The Spokesman-Review is getting itself rather harshly spoken about by the papers in the Palouse. Last week the Review reported 8 below zero at Troy "with fruit not damaged," when it should have been 8 below freezing.

The boys are having the baseball grounds fixed up in fine shape. They have the energy, enterprise and ability and if they can get the good will and capital of the citizens to back them we will have some large crowds here this summer to witness games. Help the boys along. Be public spirited.

A large number of depredations have recently been committed in the reservation country, consisting of small and large thefts and even one hold up. As yet no warrants have been issued for the apprehension of the guilty parties, and, to judge from recent events, it will be impossible to get any. We do not know the reason for this slack justice, but it does seem to us that when a man is held up and robbed of $25 and his coat he ought to be able to have the guilty parties arrested. As long as methods of this kind are in vogue with our courts these malefactors can follow their evil ways with impunity. Nobody's property will be safe from appropriation by this set of law-breakers.

From all over the state come reports of new industries, shortage of laborers, grand crop prospects and a thousand and one indications of a prosperity never before enjoyed. Still, you can always find people, and plenty of them, too, who are continually kicking to every one about the hard times. We never could arrive at a satisfactory conclusion why it should be thus, unless it's just simply bred in the bone. You will see a man who never had $50 at one time in his life; he comes to this country, takes up a farm, goes in debt for everything; a few years later he has his debts paid and is just beginning to lay up a little money, and that same man will talk to you by the hour of the utter uselessness for a man to try to make money. For goodness sake, what does he expect? Why, there are people in the east who never dream of such advantages as we have, and they are partially satisfied, because they have never been educated to expect anything more than they have.

The Asotin Sentinel, Cottonwood Chronicle, Orofino Courier and other papers take exceptions to the News article claiming the best territory for homeseekers lie within the boundaries of Latah, Nez Perce and Whitman counties. Gentlemen, we beg pardon; we should have included your counties of Asotin, Idaho and Clearwater, which join this magnificent territory. With this enlargement we can truthfully state that it is the most productive empire of its size in the United States. It will be the finest and richest in time. Join us, boys, in securing more capital and honest toilers to make this spot a garden of Eden.—Gehse News.

Right you are Bro. We knew it was an oversight, and you will always find us in the front row when it comes to working for the interest of this magnificent Inland Empire. And it comes so easy, too. Why, all we have to do is just simply publish the news. Every week brings forth occurrences that go to show that we are living in a country more blessed by the bountiful Hand of Providence than any other section of like dimensions in the known world. True, we need more capital and people to bring out the best qualities of our common country, but merit will always win in the end.

COMMUNICATION.

I see in your last issue a correction, made by Ellsworth Lamb, of a statement of mine. Will just say the wager was for more than a $2 hat and he ordered a better hat. The hat was represented to me to be more than a $2 hat or I would not have accepted it. Guess if the wager had been a bottle of champagne I would have received a small beer. Of course, defeat is bitter, and, when a fellow isn't in it, still more bitter, especially when he invites the conflict himself; but he can never expect, nor will he experience anything but awful defeat until he gets a Clyde, bred in the purple, as is Silver Tail, a horse that does not retrograde from 1428 pounds at 29 months of age to 1412 at three years. Take the true weight of my horse—1560 at 4 years—if he had retrograded at the ratio of 16 pounds each six months, he must have been a stunner at 29 months. But he did not and is growing as nicely as any horse should. Conservative horsemen say he will weigh in the neighborhood of 1700 or 1800 in another year. I'd subscribe myself "For Business," as did he, but I've been transacting all spring all the business my capital will permit. I append a certificate of weight of my horse for the benefit of those who couldn't find where I weighed him. "This is to certify that I weighed R. E. Lee's stallion on my scales and he weighed 1560 pounds."

STATE NEWS

Atty. Allshie will argue the legality of the creation of Clearwater county before the supreme court at Boise today.

J. N. King, who was arrested at Lewiston last week charged with the murder of his partner, Thatcher, was dismissed at the preliminary hearing as the evidence brought forth was not sufficient to hold him.

Boise, May 27.—Shortly after midnight last night fire broke out in the residence of Rev. I. T. Osborn, two miles north of Hailey, resulting in the death of Mrs. Osborn and her young son. Mrs. Osborn's life was lost in an effort to save her boy, the burning roof crashing down on them as she tried to escape with the child.

Kendrick, May 27.—The 10-year old son of Mr. Krickhoff, a farmer living on Big Bear ridge, was drowned Sunday afternoon in Bear creek. The boy had been fishing with another younger lad and fell in the creek where the water was nine feet deep. His companion summoned assistance, but the boy was taken from the water too late for resuscitation.

Emil Schuessler and his partner in the logging business, James Bishop, at Dent, on the Clearwater, last Monday had a quarrel which nearly resulted fatally for Bishop. Schuessler says that Bishop attacked him while he was cutting shrubbery and that in order to save himself he (Schuessler) was compelled to use his knife on Bishop, stabbing him nine times. Bishop is under treatment at Kendrick and Schuessler is at Lewiston with a warrant for his partner.
