GOOD WORK GOES ON

Preparations are Rapidly Advancing Toward Completion.

Another Fourth of July meeting was held here last Monday. B. W. Maxey was employed to oversee the construction of the grand stands and all other buildings and grounds necessary to the celebration. Consequently lumber is already on the grounds and the mechanics are at work. A committee consisting of S. R. Libbey and F. S. Wimer was appointed to look after the selection of a Goddess of Liberty and a choir. The committee accomplished its work in a very short time. Miss Helen Terhaar was selected as the Goddess of Liberty and a large choir is now practicing at the residence of Dr. Turner. Miss Eunice Turner will read the Declaration of Independence. The race track is being plowed and graded and is already in excellent condition, but more work will be done.

We are receiving the most encouraging reports from our neighboring towns, nearly everyone saying "why, of course, we're going to celebrate at Cottonwood." The 5th promises to be the biggest day of the two, as several towns will not arrive until that day, but they're all coming. Tomorrow a large crowd of men will make a camping party in the foothills to cut evergreens to be used on the grounds and when the morning of the Glorious Day dawns everything will be in first class order to accommodate the participants in the celebration. Applications are beginning to pour in for the erection of stands, swings, boweries, etc. and it is beginning to look as if we would have a miniature world's fair. Well, the more the merrier. There will be crowd enough here to make them all pay.

LOCAL NEWS

Ed Bradford's mill is again sawing. The McKanlass minstrels are billed to show here July 3rd. Miss Nellie Eckert is visiting this week with Mrs. Schiller. S. P. Gregg, of Nezperce, was in the city Saturday and Sunday. Ed Ogan this week began repainting the outside of Goldstone's store. Fred Mertes is hauling lumber for the erection of a new kitchen and granary. Mrs. H. W. Tefft returned late last week from an extended visit in the east. A. F. Parker, of Grangeville, was looking after real estate business here Tuesday. T. H. Thurman has put a partition in his barber shop and will soon open up his new restaurant. E. M. Nelson, of White Bird, passed through here on his way to Urag Mountain Wednesday. J. M. Wolbert, Att'y at Law, Notary Public, Real Estate Agent and Justice of the Peace, Cottonwood, Idaho. Frank Manwaring lost a valuable work horse last Saturday. It is not known what was the cause of its death. Mrs. L. B. Odell and family have moved into the Tom Hale house, which was recently vacated by I. D. Lyons. J. S. Vincent, formerly editor of the Kendrick Gazette, has been in the city the past week on life insurance business. Rev. Dake, of Illinois, will preach at the Baptist church Saturday, June 28, at 8 p. m., also Sunday at 11 and in the evening. Ray Bartlett and Charlie Blackburn started for Lewiston Monday with two loads of wool which they are hauling for Reggs Bros. The boys will bring back tonight for our merchants.

Money. Farm loans. Low interest and long time. Write or call on J. B. RICE, Westlake, Id. Sam Johnson, of Harpster, was up here Wednesday after a load of flour. Mr. Johnson is working a crew of men on extensive building improvements. The work of repairing the sidewalks and streets is progressing steadily. All the old ruts in the streets are being filled with rock and covered with dirt. Girl wanted to work in small family. Good wages to an experienced girl who will stay all summer. A. F. PARKER, Grangeville, Id. Mrs. J. B. Crawford with her two grand children will leave the latter part of the week for Colfax where they will celebrate the Fourth with the children's father. Quite a large number of Nezpercians attended the ball game here Sunday. While here the boys made arrangements to compete for the purse here on the 4th and 5th. The Thunder mountain travel is still unabated. Dozens of people have passed through here in the last two weeks, and all who knew the route outfitted at this place. Thos. O'Brein last Saturday sold his fine 160-acre ranch, one mile northeast of town, to Mrs. Anna Seubert, the consideration being $2000. Mrs. Seubert has by this purchase added a valuable piece of land to her excellent farm. Frank Keska was in town several days this week. Frank has bought a stock ranch near Pollock, on the Salmon, in company with Harry Hartsborn, of Nezperce, and the boys are beginning to get together quite a band of cattle. Turner Shirley, the genial representative of the Young music house, of Lewiston, was over from Nezperce Tuesday. Mr. Shirley is agent for the Chickering, Weber, Kimball, Jacob Doll and Estey pianos, also for the Kimball, Mason & Hamlin and Burdette organs. He allows a most liberal price on old instruments in exchange for new ones. He will be here in a few days or can be reached by mail at Nezperce.

