OBITUARY. MOON. Manley Milo Moon was born March 11, 1885, in Chautauqua county, New York, and passed away at his home in Cresco late on Friday afternoon, May 8, 1908, aged 23 years, 2 months and 29 days. He was the youngest of nine children, all of whom have preceded him to the Heavenly home save one, a brother, who resides at Springfield, Mo.

When Mr. Moon was four years old, his father died, leaving the mother with the care of the large family. At the age of 13, Mr. Moon with his mother, came to Janesville, Wis., to reside, and at this young age he left home and began life for himself. When 15 years of age he taught his first term of school. Later he was engaged as assistant to the Clerk of the Courts at Janesville, Rock county, Wis., for several years.

Mr. Moon was one of the county's pioneers, coming to New Oregon in 1857, where he engaged in merchandising until the removal of the business of the town to Cresco, where he continued in business for many years.

In 1867 he was elected to the office of county treasurer, which he held for six years. After his retirement from business he was elected to the office of Justice of the Peace which he held for 18 years. He was also referee of bankruptcy for Howard county.

In 1872, he was married to Bettie Avery Gilman, of Ohio. In 1875, a beautiful little daughter came to bless this union. In the fall of 1876 the angels bore her to Heaven.

Mr. Moon was a conservative man, but of that broad charity which looks for the good rather than for the evil in man. It is not too much to say that he belonged to that kingly race who wear their crown upon the heart and not upon the head.

Beside a companion, Mr. Moon leaves a loving daughter, Mrs. Robt. Pritchard of Spokane, Wash., to mourn his loss.

The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at his late home, Rev. Gammons officiating. Interment in Oak Lawn.

DARROW. Eveline Carpenter was born in Orwell, Oswego county, N. Y., July 17, 1822, and after a brief illness she departed this life at four o'clock, Tuesday, May 5, 1908, aged 85 years, 9 months and 18 days.

When a child she moved with the family from New York to Michigan, and later from Michigan to Wisconsin. In the spring of 1856 they moved to Howard county, Iowa.

March 4, 1857, she was married to W. D. Darrow, who died Nov. 25, 1905. She leaves as immediate relatives to mourn her loss, a daughter, Mrs. C. D.

Durfey of Cresco, and four sisters, Mrs. M. Taft, Mrs. Jane Nichols, Mrs. J. B. Mitchell and Mrs. W. H. Patterson, all of Cresco.

The funeral services were held on Thursday last at 2:30 p. m., in the M. E. church, of which she had been a member since childhood. Interment was in Oak Lawn cemetery.

K. G. and G. R. This weather judging by last year's, makes the corn crop look like 30 cents, half spent.

Herbert and Albert Milbraith took in the wrestle in Cresco Saturday night, and Herb. says they got their money's worth.

Dan McGee and family visited at the Daly home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bateman and son spent Sunday at grand-pa's.

Jo Hayes is going in the sheep business quite extensively as he has bought 300 rods of net fencing to keep them in and a shot gun to keep the wolves out.

Dan McGee sold his grey-hound to Art Halweg.

Catching pocket gophers is quite an industry around here, especially with the young chaps. They ought to be encouraged by an additional bounty by the farmer's and get rid of these pests.
