Albert Hudgens, a popular young man of the south side, is clerking for J. F. Wood.

L. V. McKesson, of the Bending works, is expected in the city to-night or to-morrow.

The heating apparatus at Howell school was out of fix yesterday, a bad day for poor fires.

The high waters knock the city out of twelve or fifteen dollars revenue per day from Red river bridge.

Mrs. Mary Ralston, of Franklin, Tenn., is visiting her sisters-in-law, Mrs. McKay and Mrs. Z. Smith.

Telephone your orders for the Daily LEAF-CHRONICLE, for first-class advertising or job work, to number 47.

A Mrs. Hancock died last Monday night at her home in Guthrie and was buried here Tuesday in the City Cemetery.

Dr. Chambers, of Hampton, was one of the few countrymen who braved the back waters yesterday and came to town.

The Clarksville friends of Miss Katie Smith, of Brooklyn, will regret to hear that she has been quite ill recently.

TOBACCO LEAF-CHRONICLE is a daisy name for it. That is what they all say, as it means to "get there" on Nelly Fly time.

Miss Ada Gill, of Allensville, who has been the guest of the Northington House for quite a while, left for her home yesterday.

O. M. Blackman and Jo. T. Johnson expect to go to Nashville this evening on business connected with the census enumeration.

The old Weekly Chronicle readers will receive the SEMI-WEEKLY TOBACCO LEAF-CHRONICLE twice per week instead of once, as heretofore, and we are sure they will not be displeased with this change.

Charlie Mauzy, the enterprising grocer, was the first subscriber to the TOBACCO LEAF-CHRONICLE. May his shadow never grow less.

Join the big majority and have the LEAF-CHRONICLE sent to your home or place of business if it is not already going there. Telephone 47.

John Garrison, of New York, is expected on every train to visit his little twin daughters, who are snugly ensconced at their grandfather's, Mayor Ligon's.

The LEAF-CHRONICLE will be delivered by carrier in South Clarksville and New Providence by next Monday. It already has an excellent circulation in the city, and we intend that it shall be read by the residents of the suburbs as well.

The DAILY TOBACCO LEAF-CHRONICLE seeks a place in the home of every Clarksville family and we intend that it shall commend itself to every reader. Send in your orders and let every name be enrolled on the delivery list at once.

The Baptist people are expecting Rev. Dr. Penn, of Eureka, Ark., here soon to hold a protracted meeting. Mr. Penn is a distinguished revivalist—a great preacher who will interest any audience, and a good meeting is anticipated.

The Daily LEAF-CHRONICLE will not in the least interfere with our job printing, as that will be a separate department in charge of a different force. Our facilities were never better for turning out first-class job and book work, and all orders will be given prompt attention.

T. A. McDaniel's saddle and harness mare out of Maude by Ahue, dropped a fine filly colt by Minglewood last Saturday night. The youngster is a chestnut-sorrel like its dam, and is the first born of its promising sire, that perished in the flames when Gill's stable was burned.

D. G. Watson, for several years a student of the University, died of organic disease of the heart at his home in San Marcus, Texas, several days ago. Mr. Watson was a bright young man and had quite a number of friends here. He spent several months in the city last fall.

W. H. Crouch, the people's friend, as his fellow buyers familiarly call him, has been quite sick at his home near the city for several days, with an acute case of grippe. He is one of the strong men of the tobacco interest and his many friends will be glad to see his pleasant face on our streets again.

W. P. Titus, the former publisher of the Chronicle, is a job printer by taste and education, and he knows exactly what to do in a job printing office. He will at once fit his office and bindery with a complete line of the latest material and devote his entire attention to that branch of the trade. The LEAF-CHRONICLE bespeaks for him a liberal share of the public patronage.

Thos. B. Randolph, a young school teacher from Trigg county, and Miss Mamie E. Crute, of the same county, evaded the watchful eye of an objecting parent last Tuesday, and coming to this haven for loving hearts, were made one at the Northington House by Dr. Sears. They were attended by David Randolph and Miss Sallie Randolph. The groom started his matrimonial life like a sensible man by subscribing to the LEAF-CHRONICLE.

Our friends in the city are making many favorable comments, extending hearty congratulations on the marriage of the TOBACCO LEAF and CHRONICLE. They are indeed very encouraging, and inspire the publishers with new energy and zeal in their efforts to fulfill every expectation. We have yet to straighten out, and get everything systematized and adjusted to the new harness when we hope to accommodate every want.

No Tobacco Sales To-day.

Owing to the high water and snow, there were no tobacco sales at the Exchange to-day. The buyers and sellers, as a rule, are out taking a hunt. There will be no auction sale before next Tuesday.

A Slight Runaway.

While the driver of Geo. McDaniel's team was unitching the horses at Shelton's stable this morning, one of them became frightened, jerked the tongue out of the wagon and ran away. The traces had been unfastened and the breast strap was the only thing that held the horses to the wagon. No serious damage was done.

Correction.

