OLD Mr. Hayes, the man who ran against Tilden for the presidency, has been signing and blabbering over the fact that he is defeated, and delivered himself thusly to a newspaper reporter a few days ago:

"I don't care for myself; the party, yes, and the country too, can stand it; but I do care for the poor colored men in the South."

Gov. Hayes may have shed tears, and he is not hard-hearted enough to say he did not, but it was because he failed to secure sufficient votes to elect him. After the "poor colored men" cast their suffrages for him, there his great solicitude for their welfare ceased. Radical sympathy for the colored man's welfare is all bosh. Their true friends are in the ranks of the Democracy, and they will prove it true. If they, the "poor negroes in the South," had to depend upon Hayes and his ilk for support, they would soon go to bed suppers. Their love for the negro is only for political purposes, then the devil may take them until their votes are needed again. This is true, colored people, and you will live to witness the truth of our assertion.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK SAFE.—The First National Bank, of this city, sent an order to Herring & Co., of New York, some four months ago for one of their best patent "proof safes." It has been completed and was received here Thursday morning last, and is now in the bank vault. Its weight is 6,500 pounds, and cost, when placed in the vault, over $2,000. It has three doors, each secured by the best combination locks and heaviest bolt work and is to have a double chromolite lock. The latter is set so that it is impossible for any one to unlock the safe except during business hours. Until the last hour of business arrives the bank officers themselves cannot unlock it. With the protection of triple doors and its walls made of thirteen alternate layers of iron, high and low steel and Franklinite, a new material which is absolutely drill proof, with all the other safeguards which have yet been invented to thwart the most expert burglars, this safe affords the most complete protection to money which can be had. Mr. T. T. Willis has placed it safely in the vault where it stands to securely keep the millions of dollars, which we hope may be placed in it.

THE LADIES, GOD BLESS THEM.—The inmates of the Clarksville Female Academy take as much interest in the cause of reform as if each one expected to receive an office. Twelve small flags are placed on the front verandahs and a beautiful one of larger size floats from the top of the building. Every young lady there is a Tilden woman, and all are brimful of patriotic devotion to the great cause of reform. When woman comes to the rescue, who can doubt the glorious destiny of our country.

SAD AND FATAL FALL.—Mr. Ed. Stinefield, son of J. W. Stinefield, of this city, whilst at work on the tower of Mrs. Glenn's residence last Thursday morning, fell a distance of forty-five feet, which killed him almost instantly. He was about twenty years of age, and an industrious, worthy young man, but he has been suddenly taken off in the prime of life.

FEDERAL SERVICES.—Federal services were conducted at South Clarksville Church, by Rev. R. K. Brown, on the remains interred in City Cemetery. The relatives of this worthy young man have the sincere sympathy of our community.

HAYES DON'T MIND BEING DEFEATED, so far as he is concerned—so he says. But the dear, colored people, he is in a peck of trouble about them. Do not trouble yourself, rather, about them, and lose sleep you so much need—the day is not far distant when they will out your acquaintance. Indeed, a large number of them think themselves above you already.

DRIVING THE JOLLIFICATION last Monday night quite a crowd congregated on the front porch of the Franklin House, which caused the floor to give way, when several persons were considerably bruised by the fall. Among the number, Mr. James Cotter, of Port Royal, and J. D. Cromwell, of Altonville, Ky., were hurt, but none seriously.

TILDEN and Hendricks are elected, and as there are strong hopes of a brighter future, we would modestly suggest that now is a good time to pay up all arrears due us for subscription to the CHRONICLE. Come up, friends, and let us start out with the grand era of reformation by paying the printer and everybody else.

TOM BOWERS, of the Panola Watchman, Carthage, Texas, says that the vote in that town stood 285 for Tilden none for Hayes, and that only eleven negroes voted, all of whom put in the straight Democratic ticket.

ACCORDING to the New York World's table, Tilden's popular majority is 368,500; his gain over Greeley was 1,139,000; Hayes gained over Grant only 2,000, and that in a single State, Rhode Island.

Mayor Sullivan's new and commodious building, on the corner of Strawberry and First streets, is nearly ready for occupancy by Mr. James Shay, who will keep a first-class saloon.

THE rosters being brought to market now look more full-breasted, carry their tail feathers higher and crow louder than usual. Uncle Samuel, you know.

A REPORT from the Nashville Publishing house shows the sales to be $67,842; liabilities, $260,960; net capital, $315,562; amount due the house, $67,242.

CAPT. GRACY has his residence newly painted by Mr. L. G. Bradbury, who is an expert in handling the brush.

MR. T. D. Toulison the painter, has put a glossy, beautiful face on the front of Mr. M. C. Pitman's residence.

THOSE excellent wood workers, Messrs. McKeynolds & Son, are doing some durable and beautiful work on Judge Tyler's residence.

