CITY COUNCIL.—This body held a regular meeting on Tuesday evening last, at their hall, over the market-house—present Mayor Hiler, and Aldermen, Hume, L. G. Williams, Harrel, Dye, and Ware. A large business was done, embracing several very important matters.

The matter of the liability of Franklin's securities, had been referred some time back to a committee, consisting of Aldermen Harrel and Blackman, with instructions to ascertain and report the amount due from said securities. (It will be remembered that Mr. Franklin was city constable and Tax-collector for last year, 1856, and that the then Mayor, and board of Aldermen, were securities upon his bond. The committee named above, were not in the board of 1856, and being new Aldermen, were a very proper one to settle the amount due the city from the securities.) They presented a report in writing, stating that, after making all charges, and allowing all credits, they found the deficiency in Franklin's account, to be ten hundred and eighty two dollars, and declared that the sum due the city from his securities. The report was received and adopted unanimously by the board, a majority of those voting being disinterested, except for the city. It was then ordered that the city Marshall should call upon each of the securities for his proportion of the amount due. (The securities to the bond are Messrs. Jno. A. Bailey, Hume, Farmer, Dye, Price, W. S. McReynolds, Watts and C. H. Smith.)

Alderman Harrel and city Attorney King, a committee appointed to report such amendments to our city charter, as they might deem it proper to ask of the Legislature, reported through Mr. Harrel on three proposed amendments, namely: 1. For power to change and extend the boundaries of the city. 2. For power to levy a city tax for common school purposes. 3. For power to levy a higher tax, for city purposes than is now allowed.

The committee agreed in recommending the first and second amendment, but disagreed upon the third. Alderman Harrel then rehearsed the new boundaries of the city, as proposed by the committee, which was adopted, acem con, with a slight change as to the point to which the limits should extend up Cumberland river—their point being in the river opposite the La Fayette Mills, so as to include them, and the point adopted being in the river, opposite the mouth of the branch between Mrs. E. M. Barker's and Geo. Stacker's place. The Board then voted upon, and adopted the following new boundaries: Beginning at a point in the middle of Cumberland River, opposite the mouth of Red River, thence running up the middle of Cumberland to a point opposite the mouth of the ravine, or branch, between Mrs. Barker and Geo. Stacker; thence up said branch to a spring at its head; thence in a direct line to Mrs. Valentine's residence, on the Charlotte Road; thence to a point on the Nashville road between Thos. Cross and Thos. Holbert, and between Mr. Cross and Mrs. Little, including Mrs. Little and Holbert, to a point on the Nashville road, so as to include the property of T. W. Wisdom; thence, as direct as possible, to where the Railroad crosses the Russellville pike; thence, to Mrs. N. L. Poston's house, so as to include it; thence to a point in Red River opposite the mouth of West Fork; and thence down the middle of Red River to the beginning point in Cumberland River.

Under the second item of the committee's report, the Board resolved to petition the Legislature for power to levy a tax of one-tenth of one per cent on property, and twenty-five cents on each poll, to sustain a good common school here, should the ordinary school fund, at any time prove insufficient to do it. The vote on this was unanimous. It was then moved that in view of the insufficiency of the present city tax, to meet the expenses of the city government, and make such improvements as will, in all probability be necessary, the Legislature be petitioned to grant the Board of Aldermen of this city power to levy a tax, not to exceed one per cent, on all taxable property, whenever they may think it necessary—the poll tax to remain as it now is. This was passed with but one dissenting vote.

The Mayor reported that he held the resignations of both Mr. Moore and Mr. Smith, watchman, which were accepted; and the Mayor was authorized to employ four watchman to serve from the 10th of December, till the 10th January next, or until discharged, or re-elected.

Aldermen Harrel, Williams, and Dye, were named as a committee to contract for such repairs as are necessary to put Front Street in good condition; and the Mayor was authorized to contract for the repairing of the wall lately built on Commerce Street, near the Foundry, which has fallen down. The committee were also directed to report if any, what work is needed on Madison Street, near Mr. Lockert's.

Alderman Harrel, from Committee on a new market-house, reported that he felt authorized from enquiries he had made, to say that property-holders in the vicinity of the lower end of the square will contribute $1,000 towards the construction of a first rate market-house there. The Committee was continued with authority to pledge the building of such a market-house if the property-holders will contribute $1,000 towards it.

Aldermen Williams and Blackman continued as a committee to ascertain and report probable cost of improving Spring-street from Main to Commerce, and how much private subscription can be raised for it.

Fifteen dollars allowed for drawing of accounts of the Lower Red River Bridge, and Mayor was directed to employ an officer to collect them.

In addition to the privileges already named to be asked from the Legislature, the Committee was also directed to pray for power to this City to levy so much toll at the upper Red river bridge as will keep it in good repair.

