

WATCHES

THE SALE OF FIRST CLASS TIME-KEEPERS is an important feature of my business, and the reason I am having such large sales in this line is owing to the fact that I sell Strictly First Class WATCHES at extreme low prices. I never misrepresent my goods, but will, at all times, sell you an honest Watch at a Close Price, and guarantee to give you full value for your money. I have in stock, at all times, a beautiful line of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Watches, which it will be a pleasure to show you if you will call and look my stock over. I also have a very large and selected line of Jewelry, Cut Glass, Sterling Silver Novelties and Silver Plated Flat Ware.

R. J. BALDWIN
WATCH REPAIRER
JEWELER AND ENGRAVER
CRESCO, IOWA

Geo. Hamilton is down from Rochester on a visit.
Halloween Card Party, W. O. W. hall, Oct. 31st.
Mrs. James Nichols was down from Bonair yesterday.
Mrs. L. P. Sanborn was down from Bonair on Tuesday.
Ellis Glass returned Wednesday from a trip to Des Moines.
Arthur Almond was down from Lime Springs last Tuesday.
Miss Stella Setchell was down from Bonair on Wednesday.
Mrs. E. M. Bowers came down from Le Roy on Wednesday.
John A. Cray was down from Lime Springs on Wednesday.
Mina Burns of Aurora, S. D., was a Cresco visitor Tuesday.
Miss Holland returned yesterday from a visit at Decorah.
Myron Converse left yesterday on a business trip to Dubuque.
N. A. Blackburn, Lawyer; office opposite the National Bank.
Carl Parchman was down from Lime Springs the first of the week.
John Nale and wife returned Tuesday to their home at Decorah.
The Cresco Milk company will pay $1.40 for clean, sweet milk testing four per cent. during November.
FOR SALE—A 11-room house with all modern conveniences.
MRS. HOY.

Cora Smith came down from Lime Springs on Tuesday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Emmons were Chester visitors on Wednesday.
F. C. Taft returned Friday last from a trip to Grundy Center, Iowa.
TEAMS WANTED—To haul sugar beets. Enquire of C. D. NICHOLS.
FOR SALE—Ten first-class breeding ewes. FRED HOWARD.
FOR SALE—About 20 pigs. Enquire of GUS. DENOYELLES.
Mr. and Mrs. Robbie Hughes were Lime Springs visitors on Wednesday.
FOR RENT—My cottage on East 2nd street. FRED ERLER.
Mrs. Lunetta McIntosh left Wednesday for her home at Lodgepole, S. D.
Ladies and children's rubbers and overshoes at bargain prices at O'Malley's.
Don't enter a business college without investigating the O. B. U. at Oelwein.
James Howard left Tuesday for Winnipeg, Canada, to look after his farm there.
Mrs. Arthur Thomson and little son Gene left yesterday for a visit in Decorah.
Those that have hay to sell, call on John H. Jones, Lime Springs. Phone No. 42.
For the most thorough business course enter the Oelwein Business University.
Mrs. Little left yesterday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Kuney, at Oelwein.
Mrs. E. O. Jones and niece, Ellen Jones, came down from Lime Springs, Tuesday.
Mrs. Ed Herold and children returned Wednesday from their visit near Spillville.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Sexton left Tuesday for Minneapolis on their honeymoon trip.
Minnie Seavy came over from Riceville, Tuesday to take the teachers' examination.
A. W. Pierce of Sioux Falls, S. D., is a guest at the home of his brother C. W. Pierce.
Mrs. Mary E. Coppins went to Ft. Atkinson, Wis., Monday evening, on a business visit.
Ida Hendricks was over from Riceville taking teachers' examination, returning yesterday.
Mrs. Alice Peckham, from near New York, is visiting the Fish families in Cresco and vicinity.
November price is $1.40 for milk testing four per cent at the Cresco Milk company's plant.
If you want a farm loan at a low rate of interest, see American Loan & Trust Company, Cresco, Ia.
Mrs. Hannah Boyd went to Austin, Minn., Wednesday, to visit her daughter, Mrs. James Wilson.
Mrs. Georgia Edwards came down from St. Paul yesterday for a visit at the G. H. Kellogg home.
Mrs. E. A. Clement of Washington Prairie came up Wednesday to bring her sister to the hospital.
Sanford Taraldson, who has been a patient at Mercy Hospital, returned to Limes Springs Wednesday.
Art Goettling was called to Waterloo, Wednesday, by the illness of his wife from an attack of quinsy.
Mr. E. Hering visited a couple of days this week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Will Forry.
Alta Baldwin and Nellie Dodge came down from Austin Wednesday to take the teachers' examination.
Walter Kringling, a Dubuque monument man, was in Cresco this week, calling upon prospective customers.
Mrs. A. O. Alfsen of Albert Lea, of Orleans, returned home Tuesday.