Mr. Julius Pedersen and sons hereby wish to thank the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted them during the illness and death of their beloved wife and mother. The kindnesses were appreciated more than words can tell.

Quite a number of our people attended the log rolling contest at Kippen Wednesday. Among others were Messrs. Libbey, Robertson, Blackburn, Bushy, Rooke and Mrs. Tefft and son, Bert. More went from here but we could not ascertain their names. All report a most enjoyable time and an immense crowd present.

The local nine and the Grangeville team played a game here Sunday, the score being 11 to 23 in favor of Grangeville. It was the final game of the season and neither team was thoroughly organized. The game was replete with errors but anyone with half an eye could see that by the Fourth of July Camas Prairie is going to have two good ball teams, one here and the other at Grangeville, to say nothing of what may still crop up.

Lumber almost given away at Tefft's mill. Come now before it is all gone. I have the best lumber on the mountain at the same price. Call and see my lumber before buying. Don't forget, I give a discount for all large cash orders, lumber delivered when cash accompanies the order. Farm produce taken in exchange for lumber when delivered at Goldstone's store or my mill. If you don't think I will trade try me. A. P. TEFFT.

THE NEW RESTAURANT
Will be opened in the barber-shop building on Sunday, June 29. Everything first class. A share of the public patronage respectfully solicited. T. H. THURMAN, Prop.

OATS FOR SALE.
We have 1700 bushels of oats to sell at one cent per pound at the farm, 3 1/2 miles southeast of Cottonwood. MORRIS BROS.

NOTICE TO PATRONS.
Notice is hereby given that on and after Sunday, July 6th, 1902, my store will be closed from 2 o'clock p. m., every Sunday until the following Monday morning. SAM'L GOLDSTONE, Cottonwood, Ida.

NOTICE TO FREIGHTERS.
We, the undersigned, have 50,000 lbs. of wool for which we will pay 40 cents per hundred for the deliverance of the same in the best landing warehouse, at Lewiston, Idaho. The above wool can be had six miles due south of Cottonwood, Idaho, adjoining the Wm. Brust ranch on the south. For further particulars enquire of Samuel Goldstone at Cottonwood, or E. W. Drees at Keuterville, Idaho. REGGS BROS.

MARRIED.
A pretty little wedding occurred last Sunday at the home of W. W. Blackburn when his daughter, Miss Bessie, was married to Wm. Crawford, by Rev. Mintzer, of Grangeville. Only the relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties were present. Charles Blackburn was best man and Miss Lavina Miller, of Astoria, was bridesmaid. The happy young couple is well known and liked by all of us and the best wishes of the whole vicinity accompany Mr. and Mrs. Crawford wherever they go. They are living with the groom's father, J. B. Crawford, and will manage the mill.

DIED.
Mrs. Pedersen, the wife of Julius Pedersen, died at her home on June 25, 1902, of a complication of diseases. Mrs. Pedersen had been ill for many years, during which time she was tenderly nursed by a loving husband and two sons. Her life was prolonged until she died in her sixty-sixth year, beloved by all who knew her. The bereaved husband and sons have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community. The remains were interred in the Cottonwood cemetery yesterday and a large concourse of friends were present. Rev. Hall, of Grangeville, conducted the last sad rites.

COMMUNICATED.
The following communication was received from J. H. Hunte this week: Nezperce, Ida., June 18, 1902. Ed. CHRONICLE, Dear Sir:—Many of our citizens contemplate visiting your city July 5th. The writer accompanied by Dr. Cooper will arrive on that date at 6 a. m. and dine with our mutual and prized friend, A. B. Rooke Esq. Col. Dan M. Bowes will soon be in your midst heralding the qualities of stock he represents as a representative of the old and reliable Quaker Nurseries of Salem, Ore. He has sold thousands of dollars worth of various kinds of nursery stock on our prairie, and at all times and under all circumstances eminent satisfaction has been given. Will call on you the 5th. Truly yours, "Hunte" Subscriber.
