of the county roads for the past few days.

Will Open Shop—The ice cream parlor at the Garland Hotel will open soon with Gurney James in charge.

From Stanley—Billy Soule is here from his home in Stanley, having been summoned in the jury panel.

Notice—After May 1st, our terms are strictly net cash—30 days.—The GEO. MCGOWAN COMPANY.

SALMON ITEMS
(From the Recorder)

Mrs. Peter McKinney is home from Portland, where she had been making a long visit.

Geo. W. Metzler and Joe Vaughn of May and L. R. Sells of Northfork and Don C. Reed of Leadore are in Salmon today.

Senator and Mrs. Whitcomb are to leave Salmon for their Blackfoot home about May 30.

Sam Sternberg came in from Forney on Wednesday last, and left on Thursday for the Ramshorn mine, at Bayhorse, where he will be employed.

Canned Goods Of All Kinds At Lowest Prices

-AND-

Flour That Produces Better Results.

When you put your time and energy into bread, biscuits, pie or cake, you want really worth-while results.

Many housewives have become discouraged with baking when oftentimes it was the flour that was at fault.

The next time you bake, be sure to use a brand of flour that is worthy of your efforts. We have that brand and the price is right.

We sell for CASH ONLY and at a close margin of profit, benefitting the consumer

SEND US YOUR MAIL ORDERS

CHALLIS CASH STORE,

Rodger Brasseur, Proprietor

Undertaking

THE PASTIME

WILL COX & KIRK, Proprietors

Soft drinks, cigars, candies, tobacco.

Pool and card games

Courteous Treatment

CHALLIS, IDAHO

Salmon Valley Ranch

Chas. A. Norton, Owner

Registered Shorthorns

Do you need some good range bulls, or a few nice heifers to start a pure bred herd?

If there was ever a time when a dollar would buy a hundred cents worth of pure bred cattle—that time is right now.

Write us for prices and terms, you will find them very reasonable. ADDRESS

Chas. A. Norton, Salmon, Idaho

JUST ARRIVED, NEW STOCK OF

GENTS' FURNISHINGS

All old stock

GREATLY REDUCED PRICES

Call and take advantage of some of the Bargains we are Offering!

GEO. MCGOWAN COMPANY

EVERY PRINTING NEED FOR YOUR BUSINESS

FRANKLIN PRINTING PRICE LIST