Several accounts were referred to the Committee on claims and the Board adjourned to meet again next Thursday evening.

W. W. VALLIANT is selling off some of his fine Dress Goods, at cost for Cash those wanting goods of that description, should call immediately. Mr. Valliant is an experienced merchant, and we have no doubt but he will offer you a bargain. See advertisements.

JOSEPHINE SAVAGE.—This new and splendid steamer made its first appearance at our wharf on Monday last. She is one of the finest models of a steamboat that we have ever seen. She is commanded by Captain O. Davis, a Captain of great experience and will run between Nashville and New Orleans. Our friend Frank Gracy presides at the desk. Those wishing to make shipments, or to take a pleasant trip to New Orleans, now have an opportunity of doing so. She will leave for New Orleans on to-morrow evening.

As we were going to press, Mr. Breed, Secretary of Clarksville Literary Association, informs us that he is expecting an answer to a telegraphic dispatch from Mrs. Partington at Evansville. She will lecture here either on Monday or Tuesday night. Due notice will be given by Posters.

THE Ladies of our town, are working very zealously in the Mount Vernon cause. They held a meeting last week, and appointed committees to visit every quarter of the town, and solicit donations; and we learn that they have so far succeeded very well.

The object, as nearly every one knows, is to raise money enough to purchase Mount Vernon—the home and grave of Washington, and it has been taken in hand by the Women of America. Every one can contribute a little to this object, and all who feel disposed to do so, will oblige the ladies by handing in their contributions at once.

The ladies in the county we hope will send up theirs through some friend in town—as nearly as one here will receive and hand them over. A contribution of one dollar entitles the contributor to a membership in the Mount Vernon Association. It is desired, too, that the children throughout the country shall contribute as much as they can; so let every little boy and girl in the county give a dime, or a quarter.

THEY commenced killing hogs at Smith's pork-house on morning this week, at 10 o'clock, and by 2 P. M., had killed, and dressed, three hundred! That we call quick work. Mr. Smith has one of the finest pork-houses in the country, and is paying the highest market price for hogs;—or he will pack them on fair terms for other parties.

P. J. YOUNG, Merchant Taylor, has received and keep constantly on hand, a large and elegant stock of gentlemen's wear. Our young men who wish to look so captivating on Christmas holidays, would do well to call and examine his stock. Read his advertisement.

On next Monday, County Court day, our energetic Chancery clerk, Mr. Thos. J. Munford, will sell some very valuable property. Consisting in part, of two elegant Store houses, now occupied by T. McCulloch, and Pollock & Waggener, as clothing stores; 11 likely negroes; three fourths of Popular Spring Furnace; one comfortable residence, and 230 acres of land. Persons wishing to buy property of this description, would do well to attend these sales. The Sheriff also sells some lands on the same day, lying in different portions of the county.

RIVER NEWS.—Since our last issue, the river has rose some 5 or 6 feet, with about 7 1/2 or 8 feet on Harpeth Shoals. The steamer James Johnson and E. Howard from New Orleans were at our wharf yesterday. The Howard will probably be down again to-morrow evening. The steamer H. outville will be here to-night on her way to Memphis. The Rock City will, also be down to-night on Madison Street, near Mr. Lockert's.

To-morrow night, Mrs. Shook's benefit comes off at Fowler's Hall, when "Nick of the Woods" will be performed, together with other novelties. The members of this dramatic corps have acquitted themselves very handsomely, in their respective characters, and deserve a liberal patronage. "Nick of the Woods" is said to be a highly interesting play, and we hope there will be a large audience on the occasion of its performance, and that Mrs. Shook's benefit will be one in reality.

MR. MANUEL, an experienced teacher of dancing, proposes to open a school in the Sons of Temperance Hall, as soon as a sufficient number of scholars can be obtained. Mr. M. comes highly recommended, and we bespeak for him a fair trial by those who have children; and there are many young men in town, who will be none the worse for a few lessons from one qualified to impart grace of attitude and motion.

BRIDLEY & McCAULEY have a fresh invoice of very fine cigars. They will do "to puff."

THE COMBINATION PATENT PORTABLE STEAM SAW-MILL.

This Mill is fast coming into use in every section of this country, Canada, Cuba, and South America. It has received the endorsement of several thousand experienced lumber manufacturers, and is pronounced by all who have examined its operation, to be the simplest, efficient, and practical machine for the purpose ever devised. Of the large number of these mills now in operation, we defy any person to point to a single one of them that has failed to give perfect satisfaction.

