DIED.

In Westlake, on Tuesday, April 21st, 1903, Elber, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orin Eastman, aged 6 years, 8 months and 1 day.

Little Elber fell a victim to that dread disease, typhoid malaris, and all that human skill could do was unavailing to save his life. The bereaved parents and grand parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad affliction and they wish me through this paper to extend their heartfelt thanks to all who were so kind and tender to them in their trouble, and especially to those who, though at a distance, sent such beautiful flowers for their darling's grave.

We miss thee, little Elber,
Sister misses you so,
Round the little grave we linger
'Til we are forced to go:
When we see the precious blossom
That we tended with such care,
Rudely taken from our bosom,
How our hearts almost despair.
Your little chair is empty now,
Your little clothes laid by,
Oh! Papa's hope, Oh! Mama's joy
Oh! Grandma's darling boy.

NELLIE R. SHAW.
