Another boxing contest is scheduled to take place here tomorrow night between Ed. Cuff, who defeated a negro in the second round here two weeks ago, and J. W. Woodward, a well drilled former of Peck. Cuff is said to be a pretty good man and has been training hard for the coming fray. Woodward is the larger of the two but has not been working out much but those who know him say he is able to put up a sample of pugilism that will surprise those who attend the mill.

Walter Rhett had quite an experience late last week while trying to drive some cattle across Salmon river from the Lancaster place. After getting the cattle started into the stream the horse he was riding fell into the stream with him backward and the two, horse uppermost, went up and down twice before Walter succeeded in getting untangled and coming to the surface. He then caught hold of a steer and got safely to shore but did not let go quite soon enough and the steer threw him about forty feet, so he says, and disappeared among his mates. Walter said he did not mind the ducking he received but found breathing pretty difficult down under the water.

JOHN HORNE,
Keuterville, Ida.

"Make Hay While the Sun Shines."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by Robinson.
