THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

A Heavy Fall Trade Confidently Predicted.

Good Crops, Plenty of Money and a Better Feeling in About the Size of It.

The past two weeks have been unusually dull in a business way for Clarksville, and some people are inclined to grumble. The reason for this dullness is the fact that the farmers are all busily engaged saving their tobacco crops. This is all there is in it, and it will prove a blessing to the merchants of the city. The reports that come from the various sections of the Western tobacco belt are of a very encouraging nature. The tobacco crop is good and it is being housed in excellent condition. It is estimated that two-thirds of the crop is now in the barns, and much of it has been housed the past week. This is what is keeping country people from the city. When they get their crops all gathered they will come in to purchase their fall and winter goods, and mark the prediction: They will buy more this fall than they have at any time for the past five years. The country is full of money and is going to be fuller. The average farmer grew more wheat this season than usual. 'Tis true he received a low price for it, but he had more bushels than ever, consequently the round-up was above the average. This money has not all been spent yet, and the surplus left over from this source will be used in purchasing fall goods. This will begin with the next rain. Then so soon as the tobacco season opens money will be advanced on tobacco. This will make the trade just before Christmas brisk. People are bound to have clothing and it is only a matter of time before they will be in the market. Right here the LEAF-CHRONICLE begs to say that some merchants are making a mistake by not advertising their goods now, so the people will know where to come when they get ready to buy. A merchant very often says, "Oh, there is no use to advertise now; there is nothing doing." That old adage "in time of peace prepare for war" comes in handily here and covers the ground. The merchant who proposes to be in the procession must blow his horn and let the people know where he is. The LEAF-CHRONICLE takes advertising with the understanding that if it is not read by more people than any paper published in this section, money will be refunded. Merchants will be waited on at any time and advertising rates will be cheerfully given.

This fall and winter will see prosperous times in this country. There is a better feeling all along the line; there is something in the wind that makes a man believe this. Good crops have been promised. The Gracy-Woodward furnace will soon be making iron, employing hundreds of men. They will get their money every Saturday night and will spend it in Clarksville. This will be a great help in mercantile circles. The rattle of silver dollars cheers the laborer; an increase of cash sales encourages the merchant.

There is a boom in the building circles. Many new houses are now in course of erection; others have been contracted for. This all says to the carpenter: "You will have plenty of work this fall." The carpenter's money goes into the channels of trade and makes everything more lively. All these things taken up and bunched together, leads the LEAF-CHRONICLE to believe what is embodied in the foregoing, and it congratulates all citizens on the bright outlook.

THORNTON MONUMENT.

It Will Be Dedicated at Concord, N. H.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 24.—The dedication of the Matthew Thornton Monument set for to-day has been postponed to Sept. 29. The great statue is now, however, completed and preparations are being made at Merrimac to receive fully twenty thousand visitors the day of the unveiling. In the mammoth tent where Gov. Tuttle will deliver the address of welcome and Hon. Charles H. Burns the oration there will be room for every visitor.

"Senator Sherman Renews His Attack." Senator Sherman renewed his attack and refused to be convinced even by the oratory of the Iowa Senator. He wanted the Senate to do the straightforward thing, and not fiddle about it.

"Give the Fair $5,000,000, and do not make believe that you are deceiving yourselves in giving it a 70-cent silver dollar, or two 35-cent half-dollars." If the children cry for it, as the Senator has said they did, "Why not give them Castoria?" said Sherman. He knew that it was a popular thing with the little ones, more popular he thought than even the souvenir half-dollars would be. The galleries looked down in surprise as these remarks came from Sherman, and Congressmen who entered the chamber just as Mr. Sherman uttered them, dropped into the vacant chairs nearest the door.

Train Wreckers Balked.
BAYLOR, L. I., Sept. 24.—An attempt was made Friday morning to wreck express train No. 60 on the Long Island railroad. The train was running at its usual speed between Bay Shore and Hempstead Harbor. Engineer W. H. Parsons saw an obstruction on the track and at once reversed his engine. He succeeded in stopping the train before the locomotive struck the obstruction, which proved to be an enormous railroad iron which had been placed across the rails.

Embezzler Arrested.
CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—M. C. Curtis, assistant cashier of the American National bank of Kansas City, who was arrested in this city Thursday night, on the charge of embezzling $1,000 from the bank, was examined before United States Commissioner Hoyne Friday morning and held in $10,000 bonds. He will be taken to Kansas City.

