SEVERAL of our exchanges are calling Capt. Emil Lindberg, the agent of the Bureau of foreign immigration, Lindberg. They doubtless think the name will attract the Dutch immigrants.

THE express and ticket office at Dickson Station, on the Northwestern railroad, was burglarized last Monday. The thieves procured tickets and two or three express packages containing money.

CLARKSVILLE is not the only city in the country that is having trouble with her water-works. Nashville and Memphis both are crying out on account of the inadequacy of their water supply, as well as several northern cities.

It is stated that the Louisville & Nashville railroad company will put in effect the three cent mile rate on November first. We also understand that they will only charge two cents per mile for persons visiting the Atlanta exposition.

LET every man who owes road tax and wants good roads, meet the collectors and pay or debt once settled never troubles one again.

THE work of grading the grounds for the erection of the passenger depot at Bradley's brick yard, was begun last Tuesday, and we soon expect to see the new depot completed. Mr. Rosenplanter is the architect for the new building, which is a guarantee that it will be well done.

It is authoritatively denied that Mr. C. C. Baldwin will retire from the presidency of the Louisville & Nashville railroad and that Col. E. D. Standford is not even a stockholder in the company.

PERSONALS.

Miss Lucy Vance, of Memphis, is visiting her cousin, the Misses Smith, at "River-side," this city.

Mr. Louis T. Edwards gave us a pleasant call this week. He says the crop prospects around Lafayette are gloomy.

A young man expects to start a clothing establishment on Main street, has matrimonial designs on Clarksville.—Memphis Appeal.

Mr. Charles Hiler, a young gentleman of Carrollton, Ill., is in the city, on a short visit to his sister, Mrs. Jas. R. King.

We regret to hear that Mr. George Alwell is confined at home sick, with a slight attack of fever.

Judge H. H. Linton, Mr. Pat Henry and wife, and Miss Minnie Thomas, form a party who will leave the city for Mecklenburg, on Monday, to spend several weeks.

Miss Mary Williams, after a pleasant visit of several weeks to relatives in Lebanon and Nashville, has returned to our city and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. McCulloch.

Mr. Hardy Anderson, a prominent and highly esteemed young business man of Nashville, paid our city a flying visit last Monday. We regret he could not "tarry yet a little while."

Miss Ella Love, one of the cleverest ladies and one of the best school teachers in this county, left for Paducah on Friday morning, to open her school next Monday morning.

Mr. Morris Hall, of this city, so we learn, from Mr. J. G. Joseph, with whom he was traveling out West, has settled in Helena, Montana, and intends to engage in the practice of the law in that city.

Mr. W. H. Allen has returned from his trip to Mississippi, and is back again at his old post at Truman's, smiling and happy.

"File" a wholesale grocery as "quick" as the next best man "You hear us now," Miss Maggie Williams of Henderson, Ky., paid her sister Mrs. McCulloch, a visit this week, but left for home Thursday morning.

Miss Maggie is one of the handsomest ladies in Kentucky.

Mrs. Hattie W. Lawrence and daughter, have arrived in the city, from Memphis. Mrs. Lawrence is now at the residence of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Linton, preparatory to taking her position in that institution as one of its teachers.

Mr. Alex Martin, after a visit of several months here to relatives, leaves to-morrow (Sunday) for his Uncle's plantation in Arkansas. Alex's annual visits here are always pleasant to his friends.

Miss Annie Herring has returned to the city after a two months' visit to her father, at his farm on the north side of the city, on this side of Nashville. Her friends have missed her in her absence, and are glad to see her.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Shearer and wife have returned home, after several months sojourn in Virginia, visiting their old home and friends. The Rev. Dr. Shearer is now minister of the Virginia olden age church with him and he looks in the very best of health.

Mr. J. D. Joseph is back home again from his extended trip to the West. He says he enjoyed the trip very much and speaks very enthusiastically of the climate and business prospects of the people of Colorado, Montana and Wyoming Territory.

Mr. Alex James, press agent of Shelby, Pullman & Hamilton's Mastodon Shows, was in the city last Thursday. He gave us a very interesting account of the show, and the non de plume of "The Old Man" which is suggestive of the popularity and success of his show, and his cleverness and politeness have won for him.

Mr. Ed. H. Lewis, representing an agricultural book of Nashville Tenn., was in the city last week on business connected with his house. Mr. Lewis is known to the newspaper fraternity as "Banister" the fluent and apt occasional correspondent to the Nashville American.

Messes Wm. B. Conner, of Coulter, Bro. & Stratton, R. S. Broadbent, of Rice, Broadbent & Co., and Mr. Simon Bloch, of Bloch, Bros., The Eastern agents for the sale of all winter stocks of dry goods, are in the city, and will commence to arrive in a week or two.

