A dog having signs of hydrophobia entered Mrs. Jas. Hamlett's yard on Second street this morning and gave the inmates of the house a pretty bad scare. The dog was frothing at the mouth and snapping at every obstacle which came in its way. The police were notified and Officer Robinson killed the cur.

OPENING DAY.

S. W. P. University a Scene of Life This Morning—The Next Term.

The present term of the South Western Presbyterian University begins to-day. Early this morning the grounds and buildings presented a lively scene, as they began gathering for their labors. The attendance this term will be larger than that of the last term, which shows that this institution is growing with the city. It will be impossible for even the chancellor to give the correct number of students before to-morrow or next day, as many have expressed the intention of attending this term who will not arrive before to-morrow morning. Students are expected from Texas, Louisiana, Georgia and Alabama on the train to-morrow morning.

The college boys are always welcomed to Clarksville, as they add much to the city both socially and financially. The LEAF-CHRONICLE tips its hat to them and wishes them a pleasant and profitable term.

Long Branch, Tenn.

To the Tobacco Leaf-Chronicle.

The crops in this vicinity are promising. The acreage is small and the crop was planted late, but if frost stays off until October the quality will be good. Late corn is looking very well.

Charles P. Buck, son of the late Peter C. Buck of this county, paid his old home, Meadow Grove Farm, a visit a short time since, after an absence of nearly thirty-five years. He was much affected by a sight of the old place, and recalled many pleasant reminiscences of his boyhood days. Himself and two sisters, Mrs. Helm, of Hickman, Ky., and Mrs. Blanton, of Paris, Tenn., are all that remain of a once large and prosperous family. Mr. Buck has been living for several years in Arkansas, engaged in raising cotton, and he says if they do not have an early frost this fall the South will gather the finest cotton crop that has been raised for many years. He likes his present home on account of the richness of the soil, but says their climate and educational advantages will not compare with ours. Mr. Buck is a genial, intelligent gentleman, and we regret that his stay among us was of such short duration.

Miss Mattie Stuart, of Clarksville, visited Misses Mary and Annie Taylor this week.—Mrs. Len. Howard and daughter, Miss Lizzie, and Miss Alice Clardy, all of Lafayette, were the pleasant guests of Mrs. C. C. Clardy the first of the week.—Mrs. H. C. Long is on a visit to relatives near Princeton, Kentucky.—D. Sapp, who has been spending the summer here, left Sunday night for Memphis.—Misses Maggie and Mary Cook spent Wednesday in Clarksville shopping.—Mrs. A. M. Carlisle is on a visit to the family of her son, C. C. Carlisle at Sadlersville.—Mrs. H. A. Current, of Bell, Ky., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cook. Miss Lizzie Current is expected to arrive some time this week.—Mrs. W. D. Taylor and daughter, Miss Annie, left Saturday for a visit to relatives and friends at Lafayette, Ky.—Mrs. John Taylor spent the past week with her mother, Mrs. Griffin, at Oakwood.—T. E. and J. E. Manson spent Saturday in your city.

HAIR, Sept. 5, 1890.

A Rush.

There was a rush at the Arlington last night. Guests kept arriving on every train until all rooms were full, the manager being compelled to put two in a room to accommodate the crowd. Nearly two pages of the register were required to hold the names of the arrivals. There is no doubt that under the present management this house will prove a success. The many attractions added to the house, and the free use of printers ink, are having a good effect on the receipts. That they are hasteners is a self evident proposition.

A Saloon Fight.

Mike Ward and Joe Harris had a pretty tough fight to-day in the Oklahoma saloon. Ward struck Harris over the eye with a glass cutting him severely, and Harris knocked him down and beat his face almost into jelly. Ward has been arrested; Harris had not been found at 2 o'clock but the police were after him.

A Dance Fair Week.

The prominent society young gentlemen of the city are arranging for a grand ball during fair week. A committee has been appointed on arrangements, and will either secure the County court room or the Tobacco Exchange for the occasion. They say they will make it the most brilliant affair ever given in the city.

If you could see your own scalp through an ordinary magnifying glass, you would be amazed at the amount of dust, dandruff, and dead skin thereon accumulated. The best and most popular preparation for cleansing the scalp is Ayer's Hair Vigor.

PARTIALLY EXPLAINED.

The Mystery Surrounding the Arrest of Reed for Train Wrecking.

