

TO ADVERTISERS.

Parties advertising by contract, for a given time, will be confined to their legitimate business...

Notices, in local column, twenty cents per line. Special Notices fifteen cents per line.

We send this, our first number, to a great many whose names are not upon our subscription list.

See our published rates for Advertising, from one square to a full column, for any specified time.

We solicit contributions from those of our friends who may feel disposed to write. We will also be under obligation to friends if they will furnish any items of a local nature that they may gather in different sections of the country.

"Our boys," who were fortunate enough to be spared, have returned to their homes, to bless their friends with their smiles and presence.

We were gratified to notice the reception they met from Federal soldiers stationed at this Post—they appeared to appreciate the fact of their being soldiers, and treated them with the utmost respect.

We are glad to note that the war has shed but little, if any, of its demoralizing effects upon the boys composing the 14th, 42d, 49th and 50th Regiments...

We hope the day is not distant when peace, permanent peace, will reign throughout our borders, and we become once more a happy, prosperous and contented people.

We extend a hearty welcome to our gallant boys once again to their homes and friends.

From the Washington (D. C.) Star, we are gratified to notice that Mr. D. N. Kennedy, of this city, and Rev. J. B. McFerrin, of Nashville, have been pardoned by his Excellency, Andrew Johnson.

Mr. Kennedy has returned to his home, and we hope soon to see him engaged in some profitable business.

Public Meeting—A call is made for a public meeting, to be held in this city, on the 22d inst.—Addresses will be delivered by Hon. Care Johnson, John F. House and J. E. Bailey.

Now that the war has ceased, and business is resuming its accustomed channels, we can look around us and see many improvements necessary to be made, and we know of no one thing demanding immediate attention more than the Red River Bridge on the Russellville Turnpike.

It may be said, on account of a suspension of municipal affairs, that our city finances will not admit of it just now. Admitting this to be so, we think this enterprise of sufficient importance to cause the city officials to borrow funds for this purpose.

The "Wm. Butler"—We had the pleasure of taking a flying trip down the Cumberland, not long since, on board this fleet and well-appointed steamer.

If you need anything in the way of drugs and medicines, etc., call on Dr. Castner, at Thomas & Bro's old stand, and you will receive every attention that those clever inmates can bestow.

It is really astonishing how much a little paint, of the right color, will add to the looks of an old building. We were forcibly reminded of this in taking a glance at the front of Joshua Brown's old stand on Franklin street, now occupied by Brown & Driver, as a Hardware Store.

Loss—Sometime between the 1st and 8th inst., a small blank book containing the parole of J. K. Rainey, signed on the 9th of April, 1865, at Washington, Georgia. Also two Photographs of young ladies. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at this office.

Going to Leave—We understand that Companies F and H, 3d Illinois Artillery and company D, of the 1st Illinois Artillery, who have been stationed here for the last two months, have at last received orders to proceed to Illinois, to be mustered out. Success go with them.

A FEW WORDS ABOUT OUR ADVERTISERS.

As some people live to eat and others eat to live, we will commence by telling our readers that we have a "National Hotel," kept by S. B. Grant, who, we believe, "knows how to keep a hotel," as he has had 4 long experience in the business...

W. A. SETTLE, a very nice young gentleman, who has a large and well selected stock of Confectioneries, Soda, Ale, Fancy Notions, etc., which he will sell at low rates, and furnish ice water during your visit.

Courts and Hillman, who are opening a splendid assortment of Dry Goods, etc., and as Ben Coulter is an excellent judge of goods, we believe you will find his stock of the right sort—and Billy Moore will sell them to you at the right figure.

A few doors further up, you will find our friend L. Straus, who has concluded to employ that prince of talkers, T. D. Leonard, to auction off his large and mixed stock, preparatory to changing business.

Bloch & Bno's, just above, and take a look at their extensive stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, etc., where you can certainly find something to please you. Bloch has such a large stock on hand he has had to extend his store-room—besides he has one of the prettiest clerks in town to wait on you.

Now step across Franklin street, to B. C. Sacco's new Hardware establishment, where you can find a large and well selected stock of Hardware, Queensware, Groceries, etc., a fresh importation—where Bill Ely and George Faxon are ready to wait on you in his exquisite style.

Jack Whitaker, who has returned from Allensville, will take pleasure in showing his new stock of dry goods, with that excellent salesman, J. E. Broadbent, to wait on you. Jack is famous for keeping good goods at low prices.

Next door will be found R. H. Williams, with R. H. Pickering and M. C. Pitman, for clerks, which is sufficient recommendation for any Dry Goods establishment. In the rear of the same building, Tio's McCulloch, the pioneer Clothing Merchant of Clarksville, has an elegant stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, to suit and fit big and little, rich or poor.

Billy Poindexter, who has a large and varied stock of Groceries, and will sell them as low as any house in this market. If Billy can't supply you, Messrs. & Lindley, just one door above, keep an excellent stock of the same articles so between the two you will certainly be able to fill your bill without trying another market.

Andrew Kist, Dry Goods merchant, on Franklin street, who has an extensive assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries, Clothing, etc., out of which to make a selection, with Maj. Fowlkes and Bob Faith behind the counter.

Next in order come our friends Melhope & Hodgson, who keep Groceries, Wines, Brandies, Ale, Beer, Confectioneries, and most everything needed by the human race—which they propose selling at reasonable rates.

Now step across the street, and take a look through M. Mattill's rich, rare and magnificent stock. Mr. Wm. Balthrop, one of the best merchants in the State, is clerk in this house, and will sell you dry goods, clothing, etc., at a small advance on eastern cost.

John Cosgrove, who keeps constantly on hand a large stock of groceries, etc., and will buy every description of country produce—and sends you all articles, purchased of him, free of charge, within the limits of the city.

Next place, a few doors above, will bring you to the new hardware establishment of Brown, Driver & Co. This house has just opened, and everything is new and of the best brands—the stock is complete—so you can find everything you need in this line without any trouble. Give them a call—you will find them to be accommodating, clever business men.

Now, if you are tired shopping, and feel thirsty, you can drop in next door and Tom Harrison will fix you up an eye-opener, that will put your blood to circulating, and cause you to feel rich, if, perchance, your extensive purchases in other houses have decreased your stock of Greenbacks.

Next comes Chapman & Co., dealers in wines, liquors, hardware, saddlery, wood and willow ware, cigars, &c., in fact a general variety. This is a new bidder for public patronage, and the trading community should call and form an acquaintance.

In the next place, we invite your attention to the boot and shoe house of our clever friends, Lucas & Bagwell, at Wagener & O'Brien's old stand, on Franklin street. This firm deals exclusively in boots and shoes, and are thereby enabled to give better bargains in this line, than can be found elsewhere.

When the river is in navigable condition, and you desire to take a trip by steam, call down at the wharf, at the office of Maj. Byrne, and he will put you through on the fast line, with all that savoury style of a French dancing master. So ends the chapter.

For the past four years the people of this community have denied themselves any amusement, on account of the sad condition of our country—but now that the war has ended, Pic-nics and all appeared to enjoy themselves as of yore. We had the pleasure of attending the Pic-nic, at Fredonia, last Saturday. A large crowd was present, and everything passed off pleasantly and to the satisfaction of all. The dinner was all that the vest-reflect could desire, the management of which elicited much credit upon those who had charge of it.

We predict that the result of these gatherings will be a great many weddings during the fall and winter—provided the crops are good. Let the weddings come off, crops or no crops, as our folks have learned to live on short rations.

BLANKS, of every description, will be kept at this office, for sale.