In my article about ice in March, 1890-91, Chas. Bailey's name is mentioned instead of Major Charles B. Dr. C. W. Bailey (the Major's son) says the error makes the impression that he is referred to, thus erroneously making him an old man, which, Mr. Editor, we all know would be unjust to the Doctor.

City Council.

The city council will meet in regular session to-night at the city hall. This promises to be an interesting meeting, as several items of interest to the city will be called up.

Strange Disappearance.

The Hopkinsville New Era of yesterday notes the disappearance of young Paul Ellis. He left home Monday morning and since then nothing of his whereabouts is known. He is a son of Allen Ellis, a leading citizen of Hopkinsville. He is about 18 years of age, and during the past two years has been in the employ of Judge McCarrall as secretary and stenographer. Friends of the young man say that for several weeks he has been in bad health, and was subject to frequent attacks of melancholy and despondency. His eccentric and erratic habits naturally suggested an unbalanced mind and this is thought to be the cause of his disappearance.

River News.

The river is still rising and people, generally, are getting uneasy along the banks. It rose about six inches last night and the probability is that it will rise about the same to-day.

News from below is pretty bad. The Ohio river is very high, and it looks now like there will be great damage done property. The town of Paducah is said to be inundated and in a bad fix.

City Marshall Clay Stacker tells a pretty pitiful tale about a lot of people who are occupying the old grocery house at the foot of Commerce street. He says there are about seventeen in all and that they are in destitute circumstances. The men in the crowd have been working at the saw mills and since the high water has shut the mills down they are thrown out of employment, and have no means to buy bread.

The women are said to hover over the fire, made of a few splinters, like frozen rats, and present a pitiful appearance.

Dramatic.

While Emma Abbott was singing in the Academy of Music at Richmond, Va., a few nights ago the house caught fire. The insurance companies should look after that Abbott kiss.—Post.

The Marie Wainwright company passed here this morning on the regular train for Memphis, where they appear to-night. The company filled an engagement in Nashville last night and came by special train to Guthrie in time to catch the Memphis train.

The gossips are busy with stories about Mary Anderson, now that her approaching marriage seems to be an assured fact, says the Louisville Post. One who professes to know the truth says there is no doubt of her being at one time insane. But the attack was merely temporary and she is now recovered. She has been advised, however, by friends and physicians that it would be dangerous for her to return to the stage, so she has sensibly concluded to get married and settle down for life. She appears to be infatuated with Jose Navarro and the feeling is reciprocated. It is said the wedding will take place in the oratory at Brompton. "Our Mary's" future husband is the son of a millionaire and is a devout Catholic. Mary Anderson is thirty-one years of age and is certainly competent to choose a partner for life if she so desires.

Clarksville always patronizes good minstrels and will doubtless give Beach & Bowers a big house Monday night. We quote from the Omaha Bee:

Notwithstanding the strong counter attractions, the People's Theatre last night was packed to the doors, hundreds being turned away, the attraction being the initial performance in this city of Beach & Bowers' refined minstrels. There was undoubtedly the best seated audience that ever assembled at this place of amusement. The company made a decided hit, every act being received with laughter and applause. The programme was new and original from the rise to the fall of the curtain, all the old, time-worn business being abandoned and replaced by pleasing innovations in minstrelsy. A fine quartette and orchestra added much to the evening's entertainment.

The TOBACCO LEAF says: "Paint the court-house," and call attention very earnestly to the fact that the wood work is rotting for want of paint. It reminds us of what old Father Dye once said at Blooming Grove campmeeting, when so many penitents were flocking to the altar and crowding the mourners' bench that there was not enough straw for them to kneel on. "Bro. Beaumont, hire a cart and a yoke of steers and send for another load of straw. Here are sinners going to hell for want of straw!"—Erie News.

Should Have It.

Mrs. Sallie M. Burns is a candidate for county school commissioner of Todd county, Ky., and submits her claims to the Democratic primary election to be held in the county next Saturday. The LEAF-CHRONICLE stakes its wad on Mrs. Burns getting the nomination. If she does not, the Democracy of Todd county are swayed back.

Fine Turkeys.

Never before in the history of Clarksville have so many fine turkeys been noticed on the market. A reporter had the pleasure of looking at three this morning which netted 543 pounds. They were only a sample of many.

To the Public.

You are cordially invited to attend the mite-meeting of the co-workers Friday night, March 7, at Thad. Young's, on Franklin street. Don't forget to come.

Any book not found in our book department will be ordered promptly for you.

LOCKERT & REYNOLDS

Antioch Paragonage.

Some few months ago the pastor of the Antioch Circuit, Rev. W. N. Turner, appointed a committee to raise money for the purpose of furnishing the paragonage of that circuit. The money has all been raised and the committee came in one day this week and purchased the furniture of Jno. F. Couls.

The furniture that was purchased is the heavy part that enters into an outfit for a complete home. It cost about $80, and is all paid for.

