We had a call from Pat. Duffey this week. He is as fond of a joke as ever...

The week of prayer commenced yesterday. Let everybody observe it.

Mrs. Mary Bell Murrell, formerly Miss Mizell, of Little Rock, Ark., is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. A. C. Bruce, architect, of Knoxville, is in our city with plans for the new court house.

The accomplished Mrs. Kate McCauley has accepted a situation in the ornamental departments of the Female Academy.

Dr. Sinclair, of the Eye, Ear and Throat Infirmary, of Nashville, is in the city and will remain during next week.

Rev. Dr. Cottrell, of Russellville, Ky., will preach at the Methodist church to-morrow (Sunday) morning and evening.

Dr. H. E. Beach will leave to-day for Niagara Falls to attend the assembly of the American Dental Association. We hope he will have a pleasant trip.

Prof. T. H. Smith, of Madisonville, Ky., gave us a call this week. He is an intelligent gentleman and a thorough Murphyrte.

Mrs. J. B. West, of Murfreesboro, is visiting the family of S. A. Caldwell, Esq., of this city. She always meets with a hearty welcome from her Clarksville friends.

We had a call this week from Mr. H. P. McDonald, architect, of Louisville. He brings the very best letters of recommendation, and we commend him to our Court House Commissioners as an honorable and thorough-going business man.

The following are the name of a party that left our city last Tuesday for Mammoth Cave:

Messrs Richard Anderson, Lewis Anderson, John Dorch, Charles Norwood, Wesley Drane, Wm. Yarnell, John Kropp, James Wilkins, Robert McReynolds, Robert Moore.

Misses Sallie Anderson, Carrie Anderson, Susie Anderson, Lena Hume, Mary Jordan, Mollie Hume, Olive Drane, Maggie Williams, Lizzie Williams, Bettie Daniel, Sallie Perkins, Lela Newel, Maud Marable, Fannie Irwin, Sallie Irwin, Lizzie Merriweather, Rosa Lou Moore, Ivie Duke.

Mrs. S. B. Seat, William Drane, Cook.

Wynemoral.

We have this week to record the loss of another belle from Clarksville. Miss Mattie Beaumont, daughter of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Dr. C. W. Beaumont, was on Tuesday last married to Mr. John W. Anderson, of Williamson county, near Franklin.

The marriage was conducted more after the manner we had been familiar with in our youth than according to present usages. It took place early in the morning, and afterwards the relatives and family friends of the family accompanied the bride party to Dr. Beaumont's residence, where they offered their congratulations to the bride and bridegroom and partook of a sumptuous breakfast provided by the Doctor's well known hospitality.

When we say that invitations were confined to the intimate friends and relatives of the family, it need not be understood that the party was a small one. The Beaumont family has the most extensive connections of any in this city; indeed, we know of hardly a person of any consideration who was raised in Clarksville and is not in some way connected with the Beaumonts.

As for their friends, their name is delightful by the cordial welcome of the host and hostess, and the social freedom qualified, but not constrained by the courtly breeding on the part of the guests.

There was plenty of time for all this, as though the arrangements were for the bride and bridegroom to leave by the 8:30 morning train, that train was four hours late, and the young lady lingered among her life-long companions and friends to the last moment.

Now, boys, we must have a deep and deadly revenge; you will have to make a raid on Franklin, and to one of you bring home the prettiest girl in that town a captured bride. Then the honor of Clarksville is redeemed.

Assessment, Value of Property, Etc., of Montgomery County, 1878.

Table with columns for No., Value, and other property assessment details.

The tax levy for 1878 is: State 1 mill; county 2 mills; school 2 1/2 mills; railroad 3 mills; total 8 1/2 mills.

There is a loss of $163,610, but the gain in polls and the additional one half mill for school purposes give a total tax of $1,276,66 more than last year.

The most of the fall off is in real estate, but a loss in personalty, 3,869 polls is a good showing.

In the above I have included under the head of value of real estate both the value of acres of lands and that of the town lots, which gives to the value of real estate per acre, the city of Clarksville proper, i. e. within the corporate limits, contains 791 lots with an aggregate value of $1,180,470, and New Providence to gether with the country villages of State Line No. 1, Jordan Springs No. 4, Port Royal No. 5, St. Bethlehem No. 6, Oakwood No. 8, Palmyra and Corbendale No. 19, will increase this value and give a total of about $1,220,000, the value of town lots in the county. This gives a remaining value of $1,826,940, which shows an average value per acre of a little less than $7.

