We regret to learn of the death of Mr. Robert Berry, of Nashville, Robertson county, which took place on the 8th inst.

Mr. J. E. Moseley took to Nashville the first of this week the following prisoners, to await trial by the supreme court.

Mr. Ed. Partridge, of Erin, visited the Academy last Monday with Mr. Geo. Faxon. He entered his bright little daughter, Stella, as a boarding pupil.

We were glad to meet in our city on Wednesday last our old friend R. A. Fisher, who several years was a merchant in our city, but is now representing the house of Bates, Best & Cooley, importers and jobbers of dry goods, New York. He was accompanied by his many friends here, and as full of good jokes as in days of yore.

FOR cards, circulars and job-work of every description, call at the CHRONICLE office.

KATE PUTNAM, the vivacious Kate, will be at the Opera House to-night, Saturday.

We give the greater part of our space this week to advertisers. We will give them plenty of reading matter after Christmas.

NEXT Saturday will be Christmas day. Don't forget the little ones; make their hearts happy by giving them suitable presents.

THE secretary of state has received all the returns of the presidential election and the result is as follows: Hancock, 129,569; Garfield, 107,677; Weaver, 5,917.

WE regret to state that Dr. Meriwether, father-in-law of Col. John H. Wallace, is dangerously ill. He was reported to be dying Friday morning.

CAPT. REESE F. COLE, recently clerk of the county court of Wilson county, died at Lebanon on the 14th inst. He was one of the most popular men in that county.

GAUCHAT has now got in those gold watches we spoke of last week. We have examined the lot, and, as far as we can judge, they are as fine as have ever been brought to this market.

CHARLES LEHMAN has a fine display of tables in his window at the European, and he knows how to have them cooked up in the very latest styles and to suit the tastes of all who call on him.

If our patrons wish us a merry Christmas, they must assist us a little—that is, pay what you owe us, so that we can have something to buy "Christmas things" with. Just now we are in need of the where-withal.

OUR carrier, John Bailey, who has so faithfully delivered the CHRONICLE to our city subscribers during the year, will wait on them next Saturday morning with his annual Christmas address. It is well written and will be neatly printed. Give John a suitable reward for his faithfulness.

Katie Putnam. This young lady captivated the affections of young Clarksville when he and she were very young, and he remains faithful to his first love now that time has matured her powers as an artist without impairing the freshness of her attractions as a woman. Miss Putnam will make a single appearance here to-night at Elder's Hall in a play arranged expressly for her from Joaquin Miller's story, "Two Babe's of the Wood." We take it for granted that the house will be full.
