

S. S. WILLIAMS, INSURANCE AGENT, CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

STATEMENT OF the Company at this date, made to comply with the laws of the State of Tennessee...

| | |
|--|--|
| 1st-The name and locality of the company. | The Insurance Company of the State of Virginia, of Richmond. |
| 2nd-The amount of its capital stock. | Three hundred thousand dollars. |
| 3rd-The amount of said Capital Stock paid in. | Three hundred thousand dollars. |
| 4th-The assets of the Company including: | |
| a. The amount of cash on hand, and in the hands of Agents and other persons. | $4,420 75 |
| b. On hand. | 463 87 |
| c. In Agents hands. | $4,890 22 |
| 5th, To Real Estate owned by the company unincumbered. | None. |
| 6th, Bonds owned by the Company and how they are secured, with the interest thereon. | $20,000 of the Bonds of the State of Tennessee, bearing 6 per cent. interest, cost, $18,222 60 |
| 7th, Bonds bearing 6 per cent. interest, secured by mortgage on Real Estate worth more than 100 per cent. more than the amount loaned thereon. | 101,250 00 |
| 8th, Bonds bearing 6 per cent. interest, secured by mortgage on Real Estate worth more than 100 per cent. more than the amount loaned thereon. | 114,700 00 |
| 9th, Bonds bearing 6 per cent. interest, secured by mortgage on Real Estate worth more than 100 per cent. more than the amount loaned thereon. | 21,738 00 |
| 10th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 11th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 12th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 13th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 14th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 15th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 16th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 17th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 18th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 19th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 20th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 21st, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 22nd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 23rd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 24th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 25th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 26th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 27th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 28th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 29th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 30th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 31st, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 32nd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 33rd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 34th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 35th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 36th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 37th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 38th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 39th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 40th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 41st, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 42nd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 43rd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 44th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 45th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 46th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 47th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 48th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 49th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 50th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 51st, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 52nd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 53rd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 54th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 55th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 56th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 57th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 58th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 59th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 60th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 61st, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 62nd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 63rd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 64th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 65th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 66th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 67th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 68th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 69th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 70th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 71st, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 72nd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 73rd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 74th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 75th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 76th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 77th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 78th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 79th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 80th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 81st, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 82nd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 83rd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 84th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 85th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 86th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 87th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 88th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 89th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 90th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 91st, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 92nd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 93rd, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 94th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 95th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 96th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 97th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 98th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 99th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |
| 100th, Debts of the company, secured by mortgage. | None. |

STATE OF VIRGINIA, I, the undersigned, a Notary Public for the County of Richmond, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the statement of the Insurance Company of the State of Virginia, as made to me by the President and Secretary of said Company, on the 14th day of August, 1860.

This is to certify that the Insurance Company of the State of Virginia, located at Richmond, in the State of Virginia, is in compliance with the laws of the State of Virginia, and is a duly authorized agent of said State in the city of Clarksville, Tennessee.

And that S. S. WILLIAMS is the legally authorized agent of said Company in the city of Clarksville, Tennessee.

H. H. POSTON, Agent for THE SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY.

PERKINSVILLE RAIL ROAD, QUAKER CITY INSURANCE COMPANY.

CHARTER OAK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

B. A. ROGERS, Attorney at Law, Office on Strawberry Alley, Clarksville, Tennessee.

TOBACCO NOTICE. New Fire-Proof Buildings, Between Dunlop's Factory and Railroad Bridge.

McCLURE & COURTS, CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE.

HOWELL, BLACKMAN & CO., GENERAL RECEIVING, FORWARDING AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS, CITY FIRE-PROOF WAREHOUSE, Corner Commerce and Front Streets, Clarksville, Tenn.

B. DUFFIELD, Commission, Receiving and Forwarding Merchant, NEW ORLEANS.

KIMBLE & DANIEL, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Office on Strawberry Alley, Clarksville, Tennessee.

O. W. DAVIS, Receiving and Forwarding Merchant, AND STEAM BOAT AGENT, WILKESBORO DELAWARE.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1860.

HOW TO DEFEAT LINCOLN.

[From the New Orleans Crescent.] We have received from an intelligent correspondent at St. Martinville a letter of some length discussing the present position and prospects of the different parties, and suggesting a mode by which the election of Lincoln may be defeated. It is a private letter, but as the views expressed are doubtless held by many others, we shall offer some commentary upon them.

Letter from Gen. Houston.

[From the Cincinnati Enquirer.] The meeting was called this evening at the Court House, pursuant to adjournment, whereupon, G. A. Harrell, Esq., took the Chair, and J. B. Tappett was appointed Secretary.

Water Works Meeting.

