Instrumental Pupils receive vocal instruction free of charge. Sheet Music furnished at publisher's price.
Tuition Fees are required from the time of entering until the close of the session. No deduction for absence, except in cases of sickness prolonged longer than two weeks.
It is greatly to the interest of pupils to be present on the first day of the session.
Remarks.—The Academy is situated at Voleney, Logan County, Ky., immediately in the "BROADWAY SUBURB," one mile from Olivehurst Station, and two miles from Whipplow Station, on the Louisville and Memphis Railroad. It has been a successful operation for fourteen years, this being the fifth year in which it has been under the control of the undersigned as Principal, assisted by competent teachers in the Primary and Musical Departments.
We refer to our past success as a guarantee for our diligence in the future. Great attention is given to young men and ladies preparing to enter higher classes in our College, several of whom have since entered the Sophomore and Junior classes of some of the best Colleges and Female Institutes in the land, and each one has taken a high stand in the respective classes into which he or she has entered. Twenty-six pupils have been enrolled the present session, thirty-five of whom are pursuing regular Collegiate studies.
The Musical Department is under the direction of Prof. Wm. J. Eldon, whose proficiency and success in teaching that beautiful of all sciences, is so extensively known to need commendation from the Principal. The Vocal Class, at present, numbers thirty-four, classified in parts, with singing, at the recent concert at Bethlehem, elicited the warmest praise from persons competent to judge. The Music Hall is large and comfortable, and furnished with all necessary facilities.
The Primary Department is under the supervision of Miss Sue Faqua, who is finely educated, and diligent and thorough in her instruction.
Parents and guardians desiring to prepare their children for intelligent and useful members of society, can find no location in which there are fewer temptations to vice and idleness than at this place.
The Principal is prepared to accommodate twelve young men with board, at a very moderate charge. Boarding can be had in good families, very convenient to the Academy, for all who may apply.
General exercises in Composition and Declamation every two weeks.
Thankful for previous patronage, a continuance of the same is respectfully solicited.
For further particulars, address the Principal, at Ferguson's Station, Ky.
JAS. H. FUGA, Principal.

CLARKSVILLE FEMALE ACADEMY

THE FIRST SESSION OF THE SECOND SCHOLASTIC YEAR, will begin September 2nd 1867.
The first year of this institution—the first after the close of the war—was eminently successful, having matriculated two hundred and twenty-three. The prospects of the coming year are exceedingly promising. The location is remarkably healthy; the community intelligent, social and refined, and there is associated with the President, a corps of the very best Teachers.