Districts No. 1, 2, 3, 4, all bordering on the State line, are portions of the great tobacco belt of which is known as the Clarksville Tobacco District, which includes a small portion of Robertson, northern portion of this county and the end of Stewart, the southern and Trigg counties of Kentucky. This is the most valuable body of land for general crops in this or any State.

No. 5 is somewhat rough, but productive in corn, Passenger Creek and Red River are superb farming lands. No. 6 belongs to the tobacco belt. I would not be invidious, but I candidly assert that the lands of Dr. Dawson, Messrs Dunlap, Mimms and others adjoining are superior to any farming lands in the much puffed paries of the west. No. 7 is broken, but east and north hill sides are very productive when first cleared up.

No. 8 and 9 are varied and fertile as to tobacco, and regular as to tobacco. No. 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 lie between the rivers, Red and Cumberland. No. 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19—the south side noted for the hospitality of its people, and its furnaces abounding in the richest hill sides of iron ore.

Truly, old Montgomery is the happy hunting ground of a true and virtuous people—the home of wit, beauty and wealth.

J. A. HOLMES.

Jackson & Ford.

We have many times had occasion to call attention to the good qualities of Rit Jackson as a plasterer, and the people generally seem to be of the same opinion, as we understand that nearly all the new buildings now going up in the city will be finished by him in concert with his new partner, Mr. Ford, from Louisville. Clarksville need not go outside of her own limits for mechanics in any department, and plasterers are not to be found any where better qualified than the firm whose name we have given above.

A Growing Abuse.

Elections are growing very expensive in Clarksville, and they cannot do that without growing also very corrupt. Indeed, it is not easy, if possible, for a candidate for any office to steer clear of these practices and get elected. They do not have to approach the electors, but the electors approach them, and tell them plainly that A, B and C are spending their money like gentlemen, and D, E and F cannot hope to be elected if they are stingy about it.

We think we may congratulate the music-loving people of Clarksville upon another important step in advance towards the culture of that noble art. The musical department at the Academy has been placed in the hands of a thoroughly accomplished master of the art, Prof. Meisinger and his wife, who is also a well qualified musician. We hail with delight every effort to elevate the musical taste of the community, and such efforts have been numerous of late.

This last one, we imagine, will be the most efficient which has yet been made.

Truly yours, ATIMO.

The late Dr. Green, a minister of extensive experience and close observation, was accustomed to say that a Methodist who would not pay his quarters was almost sure to fall out with his preacher, and turn others against him if he could.

An old steward once remarked that he considered no man as trustworthy who would not meet this obligation. A merchant, speaking of some of his customers recently whose promises were like pie crust, made mention of the very individual whom the neighboring steward could not prevail upon to pay the church dues.

The recent visit of Mr. Morrison, of the Louisville Conference, was greatly enjoyed by his many friends, and the sermon he preached at Union School-House will long be remembered as one of the clearest and most forcible statements of Divine truth as it relates to the "addition of the graces" that has greeted our hearts for a long while.

The necessity of a clean heart and holy living was shown in a most satisfactory and impressive manner. The sermon laid the foundation of a very profitable meeting which was continued for several days at that place.

I claim the honor of numbering Mr. Ed. Williams among the many friends that I have found in this charge. He has a warm place in his heart, as the following incident will disclose.

He dreamed that the paragon people were out of meat, which so distressed him that he awoke from his dream, and did not rest satisfied until he had killed a mutton and sent the preacher a quarter.

Who will be the next one to dream?

The recent rains have caused great rejoicing among the people. The crops in this section were suffering very much before they came.

Many of us are pained to see the evil effects of brand-dances upon the morals of the country. There seems to be something so fascinating about such places as to make members of the Church violate the solemn vows that are upon them.

When Christian people, so-called, willfully prepare themselves it is truly a bad state of affairs.

ASBURY.

REMEMBER that occasion of the season, the charming open-air entertainment to be given by the ladies of the Methodist Church, on Friday evening, August 9th, at the residence of Mr. Maerae, on Madison street.