The Ladies of the New Oregon Cemetery Association will meet with Mrs. James Siddall Wednesday, Nov. 1st.
Mrs. O. Kallewang and K. Thompson came from Decorah Tuesday for a short visit at the Rev. Larsen home.
FOR SALE—Standing timber, also cord wood. Inquire of Mike Doherty, 44 miles northeast of Cresco. Rfd. No. 1.
Peter Soukup, a Waucoma cattle buyer, was in Cresco on Tuesday shipping some cattle bought in this vicinity.
Mrs. John Livingston is enjoying a visit from a cousin, L. C. Gardner, of Strawberry Point, who arrived Monday.
Florence Birtwistle left yesterday for Omaha, Neb., to remain for the winter at the home of Mrs. G. H. Henning.
Eugene Perry and wife returned to their home at Austin, Minn., Wednesday, after a few days visit with Cresco relatives.
Steve Pecoy is very ill with blood poisoning resulting from injuries to foot received while moving about two weeks ago.
F. A. Lawson, the Woodmen of the World organizer, returned Wednesday to Decorah, but will be in Cresco again next Tuesday.
Mrs. Dr. Thorsness returned Tuesday to her home in Minneapolis after a week's visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Glass.
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sherwin, of Taopi, visited Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Sherwin's sister, Mrs. Max Thuerk.
Mr. and Mrs. Morris Otteson who have been residents in the vicinity of Kendallville, started Wednesday evening for Norway to reside.
Mrs. McGowan returned Tuesday to her home at Lawler, Iowa, after a visit in Harmony, Minn., at the home of her sister Mrs. R. J. Keeffe.
Mrs. Kate Murray and little son returned Wednesday from Siaseton, S. D. They were accompanied by Mrs. Murray's uncle, Fred McDonald.
Men's University shoes are selling at O'Malley's at the following prices: $4 grade, $2.95; $3.50 grade, $2.35; $3 grade, $1.95. Good range of sizes.
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Henry and Mr. Edmondson of Cresco autographed Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Anton Arneson.—Decorah Journal
Mrs. Geo. Eppens and baby returned yesterday to her home at Calmar after a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rethamel, near Schley.
Mrs. E. Fox and Mrs. J. Eschweiler came over from Riceville, Tuesday, the latter entering Mercy hospital for an operation. Mrs. Fox returned to Riceville on Tuesday.
Remember the Kryl concert at the Congregational church Nov. 4. Tickets are now on sale at the First National Bank and cost 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.
The ladies of the Methodist church thank Mr. Wm. Kellow for his liberal donation of the "Clover Blend" coffee which was very fine, for the Chicken Pie Supper, on which the ladies cleared $84.00.
Nature's greatest gift to the human family is Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. With it your family is fully protected. Best baby medicine in the world. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.—Wm. Connolly.
Bohumir Kryl, with his concert company, will give an entertainment in the Methodist church at Ridgeway, Monday evening, Nov. 6th. Mr. Kryl has with him his two daughters who have rare skill upon piano and violin.
An agent is traveling among the farmers in the northern part of the county selling stock or shares in an automobile factory at Mason City. He is a smooth talker, and has gotten notes of $1,000 from one farmer at least. He and his factory may be all right but Cresco could offer as good an inducement to farmer investors.
Com.

