

R. W. THOMAS, Editor. J. S. NEDLEY, J. A. GRANT, Publishers.

CLARKSVILLE, Friday, April 12, 1861.

Could we place implicit confidence in the dispatches which reached us on Wednesday, we should despair of peace. It is true that vessels have been sent to provision Fort Sumter...

Up to the time of putting our paper to press, a harrassing uncertainty, as to the condition of affairs at Charleston, distracted the public mind.

Mr. Burton:—It has been the settled conviction of the people for some time past, that the politicians should be thrown overboard and the people themselves take their government affairs in hand.

Should there be a called session of Congress, can Tennessee be represented? If the late members do not hold over until their successors are appointed, has the Governor any power to order an election to meet the emergency?

Editor's Chronicle:—It is time that the people of Montgomery County should be looking out for the right man to represent the County in the next Legislature.

Mr. Burton:—I send you this to show you that, since Lincoln's inauguration, the 4-4 abolitionists are beginning to flood the country with their abolition documents through the U. S. mail.

Mr. Burton:—In some recent number of the Nashville Patriot, I see our friends from different parts of this Congressional district, calling on various persons to become candidates for Congress in this district.

Mr. Burton:—In some recent number of the Nashville Patriot, I see our friends from different parts of this Congressional district, calling on various persons to become candidates for Congress in this district.

Mr. Burton:—In some recent number of the Nashville Patriot, I see our friends from different parts of this Congressional district, calling on various persons to become candidates for Congress in this district.

Editor's Chronicle:—The time is drawing near when we must select a man to represent us in the popular branch of the next Legislature.

Mr. Burton:—I send you this to show you that, since Lincoln's inauguration, the 4-4 abolitionists are beginning to flood the country with their abolition documents through the U. S. mail.

Mr. Burton:—In some recent number of the Nashville Patriot, I see our friends from different parts of this Congressional district, calling on various persons to become candidates for Congress in this district.

Mr. Burton:—In some recent number of the Nashville Patriot, I see our friends from different parts of this Congressional district, calling on various persons to become candidates for Congress in this district.

Mr. Burton:—In some recent number of the Nashville Patriot, I see our friends from different parts of this Congressional district, calling on various persons to become candidates for Congress in this district.

Editor's Chronicle:—The time is drawing near when we must select a man to represent us in the popular branch of the next Legislature.

Mr. Burton:—I send you this to show you that, since Lincoln's inauguration, the 4-4 abolitionists are beginning to flood the country with their abolition documents through the U. S. mail.

Mr. Burton:—In some recent number of the Nashville Patriot, I see our friends from different parts of this Congressional district, calling on various persons to become candidates for Congress in this district.

Mr. Burton:—In some recent number of the Nashville Patriot, I see our friends from different parts of this Congressional district, calling on various persons to become candidates for Congress in this district.

Mr. Burton:—In some recent number of the Nashville Patriot, I see our friends from different parts of this Congressional district, calling on various persons to become candidates for Congress in this district.

Telegraphic.

New York, April 10. An editorial in the Tribune states positively that the principal object of the expedition which sailed hence under the command of Lieut. Col. Henry Brown, of the Second Artillery, a small steamer will be sent in with supplies, and if repelled, the Tribune says, the rebels will be taught without unnecessary delay that there is still a power in the States, and that this power cannot be insulted with impunity.

Washington, April 10. The Tribune's correspondent says that the Tribune has received from Lieut. Slemmer at Fort Pickens, explaining that the reason why the troops were not landed from the Brooklyn was that he had already sufficient to hold the fort against any army the rebels could bring against him.

Washington, April 10. The Tribune's correspondent says that the Tribune has received from Lieut. Slemmer at Fort Pickens, explaining that the reason why the troops were not landed from the Brooklyn was that he had already sufficient to hold the fort against any army the rebels could bring against him.

Washington, April 10. The Tribune's correspondent says that the Tribune has received from Lieut. Slemmer at Fort Pickens, explaining that the reason why the troops were not landed from the Brooklyn was that he had already sufficient to hold the fort against any army the rebels could bring against him.

Washington, April 10. The Tribune's correspondent says that the Tribune has received from Lieut. Slemmer at Fort Pickens, explaining that the reason why the troops were not landed from the Brooklyn was that he had already sufficient to hold the fort against any army the rebels could bring against him.

Warren, of Bath, was seized in Hampton Roads to-day for violation of the inspection laws. The news has produced an unfavorable feeling toward the Administration.

Gen. Beauregard this morning issued an order and sent a special messenger to Maj. Anderson, giving him an official notification that all intercourse between Fort Sumter and the city would be prohibited from that date.

The Great Eastern is advertised to leave this port May 24th for England.

A special dispatch to the Herald, Washington 7, states that a high official of this Government left to-day for Montgomery on a mission to the Government of Confederate States.

Dispatches from Montgomery render it perfectly certain that there will be no attack on Pickens or Sumter.

McCORMICK'S Virginia REAPER AND MOWER. 25,000 SOLD. During the past six years, or an average of over 4,000 each year. Sales have increased from 1600, in 1854, to nearly 5,000, in 1860.

NEW SHOES AND HATS. SIMS & TURNLEY, Corner of Square and Franklin Street, Clarksville, Tenn.

GREAT SHOW! DAN RICE'S ACADEMY OF MUSIC, NEW ORLEANS. WILL EXHIBIT AT CLARKSVILLE, Positively for one day only, On Friday, April 19th.

BREAD Cheaper than Flour. The undersigned begs leave to inform the citizens of Clarksville and adjacent country, that he can furnish them with Fresh Bread, Rusks, Cakes & Pies of all kinds, every morning.

KIRBY & CO., NEW CLOTHING AND HAT STORE. We are now in receipt of our entire new Spring and Summer stock of Mens' Youth and Boys' Clothing; Furnishing Goods and Hats.