The Yellow Stream of Death.
LONDON, Sept. 24.—The correspondent of The Times at Shanghai says that the Yellow river (the Hoang Ho) which has caused such terrible devastation to property and the loss of thousands upon thousands of lives has again overflowed its banks. Twelve towns have been inundated and many lives lost.

Mine Owner Murdered.
ASPEN, Colo., Sept. 24.—John Powell, superintendent of the Veteran mine, was instantly killed early Friday morning and his wife badly injured by an explosion of powder, which had been placed near the house opposite the sleeping apartment of the couple. No reason is known for the murder.

Defendants Arrested.
KANSAS CITY, Sept. 24.—Joseph Mack and Frank M. Black were arrested here Thursday night for a defalcation in the American National bank. They were bookkeeper and collector. The amount said to have been taken is about $30,000. M. C. Curtis was arrested Thursday on the same charge.

A Speculator's Plot.
MADRID, Sept. 24.—The Imparcial states that certain speculators have made attempts to tamper with soldiers in the garrison here, with the view of bringing about a fall in funds through a revolutionary scare, but that the police have become aware of the plot and frustrated it.

Buckley's Arnica Salve.

Will Sell His Furniture.
Walter Fowlkes gives notice in this issue that he will offer for sale privately, beginning Monday morning, his household and kitchen furniture at his cottage on Academy avenue. Call at the residence or apply to Mr. Fowlkes at Lieber's.

Thedemand for Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea cure is steadily growing, from the fact that all who give it a trial are pleased with the results and recommend it to their neighbors. We feel sure that the remedy cannot be recommended too highly.—WAGELY & SMEAD, Druggists, Newton, Iowa. For sale by Owen & Moore, Druggists.

Bad drainage causes much sickness, and bad blood and improper action of the liver and kidneys is bad drainage to the human system, which Burdock Blood Bitters remedy. Sold by Tudhope Drug Company.

MUST COME DOWN.

Much Excitement Caused at Old Point Comfort.

The Secretary of War Decides That all Hotels and Other Buildings Must Be Torn Down.

Many people in Clarksville will be interested in the following dispatch sent out from Fortress Monroe, Old Point Comfort, Thursday: "The citizens residing on the Government reservation of Fortress Monroe have been thrown into a state of excitement owing to the receipt of a general order by the Secretary of War peremptorily ordering that every house, including the Hygeia and Chamberlain's new hotel, be vacated within fifteen days from the time of the issuing of the order, which is dated September 14, 1892, and further ordering the removal and tearing down of all buildings at the owner's expense.

"The act of Congress, dated March, 1868, gives the Secretary full power in this matter, and the order is issued, it is understood, because of the failure of citizens having residences and hotels on the reservation to comply with the request from the Engineer's Department that plans and specifications for a proper sewerage in the citizens' quarters at the Fort be handed into the department.

"There is from four to five million dollars' worth of property on the spot, with great interests held by railroads and other transportation companies, and there is no doubt but that strong pressure will be brought upon the Secretary to have him modify his order, which, if carried out, would be very disastrous to the whole vicinity, including Norfolk, Hampton and Newport News."

Many years ago these hotels were erected on government property with the understanding that they would not be molested unless in case of war, and it becomes necessary to man the fort. It seems, however, that the Secretary of War has dipped his pen in a little ink and has condemned over four million dollars worth of private property at one stroke. The Clarksville people who go to Old Point Comfort during the summer always stay at the Hygeia hotel, and they will regret that it must be torn down.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie Mason, of Chilton, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Cholera, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This medicine can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases, both for children and adults. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Owen & Moore, Druggists.

"Ship Ahoy."
CHRISTIAN CHURCH COOK—Commander of the U. S. S. Cook—Mr. E. H. Van Vleet. Colonel Mapelson Mulberry—Manager of the Oriole Opera Company—Mr. Edward Gavan.

Case of Choral Reels.
Lieutenant Lillypop—Executive officer of the Cook—Mr. Frederick W. Eckhart. Ensign Toole—A sweet young thing from Annapolis—Mr. Charles Leonard. Baritone Duff—Soprano of the U. S. S. Cook—Mr. W. A. Goodard. Captain of the Oriole Opera Co.—Miss Marie James R. Homer.