What you doin' neighbor? Helpin' Bill. What's Bill doin'? Helpin' Mandy. What's Mandy doin'? Helpin' Mother. What's Mother doin'? Taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Sensible family.—Wm. Connolly.
Take advantage of O'Malley's closing out prices on men's overshoes. Best Goodyear buckie overshoes worth $1.75 at $1.38 in sizes 6, 7, 8, 9, 11. Also a few good, heavy Columbia overshoes at 85c, worth $1.25, in sizes 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11.
Christ Daudell came down this week from Kimball, S. D., after his wife, who has been recuperating for the past three weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Klafke, following an operation for appendicitis at Mercy Hospital.
The Misses Westhy, Nichols, Evans, McCook and Heath went to Minneapolis yesterday morning to attend the Minnesota State Teachers' Assembly, and as a consequence the rooms taught by them were dismissed for the remainder of the week.
Mrs. Dan Blaess and mother, Mrs. O. Jube, and Mrs. Ed Anby came up from Decorah on Tuesday. Mrs. Blaess is undergoing an operation for appendicitis at the hospital on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Jube and Mrs. Anby returned to Decorah Wednesday afternoon.
Miss Adele Davis, of Albia, Iowa, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. F. C. Taft, was called Tuesday to Grundy Center, Iowa, by the death of a brother-in-law. Last evening Mrs. Taft left for Chicago to meet the body and go to Grundy Center to attend the funeral.
Your blood is your life. If it's impure, it acts as a receiving agent for disease. Protect your health by keeping your blood pure and rich. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, the most effective blood tonic for thirty years. Nothing so beneficial. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.—Wm. Connolly.
Fred C. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Miller, and Esther A. Crowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Crowell, were married Thursday afternoon, Oct. 26, at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. John Gammans. The Plain Dealer extends congratulations.
A young man named Scott and a girl by the name of Kintz, residing southwest of Cresco, caused considerable excitement last Monday by eloping to Austin, Minn., where, in spite of both being under age, they succeeded in getting married on Tuesday, returning to Cresco Wednesday.
Mrs. E. E. Coppins sends to this office several potatoes of average size that are of the second crop of potatoes on the same ground this season. After the first crop was dug the second crop was planted July 25th and the samples, one of which measured 8 1/2 by 1 1/2 inches, were dug just three months later.
The local Camp of the Woodmen of the World is at work on another class initiation to be held probably on Nov. 21st, when they expect to initiate a class of 25, five of whom were allotted upon at their last meeting. If you are eligible and desire a beneficiary certificate as good as gold, give your application to some one of the wearers of the stamp.
Alya Moen Gets a Bad Fall—Companion May Die.
Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 22.—While attempting to cross the interurban bridge over the Iowa river yesterday morning, Alya Moen, of Colo. Iowa, as a south-bound train rushed past, she fell thirty feet to the bank below. Her escort, A. H. Moen, in attempting to catch her, lost his balance and fell. Both were knocked unconscious.
Miss White remained unconscious after twenty-four hours as the result of concussion of the brain and little hope is held by physicians for her recovery. Moen has recovered from his injuries. Moen is a freshman at the university from Cresco, Iowa, while Miss White is from Colo. Iowa.

