Dance Enjoyed by All

The Rebekah dance which was given at the I. O. O. F. hall was one of the most pleasant affairs of the season and a good sized crowd gathered, people having come from Grangeville, Ferdinand and Vollmer, and tripped the fantastic toe to the strains of music played by the orchestra.

At midnight a delightful supper was served by the ladies in the banquet room, after which dancing followed and continued until the wee' hours of the morning.

A neat little sum of $47.30 was cleared which will go toward the piano which has been installed by that Order.

School Notes

Charles Hamil has re-entered school.

The primary room will celebrate Mothers' day next Friday.

The Parent-Teachers Association meets a week from today at the high school at 3.30 p. m.

Floyd Baker has withdrawn from school. By the way Floyd is taking lessons on running that new Buick and he is proving a very apt pupil.

The seniors, five in number are very busy getting ready for graduation on May 26. They are, Lillie McLoughlin, Marie Libbey, Edna McDonald, Barney Seubert and George Rice.

An exhibit of the sewing done in the Home Economics department of the high school during the past term will be held at the school house on Friday May 19th from one to three thirty p. m. Everyone is cordially invited to be present and inspect the work.

For several weeks past, Miss Sloneker's English classes have been studying the life and works of Shakespeare. They have completed the study and each wrote an essay on that subject. The Independent magazine furnished the material and will give a medal to the writer of the best essay in the school. The contestants elected three judges viz: M. M. Belknap, Miss Fannie McGrew and Geo. M. Robertson to decide upon the merits of the essays, and the winner will be announced next week. Five hundred schools in the United States took part in this contest, each school securing a medal.

Farmers Do Without Sacks

Spokane, May 6.—Three hundred farmers of eastern Washington, Idaho and Oregon voted tonight to handle and ship their wheat in bulk this year instead of in sacks, as has been the custom. Discussion of the question began early today and was not concluded until tonight. It was stated that sacks this year will cost $13.25 a hundred.

Money In Hogs

Julietta, May 7.—(Special to the Tribune.)—That there is money—big money—to be made at raising hogs in connection with general farming is clearly proven from the experience of William Cox, of American ridge, two miles north of Julietta, who, since January 1 to April 26 of this year, received for his hogs alone $6,061.78.

Mr. Cox, in addition to being the champion hog grower of the Potlatch district, is a grower of purebred Ayrshire cattle and raises grain as well.

The assessor of Lewis county predicts that there will be 200 autos owned by residents of that county by September 1st.

LET US SMILE.

The thing that goes the furthest toward making life worth while, That costs least and does the most, is just a pleasant smile. The smile that bubbles from the heart that loves its fellow men Will drive away the clouds of gloom and coax the sun again. It's full of worth and goodness, to, with manly kindness blent, It's worth a million dollars, and it does n't cost a cent.

There is no room for sadness when we see a cheery smile; It always has the same good look, its never out of style; It nerves us on to try again, when failure makes us blue; The dimples of encouragement are good for me and you; It pays the highest interest—for it is merely lent— It's worth a million dollars, and it does n't cost a cent.

A smile comes very easy—you can wrinkle up with cheer A hundred times before you can squeeze out a salty tear; It ripples out, moreover, in the heartstrings that will tug, And always leaves an echo that is very like a hug, So smile away; Folks understand what by a smile is meant— It's worth a million dollars and it doesn't cost a cent.

Cottonwood to have Base Ball

That Cottonwood is to have a base ball team this season is an assured fact, enough subscription having been taken up for that purpose. It is the intention to get together a strong and winning team, and those who can play and want to try-out for a position on the team would do well to confer with Fred Lange.

There will be a game on the local diamond Sunday between Fenn and Cottonwood teams, the game to begin at 3:00 p. m. Let there be a big turnout and encourage the boys.

To Build Oil Tanks.

Through the efforts of Leo L. Quinn, representative of the Continental Oil Co. and the Cottonwood Commercial Club, the Continental Oil Co. decided to put in a station at Cottonwood. The intention of the Company is to put in two 20,000 gallon tanks. The Camas Prairie Railway Co. has leased to the Oil Company two lots east of the stock yards.

Warning Against Alfalfa

The following clipping has been sent us by a farmer:

If you don't want lots of trouble, don't sow alfalfa. Along the middle of June, when the corn needs cultivation the most, we had to stop and cut the darned alfalfa. It was in bloom, three feet high. We had to haul in 20 loads of hay off of it.

In July the folks in town invited us to spend a week attending the chautauqua. I suppose they were glad when they got my postcard announcing that we could not come, because we had to cut that bloomed alfalfa patch again. Gee, but it was hot hauling in that hay!

Worse still, I was fool enough to go to work and sow five more bushels of alfalfa seed. The only rest I'll get hereafter from hauling alfalfa will be on rainy days.

It got to rain again in September, and about the first thing I knew that darned alfalfa was three feet high and all in bloom; it had to have another hair cut.

Then Barnum & Bailey's circus came to town, and darned my buttons if I didn't have to miss that circus for the first time in 40 years. I got mad, and then turned the pigs, cows and calves into it; and still the blamed stuff kept growing to beat the cars. They could not keep it down—they got fat on it.

