LOCAL NEWS

Matt Seubert is building a fine barn. Old papers at this office, 50 cts. per hundred.
George Brownlee was circulating here the fore part of the week.
Van Robertson made a business trip to Grangeville last Saturday.
Robt. Nugent is now driving the stage between here and Grangeville.
Hubert Hatrup, the real estate man, went to Lewiston on business Sunday.
Frank Greer last week moved his family into the old post office building.
Nick Adhems has just completed one of the finest barns in the Green creek country.
Our base ball battery has been practicing faithfully for over a week—splitting rails.
Chas. Crichton has returned here from Astoria and will probably remain until after harvest.
Jas. Tierney, of White Bird, arrived from the lower country Sunday and left for his home Monday.
Blacksmith Davidson has moved his family from Denver to this place. He will work for E. Joslyn.
Clay and Clay Robbins last Monday brought up two large four horse loads of freight for Goldstone.
Robt. Nugent returned from New-come Creek last week after having been at that place several weeks.
Cottonwood was to have played the Venterville ball team last Sunday but the latter nine failed to materialize.
G. W. Goode is in Portland this week buying wire for the Grangeville-Buffalo Hump Telephone company.—Standard.
The ball team will leave today (Wednesday) for Grangeville in order to be ready for the big game on the Fourth.
Messrs. Johnson and Ike, two Minnesota men, were looking over the prairie during the week with a view to locating.
Messrs. Kelly and Hammond, of Moscow, passed through here Saturday on their way to the mountains on a prospecting trip.
Johnnie Nash wishes to inform the people that he is mad—extremely so—and that anyone who doesn't believe it can convince themselves by seeing him.

Messrs. Bieler, Smalzbauer and Hill, of Ferdinand precinct, have purchased a new Plano header of the latest improved model.
J. W. Caesar and son, of Colton, Wash., passed through here Friday on their way to Elk, Dixie, Florence and the Hump on a prospecting tour.
All schools desiring to purchase blackboards or school supplies of any kind call on or address E. Pearl Martin, Cottonwood, Idaho, who can duplicate any price.
Some of the boys indulged in a profligate 4th of July last Friday night. Fireworks, cannon crackers and scared horses were the principal features of the evening.
Papa Bash informs us that Rev. Luther Williams, the Presbyterian Sunday school organizer, will hold services at this place in the Baptist building on the evening of July 7th.
Lum Yandell, Bill Rooke and several others have been breaking horses for the past week or more on the Buck Bates ranch. They will sell the horses for cavalry purposes.
Wm. Lawrence and Henry Fisk came up from the John Day last week to remain in this vicinity during the harvesting season. The gentlemen are relatives of Link Manwaring.
S. Goldstone last Monday brought in from his ranch a bunch of barley averaging 3 feet in height and having magnificent heads. Mr. Goldstone says he has 100 acres of the same kind.
"Camas Prairie is now a garden of green," said Governor Hunt. "I visited that section last fall, but did not then realize the wonderful fertility and productiveness of the great prairie."
Mrs. Anderson, of Moscow, formerly of this place, has been in the city during the week attending to her property interests and visiting with friends and relatives. She was accompanied by her son Arthur.
Last Friday the Plano company unloaded at Kamiah a large amount of machinery consigned to reservation farmers, including eighty-four binders, headers, etc. The Kamiah grade was lined with teams which were taking off machinery. The Plano company gave the farmers a big dinner at Kamiah and all those present report an excellent time.

Frank Simon and ye scribe went to Grangeville Wednesday in order to be on time for the 4th.
Edgar Kittrel arrived home from the Pullman college last week. He will remain during the summer.
Assessor Overman has practically finished the 1901 assessment. He finds that the total valuation of the taxable property of the county is much greater than last year, and will probably reach the two million mark.—Mail.
Hubert Hatrup last week sold to John B. Thacke, recently of Minnesota, the old Warren place, consideration $3100. Mr. Hatrup also sold to Herman Engel Ed Bradford's town property. Mr. Engel is also a Minnesota man. These two men will make a valuable addition to our community.
Herman Streibich, a well known and prosperous farmer of Uniontown, Wash., brought up his wife and three small children to visit with Mr. Streibich's son-in-law, Ernest Bieler, of Ferdinand, last week. Mrs. John Fuchs, one of Mr. Streibich's daughters, was also one of the party. Messrs. Streibich and Bieler were in the city Sunday renewing old acquaintances here.
L. W. Nixon, of Moscow, an old friend and comrade of ours, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Nixon holds a first grade teacher's certificate, besides a diploma from the state university, and he was here trying to secure the principalship of our schools. He is in every way capable of the trust, as his excellent recommendations will conclusively prove.
Atty. Hugh Shaw, of Morrow, passed through here Friday on his way to Grangeville where the civil case regarding the appropriation by constable Blackburn of the horses belonging to Morrow and Smith was heard Saturday. Mr. Shaw represented the defense (claiming that the constable had no right to hold the horses) and was defeated at the preliminary hearing. It is evident that when our constable does anything he knows what he is about.

It is with pleasure that we chronicle the election of our townsman, Mr. George Simon, by the democratic central committee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of County Commissioner Nuxoll. Mr. Simon received twenty-two out of thirty-four votes. Mr. Simon is an honorable and upright man, thoroughly capable of handling his share of the county business and one who will undoubtedly be a credit to this vicinity. The election occurred at Grangeville last Saturday.

News—To the wife of Wm. Bash, on Thursday June 27th, 1901, a fine large son. Mother and child are doing nicely and it is suspected that Billie also will recover. We would have chronicled the birth last week but Billie kept all the neighbors busy all day Thursday and we didn't learn of it until one of them got time to tell his little boy to inform us, but it was then too late for publication. Billie is about twice his usual (large) size and his good humor is simply marvelous.

One of the most pleasant parties we ever attended was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Kittrel in honor of Miss Gussie Clark, who is an old friend of Miss Leona Kittrel. Miss Clark leaves shortly for the Palouse. Those present were Misses Leona and Flora Kittrel, Eunice and Maud Turner, — and Mattie Howell, Bessie Blackburn and Blanche Robbins and Messrs. Kittrel, Crawford, Simon, Howard and John McKinley, Jim and Chas. Blackburn, Howell, Bartlett and Rustemeyer. Everyone had a good time.

Dr. Green has organized a gymnasium, the classes meet at the Congregational church rooms; the boys Monday nights and the girls on Tuesday nights. A young ladies class will be organized for Wednesday nights. This is a valuable institution for the young people and should be aided in every way by our citizens. Dr. Green has had five years experience in the best gymnasiums in the country that make his services very desirable.—G. Standard.

Why doesn't some one organize a gymnasium here? Surely we have persons capable of conducting such an institution.