COUNTY NEWS
LIME SPRING.
Mina Burns came Thursday from Aurora, S. D., for a short visit with relatives and friends.
Byrl Burns spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. F. H. Luhnman at Postville.
T. E. Roberts, of Fayette, was the guest of his niece, Mrs. Burt Morrison, Wednesday and Thursday.
Miss Glass, of Ft. Atkinson, visited at the Dell Horton home between trains, Thursday.
Carl Maehling, Etta Hughes and Cora Woods were Cresco visitors, Thursday.
Mrs. Adrian Christ and little daughter came Wednesday from Rock Falls, Iowa, to visit her father, J. J. Hughes. Chas. Anderson and Harrison Davis called on Chester friends, Friday evening.
Florence Davis, of Taopi, visited at the M. B. Davis home, the past week.
Carl Maehling, Jim Murphy, Etta Hughes and Cora Woods autoed to York, Friday.
Miss Slator spent Sunday with Cresco friends.
Chas. Klein went to Ridgeway, Wednesday.
Dean Withrow and Alma Leitz attended the dance at York, Friday evening.
Jane Ann Williams, of Northfield, spent Saturday and Sunday with Lime Springs friends and relatives.
Austin Sharpe went to Decorah, Saturday.
Cora Morris, of Chicago, came Saturday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Morris.
Mr. Beiber returned to Mason City, Saturday.
Miss Belle Pettit, who teaches school at Austin, spent Sunday at home.
E. E. Griffith and Willie Kerr autoed to Cresco, Thursday.
Mrs. David Jones was a Cresco caller, Thursday.
Harry Woods and Rob. Griffith spent Sunday and Monday with friends at Decorah.
Miss Eastwood, of Le Roy, was a business caller here, Saturday.
Mrs. Alvin Nash was a Chester caller, Wednesday.
Velma Price and Winnie Smith went to Austin, Wednesday.
Jane Trydall and John Prinan spent Sunday with Taopi friends.
Hannah Jones visited Cresco friends, Wednesday.
Rev. Kaloria was a Chester caller, Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Hughes and little daughter Adelene, of Cresco, spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Tom Hughes.
Mr. and Mrs. Mat. Whalen attended church at Cresco, Sunday.
Ben Franzen was a Cresco visitor, Sunday.
John and Anne Meenau and Lillian Maxwell drove to Greenleaf, Sunday, to attend church.
Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Sanborn and children, Phil, and Effie, were up from Bonair, Sunday.
Harrison Davis and Neil Miller visited Chester friends, Sunday.
Mr. M. B. Davis has returned from her Taopi visit.
Carl Maehling and Florence Nash autoed to Spring Valley, Sunday, to attend church.
Mrs. Dr. Simmons and little daughter returned to their home in Nebraska, Monday.
Dina Jones returned to Cresco, Monday.
Herbert Jones, who has been visiting his brother Milton at Fayette, returned home Monday.
Mannie Jones was down from Chester, Monday.
Henry Scholtz left Sunday evening for Peoria, Ill., for a visit with relatives.
Geneva DeLap and Mrs. Norm Haven were Chester visitors, Monday.
Wilbur Howe, of Le Roy, was in town Tuesday.
Mrs. Bert Thomas and Mrs. W. O. Thomas went to Minneapolis, Tuesday.
Cora and Laura Morris went to Minneapolis, Wednesday.
Rob. Davis was an Austin visitor, Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kollman autoed over from Westgate, Sunday.
Mrs. F. M. Clark and son Arthur went to St. Paul, Monday.
John Sanborna went to Minneapolis, Wednesday.
WEST VERNON.
Bessie Fleck and Mayne Miller, and Joe Montague called at the Walker and Shields homes Sunday.
James Barnes entertained a number of his young friends Sunday evening.
Mrs. R. Cummings of Chicago spent a few days at the Mrs. W. Crowe home.
Mr. and Mrs. F. Bouska called at the hospital Sunday morning to see the former's brother-in-law Arthur Mracek who had an operation recently.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fish and son Charles were entertained at the Geo. Fish home Sunday.
Sorry to say Will Coughlin is laid up with the rheumatism and blood poison in his right hand. Hope to hear of his recovery soon.
Fred Heimerdinger and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson and daughters were entertained at the Wm. Reinhardt home Sunday.
Henry Fenske of Bonair was pleasantly entertained at the Mrs. John Fye home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. F. Miller were entertained at the Mrs. Cleghorn home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Eldridge and family spent Sunday in Cresco.
Will Woods and family spent Sunday at the Wm. Rinn home.
Joe Shifka of Chester called on his brother Mike Sunday.
James Miller made a business trip to Herman Moldenhauer's Monday.
Mrs. Peckham of Cresco spent Saturday with her friend Mrs. F. Fish.
Mrs. Crowe and Mrs. Cummings spent Monday afternoon at the F. Miller home.
Cora and Leslie Sebastian, and Jessie Bouska spent Sunday at the Alfred Gesell home.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Korbel assisted Mr. and Mrs. F. Shifka during threshing.
Mr. and Mrs. Schultz of Cresco spent Friday at the Adolph Peters home.
Mike and Joe Barnes called at the James Barne's home Tuesday.
Laura Degrote is spending a few days with Mrs. F. Shifka during corn husking.