ALBANY, Sept. 10.—The mystery attending the apprehension of John Reed, who was detained in Superintendent Dissett's office all day Sunday on suspicion of being one of the Central train wreckers, was partially explained Monday morning by the arrest of John Kierman, a West Albany freight brake man, living at 398 Second street, in Albany, and John Cordial, a freight conductor, living at 385 Livingston avenue. Both men are married and are striking knights, belonging to Local Assembly No. 10,740. It is evident that the arrests were made on account of information given by Reed from the fact that he had been very prominent in East Albany in his hostility to the Pinkerton men there.

He stoned them night and day, and once, when caught by three of the Pinkertons, was severely clubbed, and he made dire threats against the road.

Reed has not been arrested, but was still in the private custody of Chief Pinkerton in the Union depot, of his own volition.

District Master Workman Lee, when informed of the arrest of Kierman and Cordial, expressed much surprise at Kierman's arrest. He said that on Thursday night he wrote to him and Kierman and he visited his home at 11 o'clock on the way to their own home, and had stopped to chat with Mrs. Lee.

John Cordial was packing his valise at his home when arrested.

There were five of them.

It was rumored Monday night that one of the men who is thought to have been a party to the placing of the obstruction had shipped the town, and that his whereabouts remain unknown, although the Pinkerton men have hunted high and low for him. The whole story of the movements of the wreckers after the obstructions were placed has been learned. There were five men concerned in the dastardly work. It is known to a fact that a man who gave the wreckers the information that Robert A. Pinkerton of the occurrence and gave him the names of the men who comprised the party. The name of the man who is missing, it is rumored, is Ezra Sager, a striking knighthood.

The same authority for the statement that it was the man who gave the men a drink of water on the night of the wreck, who also "gave them away," told the writer that Cordial and Kierman were two of the three men who are known to have placed the obstructions on both tracks, while the third man is one of the two who are still at large. Reed, who is still detained in the Union depot, and another man who has not been apprehended, are known to have fixed the three men fixed the obstructions.

Writs of Habeas Corpus.

The executive board of the Knights of Labor has secured writs of habeas corpus demanding the production in open court of Reed, Kierman and Cordial, the three knights charged with wrecking the train last Friday night.

BLOODSHED PROBABLE.

As a Result of a Race War Near Jackson, Tenn.—The Cause.

JACKSON, Tenn., Sept. 10.—A race war has broken out in the Sixteenth district of this county which may lead to bloodshed. Negroes for some time have been cutting the wire fences around the pasture of J. R. Young, a planter. Young threatened them, and about two weeks ago four or five negroes drew their guns on him. Young had them arrested and they were placed under bond.

Sunday night a mob of nearly fifty negroes at a late hour went to the residence of Young and fired forty or fifty shots into the house. Believing they had killed the family, they began shooting the dogs and cattle. Fortunately none of the shots hit Young or his family. It is learned that Young has secured a posse of friends, and that if they meet resistance they are going to exterminate the negroes from the community. Serious trouble is feared.

LOTTERY THE PRIME FACTOR.

Struggle Between the Two Wings in the District of Congressman Price.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 10.—In the election of delegates to the Third congressional district Democratic convention the lottery issue was raised in nearly every parish, and there were two sets of Democratic delegates voted for, one in favor of the lottery amendment to the constitution, the other opposed to it. The anti-lottery faction of the Democracy carried Vermillion parish. The lottery faction elected nine out of fourteen delegates in St. Mary, all but one in Lafayette and Iberville, and all in Terrebonne and Iberia. In several of the pro-lottery parishes the sitting congressman, Andrew Price, was denounced for his vote in congress on the lottery bill.

Explosion in a Quarry.

BRADDOCK, Pa., Sept. 10.—A fog containing 100 pounds of gunpowder, exploded about noon Monday at McCrady & Hogg's stone quarry. One man was killed and others were badly injured. The dead and injured are William M. Johnson, dead, blown almost entirely to pieces; George Albert, badly burned; Albert Bunker, Tony Patroka, James Thomas, badly burned. All of these are so terribly injured that they may die. There were about thirty men standing around the powder preparing for a blast when the explosion occurred.

Eriesson's Clay on His Native Shore.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The navy department received a telegram Tuesday morning from Capt. W. S. Schley, commanding the United States steamer Albatross, saying that that vessel had arrived at Gothenburg, Sweden, where they were encountered which greatly retarded her progress. She will proceed at once to Stockholm, where the remains of Eriesson will be received by the Swedish authorities.