But still this alfalfa hay that we sweat at cuttin' and stackin' makes mighty fine stuffin' for the cows these cold ground hog days. Everything on the place eats it except the hired girl, and she ain't been here long. —Lewiston Tribune.

NEWS AROUND THE STATE

Items From Various Places Reproduced for the Benefit of our Readers—Stories Refreshed from Exchanges.

D. P. Donovan, the Nezperce hardware man, closed a deal last week for the purchase of 3890 acres of farm land in Montana. He hopes to trade the land later for Nezperce prairie soil.

The Nezperce stock show will be held this year on June 22-23. A big program is being planned which surpasses any preceeding year. The Chataqua opens on Thursday June 22, which will be a greater drawing card than ever.

Adam Adams, of Julietta recently filled an order for twenty bushels of his "Alaska" wheat to be shipped to Cape Colony, South Africa, from a New York firm. Mr. Adams received $5 a bushel, or $100 for the twenty bushels.

A Stock Growers-Convention and picnic will be held at Kooskia June 10. A program is being planned, and it is the object of the promoters to have with them dairy experts from the University at Moscow and also a Live-Stock Show representative of Lewiston who will advise along the lines of stock raising.

W. E. Chapman, a prominent Clarkston citizen who owns a 4600-acre farm near Riparia, last week purchased 25 purebred Hereford heifers and a bull from Henry Thiessen, of Sweetwater, paying $5000 for the herd. Mr. Chapman will engage in the raising of purebred cattle and secured his start from the Thiessen herd which contains some of the best blood in the country.

Tuesday evening N. H. Jacobs received a nine-months-old registered Red Polled bull from G. A. Draper, of Elberton, Wn., which he will place at the head of his herd. Mr. Draper recently received a car load of Red Polled cattle from Nebraska and this is one of the animals. Mr. Jacobs, accompanied by County Advisor A. E. Wade made the trip to Elberton last Thursday for the purpose of making the pick out of the bunch.—Nezperce Herald.

Ilo will celebrate its Annual Picnic June 14 and 15. For the past several years, only one day has been held. This was agreed upon by a unanimous vote at a meeting of the commercial club of that city. It was decided to give one day to stock exhibition as a number of farmers and stock owners have promised to aid, and as the Ilo vicinity has a number of good stock breeders it promises to be a success. Baseball games for big purses, and other amusements have been added and the event will be bigger and better than ever.

May 25, 26 and 27 are the dates selected for the annual round-up celebration to be held at Culesac. The round-up this year will be managed by Messrs. Mahaffey and Law and a big program has been arranged. The first prize in the bucking contest will be a saddle valued at $75, and the second will be a pair of shaps valued at $30. For the best bareback rider a bridge, valued at $20, will be awarded, while a prize valued at $20 will go to the winner of the steer-roping contest. Maverick races and a number of like events will be included and each night there will be a big dance. A feature of the celebration daily will be a parade preliminary to the opening of the events in the arena.

Two Power Sites Inspected

Orofino, May 7.—(Special to the Tribune.)—A party of timber men, among whom were J. P. Weyerhauser of Tacoma, Wash.; F. C. Denkman, of Rock Island, Ill.; C. A. Weyerhauser, of Little Falls, Minn., and Theodore Fohl, local agent of the Clearwater Timber company of this place, have just returned from a trip of inspection of the power sites on the North Fork of the Clearwater river.

While no information of a definite nature is being given out at this time it seems probable that a storage dam will be constructed at or near Big Island, about twenty miles from Orofino, and another at Bruce's Eddy, three miles from Orofino. It is persistently rumored that a combination is probable between the electric power interests and the Weyerhauser interests to use the Bruce's Eddy power site for both log storage and power. This would no doubt mean the construction of a big milling plant on the south side of the main river on the mill site property of the Clearwater Timber company. A development of this magnitude will be a big step in the opening of the Clearwater country. The power which can be supplied by this point will remove one of the principal obstacles prevented to developing the cement industry as well as many others at Orofino.

Dramatic Club at Winona

The Cottonwood Dramatic club will present Tony, the Convict at the I. O. O. F. hall at Winona this evening. These talented young people delightfully pleased a well-filled house in Cottonwood with their mirth provoking drama. Their music and specialties were far above the average, and the people of Winona can be well assured of getting their money's worth.

A dance will be given after the show.

Rhoades For Commissioner

There is strong talk among the Salmon river people to bring out Jay Rhoades as commissioner from that district, in fact such a demand comes out of that country for his selection that to the casual observer it would seem a man would have to have far more and better excuses than Mr. Rhoades has to offer to refuse to run. Jay is a man who has made a success of his own affairs, broad and still conservative and would make an excellent man to look after the affairs of the county.—Free Press.

Hans Pederson was in town on business Tuesday.

Notice to Farmers

Notice is here by given to all farmers and real property owners within the Cottonwood Highway district: That it is contrary to the statute, under any circumstances, without having first procured the authority from the Board of Highway Commissioners of said district, to move any fence out into, or encroach upon, any public highway within said district. Any road which has been traveled, maintained and improved by the public for a period of five years becomes a public highway and no one has the right under the state law to alter or change the lines of said road except by official act of the Board of Highway Commissioners.