NORTH KENDALVILLE.
Andrew Risdahl and Lewis Fossum drove to Decorah Saturday returning Monday.
Rev. Mallett spent Saturday evening at the W. C. Fifield home.
Raymond Mahaffy, and mother, spent Sunday with her sister Mrs. Matilda Barnes.
Lee Fairbanks of Waterloo, Iowa, is visiting relatives and friends here.
Mrs. Emmet Benson and family spent Sunday with her sister Mrs. Allie Trouten.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Goldaworthy, and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Howard and family all Sunday at the Fifield home.
Mrs. Julia McGowan returned to her home at Lawler, Iowa, Saturday.
The Misses Blanche and Mae Trouten, and Mr. Lee Fairbanks visited at the Robert Trouten home Saturday evening.
Harry Goldaworthy and daughter Louise were Harmony callers Saturday.
Mrs. L. Fleming and little son, and Miss Joe Fleming spent Sunday at the Fleming brothers home.
Ludden Ludden is spending a few days at the Frank Wallace home.
Mr. Charley Smith called at the Dan Smith home Sunday.
Tom Lamphier was a Harmony caller Friday.
Miss Belle Goldaworthy is assisting M. McCarty with their store work this week.
Little Doris Goldaworthy had the misfortune to fall down cellar Thursday getting quite badly bruised.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryan drove to Harmony Saturday evening.
John Daley drove to Cresco Sunday.
Clinton Fifield and Ludwig Fossum were Harmony callers Saturday evening.
George Ryan and daughter drove to Harmony Saturday morning.
Mrs. Matilda Barnes was a Harmony caller Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Mullaney and daughter spent Sunday at the Thomas Fleming home.
Mathew Elliot and son Aaron were Harmony callers Friday.
Mrs. Pat Fleming and aunt spent Sunday at the Lar Fleming home.
Rob Walsh was a Harmony caller Friday.
PROTIVIN.
Chas. Chyle was a Cresco visitor Thursday.
Miss Anna Lentz of Mason City is the guest of her sister Mrs. W. J. Kalishak.
Miss Margaret Novotny of Chelsea, is visiting her friend Anna Polshak.
James and Frank Horly, Thomas Cnyle and Lewis Tuckek autoed to Lawler Saturday eve in the former's auto.
Mr. and Mrs. Helen Lukesh visited relatives in Schley Sunday and Monday.
John J. Mikesch was a Lawler visitor Saturday.
J. D. Bouska, Will Doostal and Misses Josie Frey and Frances Kostka autoed to Cresco Saturday.
Announcement has been made at the Holy Trinity church of the approaching marriage of Miss Albina Bouska and John Svoboda.
Frank H. Chyle went to Ion and Postville Friday returning home Sunday morning.
Most of the farmers are busy husking corn.
Misses Shekleton and Cauty spent Sunday with their parents in Lawler.
The entertainment in Mikesch's hall on Sunday eve, given by Prof. Paconrek was well attended.
Married—On Tuesday, Oct. 24, 1911, occurred the marriage of Miss Louise Balak and Edward Ciper, Rev. R. Lakomy officiating. Here's our congratulations.
Thomas Jira returned from Spillville Sunday.
Frank Pecinsky of Cresco was seen here Sunday.
A dance will be held in Mikesch's hall on Monday eve., Nov. 6, 1911. Music rendered by P. B. B. Harp orchestra. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this dance. No doubt you are assured of a real fine time. And remember a fine silver plated dinner set will be awarded to the most popular lady having the most votes. Come one, come all.
Fred Vachta was a Jackson business visitor Saturday.
SCHLEY.
We are glad to report that Joseph Doherty who is in the Cresco hospital as a result of an accident is improving nicely. He is able to sit up a little.
Mrs. Thomas Novak of Spillville visited her daughters Meadames Jos and Mike Barnes.
Clement Barnes is helping Mike Barnes with his corn husking.
Frank Drina of West Vernon called in our neighborhood Sunday.
Mrs. Lewis Malek and children visited at the Mrs. L. Malek home Monday.
A number of our folks attended a surprise party at L. V. Svestka's Sunday. It was a surprise on Mr. Svestka, it being his 38th birthday anniversary. All participants report a most excellent time.
Chas. Malek helped M. D. Whalen move to Cresco last week.
Victor Cason will have a dance in his hall Friday the 27th. This is the first of a series of dances he intends to have the coming winter.
Carrie T. Malek is visiting at Lewis Malek's in New Oregon, going there Monday.
The Fred Daws sale was well attended.
Remember, there will be a social dance in Cason's Music Hall, Schley, on Friday evening, Oct. 27th. Tickets 50c. Plenty of stable room, and a good time assured. Lunch served in hall. Music—Piano, Victor Cason, Pianist.
ORLEANS.
Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Burr and daughter went to Decorah Saturday, on business and also visited Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Glenn.
Clarence DeWalle returned home Saturday after helping his brother Lou a few days.
Harry Howard visited at the Frank Waiton and Arthur Gardner homes the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Guy Politt and Vera called at the Dan Farrell home Wednesday.
Mrs. Bert Perry has been on the sick list this week.
Mrs. John Cunningham spent Saturday night with her daughter, Mrs. Culbert.
Mrs. Steffens spent one day last week with her daughter, Mrs. Pitteko.
Mrs. Emmet Carroll and little son visited over Sunday with home folks.
Rupert Gardner spent Tuesday evening at the home of his parents.
Mr. Miller and family spent Sunday with Frank Hillsbeck.
Mrs. Cunningham entertained her mother and sister from Cresco, Wednesday.