There is a spicy programme of charades, etc., closing with a novel auction—all by moonlight on the extension lawn. Seats will be provided. Hacks will run every few minutes to and from the corner near the Baptist Church, at a nickle a trip each way. Admission 50 cents. Tickets for sale at Owen & Moon's.

Yellow Fever.

Much alarm is manifested along the Mississippi on account of the early appearance of yellow fever in New Orleans. Quarantine is established at Memphis and Cairo and at other points.

We are probably beyond this point, but none the less should careful hygiene be adopted, as we have had a summer peculiarly adapted to the generation of malaria. Copious moisture and great heat combined are certain agents in producing this effect.

The Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias of the world will meet in annual session in Indianapolis, Indiana, August 27th. The programme is very extensive, and no doubt will be one of the grandest entertainments ever held in the United States.

Our townsman Mr. B. H. Owen is a representative of Cumberland Lodge at this place, and will attend the meeting.

For the table of the number of acres of land, value of real and personal property and amount of taxes for Montgomery county for the year 1878, we are indebted to our young friend John A. Holmes, who has just completed the tax book for this year. It is a valuable table and will do for future reference.

The Antioch Entertainment.

EDITORS CHRONICLE: Your regular correspondent from No. 17 has failed to keep you posted in the actual occurrences of that most excellent neighborhood. He should have mentioned the entertainment given by the highly cultivated and talented young ladies and young gentlemen of the Antioch vicinity on the evening of July 23d.

The Clarksville orchestra arrived at 9 o'clock, and opened the entertainment with an overture, much to the satisfaction of the large and appreciative audience. Following the overture were some excellent charades, dialogues, and the finest tableaux I ever beheld. One of the prettiest presented during the evening was "Black Eyes and Blue," by Misses Laura Lyle and Jennie Keesee. Mr. Wesley Organ played his part in "King of the Winds" with becoming dignity.

"Morning and Night" was beautifully represented by Misses Ida Usery and Mattie Lyle, Miss Mattie, at the hopeful old maid and old grandmother, was very dramatic. Misses Lucy Usery, Sallie Thompson and Laura Lyle played their parts charmingly. The most exciting tableau of the evening was "Pocahontas saving the life of Captain Smith," by Miss Mattie Lyle, Wesley Organ and Charlie Keesee.

The proceeds of the evening amounted to $50, and pretty soon Antioch Church will have a good cistern, which will be a great advantage and a "life-saving institution" as the spring is some distance from the church.

The young ladies tender their many thanks to the young gentlemen of the orchestra for their excellent music and service rendered during the evening.

Truly yours, ATIMO.

On Thursday evening of last week the corner stone of the new St. John's Baptist Church (colored), on Main street, was laid. There was quite a large crowd present, and short and appropriate speeches were made by Judge Rice, Dr. Lupton, Judge Tarver and Prof. Dinwiddie. Rev. J. H. Bell, the pastor, deserves great credit for his faithful work in procuring means to build a suitable house for his congregation to worship in, and we trust our people will aid him in the good work.

I desire to inform my friends and former patrons and the public in general, that I have again embarked in the Drug business, having bought the stock of and secured the store-herebefore occupied by Messrs. McCauley & Co. I am now prepared to furnish everything in the drug line, and shall give my personal attention to the compounding of prescriptions. I have also secured the services of a thoroughly competent, well known and popular prescription and drug clerk, who will take his place in the store on the 1st of September. The stock of drugs will be immediately replenished, and in a few weeks I shall have in store a full line of Fancy Goods, Toilet Articles, Perfumery, Drugs, Sundries, etc. It will give me great pleasure to welcome my old patrons and to resume my former business relations with them. I also extend a cordial invitation to the entire public to call and investigate for themselves my stock and prices, and, in conclusion, I desire to assure physicians and all others interested that I shall keep only the purest and most select drugs to be had, and that everything sold by me shall be as represented.

Very respectfully, S. B. STEWART, Clarksville, Tenn., August 3, 1878.

Notice. We have this day sold to Mr. S. B. Stewart our entire stock of drugs, books and stationery, etc., and in retiring from the business would return to our friends our most grateful acknowledgments for their patronage and support.

Our business must be closed immediately, and we have placed in the hands of Mr. George M. McCauley our notes and accounts, upon whom all parties indebted to us are asked to call and settle within the next thirty days. All claims not settled by that time will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection.