Owing to the fact that this money came from the "old block," Mr. Couls made the committee a present of a nice sofa.

When the south side people start out to do a thing they never stop until they have accomplished their end.

Clarksville Tobacco Market.

High water and bad country roads are hindering the deliveries of new crops, otherwise the receipts would be much larger. Sales for the week ending to-day are close to 400 hhds., and prices are very satisfactory on everything of real desirability. Fat and silky tobaccos are bringing very full prices, while poor stuff scarcely brings the cost of raising it. This fact should be full of meaning to the intelligent planter, who knows how to read the signs of the times.

Lillian Frances Parline, Aged Eighteen Months, Died January 27, 1890.

Little brown-eyed Lillian, bearing the mother's name, The angels have borne to chamber, To Heaven, whence she came, Back to the God who gave her, A spirit divinely fair; Too pure for earthly dwelling, A blossom treasured there.

No need for the artist's fingers To paint the heavenly child, For traced on the mother's heart lingers Her image sweet and mild. A link in God's endless love-chain To bind you to His throne! O, parents, left in sorrow, O hearts, that break and moan.

For a clasp of the tiny fingers, A touch of the dainty cheek, A sound of tireless footsteps, A prattling, trying to speak; All wealth of fabled story, All treasures under the sun; But kiss the rod, O, mother; O, God, Thy will be done.

THE PARENTS' FRIENDS.

Clarksville is a religious community. She has the finest churches in Middle Tennessee, pays her preachers liberal salaries, and furnishes them with elegant and comfortable homes to live in. She is just now about completing a handsome and convenient new paragonage for the new Methodist church. No wonder she prospers.—Erie News.

Sickness Among Children.

Its cause is undoubtedly to be found in the way they are fed, and the neglect of their medical treatment. Many mothers are strong in their belief of the good state of health of their little ones, and it is only when sickness in a mild or strong form comes upon them that the mother fully realizes the mistake of her over-confidence, and thus unwittingly brings painful suffering to her child and uneasiness and trouble to her own heart. To prevent such a state of affairs give your children Dr. Winchell's Teething as a curative for diseases common children, it has no equal—a trial of one bottle proves it. For sale, wholesale and retail, Lockert & Reynolds, druggists.

Sickness Among Animals.

Animals are very subject to worms, and while such worms exist in them they cannot thrive, the food that should strengthen and nourish the animal is absorbed by the worms; hence, the animal will have a good appetite and still continually grow poor. To obviate this difficulty, give them frequent doses of Uncle Sam's Condition Powder. It is an excellent preventive of disease among them, and as a positive cure for sickness common to animals it has no equal. It is guaranteed. For sale, wholesale and retail, by Lockert & Reynolds, druggists.

What a Fortune.

Is a good healthy, pearly skin. Few are aware of the short time it takes for a disordered liver to cause blotches on the face, and a dark greasy skin. One bottle of Beggs' Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will restore this organ to its natural and healthy state, and cleanse the blood of all impurities. It is meeting with wonderful success. We guarantee every bottle. McReynolds & Co., Druggists.

Beggs' Cherry Cough Syrup

Is giving splendid satisfaction to the trade and the sales are positively marvelous, which can be accounted for in no other way except that it is without doubt the best on the market. Ask for and be sure you get the genuine. We keep it. McReynolds & Co., druggists.

A Good Cough Syrup.

There is nothing parents should be so careful about as selecting a cough syrup. Beggs' Cherry Cough Syrup costs no more than the cheap and inferior nostrums thrown on the market. The best is none too good, be sure and get Beggs' Cherry Cough Syrup. We keep it on hand at all times. McReynolds & Co., druggists.

Non-Resident Notice.

Sid C. Batson, Adm'r. of Sallie O. Waller, deceased, et als, vs. T. C. Morris et als—Bill for Partition.

In the County Court of Montgomery county, Tennessee.

AT the March term, 1890, of said County Court an order was made in the above-styled cause, making Grigory Mathis, the infant son of J. E. Mathis, who are both residents of the State of Texas, a party defendant to said suit, and ordering publication to be made for said Grigory Mathis according to law. This therefore, is to notify the said Grigory Mathis (the infant son of J. E. Mathis, and said Grigory and J. E. Mathis being residents of the State of Texas) to appear before the County Court of Montgomery county, Tennessee, on the

A Watch Owner Wanted.

A negro woman came to the CHRONICLE office this morning and left a gold watch to be advertised. The case is a strange one and will be fully explained to the proper person. The watch can be had by calling at this office and giving satisfactory evidence of ownership, and by paying advertising bill.

Remember that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has no equal is a specific for colds, coughs, and all affections of the throat and lungs. For nearly half a century it has been in greater demand than any other remedy for pulmonary complaints. All druggists have it for sale.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Avoid Appearances.

A worthy gentleman, having an unusually red nose, was long suspected of being a tippler on the sly, by those not well acquainted with his strictly temperate habits. His unfortunate disfigurement was readily cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
