PERSONAL MENTION

Interesting Items from in and around Cottonwood.

FRIDAY, AUG. 31, 1917.

Sheriff Lafe Yates was in town Tuesday afternoon from Grangeville.

Water direct from the well with a Milwaukee Air Pressure System. No storage. Hoene Hardware.

Now is the time to get men's straw hats, regular prices $1.50 to $2, now on sale at $1, each. $3 hats, now $1.50. G-N-C Co.

Tip Top and Idaho Gold the pure food flours—are manufactured under most sanitary conditions and comply with all pure food regulations.

A deal was closed Friday in which Herman Yates, of Winona, became the owner of the old Ed Grunewald farm, he buying from Mr. Blakesly who made the purchase some time last year.—Kcoskia Mountaineer.

Geo. A. Poler, local station agent, is taking his annual vacation at this time, his place being filled by a Mr. Clapp. Mr. Poler intends leaving next week for the coast to spend two or three weeks near the salt sea waves.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bruner departed late last week for their home at Asotin after spending several weeks here at the home of their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Wright, while Mr. Bruner looked after the harvesting of his crop east of town.

Chronic Constipation

It is by no means an easy matter to cure this disease, but it can be done in most instances by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and complying with the plain printed directions that accompany each package.

All children's and misses' patent and tan pumps, your choice at $1.50 a pair. White canvas slippers at $1.10 per pair. At G-N-C Co.

Our Tip Top and Idaho Gold make more loaves of better bread than other flours on the market, and do not need any phosphate or other chemicals for whitening or raising the dough.

A. L. Creelman went to Lewiston late Saturday evening for a short visit with his family, returning Monday. He said the fire on Craig mountain above Waha lake was burning strong as he went down and was almost up to the road in several places.

Ned Schroeder recently leased the Lee Lane cattle ranch on Salmon river below Westlake for a period of years and will go into the stock business on quite an extensive scale within a couple of years. Mr. Lane and family will probably go to California this fall to reside.

John Reiland is putting a new floor and shelving in the former Peterson saloon building this week and as soon as the work is finished the building will be occupied by T. A. Randall's confectionery store. This will give Mr. Randall much more room than he has at present and will give him an ideal location. We understand the room he vacates may be occupied by the Nezperce telephone exchange.

Among the Sick and Injured

Little Mildred Terhaar fell off a horse last Friday evening and broke a bone in her wrist, which will lay her up for a couple of weeks.

Miss Clara Humphrey was quite ill the latter part of the week with an attack of appendicitis but is getting along nicely under the care of Dr. Turner and will escape an operation for the present at least.

Dr. Shinnick returned Monday evening from Lewiston where he had been for several days taking treatment for an attack of ptomaine poisoning. He is still rather shaky but will soon be entirely over the attack.

Dr. Orr, assisted by Dr. Stockton of Grangeville, performed a major operation on Mrs. Mary Huerter, a niece of Herman Funke, at the Funke home east of town on Monday. The patient is doing as nicely as could be expected.

Jess McKinley got kicked by a horse the first of the week and had the bone in his right arm cracked and was knocked unconscious for a short time. The horse was sharp shod and his escape from serious injury was fortunate.

Johanna Kopezynski, who was so dangerously ill last week that her life was despaired of for several days, is on the high way to recovery at this writing and will soon be up and around again, a fact which brings joy to the many friends of the young lady and her family.

Little Will Randall had the misfortune to fall and break his arm while at play in his home late last week. It is the same arm that was broken twice before and the break is at the same place, which may prevent the bone from knitting as rapidly as could be wished.

George, the little son of F. J. Kolbeck, had one of his eyes seriously injured Sunday by being hit with a small arrow which had been shot from a bow by another of the children. Just as the arrow was discharged George turned around and was hit in the eye, the arrow penetrating the eye ball and making a serious wound. Dr. Turner dressed the injury and the child will get along all right unless inflammation should develop.

Frank Kelsey had the misfortune to get thrown quite heavily while engaged in playing a game at the K. C. picnic near the Monastery Sunday afternoon and suffered a broken collar bone. He later drove his car to town and had Dr. Turner reduce the fracture and is now working as best he may left-handed but finds it rather hard to get along without the use of the good old right wing. However, he was fortunate in getting off as he did, for the fall could very easily have resulted much more seriously.

Fred Wiest had a narrow escape from serious injury Sunday when his team was crowded off the McPherson grade by a motorcycle and the rig was overturned, throwing Mr. and Mrs. Wiest and two children down the hill into the fence. Mr. Wiest had the clothing torn off his back by the wire and struck against a post with one shoulder, bruising it quite badly and laying him up from work for the week. Mrs. Wiest and the children escaped with a slight shaking up. The grade was quite narrow where the accident occurred and the cyclist should not have tried to pass the team. As he crowded in between the team and bank the horses whirled from the grade and overturned the rig, after which they dragged the driver for about fifty feet before coming to a stop. The accident could easily have resulted so much more seriously that Mr. Wiest is feeling fortunate in getting off as easily as he did.
