SAVAGE FOR SENATOR

That's What Democrats From Two Counties Have Said.

The Senatorial Convention Places the Banner in His Hands—Col. House Makes a Ringing Speech.

The Senatorial Convention for the counties of Montgomery and Robertson was called to order at the courthouse this morning by Judge Tyler, chairman of the Executive Committee of this county.

He stated the object of the meeting, and on motion Jno. L. Stark, of the Springfield bar, was elected permanent chairman.

The routine work was transacted and Mr. Stark vacated the chair, calling on Judge Tyler to occupy it for the time being. Mr. Stark then took the floor and stated that Robertson county would call on Montgomery to furnish the nominee of the convention. He said that he knew a Democrat in Montgomery county in whom the people of his county had the utmost confidence, and one who would meet with the approval of his people as the nominee of the convention. He said his people wanted a good man and a pure Democrat, and they knew they would get him in the person of Mike Savage. He therefore nominated Mr. Savage and asked that he be unanimously chosen as the candidate to represent the counties in the State Senate. He paid a high tribute to Mr. Savage, all of which elicited rounds of vigorous applause.

Judge Holman seconded the nomination and Dr. Northington and Judge Tyler responded in behalf of Montgomery county, each thanking the delegates from Robertson county in selecting a Montgomery county man for the honorable position. They also pledged the work of every Democrat in the county to see that the nominee is elected.

On motion the nomination was made unanimous and a committee was appointed to notify Mr. Savage. They soon found him in the Chancery court room and brought him before the convention. He was greeted with loud and prolonged applause as he ascended the stand. Mr. Savage thanked the convention for the honor conferred and promised to give his whole time from now until the election to the canvass. He said that he wanted it distinctly understood that he expected all Democrats to help him in the canvass. He would go wherever they chose to send him and he would make a vigorous campaign. He believed that every Democratic nominee of the county would be elected, and he also believed that Judge Turney would be elected governor of Tennessee and that Grover Cleveland would be elected president. He would go into the fight to win, and if he did not win it would be through no dereliction of duty on his part. If elected, he would serve them faithfully.

This work being completed the convention went into a love feast. Some one called for Col. House who was occupying a seat in the rear of the room. When his name was mentioned a yell went up that fairly shook the building. They yelled louder, however, when Col. House was seen to arise and start for the front. They gave him a genuine ovation and his presence had an electric effect on the audience. He spoke only a few minutes, but those few minutes were full of more Democratic enthusiasm than has been seen in Clarksville at any time during the campaign. Col. House briefly reviewed the political situation, and he thought he could see the skies brightening. He had heard from Georgia, the State from which Weaver retreated in front of a rotten egg. It was passing strange to him that a man with Weaver's record would run from such an insignificant thing as a rotten egg. He compared Grover Cleveland with Weaver, and thought it passing strange how it was that a decent white man could vote for the latter in preference to the former. He then came down to State affairs, and wondered how a man could support Buchanan in preference to Judge Turney. His speech was full of the old-time fire that the people of Montgomery county have loved in Col. House in the past, and it filled every man in the building full of enthusiasm. After Col. House's speech, Judge Tyler and Judge Seay both made short speeches which were heartily applauded. It was a veritable love feast, and every man left the house with a determination to elect the nominee of the convention.

THE EFFECT OF THE MCKINLEY BILL.

KILLED AT A DANCE.

Emmett Johns Kills Chas. Parsons Near Russellville.

They Were The Best of Friends, But Whisky Made Them Enemies—The Particulars.

The Russellville Herald contains this week an account of a murder committed Saturday at a brandance and barbecue at Red Oak, between Russellville and Adairville. There was considerable drinking going on, and late in the evening Emmett Johns and Charles Parsons, who have heretofore been warm friends, became involved in a quarrel. Parsons drew a knife and made for Johns, who retreated until he came to one of the posts to which was fastened a rope which divided the dancers from the rest of the crowd. He pulled this up and struck Parsons on the right side of the head with it. Parsons dropped as if he were shot. He was picked up and carried to his home. Blood ran from his right nostril and from his right ear.

The wounded man was unconscious when he was taken home and never rallied, dying yesterday morning from the effects of his wound.

