READ Wheatley & Bibb's new advertisement. They keep a large and varied assortment of family supplies, and sell them at very low rates.

We are under obligations to Hon. J. F. House, for a liberal supply of garden seed from the agricultural department of the government.

A FRIEND desires to know if advertisements are original or selected matter. They are original, and those who advertise are selected to purchase from.

RAILROAD TIME TABLE.—We publish the time table of the Louisville and Great Southern and South and North Alabama railroads in this issue.

NEARLY everybody in the city is hard at work—no idle drones in the hive this year—all seemed determined to bring about better times. So mote it be.

COL. T. H. BAKER, of the West Tennessee Democrat, is newspaper clerk of House of Representatives at Washington, at a salary of $2,100 per annum.

J. H. MARABLE, adm'r, has 200 acres of Cumberland river bottom land, lying near the city, for rent. Also seven farms on Yellow creek, for rent or lease. See advertisement.

We have just received a new and beautiful stock of papers, for bill heads, letter heads, wedding invitations, etc., also a lot of new style cards. Call and see specimens.

FINE TOBACCO.—We have received from Mr. M. N. Bryan, of District No. 1, a sample of his father's crop of tobacco. It is a long, bright wrapper, and will, no doubt, bring a fancy price.

DR. REDFORD, agent of the Methodist Publishing House at Nashville, says, "we now have a capital of more than $300,000 over and above our liabilities as the basis of future operations."

It is stated that the principal feature of the present style is a return to the fashions for ladies a hundred years ago. A pretty woman will appear prettier, no matter how far back the fashion dates.

An exchange call attention to a sad omission in the list of woods for exhibition at the Centennial—"a specimen of wood taken on subscription to a country paper that was delivered when promised."

"SOUTH-SIDERS" makes his appearance again, full of vim since his return from the "swamps" of Arkansas. We are truly glad that he got that "barlow"—it keeps his pencil well trimmed and moving.

EWING M. THOMAS, with David Dows & Co.'s Brooklyn Tobacco Inspection, called to see us in his tour through this section. He is a thorough gentleman, well known to the people of this city, where he resided from infancy to manhood. We wish him and his house much success.

PERSONAL.—R. E. Meek, Superintendent of the North and South railroad, has been in the city, this week, attending a suit in court against the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

Mr. Meek made many warm personal friends during his administration here as Superintendent of the railroad, who are pleased to welcome him in his visits.

James Montgomery, Superintendent of the Clarksville branch of the L. M. and G. S. railroad, has also been attending court this week. He is a good gentleman and an excellent railroad man.

G. B. Faxon has been in the city for several days, on a "courting" expedition. He is one of the most influential citizens of the State of Benton, and his unassuming manner and fine social qualities render him popular with all.

Dr. Caldwell, a relative of Bishop S. A. Caldwell, of this city, is here on a visit. The Doctor married a favorite of ours, whose home was ours in our boyhood days. Success to him and his household.

DEATH OF MRS. ANDREW JOHNSON. The estimable widow of the late ex-President Johnson, died last Saturday night, at Greenville, Tenn. The American comments as follows: "For many years Mrs. Johnson had been an invalid, her illness being of such character as to confine her constantly to her room, and thus prevent her from mingling in society. She was married to the ex-President before he had left the tailor's bench. Her early education was superior to his, which enabled her to be of great assistance to him in his efforts for the acquisition of knowledge. No woman was ever more proud and more justly so of her achievements of her husband, and yet such was her native good sense that she was ever the most quiet, domestic, affectionate lady, wife and mother, whether in the White House or in the humble home at Greenville. In the community where she has lived from childhood she was universally beloved. Her character was marked by every Christian trait and her memory will be affectionately cherished by the old and the young of both sexes and all grades of society."

We would offer a suggestion, which if carried out, would add greatly to the beauty of Greenwood Avenue. If the citizens living on it would plant shade trees on each side, and where such persons were not willing to do so, if the stockholders in the Cemetery would have it done, in a few years such a beautiful and most beautiful thoroughfare in our city. It is, at present, as much travelled as any street leading to the city, and at no distant day, when the beautiful Cemetery is dotted over with monuments and beautified with shrubbery, etc., then with a shaded walk to that sacred spot. Such a step would show to strangers that our people have some public taste to gratify as well as self, and the friends of those having loved ones sleeping in Greenwood would ever hold in grateful remembrance the generous act.

Moody, Ceres. Mrs. J. H. Marable, Pomona. Mrs. R. H. Ogburn, Flora. Miss Nannie Rogers, Lady Assistant. Table with columns for Ward and Votes for Mayor and Aldermen.

FOR ALDERMEN.

Table with columns for Ward and Votes for Aldermen candidates.

In justice to Mr. Moore, of the 6th ward, we would state that he was not a candidate.

Polities were entirely ignored in the canvass.

FEMALE ACADEMY.—The spring session of this ably conducted school will begin next Monday. Dr. Wright is one of the most thorough educators in the South, and has the most accomplished teachers in every department. Considering the many advantages offered at this institution, in thorough training, healthy location, etc., now that we have been blessed with a good harvest, this school should receive a liberal patronage. We trust that, in point of numbers, the incoming session will far exceed any since it has been in existence, knowing that all who patronize it will be pleased with the thorough instruction and treatment given to their children.