Benedit—A servant at Hotel Hygeia—Mr. Harry Collins. Captain of Cadets—Miss Frankie Broach. Mlle. Auburn Ernan—Prima Donna Soloist of the Oriole Opera Co.—Miss Marie Lawrence. Mlle. Georgia Caroll—From the Grand Opera House, Paris, (Ky.)—Miss Florence Dunbar. Mlle. Lulu Lalla—An Ambitious Delineant—Miss Daisy May. Brunetta—Miss Tessie Morris.

This, the only successful American comic opera, was given its fourth production in Evansville last evening to a good house and one of the best pleased audiences since it appeared here last season. There have been several changes made in the opera and the company is far superior in every way to the one that appeared here before under James Sullivan's management.—Evansville Courier.

Elder's Opera House next Tuesday night.
Dress Goods and Millinery. The prettiest novelties in dress goods ever brought to the city can be found at Mrs. Rosenfield's. New millinery being received daily. The ladies are especially invited to call and see them, at Mrs. Rosenfield's. Wraps, cloaks and children's garments will be in a few days. sep24-dsw

A Campaign Issue.
The Democratic Executive Committee has received a large lot of sample copies of the Weekly Courier-Journal for distribution. A feature of the issue is a comprehensive resume by able writers of the political situation in Tennessee, illustrated with pictures of the Congressmen that have already been nominated by the Democratic party. This department covers a full page in the paper, and contains many valuable articles.

Ladies, bring your little girls and get them a nice little jacket sweater. Age four to ten years. Respectfully, sep24-dsw Mrs. ROSENFIELD.

Full line of notions just received at Howerton & Macrae's. sept24-dsw.

TREMONT TEMPLE.

The Massachusetts Executive Committee Holds a Meeting.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.]

BOSTON, MASS., Sept. 24.—Tremont Temple is to-day the scene of the meeting of the State Democratic executive committee, the last of its meetings before the big convention next Tuesday. It is now quite certain that James Bernard Carroll will be named for Lieutenant Governor, the renomination of Russell being certain beyond all question. It will also be determined to-day whether it will be advisable to name a Democratic candidate for United States Senator. The indications are that Ex Congressman Russell will be announced as the choice of the Democrats for a seat in the upper house.

Grateful John.
The occasional stroller could not fail to notice the agitation of the link man with slight hair who paced the beach nervously, his anxious gaze bent upon the last bathhouse but one. At the sound of a woman's voice issuing from the diminutive structure the link man might have been observed to tremble and break into a profuse perspiration.

"It was a timid, shivering voice. 'She mustn't do it,' muttered the link man to himself. 'The end justifies the means.'"

He looked very desperate. "John." The woman's voice was a trifle more confident, not to say impatient. "Ye-yes, Hannah."

"Are there many looking?" He glanced at the deserted strand. "About 400, Hannah."

A sound like a gasp came from the last bathhouse but one. "Any ships passing, John?" The link man scanned the horizon. "There's two excursion boats anchored right in front, Hannah."

For a time the last bathhouse but one emitted nothing. "John." The anxiety of the link man had been gradually deepening. "Ye-yes, Hannah."

"Is the water c-c-cold, John?" He gazed at the rays of the heat radiating from the ocean's placid surface. "A man has just been taken out with the cramp."

"Oh, dear." The link man hardly breathed. "John." "Hannah." "It will take so long to get my hair dry." He betokened a reviving cough. "Unquestionably, Hannah."

"I don't believe I'll go in, John." "Why, Hannah?" He simulated the accents of regret, but his face glowed with satisfaction. "No, John, I shan't go in."

"Thank heaven," he whispered devoutly. "Gain the world is prevented from learning that I married only for money."—Detroit Tribune.

Laying the Blame.
As the grocer saw him enter the store with a quick, angry step, he knew he had no ordinary customer to deal with. The man strode over to the counter, threw down a basket he had been carrying and delivered himself of a little speech he had evidently rehearsed on the way.

"This is an infernal outrage on a citizen and a—ugh customer," he thundered, bringing his closed fist down with a thump. "Here you have not only swindled me out of my good money, but made me appear a poor, miserable fool in the eyes of my wife—my wife, sir! Just look at those—those—fossils, sir, and tell me what you mean by selling such things."

The grocer silently opened the little basket, but slammed down the lid the next moment and moved nearer the door, where he could catch the fresh air. In a yellow bowl inside the basket were half a dozen cracked eggs. Nothing but a deep sense of wrong could have induced the man to bring them from home, for the most heartless person would have admitted that they were too far gone already.