PALMYRA POINTERS. Rev. G. A. Barnes Writes An Interesting Letter on Various Topics.

Correspondence Leaf-Chronicle.

PALMYRA, Oct. 5.—The meeting at Reuben Ross closed last Sunday evening. Four applicants were received for baptism. There were other professions, but they have not decided what church to join. The congregation was moved to tears of joy when Mrs. Mary Russell came forward to unite with the church. It was an agreeable surprise to every one present. Bro. Faulkner did us good service, and if he could have stayed another week we might have had quite an ingathering of precious souls into our church. His labors will long be remembered by our people.

Our home was twice taken possession of last Sunday by the neighbors and friends of G. M. Lee and Thos. Harvey, to witness the marriage ceremony between Mr. Lee and Miss Lonnie Townsend, and Mr. Harvey and Miss Annie Moeckbe. The words were soon spoken that made two hearts beat as one, followed by the congratulations of friends, and good music by Mr. Albritton, and then the neighbors dispersed to their homes, wishing the young people much happiness and success in life.

B. W. Owen and family have gone to St. Louis. They will visit the family of Mr. James Black while there.

Squires Robt. McFall and Sam Powers paid our city a visit to-day. Squire Powers is one of the proudest men in all this section. Two fine girls have taken up their abode with him, and like Joslin, "they have come to stay."

Bro. Stamper, the Methodist minister at this place, and his wife are on the sick list this week; also Mrs. Polk Smith, formerly of Clarksville. Mrs. Sid Bowers has quite a sick child.

The ladies of the Reuben Ross congregation will meet at Mr. J. D. Fletcher's next Friday to make up a box of clothing for the Baptist Orphan's Home in Nashville.

The Senatorial Nominee.

The selection of Mike Savage as the nominee of the Senatorial Convention, a report of which will be found in another column, was a very wise piece of work. Mr. Savage has grown up among the people who have honored him with this nomination, by acclamation, and they know the stuff he is made of. He has been a Democrat all his life, and a truer one never lived. He is able and courageous, and will make a canvass that will insure his election. The people of Montgomery county have the greatest confidence in him, and all Democrats will be rejoiced when they hear that he has been chosen to carry their banner. They know it has been placed in hands that will never allow it to trail in the dust, and which will carry it to a glorious victory in November. Montgomery county recommends him to the Democrats of Robertson county as a man in whom they can place implicit confidence, and a Democrat who is worthy of their support. It is hardly necessary to add that Mr. Savage is a member of the well known law firm of Leech & Savage, of this city, and that he is recognized as one of the best lawyers in the State. He will carry with him to the State Senate a knowledge of law that few men of his age in the State possess. The LEAF-CHRONICLE congratulates the convention on its work, and pledges its unqualified support to the nominee.

A Cholera Scare.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made. For sale by Owen & Moore, Druggists.

Did Not Arrive.

The remains of the infant child of Douglas Jordan did not arrive from Arkansas, as was expected, this morning. The funeral, consequently, will take place from the residence of Mr. Ed. Turnley, on Madison street, to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, to which the friends of the family are invited. Interment in Greenwood.

BROKE OPEN A CAR.

Wm. Turner, of Gallatin, in the Hands of the Law.

He is Charged With Stealing Goods From a Freight Car at Guthrie Tuesday Night.

Wm. Turner was arrested by Officers Rollow and Stone last evening, near the upper Red river bridge on a charge of breaking open a freight car at Guthrie and stealing six pairs of shoes and some knives and forks. The theft was discovered by the agent at Guthrie, and suspicion pointed to Turner as being the guilty party. He left Guthrie, coming in the direction of Clarksville. The people at St. Bethlehem were advised of the theft, but the notice came shortly after Turner had passed that place, having passed himself off as a peddler and sold some of his goods there. The police were notified by telephone from St. Bethlehem, and the officers mentioned above went out and met Turner, making the arrest as stated.

Chief Stafford carried the prisoner to Guthrie and turned him over to the officers there. They have a strong case against him, and locked him up as soon as they received him. Some time after Turner had been put in the lock-up at Guthrie a tramp was arrested and carried to the same cell in which Turner was incarcerated. On reaching the cell the officers found that Turner had set his bed clothing on fire and was about to turn his way out. His scheme, however, was frustrated by the officers. Turner says his home is near Gallatin. He denies breaking open the car, but the proof is positive against him.