School Reports.
For Howard Center township, district No. 3 for the month ending Oct. 20th.
Number enrolled, 22.
Average daily attendance, 20.
Those neither absent nor tardy: Mary Dotzler, Ernest Windmiller, Alvin Windmiller.
LETTIE SHIELDS, Teacher.
For Howard Center township, district No. 1, for the month ending Oct. 20, 1911.
Number of days taught, 20.
Number enrolled, 11.
Average daily attendance, 9.
Those neither absent nor tardy: Katherine Long, James Long.
MARY SHIELDS, Teacher.
Sexton-Carran.
Tuesday Oct. 24th there occurred the third marriage among the children of John Sexton of Bluffton twp., in the past few months. This time it is Willie Sexton. He united in marriage with Mrs. J. Carran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Carran of Bluffton. The ceremony was performed at St. Bridget's Catholic church by Rev. Father Hlave. Mr. and Mrs. Sexton will live on the groom's farm in Bluffton twp. Both bride and groom are young people highly esteemed by their acquaintances and of whom we have heard many kind expressions. Their marriage elicits congratulations and best wishes from many friends.—Decorah Journal.
Buy's Volding Farm.
T. P. Logsdon of this city has purchased the C. N. Volding farm near Trout Run. It is a 189 acre farm and Mr. Logsdon paid $16,000 for it. Ben Logsdon will manage the farm, taking possession next spring.—Decorah Public Opinion.
Woodmen Circle Card Party.
Don't fail to attend the card party (progressive cinch) in W. O. W. hall next Tuesday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock sharp. Admission to hall, 15c. Lunch 10c. Dancing to follow the award of prizes.
If you are thinking of buying, selling or exchanging your farm for a smaller one or a larger one, call in and talk it over. I possibly have just what you want. GEO. H. OWENS, offices opposite Court House over Mott & Co's. Store. Phones: Residence, 295; office, 254.
No Hunting!
All parties are warned not to hunt or trespass on my farm in Howard Center township, under penalty of law. S. E. DINGER.
NORTH ORLEANS.
Mrs. Helmer has been visiting her daughter the past week.
Walter Daskam and Mabelle Politt were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Johnson's Saturday and Sunday.
E. Politt and son Clifford drove to Decorah Friday returning Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Krumm are the proud parents of a fine boy born to them Tuesday. Congratulations.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Politt and sons Clifford and George were Burr Oak visitors.
George Damon has a troublesome arm caused by blood poison.
Miss Louise Krumm spent Tuesday evening at Steen Henderson's.
Albert Ellingson and Miss Florence Birtwistle spent Sunday with Nellie Politt.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Gene McCabe, a girl, Friday Oct. 13th. Congratulations.
A number of our young people attended the dance at Hitchcock's Tuesday night.
ALBION.
A few of our farmers who did not have their potatoes dug have been seriously reminded by the recent cold weather that it was time they were, and at this writing that work is nearly completed.