The meeting was called this evening at the Court House, pursuant to adjournment, whereupon, G. A. Harrell, Esq., took the Chair, and J. B. Tappett was appointed Secretary.

A CAMPAIGN SONG.

John Breckinridge, my John! When first we were around, You were a "Squatter Sovereign," John, But now, you say, you ain't, How can we all believe, John, In one short year or so, That you've so really altered, John, John Breckinridge, my John!

The Southern Disunionists.

A correspondent of the Washington States and Union, writing from Cahaba, Ala., July 15, gives the following account of the disunion schemes in that locality who are pretending to desire the election of Breckinridge and Lane, but are really praying for the election of Lincoln and a dissolution of the Union.

Collision on the Lake--Immense loss of Life.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—The steamer Lady Ellen of the Lake Superior line, leaving here last night was run into by the schooner, Aurora, of Vermilion, on half past 2 o'clock this morning, and sank in 20 minutes in 300 feet water—only 12 persons are known to be saved, including the Clerk, Steward and Porter. There were from 350 to 400 passengers on board, among whom were the "Black Eagles," and several companies from Milwaukee. Col. Lomen of the New Orleans Picayune and family were on board, and are supposed to be lost. The steam tug Queen left this morning for the scene of disaster.

Democracy in a Pinch--The Charleston Mercury is a victim of Mr. Breckinridge's.

as are, indeed, all the disunion papers and politicians in the South. The Mercury, however, disapproves very decidedly of Mr. Breckinridge's "single speech," announced to be delivered yesterday. That paper says:

It is with sincere regret we see that Mr. Breckinridge has consented to imitate Mr. Douglas in the disunion speeches, with a view to the Presidential election. We had hoped that he would, and forever after, Mr. Douglas would have stood alone in the "bad eminence" of a Presidential stump speaker. Mr. Breckinridge can do neither himself nor his party any good, by pursuing a course so inconsistent with the dignity of the high office at which he aims. William Lowndes said, "That the Presidential office should neither be sought nor declined." That was the sentiment of a man worthy to fill such an office, with its heavy responsibilities—its grave and important duties. The idea of a candidate securing the country to obtain it, by electing himself, and personal appeals to win popular favor, can excite neither the most unpopulist disgust and contempt. We do not expect to publish anything which is so unworthy. Mr. Breckinridge, spoken as a candidate for the Presidency.

Democracy in a Pinch--The Louisville Democrat commenting upon an article in the Washington Constitution, in regard to party organization, party usages, &c., says:

The blockhead ought to know that, according to him, and Buchanan & Co., there is no Democratic party. They broke it up at Charleston and Baltimore. There is no Democratic candidate for President, and every man heretofore a Democrat is at liberty to vote as he pleases at the Presidential election. The state of the case what does the blockhead mean when he talks about Democratic usages. They are things that were. We have nothing to do with them now.

Democracy in a Pinch--Last week's Monitor (Ala.) Democrat, in speaking of a Bell and Everett meeting held here, says: "Truth and justice require us to admit that Bell and Everett stuck it advancing in this part of the country. It is now at fever heat, with a defiant and upward tendency. We make the admission reluctantly."

Democracy in a Pinch--In his speech at Rocky Point, Rhode Island, last Thursday, Judge Douglas says:

I am asked why I do not advise my friends to make a Union ticket with the Secessionist. Why don't you mix up, as so many will, I am willing to act with all men who agree with me in principle and I am determined to act against all men who are in favor of disturbing the peace and harmony of the country by thrusting the negro question into the Congress of the United States.

Democracy in a Pinch--I stood on the platform of non-interference, opposed by Webster and Clay in 1850; I stood by Fillmore in 1856 and 1860; I sustained Pierce's administration until it during its four years. I hoped to elect Buchanan and Breckinridge on it in 1860, and so help the South. I intend to stand by it, no matter who elects me.

Democracy in a Pinch--The New York Herald says that New York would elect the Union and a non-electoral ticket, by at least fifty thousand majority, and we thought we were in the bounds of reason in so saying; but we have now to correct our estimate. We did not know, however, that the black republicans, who are now so busy, and who are so busy to expose the corruption and weakness of each other to the public, and not only call each other thieves, but prove it and run it in, as they are now doing, in New York, New York for one hundred thousand men, and now for the Union electoral ticket.—N. Y. Herald.

Democracy in a Pinch--There is not an honest man in all America who will deny that James Buchanan and John C. Breckinridge, in 1860, were pledged to the doctrine of non-interference by Congress with slavery in the Territories. (Cheers.) I made speeches from the same stand as John C. Breckinridge in 1860, when addressing his own claims to the Vice Presidency, and heard him go to the extreme lengths in favor of popular sovereignty in the Territories.