MOST of our exchanges are of the opinion that what is sauce for the Louisiana goose is sauce for the Oregon gander.

CALIFORNIA intends to be heard amid the din and confusion of the political wrangle.

ORION reserves a vote for Tilden. Oh, my O-r-i-o-n-o-n.

THE JOLLIFICATION Monday Night.

On account of the middle in Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida, the preparations, on the scale at first anticipated, were not made for the demonstration, but about 4 o'clock, p. m., such a crowd of patriotic people began to assemble from all parts of the county and surrounding counties that an impromptu affair was gotten up, which, as the little boy said about the elephant, if they had not known better they would have concluded it was show enough for one night. That excellent brass band from Guthrie was on hand to enliven all with good music; the Glee Club, the canon, fire-works, bon-fires, were soon brought out, and a large procession was formed and marched out to the common in front of P. G. Johnson's residence, a great majority of the houses being brilliantly illuminated, which lighted the crowd to the stand prepared for the speakers. Stirring speeches were made by Gen. W. A. Quarles, Judge Tyler, Sam. Hyman, J. J. West, C. Wenzler and R. N. Rhodes, and Alex. Bagwell, of Indian Mound. The editor of the Tobacco Leaf was expected to expatiate, but he was "too full for utterance." The immense crowd was wild with enthusiasm, at a late hour all dispersed, well pleased with the jollification, and with the firm belief that Tilden would be inaugurated next March, as President of these United States.

THE CATHOLIC FAIR which was held at Franklin Hall on 14th, 15th and 16th inst., was a success in every particular. A large crowd was in attendance the last night. Mr. W. H. Frayer drew a handsome tea set, valued at $14; the little girl of Mr. Silvia Sullivan received a fine ring, valued at $12; Mrs. Rosenfield secured a fine picture of the Cross. There were various things on hand, which created a lively interest to the spectators, but we are unable to speak of them in detail. Our Irish friends always get up an enjoyable affair, and in this instance it appears that all who attended had their full share of enjoyment.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Our indefatigable real estate agent, Sam. Johnson, offers the Charley Bryan farm for rent for 1877, if not sold by the 10th of December next. This farm is well located on the Southside of Cumberland river, and contains 450 acres—200 acres fine river bottom. Good improvements of all kinds and a good orchard. It is one of the best farms, in Montgomery county. See advertisement for particulars, and then call on Mr. Johnson for terms.

Mr. Philip Lieber, of Louisville, Ky., will open his trade palace in this city about the first of December, having fitted up the store room now occupied by Harrison, Son & Co., in Franklin Hall building, for that purpose. Mr. Lieber has several large branch houses in Kentucky, the one at Hopkinsville having been conducted successfully for the past seven years. He will keep a large stock of dry goods, clothing, boots, shoes, etc., and proposes to do an extensive business, putting his goods at the lowest rate possible. See his large and attractive advertisement in to-day's paper.

S. B. Seat, as administrator of C. Kropp, deceased, has a notice in another column.

Pitman & Lewis has a public notice calling the attention of the special to their large and superior winter supplies. When you see an article from them, you may rest assured it is just as represented.

P. O'neal, clerk and commissioner, will sell a valuable farm on the 9th of December. See advertisement.

Mr. H. K. Springer has a new card in reference to repairing sewing machines.

ONE of Mr. J. M. Glascock's sons got his arm badly burnt at the jollification last Monday night. This little fellow has enough patriotism to withstand a burn on account of Uncle Sam's election. Try and keep clear of the rockets next time, my dear boy.

DEFERRED COMMUNICATIONS.—"Over the River," by Hilda, "Oak Grove letter," by Ida, and the report of second annual exhibition for farm and garden products, etc., by Tarsus Grange, all came in too late for this issue, but they shall have a hearing next week.

SECOND BOOK OF CHRONICLES.

Mr. W. J. Tatt is absent, attending the Federal court at Nashville.

Mr. J. L. Blanton, of Nashville, was at the jollification last Monday night.

We are glad to learn from Mr. V. L. Williams, who returned this week, that his father, who has been quite ill, is greatly improved.

Our neighbor of the Leaf learns that over $4,000 worth of Centennial tickets have been sold at this place in the past few months.

Mr. Sam. Hyman, the pocket-book man and his man "Peas," are with us yet. They have fallen in love with our city and people.

Dr. B. N. Herring has returned from his eastern trip, and we are glad to learn that he is greatly improved in health.

Mrs. W. M. Dorris returned home from New York last Saturday, after an absence of about six months. We are glad to report that she is in excellent health.

Dr. J. B. Shearer, president of Southwestern University, is off on a tour to secure additions to the endowment funds of that institution. He will attend the synod at Mobile and Natchez.