Description of the First, or Smallest size. As will be seen from the engraving, the lower part of the mill is composed of a simple frame, the timbers of which are about eight inches square, either of oak or other hard wood, securely fastened together with strong iron bolts. This framework is 7 feet long, 7 feet deep below the bed pieces, and 5 feet wide. The main shaft is 3 1/2 inches in diameter, and the driving pulley 22 inches in diameter, and 9 inch face. The pitman wheel is of solid iron, and is three feet in diameter. The pitman is of iron, four feet long, and is connected with the saw by an oscillating cross head. This arrangement of the slides and cross head, which has lately been patented, is the only plan we have ever seen by which the saw could be made to play up and down, with the desired rapidity, without grating and heating. It secures a uniform bearing on all parts, without regard to the position of the saw, and when the saw is once fastened at the bottom, it never has to be altered to suit any alteration in the rake, and even though it should not hang plumb, the guide pieces will adjust themselves. This is a very important object gained, for under all the old arrangements, any inaccuracy in the hanging of the saw causes great friction and consequent destruction of machinery.

The carriage runs upon small friction wheels, four inches in diameter. Thus it moves with less shake, less noise, and less friction, and consequently requiring less power than in the old way. The saw used is of cast steel, 12 inches wide, and 7 feet long, sufficient for all logs under 3 1/2 feet in diameter. The new arrangement at the upper end of the saw consists of a slide made to be lowered or raised to suit the size of the log. The saw is guided at the lower end of this slide by means of two wooden ribs, and the upper end of the saw is fastened to two metallic blocks, which play up and down in the grooves, as seen in the engraving. The whole arrangement about the saw, both at the top and the bottom, is so perfect, that the saw glides up and down, with the desired rapidity, easily and easily as though it were running only in oil. It has been the study of mechanics for years to produce something that would do away with the necessity of straining a saw in an upright mill, and we believe, that object has never been fully attained until the discovery of the present plan. The mill is 44 inches in diameter and 2 1/2 feet long. The shell is 24 inches in diameter; the firebox, 36 inches long and 28 inches wide; smoke pipe, 18 inches in diameter and about 30 feet long. This boiler may be rated as about 15 horse power. The cylinder boiler is 38 inches in diameter, 20 feet long, with 3 flues 12 inches in diameter, and possesses a generating capacity of about 18 horse power.

PORTABILITY AND FREIGHTAGE.

The mill and power as described above, all complete, with the exception of the bed pieces and woodwork of the carriage, with the locomotive boiler, weighs about 5 1/2 tons, with cylinder boiler about 6 tons—as follows: Locomotive boiler, with its connections, 3,500 lbs. Mill, with its connections, 2,800 lbs. The machinery is regarded as good freight, and may be forwarded without trouble, either upon car, steamboat, or any other method, to any section of the country.

HOW MUCH IT WILL DO.

The speed of this mill is about three hundred strokes of the saw per minute, and the feed from 1 to 1 1/2 of an inch for every stroke, depending upon the character of the timber. Thus, at a medium speed, the saw would cut through a log twelve feet long in from one to two minutes. From this data any practical man, knowing the character and size of the logs, their convenience to the carriage, etc., can make a very correct estimate what the mill will accomplish in any given time. From the various statements of different parties using these mills, we calculate that from 3,000 to 3,500 feet is about an average twelve hours' work in ordinary lumber. Two men are sufficient to attend this mill, when the logs are convenient to the carriage. This power requires about two barrels of water per hour; any small spring or well affords a sufficient quantity.

PRICE.

We furnish these mills and powers, as described above, including all the screws, bolts, belting, grate-bars, saw, supply-pump, wrenches, crowbars, and everything necessary for running, excepting the two long bed pieces and the woodwork of the carriage, the whole put up and boxed, and delivered in St. Louis, for $1,750. The segments and friction wheels furnished for the carriage are sufficient to saw logs 24 feet long. An extra length will be sent when desired, and an extra charge made of two dollars per foot. Drawings and full explanations are sent with each mill, also a perfect model, and no one can fail to put it up and run it without trouble. The right to use is always included in the sale of every mill.

SECOND SIZE.

This mill is constructed on the same plan as the other, and is about one-third larger and heavier. It requires more power to drive it to its full speed, and will saw a much larger amount in any given time. The saw is eight feet in length, sufficient for the largest and heaviest timber in any section. The engine is a 9 inch cylinder, and 24 inch stroke, containing 180 cubic feet of steam, and 12 feet 4 inches long—diameter of the shell, 38 inches—firebox, 36 inches long and 37 inches wide—34 tubes, 3 inches in diameter and 8 feet long—all the other parts in proportion.

The cylinder boiler furnished with the above engine is 42 inches in diameter and 30 feet long, with five flues, four of which are 12 inches in diameter, and 24 inch stroke. The generating capacity of either of the above boilers is about 30 horse power. This power is furnished with the mill, and everything all complete, ready for running, for $2,250, in St. Louis. For further particulars—address, BRAGG, BURROWS & Co., St. Louis, Proprietors and Manufacturers. Terms Cash.

Executor's Sale.

I will sell, to the highest bidder, on a credit of 12 months on the 10th of December next, at the residence of R.