Mr. Mike Savage, a young gentleman, of Clarksville, is in the city, on a visit to his father, Mr. J. M. Savage, of Clarksville. Mr. Savage attended the Vanderbilt law school last session. He is a painstaking and careful student of the law, and is endowed with those qualities which will success in any sphere of life, energy and sound judgment. We extend him our best wishes.

The Hon. Jas. A. McKelvie passed through the city last Wednesday, en route to Eureka Springs, where he goes in hopes to find medicinal waters will benefit his wife. We are pleased to learn that there is some little improvement in his wife's health, but he is in a serious danger of losing them altogether. The waters of Eureka Springs are said to possess medicinal properties greatly benefited to afflicted cases.

Messes Sam Bush and John Pendleton, two popular young men, of Frankfort, Ky., have been spending several weeks with Mr. Wm. H. Crook at his splendid farm in district No. 3, this county. They are members of the McCree Guards, of Frankfort, and while in the city they observed that they visited the C. C. G. A. Camp Crusian, and expressed their commiseration with the soldiers who are so bravely fighting with the United States Army.

Mr. John L. Cross, a substantial farmer, of Todd county, Ky., near Trenton, was in the city the past week. He says the crop in his section have suffered a great deal from want of rain, but that about half a crop can be raised, and that about half a crop can be raised, and that about half a crop can be raised, and that about half a crop can be raised.

Mr. Ben E. Blackman, who for several years past, has been a clever, popular and efficient salesman in the wholesale grocery trade of Clarksville, is sincerely regretted to say, leaves for Walnut Bend, Ark., this afternoon with Mr. Morris Barker of that place. Ben has accepted a situation in a large cotton storage, and plantation supply store at that point, and though his friends here hate to see him go, they are glad to see him go, and they are glad to see him go, and they are glad to see him go.

We extend our thanks to Mr. James Munroe, the clever and experienced gardener and floriculturist at Evergreen Lodge, for a basket of exquisite flowers. In these dry parched times when everything is dead or dying from the extended drought, lovely fresh flowers are indeed a thing of beauty, and much to be appreciated. While every one else's garden is dying up, Evergreen Lodge, under the careful attention of Mr. Munroe, looks fresh and inviting and the flowers are still blooming as in spring.

It is proposed to make the contemplated musical festival at Nashville next spring, a grand Peace Jubilee. This is a good idea.

GEN. LESLIE COMBS, the celebrated Kentuckian of the "old school" of politics, died at his home in Lexington, on Sunday last.

BRANDANCE AND BARBECUE AT CAVE.

Don't forget the brandance and barbecue in the cave next Tuesday. It will be the affair of the season.

The committee of arrangements have made extensive preparations and spared no expense to make it a pleasant and enjoyable affair. A good string band will be on hand to discourse sweet music, fifty carriages have been provided for the occasion, and all other arrangements necessary to its success properly attended to. Proper precautions have been taken to exclude all objectionable characters, and those attending can rest assured that nothing will occur to mar the pleasure of the day. It is expected that ex-Gov. Coleman of St. Louis, will be present and address the crowd.

CAPT. TRAVERS DARTER.

Having resigned his position as superintendent of the Water-works company, the company have appointed Capt. Thos. H. Smith to take charge of the works and see that they are properly run and that the water privileges are collected, etc., and all other duties pertaining to the superintendency. Read his card in regard to the proper use of the water-privileges, published elsewhere in this issue. And here it may be well to say that the Water-works company are doing all in their power to have the water in the stand-pipe kept up to the necessary standard in order to afford adequate fire protection.

THE PRESIDENT'S CONDITION.

Another week has passed and there is no very material change in the President's condition, unless it is for the worse. The latest report is for the worse. The latest report is for the worse. The latest report is for the worse.

THE CIRCUS COMING.

The heart of the Clarksville small boy leaps with joy, and his plump cheeks look a little like some children to take to see the animals. The cause of the extraordinary philanthropy of the church member, and the beatitude of "young America" is found in the fact that Shelby, Pullman & Hamilton's Great Circus and mammoth menagerie will show here September the 5th. This show has received the highest praise of the people wherever exhibited, and everybody must come to town on September the 5th, to see the clown, laugh and grow fat. A circus is an infallible panacea for the blues and hard times.

THE NEW ROAD LAW.

The following point in the new road law will be of interest to the Spring-Field Record, and would call the special attention of our own road commissioners to the great importance of its being carried out: A road commissioner has called our attention to a point in the new road law, which he says, is not to be overlooked by the road commissioners, and yet it is one of much importance and great convenience. It does not seem to have been overlooked by the road commissioners, and yet it is one of much importance and great convenience.

THE HERALD-ENTRIPPE OF LAST WEDNESDAY.

The hotel at Buena Vista Springs, Ky., was the scene of a fire on Wednesday last. The fire broke out at about 10 o'clock, and the flames were so rapid that the building was soon in flames. The fire was caused by a gas stove, and the cause of the fire was a gas stove.