Rev. Dr. W. M. Leftwich, an eminent divine, who was transferred from the St. Louis to the Tennessee Conference, has been spending a few days in our city the guest of Dr. Plummer. Dr. Leftwich has charge of Edgefield Church at present, and has been looking around recently for a good location to place his two daughters at school, and has selected the Clarksville Female Academy. He placed his daughters under charge of Dr. Plummer, and left here on the 15th inst. The morality, healthfulness and excellent schools of our city are attracting pupils and families from abroad.

ON Wednesday last we were favored with an invitation to a dinner given by Mr. W. Briarhurst at the National Hotel to celebrate the anniversary of his taking charge of the establishment.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Christian county, Ky., Nov. 14, 1876, by Rev. E. VANHORN, Mr. J. F. JAMES, of Montgomery county, and Miss SARAH GARRATT, of Christian county, Ky.

Attendants—M. B. Coleman and Miss Aurelia Garratt; L. D. Johnson and Miss Mollie Crabtree.

The evening of the 4th will long remain fresh and green in the minds of the assembly who witnessed and enjoyed the marriage of this happy couple. Oh, if there is a place on earth so charmingly lovely, that angels may with pleasure visit, and the virtuous admire, it must be the hymeneal altar, where the union of two souls have blended their hearts in holy, mutual affection. May the Great God bless their path with plentiful abundance, and give them long and happy life. To the genial PLUMMER we would say:

"Take her, a sweet and lovely flower, And let her never regret the hour, That placed her fond lips on thy blissful tongue."

W. BRER, P. E.

A FIRE occurred at Hickman, Ky., on the 16th inst., involving a loss of $30,000.

GOOD TEMPLARS.

Montgomery County Convention convened according to appointment, Oct. 11th, 1876, with Blue Spring Lodge, 14 members being present. J. W. Settle presiding, H. Whitfield, Secretary. The following committees were appointed, Hervey Whitfield, C. D. Settle and Robt. Clark, on State of the Order, Robt. Clark, R. F. Ferguson and J. W. Settle, on Resolutions. The convention then adjourned for dinner.

Afternoon session. The committee on the state of the Order made the following report: "Your committee on state of the Order beg leave to report as follows: We find the cause of Temperance in our county prospering as well as we could expect in view of great amount of opposition. We find that there are six Lodges in this county with an average membership of about fifty, giving us about three hundred members in the county and a flattering prospect of a large increase at an early day.

The committee on resolutions made the following report: "WHEREAS, After thorough investigations we find there are many lukewarm members in the county, who are more given to fun and frolic than to the cause of Temperance, therefore, Resolved, That we regard our county convention as the means of upbuilding our cause and enlivening the members, and we do urge every Good Templar to assist in its support.

Resolved, That we recommend for the benefit of the lodges that some member be appointed to write an essay or deliver an address on some subject at each meeting.

Resolved, That we earnestly solicit the aid of all Christians, especially ministers of the gospel, in our Temperance work.

Resolved, That we believe a local option law would be beneficial, and we do request and urge our Representatives elect to do all in his power to obtain its passage.

After some remarks for the good of the order the convention adjourned to meet at Palmyra the second Saturday in January, 1877.

H. WHITFIELD, Sec'y pro tem.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Nov. 16.—The Democrats have plenty of proof to show that there was a scheme to bring the election to throw out Democratic parishes and give the State to Hayes. The city is very quiet, and the only trace of violence made are from the lips of the Northern men, who are astonished at the fortitude and forbearance of the Southern people.

"I am willing to risk my reputation as a public man," wrote Edward Hine to the Liverpool Mercury. "If the worst case of small-pox cannot be cured in three days, simply by the use in cream of tartar. One ounce of cream of tartar dissolved in a pint of water, drank at intervals, when cold, is a certain never-failing remedy. It has cured thousands, never leaves a mark, never causes any inconvenience, and avoids tedious lingering."

It is to be hoped that fair play and honesty will prevail, and that Tilden and Hendricks may be permitted to assume their official duties peacefully. But it is vain folly to attempt to disguise the fact that the entire country is intensely apprehensive of grave complications.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

Tobacco Board of Trade.

There will be a meeting of the Board at the Exchange Rooms next Wednesday at 11 o'clock, to elect a Treasurer to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the lamented Christian Kropp. A full attendance is desired.

M. H. CLARK, Sec'y.

Particular Notice.

We are sometimes absent in the country for several days. Everybody is cautioned against believing such reports as were circulated last week, that we had left. We expect to remain in Clarksville to repair and keep in perfect order all kinds of Sewing Machines, for twelve months, &c. Others have been mistaken for me, please be particular in knowing if you employ the undersigned or somebody else to do your work.

H. K. SPRINGER, Repairer of every variety of Sewing Machines. nov18-1t.
