

J. A. NEBLETT, PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

RATES OF ADVERTISING. One Dollar per square of Ten Lines or less.

Table with columns for NO. SQUARES and rates for 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

Announcement of marriage and death free-tributes of respect and obituaries half price.

LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE AND GREAT SOUTHERN RAILROAD.

GOING NORTH. Train No. 2 arrives and leaves at 12:30 A. M.

GOING SOUTH. Train No. 1 arrives and leaves at 5:45 P. M.

FRANKLIN street is being remodeled and repaired.

The Building and Loan Association have $1,000 to loan on the 11th inst.

INTEREST ON State bonds to the amount of $37,170, has been prepaid since January 1.

REMEMBER DR. Munsey's lecture next WEDNESDAY night.

The new residence of B. O. Keese, on Madison street, is nearing completion.

Q. C. ATKINSON is receiving a large and elegant stock of furniture.

The Clarksville District Conference will be held at Turnersville on the 27th, 28th and 29th inst.

The Teachers' Institute will meet in this city, on Saturday next, the 14th inst.

L. FROELICH, who intends removing his stand, offers his large and well assorted stock of dry goods, boots, shoes, furnishing goods, etc.

A PROTRACTED meeting is in progress at the Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. Mr. Dinwiddie.

M. L. JOSLIN has a most excellent stock of saddles, bridles, harness, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

MR. LEWIS, of the firm of Pitman & Lewis, has gone east for their spring stock of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

DECIDEDLY PUBLIC.

The Leaf quotes the following language from the CHRONICLE of last week: "We do not propose to compete with any office that does not pay its hands." He then says: "The Chronicle confesses that it can not compete with us, but we do not propose to compete with any office that does not pay its hands."

Speaking of confessions, what is the above? The ready connection which the Leaf finds between the expression, "any office that does not pay its hands," in our issue last week, and "us" as used by the Leaf in the above quotation, looks like the "cap fits."

"That is not all, we have all the time paid higher prices than the Chronicle," Leaf.

We emphatically deny this statement. For a portion of the time, there was a difference of five cents per thousand paid by the two offices; but the difference in the type used more than made up this difference in the price. Our prices are now, and have been for some time, the same. Besides, we still stick to the proposition that we pay cash, while he does not.

"And yet on your own confession it has not competed with us in quality or price," Leaf.

We have confessed no such thing. On the contrary, we emphatically state that we do as good work, on as good material, as the Leaf ever has furnished, or can furnish now, and we will do it at as low prices as it can be done to make a fair living profit.

"We are not attacking in this controversy," Leaf.

We ask again, what was the meaning of your articles last week? "Until informed of the unfair work of those who sought to do a secret wrong through misrepresentation, and a secret circuit, going to, in their zeal even beyond the misrepresentation," Leaf.

Who is this fine directed at? He denies, in another article, that he has charged the CHRONICLE with having done this thing. Does he intend to charge it to the Executive Committee? He certainly means one or the other—we can not positively say which, as he is probably intentionally very ambiguous. If he means either, it is only necessary to state that the charge is simply unfounded.

"But seeks to drag our private business matters into public discussion," Leaf.

We must say that this sounds rather cool, coming, as it does, from one who has persistently insisted on making the "private business matters" of our office a text for his windy boasts and fulsome self-praise.

We have not avoided the discussion of prices. We said last week that we would do work at Louisville, Cincinnati or Nashville prices, which afford us only a fair profit. We will not do work at prices which will lose us money and involve us in debt. We can employ our hands to better advantage in giving our readers a large quantity of reading matter, than in doing work at prices that will keep the Leaf from getting it. We learn that they "intend doing work for nothing, rather than the CHRONICLE shall have it."

We have received the prospectus of a new weekly paper to be published at Knoxville, Tenn., commencing on or before the 25th inst., to be called "The Grange Outlook," and to be "devoted to the prosecution of the great work known throughout the United States as the 'Farmers' Movement,' or the 'Patrons of Husbandry.'" It proposes to wage no war against other classes so long as they make no war upon the industrial classes. It will be non-political—it will give full and accurate market reports, current news, etc. Terms, $2 per year. Address, C. W. Charlton & Co., editors, Knoxville, Tenn.

We were invited to take dinner with the members of Clarksville Grange, at the H. and L. Hall, last Saturday, and on repairing to that place found a number of the members and a few invited guests. A splendid repast was prepared, of which all partook with an evident appreciation of the good things furnished. Clarksville Grangers know how to display their hospitality, and their guests will not soon forget the dinner of the 28th.