The Bank Stood the Run.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 10.—A rumor circulated through the city Monday that the St. Joseph county savings bank was about to close its doors gradually gained currency, and when the bank opened at 1 o'clock for the afternoon business a run began and continued until after banking hours. All demands were met. The bank is one of the most solid in Indiana.

Negro Nominated for Congress.

AIKEN, S. C., Sept. 10.—The Republicans of the Second district of South Carolina nominated Smith, colored, for congress. The district is represented by George L. Tillam, who probably will have some opposition in his own party to his nomination.

NASHVILLE TOBACCO TRADE.

H. H. Poston Re-elected President of the Board for the Next Term.

The Nashville tobacco year closed September 1st with a fair showing in the transactions of the past twelve months. The Tobacco Board of Trade held its annual meeting last Wednesday, re-electing the old board of officers—H. H. Poston, president; John C. Gordon, vice-president; C. E. Dortch, secretary and treasurer; G. W. Winters, inspector; J. W. Gleaves, auctioneer.

Mr. Poston has been president of the board for thirteen years, and says the American, though he signified a desire to be relieved, he was kept in the harness. Mr. Poston has been the mainstay of the Nashville market. By his excellent management and persistent energy the business has been maintained, and a good market furnished for the kind and quality of tobacco tributary to Nashville. Mr. Poston is an old Clarksville citizen, born and raised here, and it is gratifying to his many friends that he has established himself so firmly in business and in the confidence of the Nashville people.

The receipts for the past year were 4,827 hogheads, or 1,810 hogheads less than the previous year, which is an excellent showing, considering the great falling off in the crop of last year compared with the year before. Tobacco sold in Nashville is principally from the Upper Cumberland district—a heavy tobacco, and finds certain foreign demands for which there are buyers located in Nashville who pay fair prices.

May Thank her Stars.

The narrow escape of Mrs. B. M. Searles, of Elkhart, Ind., from a permanent death is wonderful. She states that "for twenty years my heart troubled me greatly. I became worse. Had smothering spells, short breath, fluttering; could not sleep on my left side, had much pain in breast, shoulder and stomach. Ankles swelled. Had much headache and dizziness. Treatment did me no good, until I tried Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and Restorative Nervine. The first bottle helped me, and I was virtually cured. For sale at Owen & Moore's drug store. A fine book on the heart and nerve free.

Closing up the Work.

The fourth quarterly conference for New Providence and Bethel will be held at the Methodist church at New Providence to-morrow at 10 o'clock. This is the last quarterly conference for the year for the charge, and lacks only a few weeks of winding up the time, four years, of Rev. R. E. Travis on this work. He has served his flock well and they part with him, as he does with them, with good wishes for the future.

Rev. W. R. Peebles, the presiding elder of the district has only three more quarterly conferences to hold after this one, then his work will be completed for this conference year. The annual conference will be held at Pulaski Oct. 8.

Jeff Lever a Mad Man.

The people of Clarksville would hardly allow a vicious, insane man, given to spells and outbreaks of recklessness, to run at large armed with guns and pistols, attacking women and children and innocent people. Yet here is Jeff Lever, quiet enough when sober, who can get on a howling drunk any day and do this very thing, and persons cannot come near or in contact with him without the risk of losing their lives. He has been carrying on at this rate for several years, has very nearly killed several men and committed deeds of shame for which others in similar cases have been lynched. He gives the officers and court more trouble than any dozen miscreants, generally pleads guilty, is sorry, goes to jail for several months, works like a clever fellow on the rock pile, and is loose again to take the town at will.

It occurs that this community has had about enough of Jeff Lever. He is a mad man with whisky in him, and there is no telling when, how often, or how much whisky he is going to get in him. He is too dangerous to be allowed his liberty. Certainly there is some law that will put Jeff Lever where he will be harmless to the public and it should be enforced.

Assist the Firemen.

A committee composed of T. H. Hyman, T. H. Smith, L. B. Askew, Wm. Kleeman, Jas. T. Kennedy, J. C. Mattill, Chas. Young and Joe Jarrell, has been appointed to solicit donations from the people of Clarksville to defray the expenses of the proposed ball and banquet, several notices of which have already been published. The committee has decided to go regularly to work Friday morning, so look out for them and aid them all you can. The fire company does valuable service to property owners, and the only pay they get for it is what the citizens choose to give them. The banquet will cost considerable money, and a liberal donation is asked from the citizens.