Democracy in a Pinch--As the Kansas Story: Several gentlemen were riding in a car on one of the Boston roads, a few years ago, when the conversation turned on the next Presidential election, and the merits and prospects of Webster, Fillmore, Cass, and others. After some time, a gentleman, who has been in silence, addressed the party thus: "My friends, you are all wrong. Before the election of 1852, the world will have come to an end, and James Smith will be President of the Universe!" Up started an enthusiastic gentleman from the Granite State, who startedly said to the Minister: "Sir, I'll bet you $5,000 dollars New Hampshire won't go for him!" A roar of laughter greeted the exit of the Second Adventist, as he removed to another car.

Democracy in a Pinch--Heaven is not a spot to be down in, and there, our coaches, tugging us here to think how much misery we have personally escaped. The Christian Heaven is an exalted society of self-sacrificing spirits, bound together in mutual fellowship by their common conversation to Him who is above them, where such accepted will go from strength to strength, run and not weary, toil and not faint, aspire and not be lulled, as good and not misinterpreted, and will be assimilated in ever clearer and closer affinity to him who is light and life, in whom we have our being, and in whom we shall never die.—F. B. Huntington.

Democracy in a Pinch--Clara said Charles, "Did you little Carlo have a pink ribbon round his neck when you last saw him?" "Yes, yes, the little thing," replied Clara. "Have you seen him?" "No, not exactly, but here's a piece of pink ribbon in the package."

Democracy in a Pinch--The last number of the London Punch has two short pieces of advice, the first being to buckle up as follows: "Eat cold pudding in the forenoon, but don't eat anything which will induce you to settle your money."

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1860.

Water Works Meeting.

The meeting was called this evening at the Court House, pursuant to adjournment, whereupon, G. A. Harrell, Esq., took the Chair, and J. B. Tappett was appointed Secretary.

A CAMPAIGN SONG.

John Breckinridge, my John! When first we were around, You were a "Squatter Sovereign," John, But now, you say, you ain't, How can we all believe, John, In one short year or so, That you've so really altered, John, John Breckinridge, my John!

The Southern Disunionists.

A correspondent of the Washington States and Union, writing from Cahaba, Ala., July 15, gives the following account of the disunion schemes in that locality who are pretending to desire the election of Breckinridge and Lane, but are really praying for the election of Lincoln and a dissolution of the Union.

Collision on the Lake--Immense loss of Life.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—The steamer Lady Ellen of the Lake Superior line, leaving here last night was run into by the schooner, Aurora, of Vermilion, on half past 2 o'clock this morning, and sank in 20 minutes in 300 feet water—only 12 persons are known to be saved, including the Clerk, Steward and Porter. There were from 350 to 400 passengers on board, among whom were the "Black Eagles," and several companies from Milwaukee. Col. Lomen of the New Orleans Picayune and family were on board, and are supposed to be lost. The steam tug Queen left this morning for the scene of disaster.

Democracy in a Pinch--The Charleston Mercury is a victim of Mr. Breckinridge's.

as are, indeed, all the disunion papers and politicians in the South. The Mercury, however, disapproves very decidedly of Mr. Breckinridge's "single speech," announced to be delivered yesterday. That paper says:

It is with sincere regret we see that Mr. Breckinridge has consented to imitate Mr. Douglas in the disunion speeches, with a view to the Presidential election. We had hoped that he would, and forever after, Mr. Douglas would have stood alone in the "bad eminence" of a Presidential stump speaker. Mr. Breckinridge can do neither himself nor his party any good, by pursuing a course so inconsistent with the dignity of the high office at which he aims. William Lowndes said, "That the Presidential office should neither be sought nor declined." That was the sentiment of a man worthy to fill such an office, with its heavy responsibilities—its grave and important duties. The idea of a candidate securing the country to obtain it, by electing himself, and personal appeals to win popular favor, can excite neither the most unpopulist disgust and contempt. We do not expect to publish anything which is so unworthy. Mr. Breckinridge, spoken as a candidate for the Presidency.

Democracy in a Pinch--The Louisville Democrat commenting upon an article in the Washington Constitution, in regard to party organization, party usages, &c., says:

The blockhead ought to know that, according to him, and Buchanan & Co., there is no Democratic party. They broke it up at Charleston and Baltimore. There is no Democratic candidate for President, and every man heretofore a Democrat is at liberty to vote as he pleases at the Presidential election. The state of the case what does the blockhead mean when he talks about Democratic usages. They are things that were. We have nothing to do with them now.

Democracy in a Pinch--Last week's Monitor (Ala.) Democrat, in speaking of a Bell and Everett meeting held here, says: "Truth and justice require us to admit that Bell and Everett stuck it advancing in this part of the country. It is now at fever heat, with a defiant and upward tendency. We make the admission reluctantly."