OUR young friend, Baker D. Johnson, announces himself as a candidate for re-election to the office of Attorney-General, which he has filled for nearly a year past with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of the public. He has made a good and efficient officer, and we are sure his future course, if he is elected, will win the same good opinions expressed by many in the past.

We have seen a letter from Norfleet Williams, son of our townsman, B. H. Williams, who is now in business in Moscow, Texas, and his young friends here will be glad to learn that he is doing well there and is very much pleased with that country.

W. P. KEESSE has opened a grocery at Well's old stand, on Strawberry street, where he will keep on hand everything usually kept in his line of business. He will also attend to his business as Notary Public, and his insurance business, at the same place.

FITMAN & LEWIS are always glad to see men who are in need of clothing. They are prepared to furnish all such, and are offering to the trade very desirable clothing of the best material and style; also Shirts, Drawers, Collars, Ties, Umbrellas, etc.

REV. WM. DINWIDDIE, of Lexington, Ky., will preach this morning in the Presbyterian church; and also to-morrow (Sunday) morning and evening. The Lord's Supper will be administered at the close of the morning service.

CLASS-MEETING will be held at the residence of R. H. Pickering, on Greenwood Avenue, next Thursday night. All who feel an interest in such meetings are cordially invited to attend.

The Hook and Ladder boys have been compelled to defer their entertainment until Thursday and Friday, the 13th and 20th insts. Dr. Wright's play will be the main feature on this occasion.

We learn that an additional ten per cent will be added to all State and County taxes not paid by the 17th of the present month. Those who have not yet paid their taxes, had better attend to the matter at once.

OLD FOLKS' CONCERT.—Some of the ladies of our city are busy in getting up an Old Folks' Concert, after the manner of those lately given in Nashville, and so highly spoken of by all who attended them. The concert will be given some time during the present month, and from the names of those who have undertaken the management we are confident it will prove a success. The proceeds are for the Methodist church.

The costumes will be of ancient date, and all persons who have garments which were in the style in the early days of our grandparents or great-grandparents, and are willing to lend them, are requested to notify Mrs. J. F. Coats, Mrs. J. F. House or any of the ladies of the church, and they will be taken care of and returned immediately after the concert.

The Leaf quotes, from Bowell's Newspaper Directory, the circulation of the CHRONICLE "800—estimated," and seeks to make the impression that we "estimated" it at that figure rather than give a less one to which we were willing to make affidavit. The "estimate" was made by Rowell; we are unable to say what authority; but we do say, and are willing to make affidavit to it, that it is under-estimated by about two hundred. Our list now numbers over one thousand, and is constantly and rapidly increasing, and that too without any "trucking or begging for patronage," either public or private.

The Leaf persists in charging "unfair work," "secret wrong," etc., upon some one, and as it must refer to the Executive Committee, or to some members thereof, we deem it but due to those gentlemen to state that at that time not a single member of that committee was a subscriber to our paper.

One member of the committee, a member of a firm which was at the time making our paper, was glad to state, however, that several of these gentlemen are now subscribers, and have all paid in advance.

We have heard, as coming from a member of the Montgomery Farmers' Club, that Dr. Maxwell and Col. Thurston came here last fall at the invitation of that Club, and that the time of their coming was changed at the request of the proprietors of the Leaf, so as to have them here at their season at the cave. The Leaf says, "We brought the leading Grange men here, Dr. Maxwell and Col. Thurston." Will somebody "rise to explain?" Was the Leaf Leaf a part of the Montgomery Farmers' Club?

A DOG, said to have been mad, started from Cumberland Farm, Monday evening of last week, and "ran a muck" through a large section of country, hitting about one hundred dogs, sheep, hogs, cattle, &c., and three persons, though neither of the three were bitten sufficiently to be injured. We have not yet heard of any serious consequences resulting from his ravages, but he may not have been mad. The dog was killed at the Furnace, to which he returned, on Tuesday morning.

WE announce, to-day, Mr. R. D. Moseley, the present incumbent, as a candidate for the office of Revenue Collector for this county. Mr. Moseley's well known business qualifications, together with the evidence he has already given of his fitness for the office, are his high recommendations as long as they make no war upon the industrial classes. It will be non-political—it will give full and accurate market reports, current news, etc. Terms, $2 per year. Address, C. W. Charlton & Co., editors, Knoxville, Tenn.