W. Stockman and Glenn Holcomb took a load of cattle to Chicago, Sunday.
Miss Erma Becker, of Austin, is spending a few days with Albion relatives.
Mrs. Viola Noble, of Cresco, visited Albion relatives, one day last week.
Fred Roth has been having a serious experience with blood poison in one of his knees.
Miss Ruth Byrnes' school in Albion district closes this week, Friday.
Clara Fairbank visited at the H. E. Holcomb home, Saturday night and Sunday.
OTTER CREEK CLIPPINGS.
Halloween next week. Look out for boyish pranks.
The weather has been very unpleasant for corn picking, cold, damp and frosty.
The Paul Qualley family are enjoying a visit from Miss Amelia Moe and Theodore Hove, both of Washington Prairie.
A large delegation from those parts attended the sale at John Butz's on Tuesday.
Miss Sadie Koch who has been absent from home for some time visited under the parental roof a few days last week.
Henry Butz of Ridgeway autoed out here last week on business.
Some of the boys had a runaway last week, we mean with a team of horses, not an elopement. The outcome of the affair was some badly cut up horses.
CHESTER.
Mrs. Kate Johnson is moving into her new home in Chester.
Mildred Conklin went to Cresco, Tuesday, to take a teachers' examination.
Mr. Lyke returned Saturday to his home in Illinois, but expects to move onto his new farm next spring.
Miss Ella Baldwin visited friends in this vicinity, Tuesday.
J. F. Shuttland, family, of Spring Valley, were over Sunday visitors with Chester friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Alva Ily entertained friends from Austin, Sunday.
Alta Baldwin, who is attending school in Austin, spent Sunday with Chester relatives.
Henry Larsen is very busy at present building a fine, new barn.
Mrs. Conklin and grandson were LeRoy callers, Saturday.
The section men are putting in new side track here.
Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Roper visited their LeRoy friends, Mrs. Garvey, last Saturday.
The Chester gentlemen who went to the opening of the Rosebush reservation, returned Friday no wiser than when they left, nor very much in love with the country.
C. Madsen, wife and son, autoed to Chester Saturday.

What You Can See At The Kraft

NEW FALL SUITS AND OVERCOATS

New Hats, New Styles in Shoes, New Sweaters, New Caps, New Neckwear

And in fact, Everything that is NEW in Men's and Boys' Wearing Apparel for Fall and Winter, 1911-12. Look this line over and you will say THE KRAFT is the place to trade this fall.

For Men and Young Men

You can readily understand why the clothes you find here are the Very Best that money will buy. We sell for the young men the Famous Levi Mann Special College Clothing—designed especially for the young dresser; also Kirschbaum All-Wool Clothing. The Suits and Overcoats range in price—

$17.50, $20.00, $22.50, $25.00

Special $15.00 Suit Values

We are making a great show of $15.00 Suits made of All-Wool and Pure Worsted. Remarkable values. All the New Patterns in Blues, Grays, Browns and Silk Mixed.

We still have Cheaper ones in other makes from $5.00 up.

KRAFT KLO. KO.

ONE PRICE CLOTHIERS CRESCO, IOWA