"Those are nice things to put in your window and label fresh eggs, ain't they?" interrogated the man in a sarcastic way. "I'd just like to know what excuse you can make."

"When did you buy them?" asked the grocer after chewing the ends of his moustache awhile. "Last night."

"I thought there was a mistake somewhere," replied the grocer, with a returning smile on his face. "It was your own blame, sir. These eggs were as fresh as daisies when I labeled them a fortnight ago."—New York Evening Sun.

Lightning's Freaks.
In 1833 a little girl was standing at a window near which stood a young maple tree; a flash of lightning struck either the girl or the tree or both, and an image of the tree was found printed on her body. In another instance a boy climbed a tree to steal a bird's nest; a lightning flash struck the tree, the boy fell to the ground, and on his breast the image of a tree, with the bird and nest on one of the branches, appeared most conspicuously.—Chambers' Journal.

The Gallant Hungarian.
"Ah, so pleased to see you once again after an interval of five years! Why have you never been to see us, as you promised?" "I should have been most happy, but the weather has been so bad."—Fitch.

Good Looks.
Good looks are more than skin deep depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver be inactive you have a Bilious Look, if your stomach be disordered you have a Dyspeptic Look, if your kidneys be affected you have a Pinched Look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and Tonic acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Blotches, Boils and gives a good complexion. ### EVENTS OF INTEREST.

The Boxing Tournament of the Manhattan Athletic Clubs.

The Two Events Will Attract Thousands of Visitors to Both Clubs—Of National Importance.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.]
NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The boxing tournaments of the famous Manhattan Athletic Clubs are always events of national interest, and that which takes place to-night has features of more than usual importance. Dominick McCaffery, who challenged Corbett to fight, will spar, and a ten round bout between Walter Campbell, of Philadelphia, and Walter DeBaum, of New York, for a $500 purse will close the entertainment.

To-day also occurs the annual regatta of the New York Athletic Club, and the races will take place on the Harlem river. The Manhattan and New York Athletic Clubs are the two greatest gentlemen's athletic organizations in the United States, both owning magnificent club houses, boat houses and great outing parks. The two events to-day will attract thousands of visitors to both clubs.

Wanted.
Ladies and gentlemen suffering with throat and lung difficulties to call at our drug store for a bottle of Otto's Cure, which we are distributing free of charge, and we can confidently recommend it as a superior remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption and all diseases of the throat and lungs. It will stop a cough quicker than any known remedy. We will guarantee it to cure you. If your children have croup or whooping cough it is sure to give instant relief. Don't delay, but get a trial bottle free. Large size 50c. Sold by Tudhope Drug Co.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Jac. Anderson, a Very Old Man, Dies at Hopkinsville.

New Era: Mr. John Anderson died last night at the residence of his son, Mr. R. M. Anderson, on Sixth street, in the seventieth year of his age. Mr. Anderson had been confined to his room but comparatively a short time, but has been afflicted for many years. He was the son of the pioneer Joshua Anderson, who figured conspicuously in the early history of this section. Mr. Anderson was a native of Christian county and had been a resident of Hopkinsville for twelve years. He was a member of the Methodist church and a man whose many excellent traits commended him to all people who knew him.

Furniture For Sale.

In order to break up house keeping I will sell privately, beginning Monday morning, all my household and kitchen furniture in my residence on Academy avenue. Apply either at the residence or to me at Philip Lieber & Son's. I will sell at a bargain. Respectfully, sep24-df WALTER L. FOWLKES.

VISITING VETERANS.

New York's G. A. R. Posts Will Royally Entertain Them.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.
NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—New York's G. A. R. Posts will to-night entertain a great host of visiting veterans who are here now on their way home from the great encampment. About a thousand will be the guests of Brooklyn posts and the remainder will be given a reception by Lafayette, Grand and Sherman posts of this city. Many thousand of the returning veterans paid their annual homage at the tomb of General Grant to-day.

Innocent Man Executed.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—A special dispatch to The Times from Shanghai says that the execution of an innocent gentleman as the reported leader of the Tekku anti-Christian riot in 1891, has caused another serious riot in Fookien.

Lieutenant Peary Back Again.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—The kite, bearing Lieut. Peary and the relief party, reached the wharf in this city at 11:30 a. m. Friday. She was not detained at Quarantine.

The Builders, of the Presbyterian church, will serve oysters some three during the first week in October, the date and place to be announced later. sep24-3f