THE ODD FELLOWS of this city will celebrate the Fifty-fifth Anniversary of their Order in the United States, by a grand ball at Franklin Hall, on Friday, April 24th. The elegant affair gotten up by the Order here two years ago, renders the success of this one already assured, as it will be under the same management.

A DIFFICULTY occurred between policeman W. W. Morrison and W. P. Lindley, on Tuesday morning last, growing out of some remarks made by the latter in regard to the official conduct of the former, in which Mr. Lindley was severely, though not dangerously injured.

OWING to the inclemency of the weather, Alf Barnett gave no performance here Thursday night, and at the present writing, the probabilities are in favor of none Friday night.

HEAVY rains are falling at this time, and have been for a day or two. The river began to rise Friday morning with a prospect of its again overflowing the banks.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—L. Froelich gives notice of his intended removal, and offers goods at cost.

W. F. Green, United States Deputy Collector, advertises the McKeage property for sale.

W. P. KEESSE has opened a grocery at Well's old stand, on Strawberry street, where he will keep on hand everything usually kept in his line of business. He will also attend to his business as Notary Public, and his insurance business, at the same place.

Jas. Morrison, of the south-side, advertises household and kitchen furniture, stock, bacon, farming utensils, etc., for sale at public auction, on his premises, next Saturday, the 14th inst.

GRINTER, Young & Co. have a card in this issue to the Patrons of Husbandry.

R. H. OGBURN, Deputy, writes as follows: "The work moves bravely on in spite of all opposition. Since my last report I have organized the following Granges: STONEWALL GRANGE, No. —, organized Feb. 13th, at Jordan's Springs, W. S. Mallory, Master; T. M. Brodie, Overseer; R. S. Paine, Lecturer; J. H. Moss, Steward; J. H. Gold, Chaplain; M. F. Smith, Assistant Steward; R. M. Moss, Treasurer; J. T. Southall, Secretary; Green Smith, Gate Keeper; Mrs. L. A. Moss, C. G. Dye, S. G. Dye, Flora; Mrs. M. F. Smith, Lady Assistant Steward.

SPRING CREEK GRANGE, No. —, organized Feb. 28, 1874, at Park Ridge. Officers elected and installed, G. H. Slaughter, Master; N. L. Whitfield, Overseer; Ben. F. Gill, Lecturer; R. Barnes, Steward; C. H. Bourne, Assistant Steward; N. O. Lovelace, Chaplain; W. S. Bowling, Secretary; Bryan Whitfield, Gate Keeper; Mrs. J. J. Whitfield, Ceres; Mrs. G. H. Slaughter, Pomona; Miss Mollie Bowling, Lady Assistant Steward.

POTATOES are worth more than wheat in Kansas and Iowa.

ADDRESS TO THE CLARKSVILLE GRANGE.

We give below the address delivered to Clarksville Grange on the 28th ult., by Jesse W. Bailey, Master: "BROTHERS AND SISTERS: As I had the honor of representing you in the last State Grange, I will trouble you with a few remarks. As your representative, I can assure you, that I felt the responsibility that rested upon me, and in feeling it, I could but work for your interest, and that of the order generally to the best of my ability. I have acted wrong in any way you may charge to my ignorance, for my heart was with you and our order, first, last and all the time. A body of Brothers and Sisters was assembled in Gallatin, and as such I am proud to say they conducted themselves throughout the entire session, the citizens of Gallatin and the surrounding country, give them the credit of being the most orderly body that ever assembled in their town. The saloon keepers say that they did not make a dollar out of us. While in session we received greetings from a number of State Granges in session ranging in numbers from one hundred to ten thousand, and with a great deal of pleasure. Such reports as these show to us that we are in the right track, and that every true Patron of Husbandry is striving to do his duty. I would not admit, as a body, we are ignorant of the established rules and customs of our order, but we will not remain so long, if we do half our duty. With a little encouragement from one and all, the hidden intellect of our order will burst out, and grow forth, like corn planted in a productive soil in the month of May. The grand object of our order as I view it is to spread knowledge, and to do honor to the one who has by his talents, wealth and prosperity of our country. The products of the soil comprise the basis of all wealth. Individual happiness depends upon the order and the wealth of our general intelligence and mental culture of the present time. The best mode of securing a diffusion of knowledge with a view to its application for the increase of the product of the soil is the one that is most adopted, in my humble judgment. All other modes that have created an interest in agricultural and kindred pursuits, have failed to do what they intended. Agricultural Fairs for instance for some time enlisted attention and to a certain extent excited competition, but now it is a matter of fact that they have lost their influence. Clubs for mutual instruction and friendly interchange of ideas, also lose their interest very soon after the excitement of organization. But there are associations that have succeeded in the past. The Leaf says, "We brought the leading Grange men here, Dr. Maxwell and Col. Thurston." Will somebody "rise to explain?" Was the Leaf Leaf a part of the Montgomery Farmers' Club? We have our opponents, and as a natural consequence they will fight us to the bitter end. But fear them not; only be careful how you speak and act and march on in the face of them. We will reach the point where we can wield a power sufficient to rule the whole world, and I think you will hope he may not have been mad. The dog was killed at the Furnace, to which he returned, on Tuesday morning. We, as the producing class, are the foundation upon which the rest of the human family build. They could not exist without us (the producers). As such are the fact in the case, we ought not to permit them to rule us; and we will not in short time, but by the help of God we will rule ourselves if we cling together and persevere.