Democracy in a Pinch--In his speech at Rocky Point, Rhode Island, last Thursday, Judge Douglas says:

I am asked why I do not advise my friends to make a Union ticket with the Secessionist. Why don't you mix up, as so many will, I am willing to act with all men who agree with me in principle and I am determined to act against all men who are in favor of disturbing the peace and harmony of the country by thrusting the negro question into the Congress of the United States.

Democracy in a Pinch--I stood on the platform of non-interference, opposed by Webster and Clay in 1850; I stood by Fillmore in 1856 and 1860; I sustained Pierce's administration until it during its four years. I hoped to elect Buchanan and Breckinridge on it in 1860, and so help the South. I intend to stand by it, no matter who elects me.

Democracy in a Pinch--The New York Herald says that New York would elect the Union and a non-electoral ticket, by at least fifty thousand majority, and we thought we were in the bounds of reason in so saying; but we have now to correct our estimate. We did not know, however, that the black republicans, who are now so busy, and who are so busy to expose the corruption and weakness of each other to the public, and not only call each other thieves, but prove it and run it in, as they are now doing, in New York, New York for one hundred thousand men, and now for the Union electoral ticket.—N. Y. Herald.

Democracy in a Pinch--There is not an honest man in all America who will deny that James Buchanan and John C. Breckinridge, in 1860, were pledged to the doctrine of non-interference by Congress with slavery in the Territories. (Cheers.) I made speeches from the same stand as John C. Breckinridge in 1860, when addressing his own claims to the Vice Presidency, and heard him go to the extreme lengths in favor of popular sovereignty in the Territories.

Democracy in a Pinch--As the Kansas Story: Several gentlemen were riding in a car on one of the Boston roads, a few years ago, when the conversation turned on the next Presidential election, and the merits and prospects of Webster, Fillmore, Cass, and others. After some time, a gentleman, who has been in silence, addressed the party thus: "My friends, you are all wrong. Before the election of 1852, the world will have come to an end, and James Smith will be President of the Universe!" Up started an enthusiastic gentleman from the Granite State, who startedly said to the Minister: "Sir, I'll bet you $5,000 dollars New Hampshire won't go for him!" A roar of laughter greeted the exit of the Second Adventist, as he removed to another car.

Democracy in a Pinch--Heaven is not a spot to be down in, and there, our coaches, tugging us here to think how much misery we have personally escaped. The Christian Heaven is an exalted society of self-sacrificing spirits, bound together in mutual fellowship by their common conversation to Him who is above them, where such accepted will go from strength to strength, run and not weary, toil and not faint, aspire and not be lulled, as good and not misinterpreted, and will be assimilated in ever clearer and closer affinity to him who is light and life, in whom we have our being, and in whom we shall never die.—F. B. Huntington.

Democracy in a Pinch--Clara said Charles, "Did you little Carlo have a pink ribbon round his neck when you last saw him?" "Yes, yes, the little thing," replied Clara. "Have you seen him?" "No, not exactly, but here's a piece of pink ribbon in the package."

Democracy in a Pinch--The last number of the London Punch has two short pieces of advice, the first being to buckle up as follows: "Eat cold pudding in the forenoon, but don't eat anything which will induce you to settle your money."

Democracy in a Pinch--And the second is like this: "The last number of the London Punch has two short pieces of advice, the first being to buckle up as follows: "Eat cold pudding in the forenoon, but don't eat anything which will induce you to settle your money."

Democracy in a Pinch--The last number of the London Punch has two short pieces of advice, the first being to buckle up as follows: "Eat cold pudding in the forenoon, but don't eat anything which will induce you to settle your money."

Democracy in a Pinch--The last number of the London Punch has two short pieces of advice, the first being to buckle up as follows: "Eat cold pudding in the forenoon, but don't eat anything which will induce you to settle your money."

Democracy in a Pinch--The last number of the London Punch has two short pieces of advice, the first being to buckle up as follows: "Eat cold pudding in the forenoon, but don't eat anything which will induce you to settle your money."

Democracy in a Pinch--The last number of the London Punch has two short pieces of advice, the first being to buckle up as follows: "Eat cold pudding in the forenoon, but don't eat anything which will induce you to settle your money."

Democracy in a Pinch--The last number of the London Punch has two short pieces of advice, the first being to buckle up as follows: "Eat cold pudding in the forenoon, but don't eat anything which will induce you to settle your money."

Democracy in a Pinch--The last number of the London Punch has two short pieces of advice, the first being to buckle up as follows: "Eat cold pudding in the forenoon, but don't eat anything which will induce you to settle your money."