"Big Eva" Smith, a colored woman of the half world of Butte, whose true name is Cassie Frye, died last week from the effects of a gunshot wound inflicted by a colored courtesan named Bessie Fisher.

Suit has been brought in the United States court by United States Attorney Rodgers against the Daly estate, the Bitter Root Development Company and the Anaconda Company to recover $370,511.36, the value of timber cut from government land since 1894.

There were rumors in the air at Billings that a party of men had been organized for the purpose of taking L. A. Witz, the man charged with committing a criminal assault upon the 5-year-old Connolly girl, out of jail and lynching him, but court was convened in the corridor of the jail, and Witz was brought out from his cell. He was arraigned, his counsel waived examination and he was bound over to await trial in the district court. No time was lost, the entire proceedings being through within 10 minutes, and thus any attempt at lynching prevented.

A Brutal Murder.

Connellsville, Pa., May 20.—Five thousand frantic white people surrounded the fragile little lockup in the town hall. Behind the cell bars were William Fairfax and his wife, "Black El," both colored, who had just murdered William Moore, assistant yardmaster in the Baltimore & Ohio yards. Early this evening, when the streets were crowded with the Saturday night throngs, William Moore and Baggage-master Johnston of the Fairmount branch train were attacked by the negroes as they turned into an alleyway from Main street going toward the rear entrance to the Hotel Atlas. Moore was struck with a brick on the head and fell. Quick as a flash the negro Fairfax leaned down over the prostrate victim, jerked his watch from his pocket, took his money from his clothing and then took the unconscious body in his arms and hurled it over a stone wall, a distance of 30 feet. Moore was not dead when he was hurled from the wall, but the fall broke his neck and he died instantly.

The murder was right in the heart of the city. When a crowd from Main street pressed upon the negroes, they ran down the alley, but the wife, throwing stones and bricks, held the crowd until three policemen rushed in upon her and captured her and Fairfax a little later.

Albany Strike Ended.

Albany, N. Y., May 20.—The great street railway strike, lasting 12 days, requiring the presence of 3000 members of the National Guard in the city, costing the lives of two prominent merchants and entailing an expense to the county of Albany of over $34,000, is amicably settled, and if the agreements are kept there will be no trouble for three years at least.

The calm which followed the killing of two inoffensive citizens two days ago by National guardsmen was succeeded this afternoon and evening by enthusiasm when public bell towers and city newspapers proclaimed that the 12 day strike on the street railways of four cities had been settled.

Flags flying from public and private buildings, houses and wagons decorated with bunting and the national emblem, citizens carrying small flags in their hands and enthusiastic youths and otherwise dignified citizens chasing after the cars, marked some of the earlier scenes of the afternoon. The repair wagon left the traction company's barn with its old union crew aboard, and going along Pearl street, received an ovation. It was decorated with flags and escorted by a joyful crowd, very different from the angry mob that had followed the cars the last few days.

Wanamaker's Home Burned.

Philadelphia, May 20.—The country home of Thomas B. Wanamaker, at Meadowbrook, was struck by lightning and nearly destroyed. The loss is estimated at $500,000. The house was adorned with valuable paintings and bric-a-brac, all of which was destroyed. The house was of the colonial type and was built in 1826. Its abutting wings contained scores of bedrooms, a ball room, banquet hall, library and picture gallery. The pictures in the art gallery are an irreparable loss. Their approximate value is $250,000.

WEARY WOMEN

Throughout the Land Many Are Slewing Over the Needle and Wearing Themselves Out.

From the Maine Farmer, Augusta.

There are many women all over the land who are earning a living by the use of the needle. Confinement in close rooms and the trying nature of their work often causes them to grow pale and wan and to experience a feeling of constant weariness. This goes on, sometimes, until nature rebels and health breaks down. There is one way and only one way to restore the impaired vitality, and that is to strengthen the worn out nerves and build up and nourish the impoverished blood. If the blood is kept healthy and rich and the nerves strong, new life and energy will soon be felt. This was the experience of Mrs. Addie R. Holt, a dressmaker, of No. 73 Bridge street, Augusta, Me. She says:

"About five years ago I began to experience a worn out feeling. Sometimes I would lie in bed for a day or so, but my dressmaking work obliged me to keep up, even when I did not feel able to be about. I suffered from female troubles and last spring I had rheumatism in my left arm and also a pain in my left side in the region of my heart.

"In August a friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and I began taking them immediately. I commenced to improve in about two weeks and in three months my weight increased from 121 to 133 pounds. Since taking the pills I have had no return of the pain in my arm nor near my heart.

"I am still taking Pink Pills for Pale People and I am gladly recommending them to all who say that anything ails them."