GARDEN SEED.—Full assortment of Buish's Garden Seed on hand. Will furnish at lowest market rates. OWEN & MOORE. Feb. 14, 2m.

OUR proposition to furnish the CHRONICLE and a fine Rembrandt picture, to be taken by Mr. McCormac, for $400, admits of the subscriber having his own, or the likeness of any member of his family.

GREATER bargains than ever are being offered by J. L. Blanton (Franklin Hall Building). He says the goods on hand at present must be sold to make room for the mammoth stock of spring and summer goods he will open the first of the season. And while he will sell as much cheap and medium goods as any one, his stock of fine goods for men, youths and boys will be as complete and selected with as much taste and discretion as possible with an experience of five years in the business. Long may he live to sell clothing in Clarksville. [Feb. 28-4f.]

ALL who invest their money with Pitman & Lewis can console themselves for having wisely—fine Clothing and desirable Furnishing Goods can be bought of them at very low rates.

JUST received at the new Clothing Store (Franklin Hall Building) a full line of Gent's Furnishing Goods, embracing all the latest spring and summer styles. [Feb. 28-4f.]

$2 WILL pay for the CHRONICLE one year.

$4 will pay for the CHRONICLE and a fine Rembrandt picture—McCormac's best.

THE pictures we offer will be gotten up in McCormac's best style—and all know he cannot be excelled.

A FEW REMARKS ABOUT PICTURES. My arrangements for doing Fine Work are better than ever. I am making FIRST-CLASS PHOTOGRAPHS and finishing them in colors at the same price as heretofore charged for plain work. I have a good Colorist and Negative Retoucher constantly employed, and no work allowed to leave the Gallery that don't give ENTIRE SATISFACTION. Will guarantee the BEST AND CHEAPEST WORK made anywhere. Come up and see the kind of work I am doing, and make a note of the prices. I am making ELEGANT PORCELAIN PICTURES at HALF THE USUAL PRICE, and beautifully colored by an accomplished artist right at home. No more sending off to distant cities of the north to have my work painted, at the risk of losing all likeness. Come up and examine specimens, whether you want work done or not. Gallery opposite the Court-house, Franklin street. Respectfully, W. J. MCCORMAC. Dec. 13, 73-4f.

DIED.

In Christian county, Ky., on February 23, 1874, of apoplexy, Mrs. ANNE S. STEWART, wife of W. D. Summers, and daughter of the late Dr. Brodie, of South Nashville. Another bright spirit has been summoned, in the very morning of life, from this to a better world. Married but a few years since, she had been taken from the loving husband and little child. She was a kind, affectionate sister, a loving, dutiful daughter, a fond, devoted wife, and a doting mother. To her husband, family and many warm friends, we tender our sympathy in this sad bereavement. Mrs. ANN, only daughter of Dr. C. A. and Lucie H. Williams, of Collinsville, Tenn., died Feb. 27, 1874, aged 39 years. "The silver cord is loosed; the golden bowl is broken; the pitcher is broken at the fountain; the wheel is broken at the well of life; the spirit has returned to the earth as it was, and the body has returned to dust. Who gave it?" Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that now we sing. While countless numbers sing, Let us remember that we are here. CLARKSVILLE, Feb. 28, 1874. J. J. W.

Let heavenly harp be newly struck. While Angels plume their wings, and list to the strains that