LOCAL NEWS

Ho for Nezperce Sunday.
Big cut in shirt waists now at Goldstone's.
Straw hats still go at one-half price at Goldstone's.
Justice Wolbert made a business trip to Mt. Idaho Monday.
D. C. Munroe, of Moscow, has been in the city for some time.
Notice the new shirt waist ad. Goldstone has in this issue.
John Maug, the Keuterville blacksmith, is building a large hotel.
Mason's porcelain top fruit jars, all sizes.
W. L. Brown.
Webster & Wright's saw mill was shut down Wednesday for lack of water.
John Wilkes, Grangeville's constable, was in the city on business during the week.
Frank Patterson went down to the Tammany country this week to begin harvesting.
The telephone construction crew is in this city. They are building a permanent line.
Miss Eunice Turner has returned from Grangeville, where she has been visiting since the 4th.
Jake Woodring went out to Ben Gerding's yesterday to finish up the big addition to Ben's house.
Arthur Woodring went to Nezperce last Sunday. Arthur is going to work as carpenter in that city.
All the crops in the foothills and on the mountain look good and the farmers anticipate the best of results.
Born—To the wife of Ed. Denham, on Friday, July 19, near Keuterville, a son, Dr. Truitt was in attendance.
"The Terrible Swede," Wm. Edinburgh Loudon, was the umpire Sunday. He's all right—got a good eye.
Geo. Stuber has had nearly all of the young men about this place employed during the week putting up hay.
J. A. Schultz, the Nezperce merchant, was here Sunday accompanied by Hon. Peter Triesch. They paid us a pleasant call.
E. L. Alford and wife were in the city Friday. Mr. Alford is one of the proprietors of the popular Lewiston Tribune.

Uncle Frank is kept busy these days while Papa Fred takes care of the future perpetuator of the name of Simon.

Grain, as yet, isn't much hurt, but if this humidity continues there will be a considerable shortage on first estimates.

"Grandpa" Simon returned from Mt. Idaho Wednesday, the commissioners having finished the work of the session.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith, of Salmon river, were in the city this week and the CHRONICLE is a weekly visitor to their home now.

Seth Jones and family and Louis Brust and family passed through here Tuesday on their way to their Salmon river cattle ranches.

Seems like the tail end of the eastern hot wave took a notion to meander out west recently although somewhat modified. Warm enough for us as it is.

J. M. Wolbert, wife and family and Charles Kelly had a picnic dinner on the mountain Wednesday. The shade and cold spring water was much enjoyed.

John Graham, formerly of this place, came over with the Nezperce boys Sunday and spent the day renewing old acquaintances and having a good time generally.

Rev. L. N. Williams will hold his last services here at 11 a. m. next Sunday in the M. E. church. He will speak on the doctrine of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

Chas. Kelly, of Moscow, was in town on Tuesday, having come in from a prospecting trip in the vicinity of the Hump. He is now visiting with his old friend J. M. Wolbert.

The baseball game Tuesday between Lewiston and Pomeroy resulted in a score of 11 to 5 in favor of Pomeroy. Thomas and Coon, of this place, participated on the Lewiston side.

The sale of the W. V. Dresser ranch will begin on the 10th of August and be offered from time to time until a reasonable and satisfactory price is realized.

J. M. Wolbert, Adm.

Moscow, Idaho, July 21.—Judge Warren Truitt is at his timber reserve on Burnt ridge, six miles below Troy. He is getting out two or three carloads of logs every day and shipping them to the Moscow mill. Judge Truitt expects to begin cutting and shipping logs from the school land section of timber he purchased on Friday for $4401 this week. This timber is just north of Troy, the town school house being built on one corner of the section.—Review.

Judge Truitt is a brother to Dr. Truitt, of this place.

George S. Bates (Buck) will leave Cottonwood for his old home in California the fore part of next week. Buck has been one of the boys since pioneer days and we are all sorry to see him go. Everybody knows Buck and all of us will miss his cheery, good natured presence. May good luck accompany him.

Van Robertson and Al Manning went to Grangeville yesterday afternoon on business. While in that city they will try to arrange a game of baseball to be played on the Cottonwood diamond between the Grangeville and Nezperce nines. If it can be arranged a good game will undoubtedly be the result. The game will probably be played a week from next Sunday, if at all.

Judge Robbins returned from Morrow Saturday, where he had been attending to a law suit instituted against Frank Eastman by the Morrow saloon-keeper. It is alleged that Mr. Eastman owed some small bills at Morrow and all the creditors clubbed together and attached the wages due him for cutting the telephone poles. Mr. Robbins secured a change of venue from Morrow to Nezperce.

A farewell ice cream social will be given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church in the Baptist building next Monday evening. A fine literary program, including a recitation by Rev. L. N. Williams, will be rendered free of charge. The proceeds derived from the sale of the ice cream will be used to defray the expenses of Rev. Williams while in this city. The pastor leaves next Tuesday.

Fred Simon is just about the happiest man in Cottonwood at present, to judge by the radiance of his countenance. Last Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock, while Fred and his wife were talking about the crop prospect, a strange lad arrived at their home and announced his decision to remain there twenty-one years for his "keep." Mrs. Simon, we are glad to say, is resting easy since the stranger's arrival and it is confidently expected by friends that Fred also will recover. Dr. Turner assisted the boy and is much pleased with his health. We hope the lad will grow as big and strong as his pa and eventually be the best butcher on Camas Prairie.

Grangeville, July 22.—It is reported here that the Hump syndicate are arranging to start the Big Buffalo at once. Superintendent Stevens started for Calender yesterday with his wife and family, who will remain in the camp this summer. It is not known whether the present shaft will be continued or not, owing to the fact that it is too crooked for a working shaft. The syndicate have talked of tapping the vein by a long tunnel to be run from Sheep creek, whence a depth of about 2,000 feet could be secured, affording natural drainage, and it is thought that the property may be so worked. If the plans are carried out a large tunnel will be run sufficient to accommodate a double track.

A large crowd of people was over from Nezperce Sunday to witness the ball game between their nine and a picked up nine of our boys. Quite a number of ladies were among the visiting aggregation, in fact, it seemed as if the greater part of Nezperce was here. A friendly feeling existed on all sides and a very pleasant day was spent by all concerned. The game was probably the worst played this season, the result being a walkover for Nezperce. But then, baseball wasn't all there was on Sunday. The Nezpercers live in a dry town, surrounded by a dry country, and even irrigation is an unacquired habit with them (that is, when they are at home.) After the ball game (?) the crowd repaired to the "refreshment resorts" of this place and the fun commenced. A keg of liquid gladness was stationed at the town pump, half way across the street between the Brewery and the Elite, in order that the dusty-throated sons of "Gran Dole Nez Perce" would not be long between drinks in going from one saloon to the other. It was a red letter day for the visitors and they surely made the best of the opportunity. They are a gentlemanly lot of boys, as they created no disturbance and insulted no one, even if they did get slightly hilarious. A return game will be played at Nezperce Sunday, and, we hope, with a better score for both sides.

NATURAL GAS.

Last Monday Wm. Schiller, the harness man, got down in his well to clean it out. He had been below the surface but a short time when he asked to be pulled to the top, as he was smothering. He was taken out of the well in a fainting condition and was resuscitated with considerable trouble. The well was afterward probed and found to contain natural gas or something similar. Some of Mr. Schiller's friends say it was probably the stench emanating from an underground habitation of a specimen of the genus Mephitis but he stoutly maintains that he has a gas well and will prospect it further. Who knows but Cottonwood will become a coal and oil center?