A Cure for Cholera.

There is no use of any one suffering with cholera when Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know.—W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This remedy is used there with great success. For sale by Owen & Moore, Druggists.

Prohibition Meeting To-Night.

Plank No. 5 of the National Prohibition platform will be the subject for public discussion at the prohibition meeting at the court house to-night. The plank reads as follows: "Railroad, telegraph and other public corporations should be controlled by the Government in the interest of the people and no higher charges allowed than necessary to give fair interest on the capital actually invested."

CHANCERY COURT.

A. R. Gholson Resigns, But is Immediately Re-appointed.

Correspondence Between Himself and Judge Seay Which is Self-Explanatory—New Bonds Given.

A. R. Gholson, Clerk and Master of the Chancery court, resigned his position as such last evening and was immediately re-appointed by Judge Seay. The following correspondence between Mr. Gholson and Judge Seay explains the matter:

To the Hon. Geo. E. Seay, Chancellor

Since my appointment and qualification as Clerk and Master of the Chancery court at Clarksville, two of my bondsmen, to-wit: Chas. G. Smith and Jno. J. West, have died. I do not wish their estates to be in any way liable on my bonds, and in order that there may be no question about their release and discharge from further liability, I herewith tender my resignation as Clerk and Master, to take effect immediately. I desire to add that I am an applicant for re-appointment to said office, and if my conduct in the discharge of the duties in the past will justify you in re-appointing me, I will endeavor to do my duty in the future in such a way as to be worthy of the confidence of yourself and the public.

Respectfully,
A. R. GHOLSON,
Clerk and Master.

CLARKSVILLE, Oct. 5, 1892.

To A. R. Gholson, Clarksville, Tenn.: Your resignation of the position of Clerk and Master of the Chancery court of Montgomery county, Tennessee, for the reasons stated in the above communication of date of Oct. 5, 1892, received, and is accepted. I hereby reappoint you Clerk and Master of said court, your term of office beginning as of this date, Oct. 5, 1892.

Geo. E. Seay,
Chancellor Eighth Division.

Upon his re-appointment Mr. Gholson immediately took the oath of office and made his bonds. The Clerk and Master of the Chancery court is required to give three bonds, one as clerk and master, special commissioner and receiver for $85,000; one as a bond for revenue, $5,000, and one for the safe keeping of the records, $10,000. These bonds, as stated above, were all made yesterday, and are signed by A. R. Gholson, A. Howell, H. C. Merritt, M. C. Northington, J. D. Neblett and W. M. Daniel.

CORN AND TOBACCO.

What Commissioner Godwin Says in His Monthly Report.

Commissioner Godwin has issued his crop report for September. Here is what he says about corn and tobacco:

"CORN.—The condition of the corn crop has steadily declined since June, as shown by the following figures: June, 86; July, 85.5; August, 82.4; September, 80.1. The condition for September, 1891, was 88.6. As stated in a previous report, early planted corn and the upland crop is generally fine, while the late planted and the low land crop has been injured by both flood and drouth, and has therefore been cut short. Insufficient cultivation has also conspired with other causes to reduce the yield of late corn, and many crops are still not out of danger from early frost. The chief damage to the crop is, naturally, in that part of East Tennessee where the drouth has been most severe, many fields promising not half a crop, and many barren stalks being found. For the State at large it may be said that, while the yield will be several points below that of last year, it will still be fair, and we will have no scarcity of corn. The weather has been favorable for saving fodder, and a larger quantity than usual has been pulled.

"TOBACCO.—The weather has been favorable for the maturing and cutting of tobacco, and a large portion of the crop has been housed in excellent condition. The rains in Montgomery, Robertson and Cheatham counties have been sufficient for the late crop, which is noticeably improved. The probable yield for the State is estimated at 86.1 per cent. of a full crop, which is 2.6 higher than the estimate for corresponding date of last year, and is a very satisfactory yield."

Too Much of a Risk.

It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Owen & Moore, Druggists.