MR. PEREN ANDERSON, an old and highly esteemed citizen of this county, died of pneumonia, on the 17th inst. He removed to this county, from Virginia, twenty years ago, and resided at the same homestead until his death. He leaves four children, two brothers, two sisters and many friends to mourn his loss. He was a consistent christian, and expressed himself ready to die. His funeral was preached at the Presbyterian Church, in this city, last Wednesday, by Rev. J. W. Lupton, and his remains interred in Greenwood Cemetery.

In July, 1874, Mr. S. W. Martin, of this county, had a very fine horse in his possession, killed by the railroad. Mr. Hall, of Davidson county, the owner of the horse, brought suit against the road to recover damages. The case was tried in the Circuit Court, this week, and a verdict for $200 was given to the plaintiff.

DIED, in this county, on the 18th inst., Mr. THOMAS OGGAIN, aged 79 years. He was one of the oldest citizens of the county, and had been sorely afflicted for several years with paralysis. He was an honest, true-hearted man, and leaves a large circle of relatives and friends who mourn his loss.

WHAT would poor locals do for an item, in times of dearth were it not for the weather. Let it be hot or cold, wet or dry, it always comes in to help out. We have had unseasonable weather recently, but some wise heads predict that we will yet experience a cold snap that will make us step lively. If we keep living we will see how it turns out.

OUR friend, Beach, has had a variety of trees planted in front of Col. House, elegant residence. Should they all live in a few years he can select from the number to suit his taste. A good shade is all that is lacking to make this one of the most beautiful places in our city.

THE steamer T. T. Hillman, Joseph Ambrose, master, is advertised in our paper to-day. She leaves here for Nashville, Sundays, 6 p. m., and leaves for Cairo every Wednesday, 10 p. m. F. P. Gracey & Bro. are agents for this excellent boat.

J. P. MORTON & Co., of Louisville, Ky., have kindly furnished us with their Western Farmer's Almanac, for 1876, this being its 49th publication. It is a valuable document to every housekeeper.

MR. H. C. MERRITT has been chosen as President of the Bank of Clarksville, and Mr. A. Howell still retains the position of Cashier. These gentlemen possess fine financial ability, and share the entire confidence of our community.

STEWART COLLEGE.—The next session of the current collegiate year began last Wednesday. The prospect for usefulness and success is encouraging in every respect. Let all who desire to enter, do so at once, so that the school can move on harmoniously.

TINNEY CHURCH.—The Rev. Richard H. Wilmer, the Bishop of Alabama, is on a visit to this parish. Services have been held at the C. P. Church every evening since Wednesday last. To-morrow morning the communion service and right of confirmation will be administered.

HEBSON Lodge of Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, colored, will be organized in this city next week. A public installation of officers and a festival will come off at Franklin Hall next Tuesday night.

TENNESSEE BONDS seem to be considerably stronger in New York, having been quoted on the 18th as high as 40 for old, and closing at 46, or 4 higher than on Tuesday. New closed at 44, an advance of 1c.

MR. U. D. TOMLINSON has taken a position in the dry goods store of Bloch Bro., as salesman. He is an energetic, genial gentleman, and will be quite an acquisition to that already popular house.

D. L. RIVES, of the West Tennessee Journal, has sold his office to R. W. Leigh, who will, in future, be its editor and publisher. We wish him abundant success.

CIRCUIT COURT, Judge Rice presiding, is still in session, and is disposing of an immense amount of business.

THE weather has been quite healthy for several days past.

Where the Money Is.

We don't know where the following comes from, but it gets pretty near the secret of the trouble:

One of the peculiarities of the times is the difficulty of obtaining money, and yet there is more money, somewhere in the country, than at any former period. The distrust that has pervaded all over the country, including all ranks and conditions of men, has caused there is possession of money to hoard it up, and some tall tales have been told by this class of men—in saying they had no money. When the monetary panic struck the country some eighteen months ago, followed by crop failures in the West and short crops in the South, moneyed men's minds were filled with fears and doubts, and capitalists set all their wits to work to collect every dollar of individuals that they could call in. A Boston millionaire, who died a few weeks ago, actually had several millions of dollars stowed away, doing no one any good. Multiplied thousands of men over the country now have countless millions of dollars hoarded up yielding them nothing, while the country is in the want of circulating medium to carry on commercial and agricultural pursuits.

UNIVERSAL ARREST.

A Settlement Proposed by Chief Justice Chase as Early as 1859.

It is said by a gentleman who was present, that after the talent of the Richmond bar, assembled at the residence of Chief Justice Chase in Washington, in 1859, had concluded their arguments in chambers on the majority question, which had arisen in Richmond, and while the stenographer was writing out the opinion of the Chief Justice, by which all parties agreed to abide, Mr. Chase opened a case of native sparkling wine and said "Gentlemen, fill your glasses to the brim, for I am going to utter a sentiment which I am sure you will all drink to most heartily—universal amnesty." Henry A. Wise, who was among the number, asked, "And you do not except Mr. Davis?" Mr. Chase replied "I exempt everybody." To which Mr. Wise replied, "I will drink to that sentiment all night."

C. C. EVERETT has removed his store of Confectioneries, etc., to the stand recently occupied by Post-office. He would be pleased to see his friends and the public generally.

T. P. CRUTCHER and his son Willie, who are representing the interests of Rosebank Nurseries, Nashville, Tenn., is now in our midst soliciting orders for fruit trees, evergreens, shrubbery, etc., to be delivered the latter part of February. Orders left at this office or the livery stable of Caldwell & Shelton will be promptly attended to.
