We pay 30c a dozen for strictly fresh eggs. J. V. Baker & Son.

They all smile when they trade at Duffy's Five & Dime—

Our Bluestem Patent, a rattling good flour for all the world.

Joe Kuther was in town Sunday from Ferdinand with an auto load of ladies.

Pattern hats received twice a week at Mrs. Malerich's. Drop in and see them.

Deputy Sheriff Will Eller was a visitor in the city Tuesday from the county seat.

The Misses Chicane, of near Denver, and Miss Killmar, of Winona, entered high school here last week.

Johnnie Rothlisberg was in town Monday from Grangeville receiving livestock at this point for shipment to Seattle.

Miss Anna Reiland returned Saturday evening from a visit of several weeks with friends in Montana.

Miss Mildred Parks, who has been visiting here at the C. W. Jenkins home, left Sunday for Grangeville to enter school.

Miss Edna McDonald left the first of the week for Lewiston where she entered the state normal school for the coming term.

John Brachendorf and one of the Semler boys were in the city Wednesday from Colton enroute to Nezperce to visit with friends.

Felix Martzen and family, John Meyer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Captein visited at the John Martzen home in Winona.

Chas. H. Baird, formerly engaged in the cattle business across the river, was in town a few days this week visiting with old friends.

Lawrence J. Lustig arrived here a couple of weeks ago from Illinois and is visiting at the home of his brother northeast of town where he may decide to spend the winter.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church room of the Odd Fellow hall on Wednesday, Oct. 4th. Adults 50c, children under 12 years, 25c.

George Hatke returned from Vancouver, Wash., with his cousin Joe, who was placed with the Sisters of Charity at that place for future care, he having recently lost his sight.

Tip Top flour, the purest and sweetest flour ever made.

Hal Brown, the Salmon river cattle man, was in town the first of the week on business.

SERVICE—is the one thing we can give to each and every one of our customers and still have left. Hussman Lumber Co.

P. A. Gaul and family enjoyed an auto trip Sunday to several points on Craig Mountain and Nezperce prairie and incidentally did some soliciting for the local creamery.

Mr. Brown, a representative of the Buick Motor company, was in town late last week from Spokane with a big two ton truck which he was demonstrating. He will return again about the week of the fair.

Hayward Shields moved his family into the McLoughlin residence the first of the week and the residence he vacated (the old Howell property) will be occupied early next month by J. G. Ruggles and family.

W. H. Zumwalt was in town Monday from his farm home near Grangeville and took with him several premium lists of the fair which he will distribute in his neighborhood. Mr. Zumwalt expects to make some entries in the sheep department at the coming fair and may capture a prize or two.

The sidewalk from the Parker store to the Simon Bros. meat market was taken out this week and dirt filled in front of the buildings from the Peterson lot near the hotel. This brings the walk up practically to street grade and at some future date cement walks will no doubt be laid along that side of Main street.

About twenty-five young people from this vicinity made up a surprise party and descended on the Fred Funke home west of Ferdinand Sunday evening where they spent several hours very pleasantly. Mr. Funke and family intend leaving next month for Montana and the party Sunday was a sort of farewell affair.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This is a medicine that every family should be provided with. Colic and diarrhoea often come on suddenly and it is of the greatest importance that they be treated promptly. Consider the suffering that must be endured until a physician arrives or medicine can be obtained. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a reputation second to none for the quick relief which it affords. Obtainable everywhere.

Otto Rustemeyer narrowly escaped serious injury at the new elevator Saturday when he slipped on a green timber and fell a distance of more than twenty feet. He lodged between two braces and scraped considerable cuticle from his person but escaped serious injury. Had he fallen clear of the braces he might easily have been killed.

D. A. McKinley, residing east of town, delivered a load of twelve fat hogs last week to the Farmers Union Warehouse company that tipped the beam at 2695 pounds and brought the owner a check for $239.85. The hogs were Poland-Chinas and the load was the heaviest delivered to Mr. Downer since he has been weighing for that company.

Mrs. G. K. Vaughn, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Leighly, of Wallace, left for their homes Tuesday after spending a week visiting with their brother, F. B. Fryer, at Keuterville. They had not met for twenty-four years and the visit was a very enjoyable one. Both ladies were highly impressed with the Camas prairie country and promised to speak well of it where ever they go.

Grandpa Mat Kees, who has been visiting here with his daughters, Mrs. J. F. Jenny and Mrs. Frank Dreps, for the past ten months, took his departure Tuesday morning for his home in Hilbert, Wis., and was accompanied by Miss Mollie Seubert, who will visit there with relatives for some time. Mrs. Dreps, who had been visiting here for a few weeks at the home of her son, also accompanied them east. Grandpa Kees enjoyed his visit here greatly and almost fell in love with our country. He is a jolly old gentleman and made many friends here who hope to see him make several more visits among us in time to come.

C. E. Ogan and family came out late last week from their home on Salmon river above Riggins and the former left Tuesday with a carload of personal effects for Oundre, Alberta, near where he owns a farm. Mr. Ogan recently sold his ranch on the Salmon to Chas. Clay and drove out a band of 58 sheep which he disposed of here to W. W. Blackburn. The sheep belonged to his son and he had intended taking them up into the Alberta country but found it would be difficult to get them across the line on account of strict quarantine laws and decided to sell them here and buy more after getting settled again on his homestead. Mr. Ogan shipped five horses with his car. Mrs. Ogan and son will follow in a few days by train.

Notice to the Ladies

The ladies of Cottonwood and vicinity who intend exhibiting fancy work and other articles at the coming fair are requested to bring in their exhibits not later than October 3rd in order that the committee may have time to arrange same for display. The Goldstone building (formerly occupied by the Chronicle) will be open all day on the third for this purpose and those who cannot deliver exhibits on that date with Mrs. Poyneer or Mrs. Giezentanner. All articles of fancy work should be mounted on cardboard or strong cambric so same may be tacked on the wall. By Order of Committee.

Coats That Hold Their Style

Style is one of the prime essentials of a woman's coat. Classic Coats are full of style; and
