 VENTION, AT NASHVILLE ON THE 9TH OF JUNE.
 General Brown, from the Committee on Resolution, reported the following:

WHEREAS, The people of Tennessee, irrespective of former party affiliations, or differences of opinion arising out of the recent and the present convention assembled, for the purpose of appointing delegates to represent them in the National Democratic Convention, to meet in the city of New York on the 17th of July, are profoundly sensible of the troubled condition of public affairs, and regard the approaching election of a Chief Magistrate as the most important event in the establishment of the Government; in its result to the nation at large, they conceive is involved the preservation of the Constitution, and its guarantees of equal and exact justice, individual liberty, more than half the people, and the tranquility. To themselves, in great part laboring under disfranchisement and unjust dispossession of the primary and essential rights of citizens in a spirit of obloquy and unpopularity, and resolved to do all in their power to exclude from their deliberation for the common good all questions decided by the war, and to banish from their breasts the unkind feeling they may have excited and to be counsel only how best they may re-stablish political intercourse and association with that portion of their fellow-citizens of other States who coincide in opinion with them, and desire to assist in the administration of the Federal Government principles and measures which will restore it to its integrity. In this step they deem it proper to adopt the name and designation borne by the only political organization with which they can associate, and in thus formally uniting themselves with the Democratic party, as if that party were the only one, they declare the principles they maintain, and the measures they hold necessary for a wise and safe administration of the public interests:

Resolved, That in the course of events, the question whether a State of the American Union could, under the compact, secede, was submitted to a contest of arms, and decided in the negative; and it is wise that the theories in Government should be abandoned when found impracticable, therefore, the American people, North and South, should accept such decision as final and conclusive; nevertheless, we assert and maintain that the Constitution created the Federal Government supreme under well defined limitations and restrictions leaving the States a large mass of residuary rights which we assert and maintain should be preserved, and making the States equal in respect of such rights, and that the result of the war has not, and should not in any manner be construed to impair the rights of the States, and the power of the General Government to the endangerment of public liberty.

Resolved, That we recognize the system of African slavery formerly existing in a portion of this country as extinguished by the result of the war, and that fact is ratified by a binding constitutional amendment, and that we regard the measures of the Federal Government, designed to elective franchise on the black race in ten States, and withholding it from large numbers of the white race—the owners of the soil and payers of the government taxes as gross usurpations of power, and that such subjection of these States to the political and social control of negroes, is a policy unjust, unwise and oppressive, and tending to excite a war between the States, and measure which seeks to deprive the white men of America of their rightful position of superiority and supra-macy in the administration of the Federal Government, and that we oppose to the perpetuity of free republican institutions.

Resolved, That notwithstanding the enormous debt of the country of the public debt, and the corrupt and ruinous extravagance by which it is being increased, the faith of the nation is pledged to its payment, and that we are opposed to the acts of Congress issuing the bonds which represent it but not otherwise; and we are opposed to extending the time of payment, and the consequent increase of interest on the public debt, and to more than the principal, and also to the view that the principal of a large portion of these bonds is payable in gold; and that while we hold the Government to its constitutional obligations, we declare that the five-twenty bonds should be paid in the same currency received by the withdrawal of the money granted to the Government in possession of the result can be accomplished without an undue increase of paper money, now the only circulating medium; and that by this means the people can soon be relieved of a burden of a public debt corrupting and enervating in its character; and that in this there is no infraction of the public faith nor violation of contract with the holders of such bonds.

Resolved, That every species of property in the country, including the Government bonds, which receive the equal protection of the Government, should be relieved of a burden of an undue tax; and that as justice is the true foundation of all good government, there should not exist a favored class paid in gold, while the Government is in possession of the mass of the people, in a currency which is kept depreciated in value by this iniquitous system.

Resolved, That the doctrines and practices of the radical Republican party, now in possession of the legislative department of the General Government, and endeavoring by encroachment on the powers of the Executive and Judicial branches to the subversion of the Government, will lead, if not checked, to the destruction of the republican system of government, and the civil liberties of the people; and that it is the highest dictate of patriotism to oppose it in its progress, and to demand that it be stopped, and that for the purpose of rendering opposition effective, we cordially ally ourselves with that party whose creed, enunciated by Thomas Jefferson in 1801, and approved by substance and spirit by the great leaders of every party that has flourished until the era of the civil war, and which is in the following words:—

 9TH OF JUNE.
 General Brown, from the Commit-
 lowing:

 party, now in possession of the legisla-
