FRIDAY, JULY 2, 1915.

If most of the prairie residents who own cars, as well as those who are not so fortunate, would take an occasional run of a bright morning or pleasant evening up to the brow of Cottonwood hill, or the break of the divide this side of Keuterville, and spend half an hour drinking in the matchless beauty of the view of Camas prairie and its background of mountrin grandeur, we opine they would return home filled with thoughts of life's beauty and goodness and better satisfied with themselves and the world in general. As a usual thing we become too accustomed to our surroundings and strangers have to call our attention to the beauties of our scenery. Camas prairie, as viewed from Craig mountain at this time of year, presents one of the most inspiring views in the United States and is worthy of far greater appreciation and publicity. Make the trip outlined above and see if we are not correct.

The present war has shown conclusively that the little submarine has the ocean to itself when it comes to accomplishing results. It is now up to Uncle Sam to get busy and build a formidable fleet of these little $150,000 swordfish rather than waste any more money on those $12,000,000 whales of the Arizona type.

Russia will give Poland autonomy, says an associated press dispatch, but the question naturally arises, what is there left in Poland to make use of autonomy after the Germans get through dragging the Russian bear all over that war stricken country.

It is plain enough that even those who don't run may read that the amazing success Germany is having in the present war is due in great part to her absolute thoroughness in every detail. This is a quality that other nations can well afford to copy.

With the chautauqua sea-on coming on and the Noble peace prize hanging ripe for the plucking it is not so surprising that Mr. Bryan resigned from the cabinet when he did.

Get out somewhere and celebrate Sunday or Monday, even if it is nothing more than a day spent in the woods. You'll feel better for it. By all means let the eagle scream.

The present low price of grain can hardly be due to flooding the market with the Russian crop after opening the Dardanelles.

Traveling Man's Experience.

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very serious attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from four a. m. to 6 p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so I gave the hotel reporter fifty cents and told him to get me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere.
